President's Report

Kevin Hooper

The Dutch had another great showing in Grand Rapids at the ARBA Convention! This year, both the Open and Youth Best of Breed ended up winning their Group as well! That means both were in the Top 4 of the whole show!!

Congratulations go out to the Russ Family of Pennsylvania for their open win with a Black Jr Doe, and to Adam and Megan McGinnis of Ohio for their youth win with a Blue Jr Doe! Not only did our winners do well, but the show went well overall with a nice showroom and good facilities, and two good Dutch meetings!

Before I get into this lengthy report, I want to touch on what it takes to win one of the Big shows. You see those who win most often are the breeders who have been raising Dutch for quite a few years. Now, while this is usually the case, it can be done by the new breeder as well. How is this done? Do you go out and buy the best and show it in youth so you win? No! You buy what you think will be a good start, breed the ones you think will match up well and see what you have learned.

This was exactly what Adam and Megan McGinnis did to win Best, Best Opp, and Best of Group at this years ARBA Convention show! They got their start from the Kline's only a couple of years ago showing in 4-H. Working with their dad, Ron, they picked up a couple here and there, and bought a blue buck from the Gerhart's which had won the NDS in '04. I was at their place in August picking up one of my black bucks they were using on loan, when I got to see some of the little one's they had. The little blue doe was only about six weeks old at the time, but looked quite nice! I liked a baby black doe they had even more, except for the freckle! They also had a couple of good grays! So, how do you win - get good stock and see if you have the eye for matching them up - and have a bit of luck on your side!

My report this month will highlight the actions taken at both the Board and General Membership meetings.

The Dutch website is now up, running, and up to date! Julie Hume has done a nice job with the site and has been adding more features including show reports! This is something Julie did this on her own and she retyped all of the reports! We will be adding our online store as soon as we come up with a pay account other than Pay Pal which has become cost prohibitive. The online store will showcase all of our Dutch merchandise offered by the Publicity department. Julie will begin adding some articles from past Dutch Reporters in the next few months, with many more to be added next summer.

I have recently appointed Dan Monahan and Todd Uran as our new Publicity Chairs. We sold much of our old inventory at the Convention, and they will be adding many new items prior to next years National Dutch Show. Keep your eye on the website for those items as soon as they are available.

We did change how we will be handling the finances/payments for both the web ads, and the orders received by mail for Publicity items. Now, payments for either of these will be sent to the ADRC Secretary, who will process the payment, then forward the order/ad on to the appropriate chair. This will make the processing of any payments to the club timelier, and enable the Secretary to handle all of the accounting.

Norma Hart is now up to date on the show reports. The Sweepstakes standings in this issue will be up to date as well. It is your responsibility to verify if the shows you have attended which are printed in the DR are correct, and if they have not been published in the DR. If a show you have attended does not show up in the DR in the normal time frame, drop Norma an email to see if it has been received. She will let you know, and if she has not received it, you will need to contact that show secretary. Also, watch the points listed for each show you have attended. If they are not correct, first check your show report for accuracy prior to contacting Norma. She can only go by what the report says, and many times, those reports have errors.

We will now be handling the sanction processing a bit different as well. A couple of years ago, the Board thought it would be best if someone other than the ADRC Secretary handle the processing of sanctions. This would spread the workload out and make the job(s) easier. Jill Pfaff has been handling the sanctions for the last couple of years. We were able to see a demonstration of the process used to enter the sanction information on the computer program that we use for not only sanction processing, but show reports processing, and membership as well. Upon seeing how this functioned, it was decided by all that the person handling the show report processing should also handle the processing of sanctions as the two seemed to go hand in hand. Norma Hart will now be processing the sanctions and all sanction requests should go to Norma. We do thank Jill for all she has put into the sanction processing the last couple of years. We know she put much time and effort into the job, and for that we say THANKS!

We also removed the Sanction Late Fee which had been imposed last year. This was done with the intent of getting those who request late not to do so. However, this is one of those things with unintended consequences. What happens if a breeder finds out an upcoming show is not sanctioned, and wishes to do so. They now have to pay the late fee, which penalizes them. Our mission as a club is to promote the breeding and exhibition of Dutch rabbits. Penalizing those who want to sanction a show at the last minute does the opposite. Therefore, the Board voted to eliminate the late fee. Sanction requests will now be accepted as long as they are postmarked the day prior to the show.

This DR may look a bit different than the last issue. We used a new printer for the last issue and the print quality was much improved! Now, we have the option of going to a four color cover for only a small price increase with this printer! That means the ads inside the front and back cover can be color as well!! We are also looking at having the center four pages be color following the NDS and ARBA Convention shows! We once had one of the best publications in the ARBA, and we are working to have one of the best again! If we are to do this, it will be up to you! We can ad color and this and that, but it will only be the best again if you, our members, contribute articles for publication! You have methods that work for you, so share those and let's make the DR the best it can be!

We approved a new membership contest which will kick off January 1st. This contest will recognize those who sign up the most new members during the calendar year. The winner of the contest will get ADRC bucks worth $20 towards either your membership or use in the publicity department. Look for contest details elsewhere in this issue.

Also, during our Board meeting, we discussed how to handle Hall of Fame nominations. This has been done by petition, which was forwarded to the committee; petition which was sent to the Director to obtain a bio on the nominee, which was then sent to the committee; and nominations from the membership during the annual balloting, with the top five nominees names being given to the Directors to obtain bio information, which would then go to the committee..... We are looking to revamp this into something workable. We will have something to present at the NDS next year.

We have had one youth member as a Representative to the Board the last few years. It was decided that it may be a better if we had a Youth Rep. from each District. Youth members, if you are interested, please send either the ADRC Secretary or myself an email. We will be having an adult member act as a liaison to work with the youth. Responsibilities include reporting on Dutch activities in your area and contributing something to each issue of the DR.

We had a lengthy discussion on how we should select the Best of Breed, Best Opposite, and Best of Variety at our NDS and ARBA shows. We have tried many methods, but we have not had a Board decision as to how it should work. We decided that the following should be done, with an amendment from the General membership meeting on how Best of Variety will be selected.

Best of Variety will be done by discussion between those judges who judged the classes in the variety. The Senior buck judge of that Variety will have final tie breaking authority. Then a ballot will be used for selecting Best Dutch. Each judge shall be required to select their top three (or ballot will be rejected). 1st place shall receive 7points, 2nd - 3 points, and 3rd - 1 point. The ballots shall be given to the show Secretary who will record the votes. Then the opposite sex of the winner will be voted upon to determine the Best Opp. Once the balloting is complete, the votes shall be posted on a board for all to see.

This was done this year - other than having the varieties picked by all judges. It did not take very long, and seemed to work quite well.

We had a discussion during the General membership meeting regarding the purchase of carriers to use for hauling Dutch to and from the judging tables at the NDS and ARBA shows. The thought here is that currently we have to use whatever carriers the exhibitors are willing to let you use. This means using a little form here and there, and exposing all of our carries to everyone's rabbits. Then after the show, you have to find your carriers!

