SECRETARY'S CHIT-CHAT

by J. Weinhardt

I regret very much that the mailing of this issue of the Dutch Reporter. There are two reasons for this delay -- one is that your secretary was ill for about ten days and just couldn't manage the job and the second reason was to hold it up for publication of the results of the recent nomination's ballot which appears elsewhere. I also have to apologize for the dearth of reading matter on these pages, but I guess everyone else had an attack of the doldrums along with your secretary. Hope we can do better next month.

I was notified that there had been an extension on the deadline for material for the Convention catalog so was able to get all of the late donations received up until last week listed in that catalog. Following is the complete list of donors, just in case:

Roberts' Rabbit Ranch	$10.00	E. P. Shilliday	$10.00
Ohio State DRC	10.00	Weinhardts	10.00
Jack Boughton	5.00	Al Neier, Jr.	5.00
Cooper's Hillcrest Rbtry	5.00	Miller Bros.	5.00
		Bob & Irma Ernst	3.00

This makes a total of $63.00 which is exactly what was offered on Dutch at Sedalia last year. Of course anyone wishing to make a further donation -- it will be accepted and will be listed in the Dutch Reporter and the Convention Show Room.

I hope you will take note of all of the new ads in this issue of the Dutch Reporter Demand for breeding stock is running as high as ever and as one "Old-Timer" put it in a letter renewing his ad: "I have a lot of good junior Dutch I would like to sell before winter comes, and since I have had no ad in the Dutch Reporter I have had very little call for Dutch so you see it pays to advertise." Maybe there are more of you who could use a share of this business.
