President's MESSAGE

The summer seems to have flown by this year. We've had a cool wet first two months of summer. Not many fans needed on the rabbits through the first half of August. I don't mind the cool, but can't seem to get much done due to the wet weather. Don't think the rabbits mind it though. I bred some does to have some three and one half month old juniors for the ARBA Convention this fall, and I think they all had babies! Don't know where I'm going to put all of these!

You should have received your ADRC ballot, and hopefully you sent it back in by now. The only thing you were voting for were judges for future National Dutch Shows. We have started voting further in advance for the NDS as we could not easily secure the judges that the membership wanted. Hopefully this change will help.

The ballot did not contain any opposed candidates for Vice-President or any of the three Directors positions! We need more of our members to run for office! The process is easy. Send in a note, by mail or email, to Doreen Bengtson, with a bit about yourself, prior to May 1st. We always have a position in each district that is up for election each year. If we have no one who submits a resume in that district, then I will reappoint the person who was currently finishing their three year term. This year however, I will have to appoint someone else for the terms expiring for Vice-President, and District 2, as these members have asked that someone else be appointed in their place. We value your interest, and hope that more of you decide to run in the future.

The ARBA Convention is just about upon us. Bob Bergene is securing the awards, and as of August 1st, they only had about $640. They could use another $400 or so, so if you can donate, please send your contributions to Bob Bergene, 30165 W 154th St, Gardner, KS 66030. Checks would be payable to Bob Bergene. The ADRC is responsible for any and all awards given at the ARBA Convention, other than the BOB and BOS award given by the ARBA. The ADRC contributes $300, with the collection from passing the hat at the previous Conventions banquet going to the awards. Your contributions make up the rest. No contribution is too small. I expect a big show again this year as many of us who did not raise many babies this past winter, will have a bunch this fall. I know I will.

The ADRC Standards committee is swinging into high gear. All changes to our Dutch Standard must be developed, presented to the membership for a vote, and to the ADRC standards committee by June 30 of next year. Lots of work to do! The committee consists of: Kay Stearns/Dick Evenburg - chair, Jill Pfaff, Scott Williamson, Tom Dietrich, and Fran Schettler. Any suggestions should be to one of the committee.

WE sure could use some contributions of a different kind to the ADRC. How about some of you contribute some "How to..."

articles for the DR. I recently had a new member contact me and volunteer to write some articles for the DR! That would be great if only a few more of you could do the same. I try to write one for each issue, but I get tired of reading my own articles. I know how I do things, but let's hear how you do them! The few articles we have had in the past issues about breeders rabbitries were nice, but we could use some more. Let's make this the best publication, instead of one of the better ones!

Look for info on the 2004 National Dutch Show elsewhere in this issue. This is the 75th anniversary of the ADRC and plans are for some nice changes.

Remember this is your club, and you can make a difference.

Kevin Hooper, President
New Vienna, Ohio

Sec/Treas MESSAGE

Secretary's Message -part I

Usually I try to keep this message on Dutch Club business, but this time I need to report to you the passing of my husband, Larry. His journey in this life was not easy and although it is a blessing that his suffering has come to an end, we miss him terribly. Larry and I had known each other since the fifties. We became acquainted through our mutual enjoyment of rabbits and are grateful for all the friends we have had over the years. We were soul-mates and it is like losing an arm for him to be gone. The children and I would like for him to be remembered for his love of Dutch rabbits and the people involved in the fancy. He lived for each National Dutch Show and ARBA National Convention. He thoroughly enjoyed judging rabbit shows and is the only judge I know that could judge an entire show and have no scratches on his arms. He was proud of his ability to handle rabbits. He also had a better eye for a good Dutch than anyone I know. He could walk into a show room and pick the winners without touching them. Thank you to all of you, our many good friends for you love and support. Doreen

Secretary's Message - part II

It is election time again. By the time you read this, the ballots will have arrived at your mailbox. Please take a moment to vote. The process has been set up so that it won't take more than a moment of your time. We don't have any officers on the ballot this year. No resumes have been received. We will be voting for National Dutch Show Judges. Please read the directions and drop your ballot into the mail.