It was voted for the ADRC to purchase 30 - six hole collapsible carriers. They will be of a design to fold into the tray for storage. Each will have a wire bottom, with 6 - 12" x 6" compartments.

I have volunteered to store them. We have discussed the possibility of renting a small trailer for the Publicity department to haul their merchandise, which could be used for the carriers as well.

The total cost of the purchase will be approximately $1900. The funds will come out of the ADRC Contingency fund.

Lastly, if you have ever wondered what the various raffles at our NDS and ARBA Convention shows fund, here is the answer. There is a one item raffle at each show for the Scholarship fund, while the main raffle at the NDS goes to the host club to help offset show expenses. The main raffle at the Convention is put on by the Publicity department. Any rabbit raffle at the NDS is sponsored by the host club.

Have a great Holiday Season!

Kevin

Secretary - Treasurer's Report

Barb Kline

I would first like to congratulate the big winner's of this year's ARBA Convention, Ron & Renee Russ BOB open and Best in Group along with Kevin Hooper BOS open and Adam and Megan McGinnis BOB & BOS youth and Best in Group! It was great to see so many new faces at this year's convention along with the old ones. Right now we have 928 members with 339 of those being part of a family membership, 108 being part of a Husband/Wife membership, 261 being single memberships, 155 being youth memberships and 64 lifetime memberships. The membership seems to be staying at around the 925 mark with about as many new members joining as old members not renewing. If you see someone's name on the expired membership list, please remind them that they are expired and encourage them to renew.

Don't forget a few changes will take into effect January 1st. The membership contest starts so don't forget to encourage new members to join and make sure your name is down on the membership application on the referred by line. Also don't forget the additional new member fee of $5 also starts January 1st. This additional fee helps cover the additional postage and cost of the ADRC Guidebook that is sent with each new membership. Also we have 2 new directors taking over January 1st, Dan Schwandt for District 2 and Rick Lehman for District 3. Todd Uran and Dan Monahan have volunteered to be the co-chairs of Publicity. If you have any suggestions on items you would like to see sold, please contact them at urantodd@aim.com or 937-642-1388. I am sure Todd and Dan will do a great job!

The 2008 National Dutch Show will be here before we know it. Make sure you have your room booked even if you are unsure if you are going to go. Dick Gehr and the rest of the Illinois Dutch Rabbit breeders will be putting on a great show so you won't want to miss it! In closing, I hope you all have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! I hope Santa fills all your nest boxes with winners!

Director's Report

District One
Rick Billups

News from Rick,

The ARBA Convention is now history and congratulations are in order to all the winners. Open Best of Breed was won by Ron and Renee Russ with a Black Jr. Doe while Kevin Hooper had BOS with a Black Sr. Buck. The Youth Show was won by Adam and Megan McGinnis with a Blue Jr. Doe and they also won BOS with a Gray Jr. Buck. The Dutch was Group winner in both the Open and Youth Show this year!

I want to take this time to thank everyone for reelecting me to serve as District Director again. It's always been an honor and a privilege to serve this organization and I look forward to serving you again. The ADRC Board meeting was very productive and I think you will agree with some of the decisions that were discussed at the general membership meeting. Please make sure you read the minutes from the general membership meeting in this issue of the Dutch Reporter. One recommendation we made to the general membership was the acquisition of folding carrying cases to be used at Nationals and Convention. We have requested bids from several cage manufactures for 180 holes, we hope to have these available at the 2008 NDS.

The 2008 NDS is being held in Illinois this spring and I hope everyone has made their motel reservations by now. I understand the Headquarters is booked so additional motels are listed in this issue. Keep you does working this winter so we can have a big show in Bloomington! We also need to remember the NDS and Convention require a team effort from all members to be a success. Please make sure you step up and help in one way or another, don't rely on the same people everytime.

I hope you enjoy the upcoming Christmas Season and remain safe during your holiday travels.

Another convention has come and gone! I thought things went pretty well in our little corner of the world. Oh, there were a few paper work glitches; but, the ramrods, secretaries and runners kept things moving along quite well. The quality of the animals near the top of the classes was very good and at the end of the day we were left with 24 competitive animals.

My first class was black senior does. I could not avoid thinking back to my first convention judging assignment. That day of judging in 1995 began for me just like 2007 with black senior does. The senior judge that day was Larry Bengtson, a judge I admired and respected. Before the judging began, Larry had taken time to take me aside and give me the benefit of his years of experience. My efforts were brought to a very satisfactory conclusion when Larry insisted that we make that black senior doe that I had judged in class, Best of Breed! As recent history bears out, the black senior doe class often produces a very fine rabbit. This one was no exception as verified by the fact that Scott decided to make her Best Black Senior over the black buck that would eventually be BOS.

Of the other classes that I judged, I would rate the blue Jr. doe and the Tort senior doe as being excellent. The two junior buck classes, chocolate and gray, were also quite good. The blue jr. doe was best blue. I must admit that I was somewhat surprised that the other three that I mentioned failed to advance within their variety.

There were just a couple of areas that I would point out as areas we need to improve, the first is condition. OK, I know that this convention came early in the year and colder weather in the Northern climes gives them an advantage; but, this is one thing we all have to figure out if we expect to do well at the big events. The one variety that I thought needed the most improvement was Steel. It seemed to me that although most of the steel bucks had big, bold heads, we have lost a little on body type. Additionally, the even distribution of steel tipped guard hair, the essence of what makes the beautiful steel color, was missing in most of the steels shown this year. We have, for what ever reason, the possibility with our breed to produce the best black steel color of any breed in the standard. With this in mind, we are going to have to cull out those animals with that black streak down the middle if we are to get back to where we were just a few years ago.

Congratulations to Ron and Kevin for their wins in open. The fact that both the open and youth BOB winners went on to win their respective groups proves that what Scott said in the membership meeting is true. Dutch is the premier show rabbit.

Director's Report

Billy Bounds

With this writing, the ARBA Convention in Grand Rapids, MI is history. Congratulations to all the Open and Youth Dutch winners! It was quite a large show and everything ran very smooth. Winners should be listed elsewhere in this issue.

I was surprised to see as many Dutch in good fur, as everyone was talking about the warm weather up to the convention. Tuesday, prior to the show, we had a 94 degree day on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Needless to say, none of my rabbits were in prime fur and I had to substitute five rabbits due to fur breaking.

One item of business that was discussed and decided upon at the Board meeting in Grand Rapids was that instead of having just one youth representative to the board, one representative from each of the three districts will be appointed. Any youth interested in representing your district should submit your name to a director or officer for consideration.

Anyone looking for a good show to attend the first weekend of February each year (Feb. 2-3, 2008), should consider the Pennsylvania State R.B.A.'s annual convention show. It is held at the Lebanon Fairgrounds - which is located just minutes off the Pennsylvania Turnpike (Interstate 76). Saturday normally has a double show and Dutch specialty show. Sunday is also a double show - giving everyone 5 shows in two days. Shows include both Open and Youth. Last year Fancy breeds were in one building, Commercial in another and Youth in another building. All buildings are connected. Both Open and Youth had over 100 Dutch in each show. Also, the shows are day of show entry.

