President's MESSAGE

The summer has been pretty quiet as far as Dutch happenings go. The weather in this part of the country has been cooler and wetter than normal. Usually get to skip a week or two of grass mowing during the summer, but not this year. The summer has been quite nice on the rabbits.

Shows in May, June and July were quite comfortable, and one in mid-July that I was judging was just plain cold. I understand that has not been the case for our Dutch breeders in the south and southwest. Hope your Dutch have made it through the summer okay.

The ARBA Convention in Columbus is just about upon us. We have only received one donation from a breeder for specials and an anonymous donation for picking up part of the cost of our Breakfast Banquet Wednesday morning. The Breakfast Banquet will be held at the Buckeye Hall of Fame Cafe, Wednesday morning at 9 AM. The cost is only $5.00 per person. Please use the registration form found in this issue and mail it to Todd Uran with your check made out to the Ohio state Dutch Rabbit Club. The Buckeye Hall of Fame Cafe is a fun place with lots of things to do and see. We will be passing out the awards and recognizing the winners after breakfast.

Our annual general membership meeting will be held during the Convention on Tuesday, at 2:30 PM in the Disalle Building, room C. This should work out well as we have three open judges this year. This will enable us to finish or come close to finishing the open judging on Monday. As long as we finish Monday, we will have the fur class Tuesday morning, followed by the seller's class at approximately 10:00 AM. This will allow us more time to enjoy the convention, and the Seller's class. The awards for the show are listed elsewhere in this issue.

On a separate note, we did not receive many resumes from members wanting to run for office again this year. I will have to appoint a Director from District 1, and District 2. Briony Barnes was the only resume submitted from District 3. She, therefore, is our automatic Representative from District 3. We also received only one resume for the office of Vice-President. That resume was from Fran Schettler. Fran has put much energy into the ADRC in the past and is welcomed back.

Also, on a sad note, the ADRC has lost one of its long time supporters and breeders. I was informed that Andy Barton passed away the last week in August. Andy was a good Dutch breeder and a very nice guy. He probably gave away more Dutch than he ever sold. He had not had any Dutch for the last year due to health problems, but he still made it to a few shows. Andy will be missed by all.

If you are interested in serving the ADRC as a Director in Districts 1 or 2, let me know. Duties include relating ideas, issues, or concerns from your District to the Board, submitting Director's Reports to the DR, and attendance at a majority of National Dutch Shows and ARBA Conventions.

See you in Columbus,
Kevin Hooper
New Vienna, Ohio

Sec. MESSAGE

It has been a long time since I reported on a show in my secretary's message, but I am going to let you know about the Minnesota State Fair rabbit show. The largest breed exhibited at the show was "DUTCH" We had 94 shown by 7 exhibitors. A mighty fine group they were. Best of Breed went to Donald Van Hyfte. The Minnesota State Fair rabbit show is an annual visit with old and new friends. It is one of the most impressive State Fairs in the states. The Bengtson family has been involved in the show since 1962 and although it is certainly not the largest show around, it does a lot to educate the public about rabbits. The exhibitors tell me that the fair exposure is very good for them and that they hear from people that have been to the fair and are looking for breeding or pet stock throughout the following 12 months.

The ADRC election this year was a little disappointing to me. You know how much I like to see contests for each of the positions, and this year we had none. The only voting is for the National Dutch Show Judges. It really makes me wonder if we should have even spent the money to mail out the ballots. Maybe that is something the board will need to discuss at Columbus.

And speaking of Columbus, if you have a donation for the show please send it off as soon as possible. When sending the ADRC portion of the specials I included a check from the Bengtson's, please remember to send yours also.

It is time to start preparing for winter. Got to get those does bred. We always get our best show stuff in these fall litters.

Have a great fall, and see you in Columbus.

Doreen Bengtson

NEWS FROM TODD

I have not been to many shows since Nationals but the few I have been to have been very enjoyable. The spring Ohio Dutch show went well with a very large turn out as usual. I also attended the Hoosier show in June that although there was not a large turn out the awards were great and the people are wonderful. On June 11 my local club held a memorial show dedicated to my mother. We had a very nice turn out and it was very touching how many friends showed up. Bob Hessick won Best of Breed with his black doe and I am sure my mother would have been very happy with that. He did not get Best 4 or Best in Show, which I think he should have. I'm still working on the breakfast arrangements for Nationals but it will be Wednesday the 1. Again if you would like to sponsor any specials please let me know or let Kevin Hooper know. We have not received very many to date.

