PUBLICITY REPORT

by Dorothea Shufflebotham

The news from Convention was good -- we are going to have some money to place some supply orders and are expecting to have shoulder and back patches within the next three months. When they are ordered we must allow the factory from six to eight weeks to fill the order -- but at least we can definitely say we are going to have them!

If we didn't get to see you in Tampa we are sorry -- we spent most of our time in the booth, feeling that people would know where to find us -- renewing old friendships and making new ones. We were so busy with rabbit interests that I only found two hours to spend with my sister who lives in Sarasota!

Since returning home I have had a letter from Virginia Pierce of Colorado, saying that she is willing to take up her duties as publicity area chairman again, and I am sure you are all as pleased with this news as I am. Virginia has been one of my staunchest workers and I am very glad that she is making so fine a recovery from her recent illness.

SECRETARY'S CHIT-CHAT

by J. Weinhardt

I am afraid my message this month must open on a sad note. We have lost two of our finest members to call of death. I have been informed by Mrs. Christine Hall that Judge Henry Paruszewski passed away from a heart attack on Dec. 7th. as he was preparing to go to his daughter's for dinner. When he didn't appear on time and did not answer his phone his son-in-law went to check on him and found him dead. He was a fine man, and I am glad that we all, in a sense were instrumental in permitting him the fulfillment of one of his life's ambitions by things working out so that he was privileged to judge the National Dutch Show at Wilmington, Delaware last May. He had just won the election as president of the Eastern Dutch Rabbit Fanciers Club for another term.

The other officers elected by the EDRFC are: Vice-President, Glenwood Sturgis, Sr. who will now automatically become president, Secretary-Treasurer for 1963 will again be Christine Hall and Directors, A. Campbell, Delmas Cockey, Jack Messner, Warren McNamara and Carroll Hadaway. Good luck for the coming year!

Mr. E. W. Zimmerley of the South Erie Rabbitry notified me on Dec. 23rd. that my Opinions expressed in articles and letters published in the Dutch Reporter do not necessarily represent those of the American Dutch Rabbit Club, the Editor or the Publisher.

The date your membership expires is shown on the address label of your Dutch Reporter. Dues $3.00 per year. NOTE: Our Club is affiliated with the American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc., and by sending $8.75 instead of $3.00, you will become a member of both Associations.

All material for the Dutch Reporter must be in the hands of the Editor by the 15th of the month preceding issue.

Please notify us immediately of any change in address so that you will not miss copies of the Dutch Reporter good friend, Harold Thayer passed away at 1:30 on Sunday morning, Dec. 22nd. with a heart attack. Harold had been in ill health for a couple of months and at the last report I had he had sold out most of his fine herd of Dutch, being unable to care for them any longer. Harold was always my "trouble-shooter" in the Erie area. When I had difficulty getting a catalog or show report, he'd always go to work and find out why -- when mail failed to go through to some member -- all I had to do was write Harold a card and he would send me the necessary information. I will miss him.

Speaking of mail not going through -- I sincerely hope that any of you who are about to move and have a change of address will please notify this office promptly. For more than a year now it has cost the club 5¢ for every Dutch Reporter that has to be returned to me because of an incorrect address and with the postage going up this month it will be more than that. One must consider the initial postage, plus another 3¢ to send it out again with the correct address. You will see that when I do not have your correct address it costs the club over 10¢ to deliver just one copy of your Dutch Reporter. I would appreciate your help on this. Also, I wish you would please remind your club's show secretaries to enclose your show catalog when mailing me the Dutch Report as they go astray much too often when mailed by fourth class mail and having to write for a copy costs both this office and your club extra money.

You will note that most of the letters from our members this month are on the same subject -- the proposed change in the form of reporting the shows. Some seem to be of the opinion that they will be left out entirely -- this is not true -- the following facts will be listed for every show: Winners of Best of Breed, Best Opp. Sex, Best and Best Opp. of each variety, names of exhibitors under each color and the total sweepstake points earned by each member. As near as I can ascertain this will amount to about 2½ pages saved (on the average) on each issue. Some of these reports should be coming through soon so you can "see and compare".

I have been informed that the secretary for the National Dutch Show at Bakersfield, California will be Mrs. Alma Cremer; 9704 Enger St., Bakersfield. Hope you all have mailed your ads and specials in to Mr. Paquette by this time. This bitter winter we are having over most of the country makes me, for one, more anxious than ever to see spring and the beginning of the spring rabbit shows.

Before I wrap this up I want to thank each and everyone of you who remembered me and my family so kindly at the Holiday season with greetings and cards, I'm only sorry that I could not do the same for every single member, so I take this little space to say, "Thank You".