Until next time,

Billy

As I write this message, the Fall holidays are right around the corner. This is a time of year that all rabbit things slow down a little around our area, and it gives us all a chance to "catch up" a little. Be it pounding the keyboards writing a few articles for future publications, or entering pedigrees into our computers (or handwriting them), to working out in the rabbitry preparing for the upcoming winter and cold months. Regardless of what the task at hand is, it is nice to have the weekends to do them, rather than going to a show each Saturday or Sunday.

The Michigan convention is over, and once again the Dutch made a terrific showing. Congrats to all of the winners, and particularly those Best of Group animals at the end of the show. I did not get to see the picking of BIS, as I was too busy flapping my jaws elsewhere, but I hear the Dutch were superb. It seems we are amongst the "Best of the Best" at conventions end for the past few years, and I am sure with the dedicated breeders we have, along with the continual progress of the breed (which I contribute a lot to the level of competition we see from coast to coast), we will continue to haunt the top spot.

We are looking forward to sponsoring the 2008 NDS in Bloomington, IL this upcoming April, and you will find more on that show listed elsewhere in this issue. If you have any questions regarding the 2008 NDS, please feel free to drop me an email at rwgehr@cbcast.com. I will respond to your query at the very first opportunity. It is not advisable to try to call us, as our phone line is tied up 18 - 18 hours a day normally doing web stuff for various clubs.

If you have not been to the ABA Office, this would be a prime time to do so. The Office is just about a 10 - 15 minute drive from the NDS facility, and visitors are always welcome. The Office is only open on weekdays, so perhaps if you arrive earlier in the day on Friday you could drop by there before coming to the show facility. Looking around the ABA Library and Archives would be a delight for anyone. There is a very famous "hat" on display there, and I am sure any Dutch breeder that has been around for any length of time would recognize it.

That's about all I have for this issue. With the slow down of shows, the news is rather slim.

Hope you all enjoy a very Happy Holiday Season, and have the best of times with Family and Friends.

Director's Report

District Three
Bob Bergene

Congratulations go out to Ron and Renee Russ for winning BOB in the open at Grand Rapids and also to Adam and Megan McGinnis for winning BOB in youth.

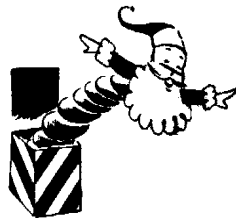

The shows in the Midwest are slowing down as the Holiday season approaches. I will be going to my last show of the year the first of December at the Missouri State Convention in Sedalia, MO. Things will remain quiet regarding showing in this area till about February and then the shows around here will start up again.

Before you know it, it will be time to start heading for Bloomington, Illinois and the NDS. I am glad I called in when I did for hotel reservations, as the desk person at the headquarters hotel told me that I just took the last room blocked for the Dutch club. However since then another motel has been added which is near by. So, don't forget, -- better make that reservation now for this April's show.

This will be my last report, as director for a while, as I am not running on the next term. However, I want to reiterate what I wrote in the last issue of the DR regarding sweepstakes points and the website. I and other members in my district feel it is very important to have the website updated on a monthly basis. And this monthly update should include sweepstakes points relevant and meaningful (not six months old). Many members check this out to see how they are doing in the standings and what varieties they may want to show more of to improve their standings. I am sure we will get the wrinkles worked out here, as we have had many changes in recent times.

Food for thought, A champion is a dreamer that refused to give up!

Best regards.

Minutes of ADRC Board Meeting October 14, 2007

The meeting was called to order at 11:00 AM by President Kevin Hooper. Members in attendance were: President Hooper, Vice President Sue Hill, Secretary-Treasurer Barb Kline, District 1 Directors Billy Bounds, Ray Brewer and Rick Billups, District 2 Director Dick Gehr and District 3 Directors Bob Bergene and Pete Nelsen.

Barb Kline gave the treasurer's report of a balance of $9,297.08 in the general fund and $9,094.87 in the contingency fund for a total of $18,391.95. Ray Brewer moved to accept the Treasurer's report as presented and Pete Nelsen seconded. Motion passed.

Rick Billups moved to approve the minutes from the board meeting held at the National Dutch Show that were printed in the Dutch Reporter and Ray Brewer seconded. Motion passed.

Committee Reports

Website: Julie Hume reported that the new website is up and running with updates being done continually. Julie questioned the board as to whether the Dutch Reporter should be available on the website. The board discussed this and Bob Bergene made a motion that the Dutch Reporter not be available on the website but that select informational articles be reprinted from past Dutch Reporters (none from the current year) and made available on the website. Ray Brewer asked that the articles be categorized. Motion carried with one voting no. Sue Hill will make available the past issues of the Dutch Reporter available for Julie. Julie asked about setting up the on line store for Publicity and at this point it is on hold until a new Publicity chairperson is appointed. Barb Kline will get Julie pictures of the newly elected Directors and any new Chairpeople for the website. Julie asked about information regarding the 2008 National Dutch Show and Dick Gehr will get the information to Julie. Barb was asked to research a different payment service for the on line store, membership fees and sanction fees other than Paypal due to Paypal's high fees. The board also discussed listing local shows on the website and it was decided to provide a link to the ARBA website. Kevin presented to the board the new method of paying for an ad on the website. The member will fill out the on line form and submit it to Julie Hume and send their payment to Barb Kline. Barb will contact Julie as soon as she receives the payment and then Julie will activate the ad. The board discussed how often the sweepstakes will be updated on the website. At this point the sweepstakes will be updated quarterly. Motion was made by Billy Bounds to table the discussion until the next board meeting. Rick Billups seconded. Motion was carried.

Sweepstakes: Norma Hart is caught up with sweepstakes barring some show report and sanction information questions. Kevin Hooper asked that the members' state be listed in the sweepstakes standings. The board decided to list the top 30 in overall and top 15 in variety, BOB/BOS and rabbit of the year contests in the Dutch Reporter throughout the year and the entire list on the website. The first issue of the year of the Dutch

Reporter will list the entire list of all contests for the prior year's final sweepstakes.

Scholarship: Barb Kline reported the balance in the Scholarship Fund is $2,077.45 and a video Ipod is being raffled off at this year's ARBA Convention.

Publicity: Sue Hill has the entire inventory and Angie Aisbet is to get the financial information to Barb. A new publicity chairperson is in the makings with the only concern being transporting the items. The possibility of renting a small trailer for the National Dutch Show and ARBA Convention at the rate of approximately $14.95 per day as discussed. Ray Brewer made a motion to have the ADRC Secretary be responsible for the Publicity finances. All website and mail orders would go to the Publicity chairperson and payment to Barb. Publicity supplies will either be billed to the club secretary or paid for with the club's debit card. Bob Bergene seconded. Motion carried. Rick Billups discussed that a schedule needs to be set up for working the booth so that the Publicity chairperson is not tied to the booth for the entire Convention. Barb Kline asked the board how many booths should be rented for the 2008 ARBA Convention. Bob Bergene made a motion to rent 3 booths at the 2008 ARBA Convention. Sue Hill seconded. Motion carried. The board discussed having a committee to decorate the booth. It will be brought up at the general membership meeting.