NEWS FROM SUE P.

Hi Dutch Breeders,

Well, here it is — almost fall. I am really looking forward to the shows this fall, and hope many of you had good luck with your bunnies. The summer wasn't too hot here and we only used the air conditioning once. I know this wasn't the case for those of you who live in the southwest!

The show season doesn't really start here until the middle of September so I don't have too much to report on. We attended a fair show in West Virginia the middle of July and were surprised by the turnout. There were quite a few Dutch there, considering the time of year, and a really good rabbit turnout.

Now we are looking forward to the ARBA Convention in Columbus. It should be really great as the Ohio people always do such a professional job of putting on a large show. The cooping and convention center are good, and everything is generally well run. Hope to see many of you there. Seeing all of our friends again is a high point of the national shows.

On a sadder note, I received word this week that Andy Barton, a long time Dutch breeder passed away. We will miss him so much. He always was smiling and so friendly. I remember he was one of the first breeders I showed against when I first started showing Dutch. Andy was so helpful — always ready and willing to help a new breeder. As Dutch breeders we all need to follow his example in helping new breeders and in being friendly. Andy, we will all miss you.

I guess this is all the news for now. See you in Columbus!

NEWS FROM SHARON

We have moved. We finally moved to the country. I don't know how Rick and Julie found their dream home? I don't think ours existed, so we bought the only one on the market we could afford and thought we'd change it.

I must apologize to anyone who tried to call us in July. We were without a phone (and hot water) for about two weeks. After moving approximately 109 rabbits, I never want to move again.

I know this isn't one of the topics, but if anyone would like to, I would like to see some articles on what makes the perfect rabbitry. We may be having a building put up next year, but don't really know what we want. Especially ventilation ideas and keeping the rabbits cool. The rabbits are now in a double attached garage. There is a wonderful air condition build into the wall that came with the house. No more dragging out ice packs. We can even consider vacationing in the summer now.

We plan to be at Columbus. Hope to see everyone there.

DISTRICT THREE REPORTS

NEWS FROM PETE

Greetings Everyone,
Dutch in the Northwest continue to show up in very good numbers. The Northwest Dutch Club's "Nothing But Dutch" show has 28 rabbits in the youth and 122 in the open. Three weeks later at Washington State Convention there were 125 rabbits both days. At the Great Northwest Show in July we had 89 Dutch at both shows. Wonderful numbers!

We did lose two very good long time Dutch breeders this year, but have also picked up several serious youth breeders, One such youth is Melissa Wolfe of Lake Stevens, Washington. Melissa has been doing Dutch for almost a year, and already has a very impressive record. She attended her first NDS in York, PA and had Best Sr. Tort (Youth). Two months later at Washington State Convention she took BOS (Youth) with a Tort, and finally, last week won BOB with a Steel in the open show at the Great Northwest show. Congratulations Melissa. Keep up the good work.

If you have done well in your area or have a big show coming up please let your district director know. We are always looking for other show and breeders to mention in our reports. If you have any questions about the ADRC or are new to the club and would like to introduce yourself, please do so. Each district has three directors, so you can find one near you. I think almost all have email, so drop us a note. My email is Petersrab@aol.com, and I would welcome a note.

Former ARBA President Cindy Wickizer (from the Northwest) has been working very hard to establish a good foundation of breeding stock from several breeders to send to Japan. The Japanese are very interested in breeding and showing rabbits and Cindy is making sure they are getting a good start. I met Cindy at the airport a few weeks ago as she was sending a shipment over, and I must say I was very impressed. It looked like a Best in Show table. There were some very nice Checkered Giants, Holland Lops, Dwarfs and a beautiful Jersey Wooly. I was bringing two bred Dutch does (a black and a blue) and a Black Junior Buck named Nelsen's Rolo. "Rolo" is a very nice young buck I have shown 4 times and has 3 BOBs and a BOS. He won BOB in Canada and BOB at WA State Convention (where he also got Honorable mention in Show). He now has an opportunity to win a BOB in Japan. In his young life that would mean 3 BOBs in 3 different countries. Good luck "Rolo". And a final GOOD LUCK to everyone showing their Dutch. Hope to see you in Columbus!