YOU CAN'T BEAT THE DUTCH

FROM THE EDITOR'S MAIL-BAG

Dear Mrs. Weinhardt:

I personally, am very disappointed that I and many other members of the second largest specialty club in the nation were unable to attend the National Convention at Tampa. I do believe that had a larger number of members been present the motion would have never carried to delete the informative complete results of shows throughout the U.S.A. Regardless of how good a Dutch one might exhibit, it is very interesting to note how some judges make placements. I also believe the popularity of the American Dutch Rabbit Club is based largely on the very capable handling and editing of the Dutch Reporter and, more especially the COMPLETE SHOW REPORTS as they have been reported in the past. A beginner just starting out with Dutch enjoys seeing his name or, rabbitry appearing in a National publication taking a fifth place almost as much as the more experienced breeders do as, BOB, BOS or Best Color. I definitely believe this move is a step in the wrong direction, more especially since our Editor doesn't seem to mind the complexities involved in compiling this data. Since there could possibly be others that regret this change as I do, I would suggest this be included in the next ballot put out for membership vote.

C. W. Stinson

Dear Mrs. Weinhardt:

Am sending my membership fee in this year, but if the show reports are taken out of the Reporter I see no incentive in being in the Club or in even showing Dutch.

In my case I am a farmer which is a seven day a week job. We do have one day a week off and by alternating days we get on Saturday and Sunday in every six weeks. So, unless I can swap days with someone I cannot get to many Sunday shows. I cannot afford to show many animals at a time so I pick the best I have for each show. If they do not place then I have picked wrong, but wherever they place I like to see it in the Reporter.

At the last show I attended on Sept. 30th. there was a trophy for most points. I counted mine as they were judged, but the other contestants did not, so I did not know who won it until this Reporter came. So if you cannot see the show report in the Dutch Reporter there would not be any incentive to show, as I see it.

Respectfull,
Ranald A. Belcher

Dear Mrs. Weinhardt:

I was interested to note Mr. Collins remarks in regards to listing of the complete results of the sweepstakes shows in the Dutch Reporter. Since a resolution was passed in Tampa to eliminate the complete show results I have received many comments on this, and have yet to hear anyone voice that this is a step in the right direction.

Have heard comments for many years that the Reporter is becoming nothing but a review of the sweepstakes shows. However, I also notice that the ones that complain have very little if any interest in showing Dutch. The motion as it was introduced at Tampa was in the interests of cutting of operating expenses of the Dutch Reporter.

Personally, I feel the only yardstick to measure justifiable expense is whether the interest justifies the expense. If we don't have enough members who are really interested in reading the sweepstake results, then by all means they should be discontinued. However, I think this should be put to vote to determine just how much interest our members really have in having them published.

For myself, I really get a big kick out of seeing how my friends are doing throughout the country.

Bill Summers, Director ADRC

Dear Mrs. Weinhardt:

Although I'm only in my second year of ADRC membership, I'd like to comment on the cutting down of the show reports in the Dutch Reporter.

Every month I'd be the first out to the mailbox looking for my Dutch Reporter. When I first started I rarely won a BOB or BOS, so my thrill came in seeing my name under second or third -- I'm sure many new members feel this same way and I'm sure even old members enjoy seeing their names and seeing who beat them or vice-versa.

So I say let's not ruin a good thing and cut up the show reports so no one enjoys them.

Chuck Stanelle

The following letter was sent to me with these comments, by Chas. O. Lewis of New York: "Just received the enclosed letter from E. Mitchell the man from whom I bought the first Chocolate Dutch to come to America and the following year a trio of Blacks which started me on my merry way.

"Thought you might be interested in the contents and perhaps a mention of their problems might be of interest to our American Dutch breeders. Mitchell has always been my idea of a perfect fancier. After I had imported the Chocolates I corresponded with him and at that time was doing good with Blues, but the boys from Binghamton, N. Y. were trimming me in Blacks which I told him. He wrote me suggesting that I let him obtain a trio of Blacks from Mr. Phillips whose Pytchley Queen had been best Dutch the past two years at the big Crystal Palace show. The first time the same Dutch made it twice in a row. At that time I was not in too good financial shape and told him that I would let him know when I was ready. That was during the summer. Then about a week before Christmas I got a letter from him advising me that he had shipped on the Cunard line, a trio of Black Dutch from Phillips and told me what broker to contact for clearance in New York City. I phoned the broker and gave him the details. I heard nothing more 'till the day before Christmas when my wife and I, on returning from our late shopping that afternoon, found two crates on our back porch containing a trio of Black Dutch. There I had a trio of Dutch and had not paid anyone one cent! Nothing for the animals, the shipping charges, the brokers fees and the local shipping charges. Some Christmas present, eh? I immediately wrote Mitchell and his first letter just said the Cunard charges were $7.50. I had to write again and after a month I finally got word from him that the cost of the trio was $25.00. In the meantime the broker and local express received their charges. Just imagine, a trio of Blacks for $25.00 plus Cunard only $7.50, Broker $2.50 and local express less than one dollar. Try to match that today. Under those circumstances wouldn't you say that Mr. Mitchell was a real fancier?" Following is Mr. Mitchell's letter:

Dear Mr. Lewis:

Thanks for your Xmas card. Sometime ago (it seems ages now), I sent you a parcel of Fur & Feather which I trust you received as I have had no letter from you to that effect. I am making up another one immediately after Xmas. Shows are getting worse now to attend. Rail charges are up 300%. Feed way up in the same proportion. This together with the craze for Chinchilla breeding is knocking the old fancy breeds very badly. Dutch club has gone down from 1,000 to about 450 (members). I cannot understand this new fad lasting so very long when quite a lot of novices gave as much as $750.00 for a start in the new fancy (buck & 2 does -- Chinchillas). I hope they don't burn their fingers in the process of trying to make their fortunes out of something they don't understand.