Sanctions: The board discussed the commission rate of the sanction chairperson. The rate was to be restructured when the job was removed from the secretary and a sanction chairperson was set up. The original calculation of 25% of sanction fees that was paid to the secretary was to make up the secretary's total commission. Currently the secretary is receiving no commission on the sanction fee and the sanction chairperson is receiving the entire 25%. Dick Gehr gave the board a presentation of what is involved in entering the sanction information in the current software. A motion was made to replace Jill Pfaff with Norma Hart as sanction chairperson since Norma is processing the sweepstakes and the sanction information is a critical part of the sweepstakes work. The 25% commission rate is to split 15% to the sanction chairperson and 10% to the secretary. Seconded by Billy Bounds. Motion carried with one abstaining from voting.

Dutch Reporter: The board discussed the different prices for sending 40, 44 and 48 page Dutch Reporters. The board asked the secretary to research the status of the ADRC being a non-profit organization. If the club had this status the postage rates would drop considerable. Dick was asked to see if he could reformat the show report pages to make them more condensed and possible larger print. President Hooper asked how much more it would cost the club to go to a 4 color front and back cover. Dick said it would cost an approximate $40-$50 more per issue. This would also be 4 color on the inside front and back making the ads on these pages colored. Dick will also look into what the price would be to have the center 4 pages be color and have the NDS and Convention issue have these special pages.

Election Report: Results were as follows: District 1 was won by Rick Billups over Mike Adams, District 2 was Dan Schwandt uncontested and District 3 was Rick Lehman uncontested.

Membership Contest: The board discussed the membership contest which will officially start January 1, 2008. It will be based on a calendar year. Instead of awarding a free membership to the ADRC, the board decided to award a $20 gift certificate to the ADRC that can be used towards a membership or purchase of a publicity item.

Hall of Fame: President Hooper reviewed the several different ways how the Hall of Fame nomination had been done in the past. The board decided to table the discussion of the procedure how to nominate a potential Hall of Fame member and also locate the current documented guidelines.

Seller's Class: The board decided to change the prize for being the first place rabbit from a free one year membership and trophy to a $20 ADRC gift certificate and a trophy. Also the highest selling rabbit prize to be changed from a free one year membership to a $20 ADRC gift certificate. If the first place rabbit happens to also be the highest selling rabbit only one $20 ADRC gift certificate will be issued.

Youth Representative: The board decided instead of having one youth representative to the board. A motion was made by Dick Gehr to have a youth representative from each district. Rick Billups seconded. Motion was passed. Youth representatives will be solicited for at the general membership meeting and in the Dutch Reporter. An adult advisor will be appointed.

Old Business

Constitution & By-Laws: The board decided to go forward with changes to the constitution and by-laws with more discussion to take place at the next board meeting.

New Business

Sanction Late Fee: The sanction late fee was discussed. Dick Gehr made a motion to discontinue the late fee. Rick Billups seconded. Motion was carried. As long as the sanction request is postmarked prior to the show the sanction will be processed.

2008 NDS: Dick Gehr announced that more information regarding the 2008 NDS will be in the next issue of the Dutch Reporter.

2009 NDS: Bob Bergene announced that they are still in the planning stages but everything is going as planned.

2008 Committee Assignments: President Hooper announced the committee appointments for 2008 as follows:

Hall of Fame - Rick Lehman (Chair), Eric Mixdorf, Fred Mullinax, Stan Goeglein, Fran Schettler, Wayne MacKinnon and Tom Dietrich

Election - Sherry Patton (Chair), Steve Patton and Gwen Himel

Audit - Jim Rydell (Chair), Ron Clausen and Rita Stelzer

Standards - Jill Pfaff (Chair), Erik Bengtson, Rick Billups, Eric Mixdorf, Stan Goeglein and Billy Bounds

ARBA Judge Selection - Scott Williamson (Chair), Dennis Kline, Billy Bounds, Bob Bergene and Warren Wiltman

Pete Nelsen made a motion to approve. Bob Bergene seconded. Motion passed.

ADRC Guidebook: Since there are still so many of the last issue on hand any changes to the current Guidebook will be made by placing a page in the DR that can be removed to be added to the current Guidebook.

BOB & BOS selection: The board discussed changing to a voting method on determining BOB and BOS at the NDS and ARBA Convention. First the judges will vote for their BOB selection. First place is 7 points, second place is 3 points and third place is 1 point. If a judge fails to vote for all 3 places their vote will be thrown out. The secretary will tabulate the ballots and then tell the judges which sex they will need to look at to vote for BOS. Those votes will then be tabulated. The results will be posted on a board for all members to see which judge voted for which animals. The BOV and BOSV will be discussed amongst the judges that judged the classes in that variety with the Senior buck judge breaking any ties. If one of the best senior or best junior is not resolved in the BOB and BOS selection, the senior judge will determine the one that is not obvious.

Carriers: The board discussed purchasing collapsible carriers to be used at the NDS and ARBA Convention. Bids will be gotten from various suppliers. One estimate has been received for $60 to carrier. The carriers would be 6 holes. Approximately 30 carriers will be needed. Since we are not going to print a Guidebook for several years, the money will come from this fund to pay for the carriers. Kevin volunteered to store the carriers. This will be brought up at the membership meeting to let them make the motion.

Secretary's mileage: The board discussed the reimbursement rate for the secretary's mileage to and from the NDS and the ARBA Convention. Currently the secretary is paid $.20 per mile. A motion was made by Dick Gehr to pay the secretary in addition to the $.20 per mile the difference between current IRS rate and the $.20 per mile. Rick Billups seconded. Motion carried.

Raffle: The ADRC Publicity holds a raffle and the ADRC Scholarship holds a raffle at the ARBA Convention. The NDS host club holds a raffle and rabbit raffle and the ADRC Scholarship holds a raffle at the NDS.

A motion was made by Bob Bergene to adjourn the meeting and Pete Nelsen seconded. Motion was carried.

Minutes of ADRC General
Membership Meeting
October 16, 2007

The meeting was called to order at 10:00 am by President Kevin Hooper. Members in attendance were: President Hooper, Vice President Sue Hill, Secretary-Treasurer Barb Kline, District 1 Directors Billy Bounds, Ray Brewer and Rick Billups and District 3 Director Bob Bergene.

Barb Kline gave the treasurer's report of a balance of $9,297.08 in the general fund and $9,094.87 in the contingency fund for a total of $18,391.95. Janet Bowers moved to accept the Treasurer's report as presented and Carlene Bell seconded. Motion passed.

Darrel Gates moved to approve the minutes from the board meeting held at the National Dutch Show that were printed in the Dutch Reporter and Denny Kline seconded. Motion passed.

Committee Reports

Website: Barb Kline read the report for Julie Hume. The website is being continually updated. New information coming is electronic membership and sanction payments, informational article from archived Dutch Reporters, and a link to the ARBA show listing.