Briony's Show Box

What all do you need to take to a show? After being told a few times that I had EVERYTHING in that box, I thought I'd share the contents of my show box in helps that maybe it will give the new breeder a little advice, maybe even a hint or two for those who have been doing it awhile:

For the Rabbits:

- Rolled oats in case of diarrhea
- Acid-Pak to make strange water taste good
- Black permanent marker
- Cable ties
- Fine-toothed comb
- Classicoat waterless shampoo
- Scope-I learned this one from Jill Dobson, it works well on stains
- Toenail clippers-the scissors kind also work well to cut cable ties
- Vaseline for new tattoos
- Towel or rag

For Me:

- Wristbands
- Pens and pencils
- Notepad
- Bright colored index cards and markers for making "for sale" signs
- Business cards
- Shout wipes
- Pad of tape sheets for defurring clothes
- Antibacterial single packaged wet wipes
- Waterless hand sanitizer
- Antibacterial hand lotion
- Safety pins
- Pins and buttons to go on showcoat or apron

First Aid

- Alcohol wipes
- Neosporin
- Band-Aids
- Ear piercing cleaning solution-good for small wounds and doesn't sting
- Cotton balls

NEW BREEDERS AND NATIONAL SHOWS

It was both surprising and disheartening to learn that some of the newer ADRC members have felt ignored and unwelcome at national shows. Columbus, Ohio will be my 10th consecutive ARBA Convention and my experience has been completely the opposite.

We started with pet rabbits in 1974. In 1984, I got my first pet Dutch rabbits. I learned about ARBA at the county fair and decided to join. When I subsequently found out there was a national Dutch Rabbit Club – ADRC, I decided to join to learn more about the Dutch.

My first experience at a national show was truly unique. When the ARBA Convention was held in Pomona, CA., I had NEVER attended a rabbit show other than watching the judging at state and county fairs. I was TOTALLYCLUELESS as to what it was all about and did not know one single, solitary person in the ARBA. Because Pomona is fairly close for us in Arizona, we decided to take a family vacation and check out the convention. It was quite overwhelming to see 10,000 rabbits in one location! Felt like a kid in a candy store. The rest of the family checked out the rabbits, booths etc. and then they were off to do other things while I stayed on by myself every day at the convention.

Of course, I sought out the Dutch rabbits right away but also went through all the aisles and looked at all the rabbits items available for sale. Although I was feeling shy and a little isolated, I approached the Dutch booth. Barb Sowers from CA., was the first person I met. She was just great – friendly and helpful. During the judging, I got around to watch several breeds where I encountered some more friendly people.

After Pomona, the kids got me pedigreed rabbits to show. We found out where the local shows were held and got involved and of course got more rabbits!

Daughter-in-law, Kim and I drove to Columbus in '92 in my old '72 Chevy Nova, but didn't take rabbits. We stayed at the Dutch headquarters headquarters where we met many really nice Dutch breeders. In Columbus, I became acquainted with more terrific people in several breeds, whom are among my best friends today. By the time we got to Tulsa in '94, I found that I could not get all the way across the showroom without stopping to catch up with people I had come to know over a mere 3- year period. There are just so many truly wonderful people who are part of our wonderful world of rabbits.

Now like most seasoned convention goers, I find conventions are so full of activities and catching up with friends from all over the country that we often forget about the newcomer who may feel lost and alone.

While we are tending to our rabbits at Conventions, a smile and a friendly greeting can help to make others feel more welcome. Hopefully, the newcomer will speak up and let someone know that they are feeling a little lost. Newcomers, you must take a little responsibility as well. Sometimes a person who is just shy and feeling left out will appear to be unfriendly or unapproachable and therefore may find them feeling left out. The best first step would be to approach the Dutch booth. The people manning the booth generally know many breeders and can help to introduce you around. The hospitality area is open to everyone and another good opportunity to make acquaintances. Participate in club activities. Attend the breakfast and the general membership meeting. There is no reason for anyone to feel unwelcome or to have a bad experience at a national show.

