ALL DUTCH ISSUE OF SMALL STOCK MAGAZINE NOW BEING FORMED

by Stan Goeglein, Chmn.

As most of you know the Dutch Club is putting out a Special Dutch Issue of Small Stock Magazine in June of this year. This will be the fifth time the Dutch Club has undertaken such a project. It is only with your help and cooperation that we can make the project the success it should be. We have all expectations of making this issue the finest one yet in all respects, and something we can be proud of for years to come. However if this is going to be successful depends entirely on you the membership of this club. We are in need of a great deal of advertising in order to put this issue across as it should be. Advertising is going to be a real asset to the breeders who furnish ads, for this issue will be a collector's item for years to come.

If you can see fit to spend $5.00 for a breeder ad it will help our club to promote the Dutch as it should be promoted.

So please, won't each of you think this over and then help out with an ad, large or small.

Also, there is a definite need for good clear pictures of your favorite Dutch. Articles pertaining to all phases of the Dutch fancy are also needed. Also well worth mentioning at this time is that the Committee working on this issue has decided that the Dutch winning Best of Breed at the National Dutch Show in Amarillo, Texas will be the animal chosen to grace the front cover of this All Dutch Magazine. That in itself is something well worth taking note of. By letting only a TRUE Champion grace our cover, this will be an invitation to the good reading inside. Well, how about it fellow Dutch Breeders, are you going to fill my mailbox with your letters containing advertising, articles and clear photos? A deadline of April 15, 1966 has been set. But please don't wait, if possible do all you can now before you forget. Do it now while it is fresh in your mind.

NATIONAL DUTCH SHOW

by A. L. King, Chmn.

Well, folks you know time is running out for you to get those donations in on that favorite color, and class. You know March 1st. is the deadline. As the catalog will go to press soon thereafter, and I would like to see them all listed in the catalog. We sure need some more specials and ads. I'm sure you all have an ad sheet by now as the last Reporter had one in it, thanks to Mrs. Weinhardt and the local committee who handled it here. I guess you have another by now as there has been one mailed to each member of the ABRC. They have all the information for you for mailing ads, specials and reservations. So please get busy and send them in. You know the more you cooperate the better show we will have.

Following is a list of donations to Jan. 17, 1966:

C. B. Groff-----	$ 10.00	Albers Feeds-----	Feed
Wichita Val. RS-----	22.00	Clinton Dennis-----	$10.00
A. L. King-----	5.00	James L. Davis-----	1.00

This makes a total of $48.00 besides the feed. Now I'd like to have at least a $100.00 to spread out down the line so let's get those donations in and make this the best show ever. We also need ads for the catalog. Now I've had some tell me they thought maybe our show was out of their class -- well, maybe so, but how will they know if they don't come and see? The first time I ever showed a rabbit was at the National Convention, and I placed a Junior Californian doe tenth in a class of something like 100, so you an never tell if they place in your local shows they may be best here in the National Dutch Show. Why not be a good bambl&r and come on -- you'll have fun enough to pay for your trip, besides meeting some of the finest people in the world, those who breed and show Dutch Rabbits.

BREEDING CHOCOLATE DUTCH FOR COLOR

by Clint Dennis

When I first purchased Chocolate Dutch in 1948 the oldtimers carefully explained that in order to maintain a good deep, dark, rich, chocolate color it was necessary to breed black into my chocolates every third generation. This advice was given with the best of intentions and in all good faith. It seemed to be generally believed at that time. My experience has shown that this is not true. To the contrary, repeated efforts have conclusively demonstrated that in the long run, there is no other color that you can mix with your chocolate to get better chocolate color.

The first Chocolate Dutch were obtained by crossing a Black Dutch buck on to several Standard Havana Does. The deep, rich, dark, Havana Color was obtained, and is being maintained today, by careful selection from straight Havana or chocolate breeding. Doesn't it seem reasonable that we can obtain the deep, rich, dark chocolate color we are looking for in our Dutch by careful selection and straight chocolate to chocolate breeding?