Sweepstakes: Norma Hart is caught up with sweepstakes barring some show report and sanction information questions. The Dutch Reporter to print the top 30 in overall and top 15 in all other contests with the exception of the final standings where all placings will be posted in all contests. The website will post all placings in all contests throughout the year.

Scholarship: Barb Kline reported the balance in the Scholarship Fund is $2,077.45 and a video Ipod is being raffled off at this year's ARBA Convention.

Publicity: A publicity chairperson is still needed. A booth decoration committee is to be formed. Melody Stremkowski volunteered to be chairperson of this committee.

Dutch Reporter: The deadline line for the next issue of the Dutch Reporter is November 1st.

Election Report: Results were as follows: District 1 was won by Rick Billups over Mike Adams, District 2 was Dan Schwandt uncontested and District 3 was Rick Lehman uncontested.

Membership Contest: This contest will start January 1st, 2008. Instead of awarding a free membership to the ADRC, the board decided to award a $20 gift certificate to the ADRC that can be used towards a membership or purchase of a publicity item.

Youth Representative: Youth representatives were asked to represent each District. They would report in each Dutch Reporter the happenings in their district.

Old Business

Constitution & By-Laws: The process to change the constitution and by-laws will start in the upcoming year.

New Business

Sanction Late Fee: The late fee will be discontinued immediately for show sanctions. As long as the sanction is postmarked before the show date the sanction request will be processed.

2008 NDS: More information regarding the 2008 NDS will be in the next issue of the Dutch Reporter.

2009 NDS: Bob Bergene announced that they are still in the planning stages but everything is going as planned.

ADRC Guidebook: Since there are still so many of the last issue on hand any changes to the current Guidebook will be made by placing a page in the DR that can be removed to be added to the current Guidebook.

BOB & BOS selection: The board announced changing to a voting method on determining BOB and BOS at the NDS and ARBA Convention. First the judges will vote for their BOB selection. If one of the best senior or best junior is not resolved in the BOB and BOS selection, the senior judge will determine the one that is not obvious.

Carriers: The board recommended purchasing collapsible carriers to be used at the NDS and ARBA Convention. Bids will be gotten from various suppliers. One estimate has been received for $60 to carrier. The carriers would be 6 holes. Approximately 30 carriers will be needed. Since we are not going to print a Guidebook for several years, the money will come from this fund to pay for the carriers. Kevin volunteered to store the carriers. Schott Williamson made a motion to purchase the carriers and Theresa Kortbein seconded. Motion carried.

Raffle: The ADRC Publicity holds a raffle and the ADRC Scholarship holds a raffle at the ARBA Convention. The NDS host club holds a raffle and rabbit raffle and the ADRC Scholarship holds a raffle at the NDS.

Open to the floor: Rick Lehman voiced his concern with a particular mother grooming her child's rabbits while the child was no where in sight. The same mother was observed hanging on the show table while judging was going on. Scott Williamson made a motion that the ADRC instills a rule on parent involvement with youth and a letter be sent to ARBA voicing the ADRC's concerns. Dan Schwandt seconded the motion. The motion carried. Scott Williamson amended the motion to include disciplinary action to the rule.

Sharon Mixdorf asked if the Rabbit of the Year contest could be reworked. A committee is to be formed to rework this contest with Todd Uran as chairperson.

Scott Williamson asked the members to promote the registration of animals and grand champion certificates. He would like to see these publicized in the Dutch Reporter similar to how they are in the Domestic Rabbit.

A motion was made by Dan Schwandt to adjourn the meeting and Troy Ihrke seconded. Motion was carried.

If you have a question you wish to pose for either the "Ask the Judge" or "Ask the Breeder" columns, just e-mail or mail your question to me. These columns are an avenue where you can ask questions and advise from the professionals in our organization. For the judge's column, you may ask questions such as judging criteria, presentation on the show table, what it takes to become a judge, and proper etiquette as a few examples. For the breeder's column, questions can range from feeding, conditioning, breeding techniques, rabbit care, how to improve your herd, anything that people who have been breeding Dutch rabbits for many years might have suggestions on. If you would like to participate on the panels, just drop me an e-mail and I will add your name to our groups. The questions will be e-mailed and each participant has the option to answer or not. This is the chance to get a lot of viewpoints from across the country!

ASK THE JUDGE

Cheeks are worth 12 points, could you explain how you break down the point schedule that you use? For instance, if the rabbit has one good cheek and one bad cheek, do you give 6 points for the good cheek and maybe 2 points for the bad one, or deduct a certain amount from total score? Do you evenly fault high cheeks and low cheeks, or is one fault more penalized than the other? How much do you fault drags into the mouth? If the cheeks are even, but high or low, do you penalize that less?

From Keith McNinch:

I assess the total package and ultimately look for balance. Cheeks that are equally marked, but misplaced, will favor more points. I would evenly fault high and low cheeks, while drags into the mouth would indicate very low cheeks, and would cause additional point reductions. From my experience, high cheeks are commonly associated with other markings that are also too long, such as the saddle and stops. At least with low cheeks, some of the other body markings will generally be more correctly placed.

From Kevin Hooper:

As for the question of how many points you deduct for certain faults, many judges will answer no points! We believe the standard is written with points assigned to tell us how important certain breed traits are as compared to others.

With that in mind, if all other aspects of a Dutch are equal, and we are comparing two rabbit's cheek markings, then I usually go with balance, or the one which has the two that look alike, and preferably come the closest to the standard. I will go with slightly low cheeks that are even over one good cheek and one bad cheek.

As for how much you might fault a Dutch with a drag into the mouth or jawline, it would depend on two things: the severity of the drag or size, and how the cheeks look otherwise. As small drag running into the jaw on otherwise good cheeks, will be faulted a little, while a small drag on otherwise ugly cheeks will be faulted a lot.

ASK THE BREEDER

Recently I have bred a few litters, with different lines and colors. However, I see that the animals from the litters are very small, about 3.5 pounds each when they mature. They were bred by parents that were both normal sized rabbits.

What are some possible causes to my problem, and how can I fix this?

From Fran Schettler:

In reading the question, it seems as though you have eliminated most genetic issues as a possible cause, unless both of your normal size parents are out of small sized breeding lines and this pair are abnormal themselves for the line. Other than that, I can only speculate that your problem stems from some environmental cause or perhaps you have a line of does that do not naturally produce sufficient milk. This last could be genetic or environmental.

Environmental causes might include:

1. stale (more than a few months old), contaminated (rodents? mold?) or poor quality feed, or a feed that is not formulated for the needs of a breeding doe and her kits. Is it even formulated for rabbits? This could also explain a lower level of milk production in the doe, which would cause depressed growth patterns.

2. Are you are asking the doe to raise too many kits at a time?

3. Perhaps you are not free feeding the doe and her babies, or they are scratching the feed out and it is falling to the ground or the pan and they are not getting sufficient food on a regular basis.

4. You might have water that is either contaminated or tainted with some chemical etc. that affects normal growth. Is the water supply always readily available and clean and pure?