Hope to see you in Columbus,

Pat Mareska

LOCAL DUTCH NEWS

DUTCH IN THE SOUTHWEST

Dutch breeders in California and Arizona have several regional specialty clubs. We were holding specialties in conjunction with All-Breed shows. However, in California, a new trend has begun which we are also starting this Fall in Arizona. Due to the $20 ARBA sanction fee plus Dutch and state sanctions, putting on a single breed show has become quite costly. Now, instead of planning one all-breed show plus specialties, many clubs are opting for double All-Breed shows.

California DRC is active in central and northern California. They plan to hold Dutch Specialty in conjunction with Double All-Breed CR & CS Benefit Show for 2001 Convention. CR & CS have been hosting shows all over California.

Youth breeder, Beau Williamson of Clovis, CA., has an awesome black SD who is winning BIG in open shows. She was BIS in open in both California State conventions All-Breed shows this year.

For anyone interested in escaping the cold Feb. 2001, Arizona State Convention will be held Feb. 10 - 11 in sunny Casa Grande, Arizona. There will be two all-breed open and youth shows plus assorted specialties including Dutch. Daytime temps should be 60's to 70's.

Also, make plans now for 2001 ARBA Convention in delightful Del Mar, CA. Accommodations will fill up quickly. Should be an abundance of great Dutch attendance. Hope to see everyone there.

A GOOD THING RETURNS

by Kevin Hooper

This winter I wrote of the trouble that I was having in producing torts. I had not been raising many torts for the past two years. I finally figured out that I had been breeding too closely with my old tort buck.

My torts were inbred. Here is how I overcame this problem. I first decided to bring in a tort doe that was partially my line. She was 25% Hooper from Tom Dietrich. I kept one nice doe from her first litter. I then borrowed a tort buck from Rick Billups which was my line, but a little different in his genetic makeup. My tort does bred to this buck still didn't raise their young like they should.

Then a good thing happened. Rick and Julie Billups found out they had to move to southwestern Ohio early this spring. Rick was talking of culling down the herd so as to make the move easier. I offered to house some of his black does, and any tort doe he had. I also offered to keep them in production - he knew that I was in need of help in torts and blacks. I took his tort does - 75% Hooper line to my bucks. The out cross mother of these does was an excellent mother. These does produced well and all raised bunnies. I also had his tort bucks here which I bred to my does. The buck that has produced the best is out of my old tort buck's one-half brother. This made the genes much more distant than breeding to any of my bucks who were direct descendents of the old tort buck.

My does that had not been raising more than one or two per litter- are raising 6 or more! The quality is very good and the number of torts all of the sudden is fantastic.

The moral here is that if you run into the same trouble as I have, it doesn't take a complete out cross to fix the problem. Some common ancestry is beneficial as long as the common ancestry is not from that same animal that created the problem.

I am now using this same procedure on my blacks. You may wonder how Rick and I decided who got what out of the does that I was keeping. We had a draft. I received the first pick since I cared for them. He received picks 2, 3 and 4, and then we alternated after that. I kept 2 tort does, a black buck and a black doe, as well as several torts that I sold. This made for a fun way to divide out the animals.

FALL AND WINTER BREEDING

by Kevin Hooper

The late summer period begins a time when some difficulties arise in breeding rabbits.

One would wonder what could go wrong in late summer? The weather is still nice so the does shouldn't have trouble? These same problems can carry right through fall into winter. Well, winter, everyone knows the problem there. But late summer into fall?

Yes, late summer into fall. This was another one of those problems that took a while to overcome. You see, rabbits breed based on the amount of daylight that they have. As we get into late August, the days are getting increasingly shorter. As the days get shorter, the doe's conception rate decreases as well.

Here's how to overcome this problem, or reduce it. You can trick the rabbits system into thinking that it is summer year 'round - just a little colder. Hang florescent lights in your rabbitry. Put these lights on a timer that gives you 14 hours of light per day. I have mine set so that they come on at 6 in the morning and stay on until it gets light out. They come on again about a half an hour before sundown and stay on until 8 PM. I do not encourage the lights to be left on 24 hours a day. They need the light - dark cycle just as we do.