ARBA Convention time is around the corner. If you have some cash around to support the show, please send it to Bob Bergene and he will take care of it. Bob has promised that the Convention show information will appear in this Dutch Reporter. So, check it out and we'll see you in Kansas.

This issue of the Dutch Reporter will have the Constitution and By-Laws and the Hall of Fame Nomination form. I would like to call your attention to the portion of the C & By-Laws that concerns membership. Please note that it provides a 60 day grace period for you to renew your membership. It also says that at the end of the 60 day grace period you will lose all of your Sweepstakes points. You will also lose your membership number and be issued a new one, UNLESS you request that your membership be back-dated. Backdating will make your membership continuous, but it will NOT restore your sweepstakes points.

Please take a look at the Hall of Fame nomination form and nominate someone. Note that your form is now to go to your local director. He/She will make sure everything is complete and forward it on to this office. The deadline is January 1, 2004, but get it to your director early enough so that he/she will have enough time to finish the work on the application.

See you in Kansas,

Vice President's MESSAGE

By Fran Schettler

The number of Dutch here in California seems to be building steadily. Youth and Open numbers are up, particularly at shows in the central part of the state. All varieties seem well represented, including chocolates (I witnessed Beau Williamson showing about 8 chocolate jr. bucks at one show), but grays and steels are not as strong in numbers.

We did, however, have an excellent presentation of steels at the California Dutch Rabbit Club Dutch specialty show in July. Although I forget the exact number, we had about a dozen steel Dutch parade across the show tables in the shade of the redwood trees. This is particularly amazing since I had announced that I was getting out of steels, and had proceeded to sell off my steel breeding stock. Then, of course, the gods shook their fingers at me and proceeded to provide in my final steel litters numerous good quality steels, including one buck that just took a Best of Breed. I showed five steels this last weekend at that show—I can't remember the last time that I had that many to show! I guess I'm in steels for awhile longer.

Now we just need to work on the grays. After a lot of culling and very close attention to ring color for the last five to six years, I am finally pleased with the gray ring color that I am getting. As some of these animals are sold off, hopefully more folks will start showing grays with the proper ring color. There are still grays being shown though that have the dark surface color, dark belly color, and none-at-all to poor quality rings in the center of the back at the saddle marking. Unfortunately many judges do not pay close attention to this aspect of the gray color, which only encourages some to continue breeding incorrectly colored grays. However, these dark grays can work well in breeding steels. If you are breeding grays, do you have the right ring, belly and surface color?

Several California Dutch breeders are going to be traveling to Convention, so be sure to say hi to them. Wish I could be there!

NEWS FROM RICK B.

Well it appears that our summer is just about over and all I can say is "where did it go?" We were lucky this year and only had a few days of hot steamy weather but the spring rains never ended. I can't recall a wetter summer and it seems like we are cutting grass every three days. I don't have much to report this issue so I will keep this short.

The Ohio State Dutch Spring show was held in June with 185 shown in the Open and 147 in the Youth. The Open BOB honor went to Mike Smith and Megan Kline won BOS. Adrienne & Mac Gerhart won both BOB and BOS in the Youth show. Cathy Patrick judged the Open Show and Kevin Hooper judged the youth show. The Ohio State Fair Show was held during the first weekend of August with 85 entries being judged on Saturday by Glen Carr and 97 being judged on Sunday. The 4H show on Saturday was won by Adrienne & Mac Gerhart who went on to win best Fancy and Best in Show. BOS that day went to Cody and Danny Lape. The Saturday show was won by Cody and Danny Lape with Megan Kline winning BOS. I received an email this week asking for donations for the upcoming ARBA Convention in Kansas. It seems that we have all gotten busy and forgot to support Bob and Rick as they attempt to raise funds for awards. Please send donations to

I am sure any and all donations will be greatly appreciated.