5. Perhaps your rabbitry is too hot or too cold.

6. You may have dirty cages that do not promote normal growth or maybe there is insufficient lighting or air flow in your rabbitry.

7. Are you does healthy, with no infections?

8. Is there a pattern in the breeding lines that produces a lot of runts or unusually small kits at birth? Genetic abnormalities? This too may be genetic, or a function of environmental issues.

I hope this helps.

From Jill Pfaff:

This problem does not sound genetic because unrelated animals were affected so it sounds like an environmental problem. The first thing I would investigate would be the feed. More history would also be helpful, has there been bouts of diarrhea or not eating? Are there feed supplements used? or hay? There can be other environmental stresses like air quality and water and noise.

From Bob Bergene:

This is an involved question, with many possible answers. First of all the breeder is getting "small 3.5# rabbits" when they mature, but they are out of normal sized parents. I would like to know what the normal sized parents weigh to determine if we have a GENETIC PROBLEM. Our standard indicates they can be 3.5 to 5.5 lbs. Well if they are 3.5 to 4 lb. mature rabbits and they are from a genetic line that produces similar size rabbits, then one could expect litters of animals that when they mature would be 3.5 lbs.

If this is not the case, and the parents are 4.5 to 5 lbs., it may a PARASITE PROBLEM. Coccidiosis is prevalent in rabbits and through sanitation and medication, one can keep it to a low level, so as not to adversely affect the health of the rabbit. However if left unchecked, coccidiosis can get out of control and the rabbit will become unthrifty. A normal 5 lb. rabbit suffering from coccidiosis infestation can easily become an unthrifty, bony, rough looking 3.5 lb. rabbit. Treatment is easy for this, and you should have a periodic treatment in the drinking water. Several medications are on the market and you should ask your rabbit equipment distributor in your area what he would recommend.

A FEEDING PROBLEM could arise if the breeder is feeding too little feed to the rabbits. If the same amount of feed, 1/2 cup, is fed to the nursing doe and litter then they are not getting the proper amount of nutrition that they need. Instead, the feed should be increased from 1/2 cup prior to kindling, to one cup after kindling to increase milk production, and then when the kits jump out of the nest box and start eating, feed should be increased again to about two cups (depending on the size of the litter). However, too much feed may be being fed. I have seen situations where the breeder feeds, full feed. Here the feed crock is always full, and the young rabbits will tend to urinate and defecate in the feed crock. This contaminated feed will cause them to go off of feed and cause them to be stunted in growth. There are many good brands of rabbit pellets on the market; they simply have to be fed with consistency using good management and sanitation practices.

I hope this person finds the solution to the rabbit's problem, and becomes a great breeder of Dutch, instead of losing the breeder.

From Kevin Hooper:

Although the parents may be of a normal size, most likely both of the unrelated lines have small Dutch in their backgrounds. Now, since most Dutch breeders cull out the one with undesirable markings at weaning or before/after, it is possible that the ones which are the better marked are coming out small, while some of the mismarks may be of a normal size.

So, as a solution, you have a couple of options. Keep some of the better mismarks to see how big they become, and if they do obtain ideal size, then you know to keep working with these animals. Or bring in some stock that does not have small Dutch in their history.

RABBIT TALES

This column spotlights special stories, that could be called human/rabbit interest articles. I am looking for stories about special rabbits or special people. Rabbits that we will always remember, not the ones that won at every show or took a dozen BOB; but the rabbits that have touched the heart. Or perhaps a person who has gone the extra mile to help someone else. A special thanks to Tom Dietrich for being the first brave person to submit a story for this column. I entreat you, the membership, to share your special stories with us, about your rabbits or mentors in your life. Please e-mail or mail to:

Touching Lives

In the wonderful world of Dutch rabbits, certain experiences stand out vividly in your memory; be it that big win at a national show or those times that not too many people know about. This article will probably be unlike any you have read on rabbits.

During my 31+ years at working as a recreational therapist in the state of Michigan mental health system, numerous behind the scenes stories happened. Rabbits would play a part in some of these.

Towards the end on my career, I was a case manager/treatment coordinator as well as a recreation therapist. Work duties were split 50/50. I would keep numerous rabbits, usually does and young at the facility I worked at. The living units I was responsible for were for geriatric based people.

I will give my recollections of an episode of how the rabbits impacted those they came in touch with. Names will be changed and first names only will be used.

At work I received a call that a new female admittee would be arriving by ambulance in an hour and that she would be in four point restraints. My presence was requested and I would be her case manager as well as recreation therapist. I quickly read the faxed history report about June. It stated she was a 78 year old, 4' 10", 90 pound Jewish lady. My first impression was one of disbelief, that they would use this level of restraint on a lady of the age and stature. The ambulance arrived and out jumped two burly males and one female attendant. After questions, they explained that it was the ambulance company policy that anyone transported to a psychiatric hospital was to be in four point restraints (we did have the policy changed to include common sense).

So after releasing June, she sat up and brushed herself off and thanked them for the ride, but noted it was too long. She wished them well as they left. June, who looked to be about 50, entered her new living unit, verbally abusing the doctor and male social worker who accompanied her. I introduced myself and she let me know that a case manager was also a low person on her totem pole. Definitely, I would need an ice breaker to get to know June. I let an hour or two pass, and then got a couple of 10 day old baby rabbits and placed them in my pockets. I went to June's living area and put them on a towel on a table. I could see a smile on June's face and she asked me where I got these little rabbits. Well, a friendship was formed.

June never really wanted to discuss her treatment, but would let me go over it if she could have a couple of little rabbits to look at. She would always remind me "you know, Tommy, I'm not listening to anything you are saying about my plan". I would respond with "whatever tickles your fancy" and she would say "these rabbits sure tickle my fancy".

June settled in and as her remaining kin (nephews and families) noted, it was the happiest and best behaved they had ever seen her. But our facility was a short term stay; when someone stabilized, they moved on. With much encouragement and a promise of a weekly phone call from me, she accepted an appropriate home closer to her family. About a year after June left, I took a week's vacation to attend a National Rabbit show. Upon returning to work, I received a phone call from the facility director. She wanted me to know that they had tried to solve a request while I was gone, but was unable to. The supervisor of the psychiatric/psychologist unit at June's new facility, whom I had not met, had called with a request from June. She wanted Tommy, the head psychologist to attend her 80th birthday party. No "Toms" worked in this department, so they could not solve the mystery. June did not accept this statement. The next call went to the facility director. June's staff maintained that June was adamant that Tommy come to her party. Upon further questions by the director for more information on the mysterious Tommy, June said he is the guy who runs everything and he carries those little baby rabbits in his pockets. Mystery solved.

I did phone June to tell her I was at a rabbit show and she said that she knew it was something important for me to miss her party. You defiantly do not meet many people like June, but it was a pleasure.

Many other stories happened, but no time to tell them now.

Best of everything,

Tommy D

"A Family's October Surprise" By: Adam and Megan McGinnis

Three years ago, we decided that rabbits would be a good 4H project. Since our dad had raised Dutch rabbits as a kid, we decided that would also be the breed that we would like to have.