My conception rate still decreases some in the late fall and winter months. But it is still about 75%. Before I had lights in my barn set up like this, fall and winter conception was 30% at most.

You will find that young does that you want to breed for the first time are not very receptive in the fall and winter, no matter how much light is on them. They will become more receptive as the natural day length begins to increase in mid to late January.

The winter problem that most of you are aware of is cold weather. I know some breeders who let their does raise their winter litters in outside hutches, no matter how cold it is. I never had much luck doing that. Either the doe would not pull that much fur and the babies would freeze, or the babies would jump out of the box at 12 days and ...freeze. Several years ago when I built my first barn for the rabbits, I developed a winter plan. I had a double row of cages hanging down the center of the barn. The does would be placed in cages beside, or behind each other as they were due. If it was to below 35 degrees, I would place an infra heat lamp above the cage so that it would heat the back corner of four pens at once. The nest boxes would be placed in that same corner. The lamp would be hung so that it was about 15 inches above the open top nest box. As the temperature dropped, I would lower the lamp a few inches.

I had several does due once when we had several days when the high was about 8 below zero. I shut my barn as best as I could be it was still bitterly cold. I then took foil backed Styrofoam insulation board and leaned them on each other above the cages; so as to make a tent to hold in the heat. This same insulation board was fitted to hang on the fronts of the cages. The water bowls did not even freeze solid.

Be careful not to leave the heat lamps on when the temperature goes up! It does not take long to overheat and kill a litter.

One other note to aid in fall and winter breeding. Keep some fur from the litters that you raise during the warm weather to supplement for those litters who need fur in the cold weather!

These methods have greatly helped me in the past. Try them if you want to raise bunnies year round.

"A Tail of Two Centuries"
COLUMBUS, OHIO

(see list of specials -- page 9)

The Dutch banquet for the ARBA convention will be Wednesday Nov 1 from 9-11 Am. It will be held at the Buckeye Hall of Fame Cafe. The cafe offers over a million dollars worth of state of the art interactive games for the kids and the young at heart. They also offer a golf simulator if interested. There is also a complete gift shop full of Ohio State items. If you mention you are with the club you will receive a 10% discount on purchases of 25.00 or more. We have our own room, which sets at least 150.

The meal will be buffet style and include assorted juices, fresh fruit, breads/pastries, flavored butter/preserves, scrambled eggs, bacon/sausage, home fried potatoes and coffee/tea. Thanks to a generous donation by an anonymous Dutch club member we are able to offer the banquet tickets at only $5.00 per person. Please see below tear out section to purchase tickets. Maps will be made available in the show room. The cafe is located just south west of the football stadium and is only about 15 minutes from the show room. It happens to be about 2 minutes from my house so it is very convenient for me. This is not why we choose this location I think everyone will enjoy the atmosphere even those few who are not OSU fans. I am pretty sure they even let Hoosier and Wolverines in but you may want to keep that to yourselves.

If you have any questions about the banquet please let me know.

BREEDER PROFILE

Jill Dobson

Long time Dutch breeder, Jill Dobson lives in the Pacific Northwest – Eagle Point, Oregon. Whenever out club sponsors a show in Oregon, Jill is always the secretary. Jill is a biochemist, a 4-H leader, a rabbit breeder and a student at Southern Oregon University. Wow does she have a full plate. One of the most incredible things I just recently found out about Jill is that she has been a member of the ADRC for 25 consecutive years. Yes, she was a baby when she first joined. I will give you only one hint; Jill is not even 40 years old. Just recently Pete and I spent a weekend with Jill at her local fair and I was able to look back on her scrapbooks, showing her in 4-H, fitting and showing her Dutch. I am sure you will agree 25 years is quite an accomplishment. She really loves rabbits!