See you in Kansas.....

NEWS FROM SUE

The season of the county fair is in full swing and animals are making the trek to new pens and strange situations for days on end. Best of luck to all those exhibitors and may you find ways to keep your bunnies as comfortable as possible during this fun time.. Unfortunately, rabbits never seem to bring their best coat to the fair with all the heat of summer.

It seems as though we will have quite a few juniors going into the fall show season. Exhibitors are reporting good sized litters with nicely marked babies. It will be exciting to see what makes it to Kansas this fall for our ARBA National show. Hopefully, the weather will cooperate and everyone traveling to Kansas will avoid an early snow storm. But then again, if we had to be snowed in at a rabbit show with a group of our rabbit enthusiasts, it would not be such a terrible thing...more time to talk rabbits...

I recently had the chance to tour a rabbitry here in Wisconsin and was very impressed to say the least. Warren Wiltman from Mishicot (near Lake Michigan) has a very neat A-framed setup in his backyard under the sweeping branches of some nice mature trees which helped to keep the bunnies cool. To get to the barn, though, I had to pass by the three spoiled miniature donkeys demanding attention in their barn, and chickens, pigeons, pheasants and newly added peacocks in their separate condos, all the while listening to Warren tell me a bit about his little hobby farm. Once inside where the rabbits were housed, I found a very clean barn that lacked the seemingly ever present cobwebs. The rabbits are kept comfortable by numerous fans circulating the air from one end to the other end of the long building. Litters were abundant within cages that were separated by two wooden nest boxes, each facing away from another and into their adjoining side spacious pens. I very much enjoyed seeing so many quality animals under one roof. It is always fun to see how another breeder has his/her rabbitry set up and get some ideas to bring back to your own.

As the shows start up again in the fall, please send me any news on whose Dutch are winning and at what shows. Sending along pictures are also very welcome so they can be featured in the Dutch Reporter.

Best of luck with the coming shows and let me know how you are doing!

NEWS FROM TOM

The show season comes to a crawl during the hot summer months and was further curtailed due to the now lifted monkey pox scare. Fall shows will be hotly contested as numerous area exhibitors have a strong contingent of quality show animals from what I have seen. I did attend and help out the at Purina mills rabbit school festivities in the St. Louis area during June and if you have a chance to attend in the future - do it. An excellent activity with a wealth of knowledge presented. I did enjoy the company of several rabbit people who came to visit and purchase stock this summer, maybe some of them can write an article on their excursion/experience. I will be working the rabbit exhibit at the Michigan state fair in august, it should be an interesting couple of weeks.

Best of everything,

NEWS FROM JILL

Greetings Dutch enthusiasts,

Sounds like NDS was well run with great weather, sure hope next year turns out like that too. I can remember it snowed the first time I went to an NDS in Greenville, Ohio and the next year I packed my thermo long johns !

This summer has been very hot in Oregon with triple digits. It was a wet spring into June, which brought on late grass. This combination brings on a couple of problems, more insects and fuel for forest fires.

There has been an outbreak of Myxomatosis this summer and rabbits have been quarantined in several counties. It can be a serious problem with mosquitoes as the vector carrying this viral infection from the wild rabbit population to domestic rabbits, which are of European descent. The symptoms can range from sudden death to a high fever with swelling in the ears and genitals and is nearly always fatal. Currently there is no vaccine available in the US.

For the summer I am living in Corvallis (mid-state, 200 miles north) at Oregon State University working on a research internship at the College of Pharmacy. Couldn't bring my rabbits so they are farmed out with other breeders across the state for now. Didn't want to put all my eggs in one basket so a few Torts went to the Rooke family in the Portland area. Gene Knieling, Aumsville has Blues and Grays and is building up his own Dutch herd after primarily breeding New Zealand's and Californians for 30 plus years.