We contacted Gary Palm, a man in our area who had raised Dutch for many years. Our first pair, however, was killed by our neighbor's dogs which had invaded our barn. We had to start over again.

After Adam won BOS at our county fair, we decided to do more breeding. We looked on-line for quality Dutch breeders. Lo and behold- Dennis, Barb, and Megan Kline only lived 20 miles from us. We called them and they were very willing to help us. We a bought a black doe from them and they offered to breed her to one of their bucks. More importantly, they taught us a lot...and still are.

Our first show (other than 4H) was in the spring of 2006. After that, the whole family was hooked! Since then we have added genetics from the Gerhart, Russ, and Wilchs, as well as from Kevin Hooper and Kelly Cummings. We now have blacks, blues, grays, and steel Dutch in our barn.

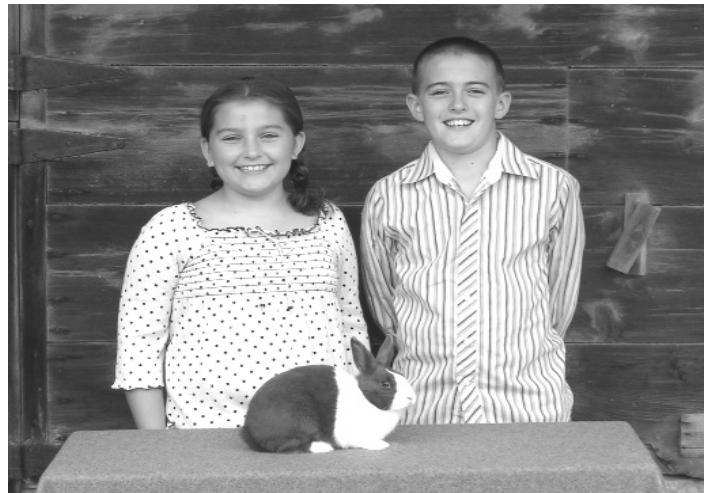

Then comes the big surprise. This past summer, the Klines offered to take a few of our rabbits to the ARBA convention. We knew that we couldn't go because our dad is a farmer and harvest is not a time to mess with him and make other plans. Seven rabbits were loaded up and made the trip up to Michigan.

We had high hopes for our grays. They had been showing well, but the little blue doe (Blossom) was our favorite. Our dad kept telling us that she was the best marked Dutch rabbit that we had ever bred and born in our barn.

On the day of the show in Michigan, Barb Kline called and asked us if we were sitting down. She had BIG news! Our little blue doe had won BOB. We thought that she was joking. She also said that our junior gray buck (Cookie) had won BOS. WOW! We had hoped to place a couple of rabbits in their classes, but never dreamed of this.

If that wasn't enough, a day or so later, Barb called again. She was really excited! She wanted both of us to get onto the phone because Blossom had just won her group (Group 2) and she was on the table for BIS. She told us that if she (Blossom) won, we would be put onto a speaker phone and would be interviewed. Well, Blossom didn't win BIS, but what an October surprise we had.

We would like to express our thanks to all of the Ohio Dutch people who have been so willing to teach and share genetics with us. Because of this, the future of showing Dutch rabbits will continue to stay strong and competitive.

Hi my name is Trevor Marquis. I am 16 years old and I will be your Youth District 2 representative. I have been a member of the ARBA and ADRC for 6 years. I was able to attend the Michigan convention this year and I want to thank all of the Michigan people and volunteers for their hard work. It was a great show overall. There were many winners from our District. Everyone should be proud of their accomplishments. I would like to especially say congrats to Adam and Megan McGinnis for BOB/BOS/Best Group.

I would also like to say something to the youth breeders that I saw at convention this year. I know this has been mentioned many times, but it is something that I think should be said by a youth breeder. We are the owners and breeders of our rabbits, and it should look that way by any exhibitor or breeder when we are attending any show whether it is a local show, state show or convention. We as youth are responsible for taking care of our rabbits. Not that I am saying parents shouldn't help their youth as there are many times youth are busy with school, sports, etc. What isn't right is watching the parents do it all and I mean all of it. There are limits what the parents should be doing. If that is going to be the case, then those bunnies need to be in open class not youth.

Parents are to be proud of their children's accomplishments, but by doing everything for them, that is not the child's accomplishments. The children are not learning how, when, what and the why of the breed. As a youth breeder, it is your responsibility to take care of your rabbits as much as possible. If you need help, don't be shy and ask another youth breeder for help. And older youth breeders, step up to the plate and help the younger breeders they are our future. Sure it is fun to go play at the shows and visit with friends, but it is your responsibility as a youth breeder to have your bunnies ready for the show and be at the table showing your rabbits when it is your turn up on the table.

Thanks again for asking me to be your District 2 youth rep. Please let me know of any wins you may have at the shows or any articles you would like to see in the Dutch Reporter.

Final Message as Youth Representative

by Andrew Craig

Hello everyone! Well the time has come to give up my position as youth chair person. Yes that's right I will now be joining the Big dogs in the open show now! It doesn't seem that it is already that time.

To me it was just yesterday when I got my first pair of dutch rabbits from Glen Car. Who new that what started off to be a little 4-H project would turn into what my herd is today. Since then I have been to quite a few Dutch and ARBA national shows and have had the pleasure of meeting so many of you outstanding breeders.

I have learned more in the past eight or nine year than I would have ever expected to. I love the dutch breed and I love the friends that I have made through the Dutch club. I never thought that I would have friends in Ohio or Wisconsin or Pennsylvania for crying out loud!

But I owe all of you so much for teaching me everything I have learned about the Dutch. I have had a blast showing in the youth, and it has been my privilege to serve as the national youth representative.

I hope everyone has made plans to come to the 2008 National Dutch show right here in my own backyard (Bloomington IL). We look forward to putting on a show that all of you will be able to write home about! We feel like we have selected a very strong group of judges as well as a great facility! I am looking forward to competing for the first time at a national in an open show. Hopefully you guys won't embarrass me to bad!

Good luck to everyone at the coming up shows.

~Andrew Craig~

Dutch are happening in Lebanon County Pa.

At the Lebanon Area Fair, the Lebanon County Rabbit Club always hosts an ARBA sanctioned show. This year some records were set. Over 440 rabbits were judged in the open show and more interesting (at least to me) was that there were 125 Dutch shown. That means over 25% of the entire show entry were Dutch rabbits. This is great news for the Dutch Breeders in Lebanon County. It is also great for some of the old timers because years ago (in the 1960's and 1970's) Dutch were also one of the most popular breeds.

Current interest in the Dutch rabbit is in large part due to the efforts of breeders like Aaron Martin. He and others in the county (like the Graybeals, Lapes and Moores) have helped new members get started and stay interested in the breed.

The other notable thing that happened at this year's fair was that out of the 440 rabbit entry, a Dutch was

The Dutch breeders of Lebanon County, Pa, invite you all to come and visit. Show with us sometime, we promise to show you all some wonderful Pennsylvania Dutch Country hospitality.