We have had a most miserable year so far as the weather goes. Nasty cold winds making gardening anything but a pleasure. The fog has gone now after taking severe toll of elderly people. I have taken the precaution of being indoors this winter. At 82 one has to make up ones mind to go slow and not take liberties.

Yours sincerely,
E. Mitchell

Dear Mrs. Weinhardt:

I am wondering whether the plan for a member of the ADRC to pay subscription for a member of the UKDRC, who in reply pays for his to the UKDRC is still in force? I paid a subscription for an American for this year, but it is long since I received any copies of the Dutch Reporter.

I have had a fairly good year, and in September such good sales that my numbers were reduced to three young adults and one young doe. I am in my 83rd. yr., as you may guess I don't want to have too many but I don't want to give up entirely. Hope you have had a good year.

Yours sincerely,
E. F. Gordon Wallace, "Ingleside"
Old Fishbourne, Chichester, Sussex

(Editor's Note: Interest has seemed to lag to a point where it has practically come to a halt with our members in this exchange plan. If there is anyone who would care to sponsor Mr. Gordon Wallace, I will be most happy to notify the UKDRC secretary to that effect. Also I feel sure there are others in England who would wish to exchange memberships again. JW)

GREAT RABBITS, GREAT SHOWMEN

(Editor's Note: The following article, also appeared in my mail. It first appeared in the Dec. 1, 1962 issue of the "Arizona Farmer-Ranchman" along with a very nice picture of Ernie Parks, Nicholas Romley, C. E. Lewis and Jess Williams each holding what I take to be their favorite Dutch rabbit. Of course, (after reading the Arizona State Fair show report, I might surmise the one C. E. is holding belongs to his lovely wife, Marjory, but I won't tell anyone! The magazine was sent to me by Jess Williams.)

Believe it if able, but the champion Dutch rabbit showmen of the whole U.S. live and breed rabbits right in Arizona's Salt River Valley.

Maybe they're the nation's champion Dutch rabbit breeders, too. Nobody who knows Ernest R. Parks and Nick Romley would put it past them. They have done the impossible so often in the past that rabbit fanciers have lost their capacity for astonishment.

That Ernie and Nick won first and second honors for 1961 in the American Dutch Rabbit Club, and that they are conspiring to bring the Club's 1964 convention to Phoenix, came out after they had won more ribbons and other awards than they could count at the Arizona State Fair.

Annually the ADRC awards prizes to the members who exhibit in the most shows and win win the most points. As mentioned, Parks was first in 1961 and Romley was second, on the strength of winnings at more than 20 shows in Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado and California. They'll probably wind up in the same positions this year, for they have extended their scope of activities in Texas.

Parks and Mrs. Parks operate Parks' Petland, northeast of Glendale on Lateral 19 $\frac{1}{2}$ , giving full time to rabbits and pigeons and Lord knows what else. But Nick's Rabbitry at 2701 N. 21st. St., Phoenix, is a side issue with the Romley family. So Nick claims, although it seems that he can always get away from his regular employment whenever there is a chance to compete in another rabbit show.

Precious Cargo

They load their prize stock into Parks' especially fitted truck and take off, usually with 400 to 425 rabbits aboard. In summer they have to travel at night, at least until they get out of the lowlands, since rabbits are notorious for low heat tolerance. In all the dozens of trips they made they haven't lost one bunny. Other breeders just can't believe this, and at the 1962 Dutch Club convention they just couldn't believe it when the official tabulation showed that two Arizonans had won more ribbons and money than anyone else.

For two or three years before that, Parks and Romley had been placing high in the tabulations and 1961 they were away out in front. There's hardly a doubt that they'll repeat in 1962.

At the same 1962 convention they put in an early bid for the 1964 gathering. Their campaign will be pushed vigorously next April when the Club's annual membership meeting is held in Bakersfield, Calif. There they'll have the help of Jess Williams, Phoenix, president of the Central Arizona Rabbit Breeders Ass'n. and himself an enthusiastic Dutch man.

Incidentally, there's still another organization, Arizona Rabbit Fanciers, of which Ernie Parks is president. It is restricted to breeders of purebred rabbits, while the CARBA is open to anyone who raises rabbits for the market or just for the fun of it. If that 1964 convention does come to Phoenix, both groups will participate in making arrangements and entertaining the delegates.