The bulk of my herd is in the Grants Pass area with two families that have started raising Dutch over the last two years. Young Alan Peterson started out with a Blue Tort doe from a pet store and is on his third generation and produced his first Grand Champion Tort buck "Tootsie Pop". His mom Janie, home schools Alan from their rural home in Hugo. He is also a cub scout and a Peewee 4-H member in Rabbits and Archery. Janie's sister Mollie and their mom Marty Bleeker also started raising rabbits again for meat but have branched out into Dutch in several varieties and will start showing this fall.

Emily DeHaas, now in her third year of 4-H Rabbits is also keeping a few bunnies for me with her growing herd. She has won Best of Breeds with Blacks and Torts and has expanded to Blue and Gray with about a dozen cages.

One of the great things about raising Dutch is all the wonderful people you have an opportunity to meet. A special thanks to those breeders giving me a hand by taking care of my rabbits this summer.

Looks like I'll be relocating to Corvallis next summer after I graduate with my Bachelor's degree in Biochemistry from Southern Oregon University. I've been offered a summer job next year in the lab I'm working in now and plan to apply to Graduate School in Pharmacology next fall. My boyfriend Matt Gholden (some of you met him at the Springfield NDS) is currently in the Bahamas on a research internship studying "Predator/prey relations in the reef" doesn't sound like too much hard work but he assures me it is. I'll be flying to meet him in Florida at the end of the summer and driving across country for a two-week vacation before classes start at the end of September.

The fall show season will start September 27th with a double open show in Grants Pass. I'm working on putting together a Dutch Specialty in late November.

Hoping you all has plans for Wichita!

Sincerely yours in Dutch,

Jill Pfaff

Eagle Point, Oregon

NEWS FROM BOB

Hello from the Heartland,

We hope many of you are planning to come to the ARBA convention in Wichita, Kansas. Right now, many of the Dutch members in this area are busy preparing for the BIG ONE, getting awards ordered, breakfast banquet lined up and all of the fun activities that we enjoy when going to the national ARBA shows.

Kansas had their Summer Specialty show in Wichita this year. We grilled out and enjoyed a nice pot luck, followed by a lively and fun, fund raising auction for the Dutch Club. About 100 Dutch were shown and Rick Lehmann won with a black Jr Doe.

The following month in July, the Missouri Dutch Club put on a show in Holt, Missouri. It was a great show with many cash specials. Gary Clark really got out and raised the money, as they had about $250 in cash awards at the show. It was held in an air conditioned building that was nice, considering that the temp hit 100 degrees that afternoon. About 100 Dutch were also shown at this show and Bob Bergene won with a blue Senior Doe. The trip home was exhausting, as the air conditioner on my rabbit bus went out on the way home. The rabbits made it, but the driver got overheated!!

I realize that I am the director for many states in my district, but I don't travel to many shows except Kansas and Missouri, and of course the ARBA convention and the NDS. Those are two shows that I always drive to. So unless I hear from you, promise to be content with the limited news that I have.

Recently, I was down in Wichita on business and stopped by the headquarters motel (Comfort Suites) and checked on our room reservation status. The hotel is completely sold out of rooms, except the rooms blocked off for the Dutch Club. I blocked 30 rooms and at the time of this writing, Aug 3, 10 have been booked and 20 remain. So when those are gone - that is it. However, I have blocked another 10 rooms at another hotel if we need it. So call me, if you can't get in the Comfort Suites.

Remember, You Can't Beat the Dutch!

FLORIDA NEWS

SFRBA held a show in Tampa, FL on April 12, 2003. The weather was excellent. We had a nice showing of Dutch. With three shows on the same day, A, B and the specialty, we still returned home in good time. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. And why shouldn't they – after all we are all in the same boat, among friends, stretching the truth at times about how many BIS we won, or should have won or if the judge would have posed our rabbit the correct way.

In Tampa we were enjoying each other just because we are among friends, good folks, and enjoying a sport we share – a good clean sport enjoyed by individuals and families that is good for us and America.