Occasionally there is a very real need to bring in some other color in our chocolates to make improvements in type, fur or production. This need, added to the belief that addition of Black to our Chocolates was necessary to improve the color has led to a situation where there are very few pure chocolate Dutch. The crossing of a pure Black to pure Chocolate would create no real problem. The offspring would be all Black and when bred together would produce both Black and Chocolate and these recessive chocolates would be pure. However Black is the most dominant color and there are even fewer pure blacks than pure chocolates.

When you start out to purify your strain of Chocolate Dutch you must expect that you will continue to get other colors for at least the first three generations of chocolate to chocolate breeding. You will get Chocolate-Blue or Lilac. You may get any of the following: Chocolate-Tortoise or Gold; Chocolate-Gray or Cinnamon; Blue-Gray or Blue Fawn; Chocolate-Blue-Gray or Lilac Fawn; and very rarely a beautiful Chocolate-Tortoise-Gray which I call a Golden Fawn. These non-standard colors will appear at the most inopportune times. They will have their proportionate share of good fur, type, markings, etc., and will, in fact have all the necessary qualification of a show winner except the required color. This tends to be discouraging, but you will find that you will be compensated in other ways. You will find that when you have eliminated all these colors you will have overcome your problems with stray white hairs, off-colored eyes, spots in the eyes and with your careful selection you will have also eliminated most of your crooked legs, cow-hocks and buck teeth.

Some really an interestingly to say change in appearance on that you will not miss copies of the Dutch Reporter

Shortly after I started raising Chocolate Dutch I read an article in the Dutch Reporter which stated that the quickest way to improve your chocolate color was to breed only animals which have deep, dark, rich eye color. This article went on to say that as between animals with equal eye color that the next most important item was the color of the undercoat as the color of the undercoat was more important than the surface color in selecting breeding specimens most likely to improve the color of your Chocolate Dutch. I immediately began testing this in my own breeding program and I have found it to be true under all circumstances and with all the various strains of Chocolate Dutch that I have had the opportunity to work with during the past 15 years.

In conclusion three rules for breeding Chocolate Dutch for color. First, purify the strain so that all colors will be eliminated except Chocolate. Second, use only those individuals that show the best possible eye color. Third, when you have a choice between animals with equal eye color, give preference to the one with the best color of undercoat. These three rules will give you good color. Hard work, careful culling and a little luck will put this color on a Dutch rabbit that has the necessary type, markings and fur to make a winner at the shows.

SECRETARY'S CHIT CHAT

by J. Weinhardt

Don't seem to have much on my mind right now. We have had about ten days of beautiful, almost spring like weather with several does coming in during this time and most of them saving their babies. I think we have had and kept more litters this winter than we have in a long time before. I recall one winter when we didn't save one single baby from Dec. 1 to March 1st. Sure left us flat for juniors for the spring shows. I'm anxiously looking forward to the earliest of spring shows this year to give these babies their maiden showing. Probably some one else has some that are just that much better, but it will be fun to find out anyway.

Have a letter from Mr. Wendall S. Vail and Harold O. Nickerson who combine their efforts in Dutch in Chester Vermont with some comments on my article in the December Dutch Reporter. Here is what they have to say, "In regards to your article in the December issue of the Dutch Reporter, we both agree with you 100% that each club should try and get their application in for a sweepstake show early. Most of them know well ahead of time that they want it and there is no reason they cannot send in early.

"Another thing we would like to see impressed on the committees of the shows is if they could try and get Grand Championship legs to the winners of the show. We are still waiting for two shows to send ours we won on a senior black doe. These two are to complete her winnings to make her a Grand Champion and are holding us up from sending in for our Grand Champion Certificate." I believe this point is well taken as I know of at least one show secretary who would never send a single certificate unless the exhibitor wrote and asked for it. It doesn't seem to me that it takes that long that it couldn't easily be done right along with the other reports.

We had a very fine rabbit school here in Michigan the first of the month. It was held under the sponsorship of the Poultry Department at Mich. State Univ. Wayne Willmann was one of the fine list of speakers on the program and we all wished that the day had been longer as there was no time allowed for a discussion period as we have had in years past. Oh, well, if there wasn't someplace these things could be improved on there wouldn't be much incentive to formulate the next year's plans.