Chesapeake Regional Dutch Club Fall Show

The CRDBA held its annual fall show November 10th, in conjunction with the Lebanon County RBA. This meant that Dutch would be judged twice during the day, once for the regular show and once for our club specialty show. We were excited to start off as Lebanon County promised that we would have Bruce Ormsby as one of our judges for the day. Dutch have become quite popular in this area, and the CRDBA has been growing in membership as well.

When the entries were finally totaled and the paperwork was prepared, we arrived at the judging tables with 92 in the Open Division of the CRDBA show and 165 in the Youth Division of the CRDBA show. Total entry for our Fall Show was 257 Dutch. There were that many entered in the Lebanon County show as well. Everyone was excited to see how the day progressed.

Bruce Ormsby and Gary Fellers judged. One judged the Open Division from the CRDBA show and the Youth Division from the Lebanon County show, while the other judge did just the opposite. Bruce was kind enough to write a few words about the show from a judge's point of view.

Judging Dutch in Pa.

I would like to tell my story from a judge's point of view. This past weekend I had the pleasure of judging the Dutch in Lebanon Pa. When the show was finally over and about 300 animals later I had to stop and think about realizing just how much fun I actually just had. I was a little tired but I could not get over the feeling of fun and pleasure I just had. I love to judge Dutch, this is one of several Breeds that I love to judge. Anyway I started the day out with one hundred and sixty five youth Dutch.

This was not only an amazing number but also was matched by amazing quality. Most of the classes were very deep, when I got down to picking for Best and Best Opposite varieties, I usually had four good animals to pick from. I thought the type on their Dutch was extremely good, not many that had bad type, and many well marked animals. When I got down to picking breed I ended up with two amazing animals. I apologize for not getting the names of the winners for you, but BOB went to a Black Junior Doe and Best Opp. Breed went to a Tortoise Senior Buck.

I then moved on to the open Dutch show, and again I can't say it enough, just how impressed I was with the quality. Very good body type, good condition, usually good fur and good color. With the open numbers hitting somewhere between ninety and one hundred animals. BOB went to a Black Senior Buck, and Best Opp. Breed was a Tortoise Junior Doe. Again I apologize for not getting the names of the winners for you. Most show officials don't realize judging a marked animal, a running breed or lets say English Lops where you have to measure the ears take longer than most other breeds. Hats off to the Lebanon club for their organization and also to the Dutch exhibitors as well as all exhibitors for getting their animals to the tables. I went through alot of good animals in a pretty good time. Dutch take a little time to judge, especially a lot of good ones. I can say I left for home the next morning knowing I done my best and had fun doing it.

LOVE THOSE DUTCH,
Bruce Ormsby

The CRDBA was glad to have members form CT (the Browns) and NY (the Smiths) join us as well as our members form Va., Md., Pa. and NJ. Great fun was had by all the came. The winners that Bruce mentioned above were; in youth BOB - Bethany Brown's awesome Black Junior doe and BOS - Nate Graybeal's Tort Sr. Buck and in Open - Aaron Martin's handsome Black Sr. Buck and BOS - Ricky Wood's breath taking Tort Jr. Doe. The rest of the show report is listed elsewhere in the newsletter.

CRDBA will be holding our annual spring show and meeting in Lebanon Pa., in Feb. This will be in conjunction with the PaSRBA annual convention show. It is the first weekend in Feb and there are separate shows on both Saturday and Sunday. CRDBA will be hosting specialty shows on both Saturday and Sunday as well. Naturally, if you come to the show, plan on joining us for our dinner meeting on Saturday evening. Consider coming and showing with us, we promise to show you some great Chesapeake Region hospitality. Contact John Graybeal at rabbitfarm@yahoo.com for more information about our shows or to join our club.

News from the New Sweepstakes Chair, Norma Hart

Hi Everyone,

First and foremost, I'd like to make certain that since there may be a need to contact me in regard to the ADRC sweepstakes, or sanction area, that my new email address is published for your convenience and ease in contacting me. While you're reading this, and before you do as I often do and forget, be sure to put my new email address of normahart1@cbcast.com in your address book for future reference. If you have had a question or concern and emailed me at my old address, please go back and forward that sent email to me at the new address listed. With as many problems as Dick and I have both had with our AOL service, I wouldn't want to have missed something sent to me.

All in all, I have had only a few members email with concerns regarding their sweepstake points, and I believe that each was able to be resolved immediately and without question. One problem that I see happening quite frequently are those shows that utilize "last years" exhibitor file when entering that exhibitor for a current show. Last year's file may say Johnny Doe while this year, Johnny and Mary Doe are showing together. Since the file is already there, and I'm sure without forethought, this year's entry is then just listed again under only Johnny Doe. When this happens, and the completed report is turned in, any points accumulated go under only Johnny's name.

If you have a question regarding the sweepstakes, it would definitely be a big help if you would include the date of the show, the name of the club or show sponsor, and the show's location. Also be certain to let me know if you are questioning an open or youth show.

As I tried to explain in my last DR sweepstakes article, the sweepstakes is a touchy area anyway, but when you are dealing with as many shows as the ADRC sanctions throughout a year, there is plenty of room for err (by anyone), and mistakes are unfortunately made. I will do everything I can to ensure that each of our members receive the proper credit for all points earned and due.

ADRC sanctions are now being issued here also. Jill has done an excellent job in this area, but in order to hopefully make the sweepstakes and sanctions work together better, having them in the same location for both issuing and recording is thought to be the best route to take. As it was, completed reports were coming in to me here that I would have no record for. Therefore, without knowing if the show was indeed ADRC sanctioned, I was unable to record the points earned by our members until I had this information. I would receive many questions in regard to "if a show was sanctioned"... without issuing the sanctions, I was unable to provide this information. Jill has been forwarding sanctions and completed reports to me that she has received there, so I don't think that it will take too long before the entire train, locomotive and caboose, are all going in the same direction. If you've sent a sanction request on to Jill, don't worry, provided she receives it there, I'll receive it here.

I hope that your Thanksgiving holiday was filled with warmth, love, and many thanks for what we have.

By the time you read this, the Christmas holiday season will be upon us, along with the hope for a better and brighter new year. Please remember to keep our servicemen and women in your thoughts and in your hearts. In order to help keep us and our country safe, their holidays are spent away from family and friends, with only cards and letters to let them know how much they're thought of and appreciated. If you and your family have the capability to help make just one other person's holiday a beautiful one, please reach out.

May each of you enjoy a safe, beautiful, warm, and bountiful holiday season.

Norma

The following pages reflect the sweepstakes standings and show reports entered in the computer program at this time. Due to the tremendous number of reports received and entered since the last DR (737 total open & youth combined), the points earned for each exhibitor simply cannot be printed. We are working on a way to post all reports received (with each exhibitor's points) on the web site, and hopefully will have that available in the very near future.

Please contact me if you feel your point total for those shows listed in the last DR and this one is incorrect. It would be helpful if each exhibitor kept a log of their points earned at each show, in order for us all to work together in making the ADRC sweepstakes contest as accurate as possible.