I was told by a young girl, Amber Nies, who just started with Dutch and won Best of Breed with her black buck. She called long distance to notify her mother, who was unable to attend the show. Another call was made when she won Reserve Best in Show.

FSRBA held their Spring Fling in Deland, Florida on May 10. I saw lots of smiling faces inside the show room and the rabbits seemed to be smiling too. Amber Nies walked off with BIS in the youth show. In the A show it was Dale's black SD for BOB and Marvin Cummings's steel buck for BOS. In the B show, it was Dale's steel JD for BOB and a buck we sold two weeks ago to Ed Manning for BOS.

Something for the youth to be aware of, amber Nies has a 3 and ½ mo old black JD that already has 3 grand champion legs. She plans to breed it to her BIS buck. That doesn't lay down the fact that other youth breeders quit trying. It suggests that we all try harder to achieve our goal in breeding that good one that fills the eye!

youth HAPPENINGS

ADRC YOUTH REP

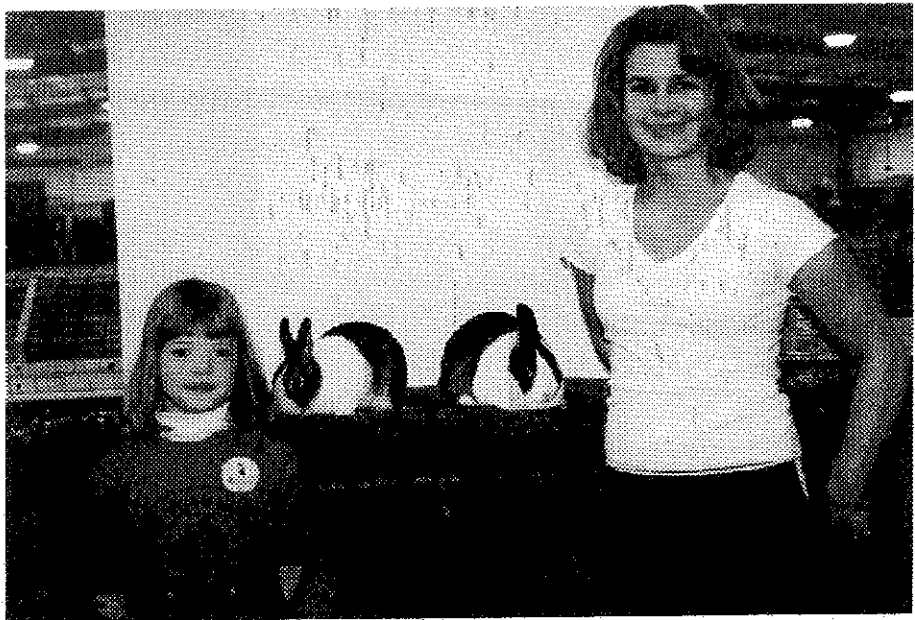

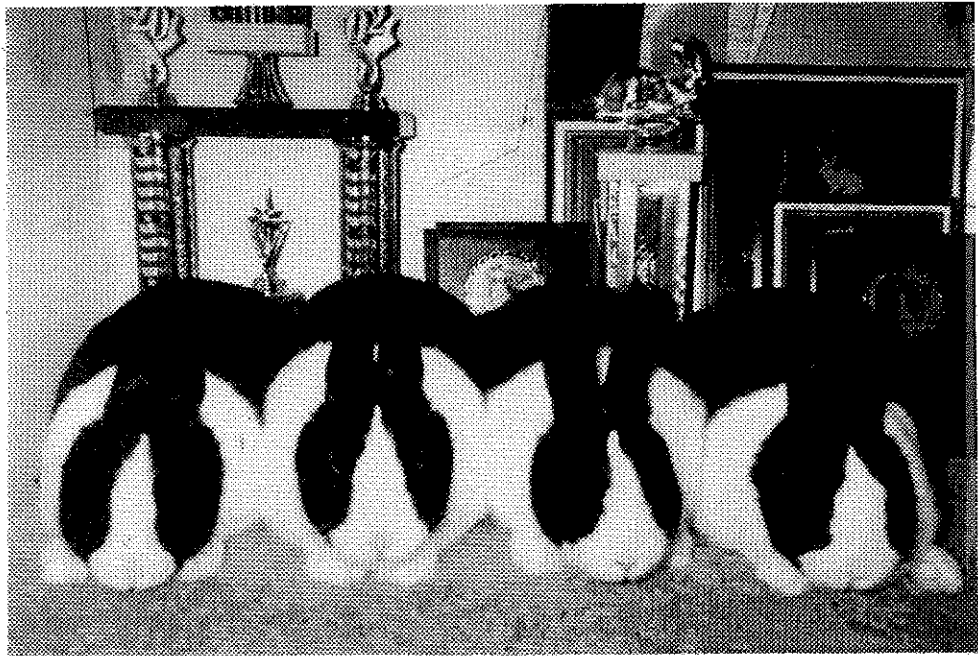

I hope that everyone has had a great summer. They weather has been wonderful, with exception of all the rain! The Ohio youth Dutch have had great numbers at all of the late spring, early summer shows. At the OSRBA Specialty show in May, Adrienne & Mac Gerhardt won both BOB and BOS with 76 entries and at the OSRBA Mini Convention Cody & Danny Lape took BOB and Gerhardt's took BOS with 87 entries. In June, Adrienne & Mac Gerhardt won both BOB and BOS at the OSDRC Spring Specialty show with a pair of blacks. There were 147 entries in youth alone! The Ohio Dutch youth have been doing very well at their local county fairs with their Dutch, meat pens and showmanship. Adrienne & Mac Gerhardt took Best in Show at the 4H show at the Ohio State Fair with a beautiful black junior doe!