That would be enough by itself to highlight Jill in a breeder profile, but there is more. The reason I wanted to write this about Jill is because I just read an amazing article about her, which appeared in her local paper. In the LIFE section there is a big 12 x 10 close-up photo of a woman holding a 2-week old Dutch baby right next to her cheek. A huge smile is on this friendly looking face, and when Pete handed it to me, I said ... “hey, this looks like Jill?” Well, it is a picture of Jill and there is another picture of her in her rabbitry. The article tells about Jill’s work with Harlequin Dutch. I am quoting from the article . “An Eagle Point woman is in the midst of a thorny genetic task – creating a new variety of bunny that will pass muster with a tough American Rabbit fanciers Association”. For those of you who do not know Jill’s work on developing Harlequins, is a long and involved process. First Jill must apply for a certificate of development from ARBA. Then she has to present her rabbits at 3 consecutive ARBA Conventions before a review panel and judges. She needs 2 years worth of acceptances and then ... the Harlequin Dutch must be voted on by the ADRC and its members on whether or not it is to become an accepted variety. In the article Jill says ... “Everybody thinks I’m pretty much crazy”.

Well, I don’t know about crazy, but I do know Jill is amazing. She knows a lot about rabbits a lot about Dutch, a real lot about genetics and with all that knowledge comes a delightful down to earth. If you have never had the chance to meet or talk to Jill - she will be at the shows and it would be a good time to introduce yourself and talk Dutch. I know she would love it.

THOUGHTS ON THE NDS AT YORK

My wife Charlene and daughter Julie got back from a wonderful NDS at York. As I was driving home to Kansas from Pennsylvania I could not help but think how Dutch shows have changed over the years. It seems like we the members are adding more and more things each year (I think this is great). We have added an excellent program for the youth - with all the contests like photography, showmanship, royalty, etc. We have added the AOV class judging and then we have seller’s class judging and the seller’s auction. We have managed to put three days activities into one!! Although all of these events and activities are enjoyable for me as an exhibitor, I imagine it must be a real nightmare for the show superintendent and youth coordinator to schedule all this and keep it on schedule.

It almost seems like the Dutch club should spread the activities out over a longer period of time, like Friday afternoon or Sunday morning. Or if the exhibitors still like the idea of a one day event, add another judge and finish judging at 3 in the afternoon as opposed to wrapping up judging 15 minutes before the banquet begins at 7 PM. I would like to see another judge added so that judging could be completed earlier in the afternoon on Saturday. Also, if it was announced ahead of time that an earlier starting time was going to occur on Friday evening, then maybe members could get there by 7 PM for AOV judging and/ or fur judging.

Once again I want to say what a great time we had at the NDS and would like to thank Martin Preede and Mark Pecaric of the Eastern Dutch Rabbit Club for all their hard work. It was a great show and we enjoyed it.

NEWS FROM SUE S (District 2)

Hello, everyone! My name is Sue Strandwitz and I'm now a director for District 2, having taken over the position previously held by Rick Billups. I hope to pick up and continue the great job he did as director.

The fall shows are in full swing after an unpredictable summer weatherwise. It will be interesting to see how this affects the ARBA National convention in terms of numbers. In the upper Midwest area, judges have reported some incredible youth entries with many animals worthy of being taken to National level competition. This becomes quite evident with the State Conventions. The County and State fairs are also being graced with quality animals. In Tennessee, Diana Gilpin brought home Best Dutch honors with her Blue Senior Doe and Clarissa Grady won Best Opposite with a Blue Junior Buck. It is wonderful to know the youth are as dedicated as they are in breeding towards our standard. Look for a strong showing from them in Columbus!

As the months bring us into the winter (at least for those of us trading lawn mowers for snow blowers), I would like to encourage anyone from my district to drop me a line if they have suggestions, comments, concerns or anything relating to our hobby. I'd love to include tips in my report from those of you that may have special thoughts that all of us could benefit from. It is never too late to learn something that may help to move your rabbitry a step ahead. I will also start to place some calls to various members on occasion to include their input in my reports from their areas.

Should you need to contact me, please feel free to call me (920-729-9577), contact me via email (Bunnisoo@aol.com), or by snail mail. I look forward to being a representative of District 2 and would love to meet those that don't know me at the coming ARBA Convention this fall. I'm easily recognized by the camera usually hanging around my neck in my quest to sneak some nice pics for the DR. See you there!

*Sue Strandwitz

Did you know?

A king size waterbed holds enough water to fill a 2,000 sq foot house 4 inches deep.

Play dough and microwaves should never be used in the same sentence.

Garbage bags do not make good parachutes.

No matter how much Jello you put in the pool, you still cannot walk on water.

There's never a dull moment with children around and what would we do without them!