I hope that everyone has had great luck with their litters for the ARBA Convention in Kansas! I hope to see lots of new faces since this will be my first time traveling West with my rabbits. If anyone has any questions about what goes on at a convention, please don't hesitate to ask me. I will be starting my junior year in high school shortly and will be very busy with school work, cheerleading and show choir, but I always have time to help out a new Dutch youth member. Well, I better close for now and see you all in Wichita!

HALL OF FAME WINNER

JOHN IMES

To all members, officers and directors of the American Dutch Rabbit Club.

I have no way of expressing how I feel about being elected to the Hall of Fame. Elated, humbled, happy, sad etc.

I can remember when I was very young, getting rid of all my Dutch because Harry Rice said they were no good. About going to see Andy Barton and paying $7.00 for a black doe. Hitch hiking to Hunlington, W Va. to see George Camp and getting a blue buck for $2.00. I bought this buck home in a feed sack.

I don't know what I would have done if he had wet in someone's car, but he didn't.

The anxiety of my first litter out of this cross. 2 black, 2 blue, a steel doe, a gray buck and boy was he a good one. This was the start of me showing grays.

Down thru the years so many good people have advised me. I can remember entry fees 25 cents and I could only show 1 or 2 rabbits. Today I show 10-20 @ $2.50 and think nothing of it.

I have showed under what I call - Great Dutch Judges - Lovejoy, Gaddis, Guthrie, Bengtson and a few more.

However today, the judging is much more consistent.

My biggest win was the 2002 Dutch Show in Indianapolis. My Gray Jr Doe won. At the 2003 Dutch Show I had 1st Sr buck and 1st Sr Doe and Best Gray with the Sr Buck.

I also had best Gray at the 1995 convention with Larry Bengtson judging. I almost didn't send this Jr. Doe.

I have only 48 holes in my rabbitry. I keep 12 gray does, 2 black does (to raise steels for Fairs) and 2 chocolate does that I recently acquired to raise some for the Fairs.

I plan on showing at the Greenville NDS in 2004 and then cut back to 5 gray does and 3 bucks.

I am getting just too old to travel very much.

Thanks again to everyone for selecting me to the Hall of Fame.

IN MEMORY OF LARRY BENGTON

As I traveled with my two sleeping companions up to Minnesota in the beginning of the summer, I had the chance to reflect upon the memories I personally had of one very special man by the name of Larry Bengton.

The first time I met him was at a wee little show back in the late 80's in Fon du Lac, WI. I had purchased a black buck that day and had decided to show him. Larry was assigned Dutch duty and onto the table the buck went.

And off. In the air. Onto Larry's shoulder. This buck decided showing was not in his blood and made every attempt to hit the highway. Larry, on the other hand, calmly reached up to the rabbit perched on his shoulder, pried him loose, and gently set him back in front of him on the table, going on to give remarks, including one referring to the athletic ability of my rabbit. The entire scene was as matter of factly preformed as one would do when brushing away a pesky fly buzzing around one's head. I was in awe of this judge that could tame the beast I now had to try and take home.

Another memory was coupled with an ARBA Nationals in Louisville, KY in the mid 90's. After a long week of early mornings, long days at the showroom, late nights, and breathing in enough rabbit fur to have furry lungs for a month, we left the hotel to load up animals. It was at this time (of course) that my brakes went out on my van. We spent several hours going to dealers to try and get the van in for a quick repair and were told it could take several days and thousands of dollars to fix it. I returned to the showroom where everyone in our little traveling group was awaiting our report. As I started to explain my dilemma, the frustration of the morning took its toll on me and I started to cry. Before I knew it, two comforting arms reached around my shoulders and hugged me tight. They were Larry's arms. He knew right then what I needed to lift my spirits. He talked to me in his gentle, comforting voice, all the while allowing me to soak his shoulder with my tears. I can still see us standing there to this day.

The Upper Midwest Dutch Club hosted the 1995 and 1999 NDS in Oshkosh, WI. If you made it to those shows, you can remember the beautiful building we were able to rent out at the fairgrounds. Since I lived a mere ten minutes from the showroom, I had spent quite a bit of time in that building going over possible set ups for caging and the judging tables. When Larry arrived, I went into my spiel on the set up while delegating the task of moving the tables to two guys helping out.

Right there is great", I said. The guys shuffled the tables over to where I pointed.

Larry walked over in his slow ambling way of moving and stopped us in our tracks.

"See that light filtering through the skylights up there?" He said, pointing above our heads. "Our best light for judging is natural light and we want to have the tables where we can take advantage of it."

The guys shuffled the tables over to where he pointed. The end result was just as he had said it would be. The location was perfect and it could only come from someone, such as himself, who judged under a variety of lighting conditions.

Larry was part of our group that continues to travel together to the National shows within driving distance until he could no longer go with us. Many of those memories include him in them; sitting around the kitchen table in Roger Guetschow's home, where he'd reach for a pair of reading glasses that were his and that had been forgotten so many times during visits to his friend that they found a permanent residence at Roger's house when visiting the Madison area; eating at restaurants along the way to shows, sharing stories and laughing, and then getting up, refreshed from our break to continue onto a show. He had this great smile that would sneak across his face and then allow his deep slow laugh to escape. Before long, the shoulders joined him and his upper body would quake rhythmically. It was infectious and spread to everyone sitting around him; sitting on a table in Madison, WI for the ARBA Nationals in 1997 while Larry talked to me about some of the medical changes he was beginning to experience, along with his mounting frustration associated with these changes. This time I was able to return that hug of support as the tears came from his eyes.

But perhaps the day that will forever stay in my mind was the day of Larry's funeral. We arrived at the little funeral home and followed the flow of visitors inside. Several small grandchildren were weaving around the throngs of people milling about. It was then that we were given a glimpse into the many facets of this fine man's life. Larry and his wife, Doreen, raised five children, all of whom were quietly talking with guests.

On a bulletin board were several beautiful photos that captured moments during Larry's life. They allowed us to share a bit of his past and view the man as a husband, a father, and, how many of us knew him, as a judge. Of course, several pictures had to include one with Larry and Dutch bunnies.

On the other side of the room was a table adorned with special tributes to his life. His dog tags from his time in the service. His ARBA judges license card. His ADRC patches off of show jacket. Mementos from his years in service. Mementos from his years in rabbits. And most noticeable, a tall trophy on the floor near the table from a BOB win at a National show.

After a beautiful service that left all of us with moist eyes, he was laid to rest, complete with a military gun salute, in a tiny cemetery barely a stone's throw from the farm he loved and spent most of his life on. Those standing on that blustery spot that day reflected upon a man who was so gentle, so caring, so dedicated as a husband and father, and who endlessly promoted his beloved Dutch rabbit.

Thank you, Larry, for what you gave to us over the years and for being the wonderful friend that you were.

RABBIT DISEASE OUTBREAK A CONCERN, MAY SPREAD

7-30-03

By David Stauth, 541-737-0787

SOURCE:

CORVALLIS - The private and commercial rabbit growers of Western Oregon may be facing this summer one of the periodic epidemics of myxomatosis, a disease with an extremely high mortality rate that shows up somewhat unpredictably in the European rabbits most commonly reared in Oregon.

A sudden outbreak of the disease in Linn and Benton counties in early July prompted the closure of rabbit shows at the county fairs in those two areas. But whatever combination of viral, population or climatic conditions caused these cases may also lead to more widespread outbreaks, according to experts in the College of Veterinary Medicine at Oregon State University.

Myxomatosis, which last caused major problems in the state more than a decade ago, is extremely infectious, is transmitted naturally by mosquitoes or other insects, can be spread from rabbit to rabbit by human handlers and has no cure. There is no diagnostic test in live animals and no available vaccine.

"The last time we had a major outbreak in the 1980s this caused a horrible problem in the Willamette Valley and Southern Oregon," said Dr. Donald Mattson, an associate professor of veterinary medicine at OSU. "It can have a mortality rate higher than 90 percent in European rabbits."

There are a few primary precautions that rabbit owners can take to protect their animals, Mattson said. The most important would be mosquito netting, which may help protect against mosquito and other insect transmission. But animal handlers should be careful about use of such netting in very hot weather, since it may impair air flow in rabbit hutches. Beyond that, the best prevention is avoiding groups of other rabbits which may be infected, such as at rabbit shows or county fairs.

"For rabbits, this is a very deadly disease," said Dr. Beth Valentine, an associate professor of veterinary medicine at OSU. "From the point of view of a rabbit owner, the best place for these animals is behind mosquito netting, at home, until the worst of the mosquito season passes later this fall. People who own rabbits in Western Oregon should be very cautious until this problem has passed."

Myxomatosis is a poxvirus that has a natural reservoir in nature, perhaps among brush rabbits, the OSU experts say. It is far less deadly to wild rabbits, although they too can be affected. Exactly what triggers the periodic outbreaks among domesticated rabbits is less clear. It may be some combination of immunity levels in wild populations, heat stress, other weather conditions, mosquito populations and other factors.

The disease is also not easily diagnosed, and often it's misdiagnosed by veterinary doctors who see it infrequently. Symptoms can include high fever, loss of appetite, swelling of mucus membranes or sluggishness. The underlying cause of mortality is a profound suppression of the animal's immune system, making them vulnerable to a host of other health problems. Nodules called "myxomas" may appear in some cases. But at times an animal has appeared fairly healthy and been dead the next day.

There is no treatment other than supportive care for secondary infections, veterinary doctors say, and no vaccine is readily available. Experts are now getting information on vaccines that have been used with some success outside the U.S., but in any case it would probably be too late for a vaccine to provide any protection this summer, OSU doctors said.

Some of the facts known about myxomatosis include: Myxomatosis first was described in Uruguay in 1989, and spread northward from there into Mexico and California, where it has evolved into the "California" strain of virus, which often has high mortality but fewer overt symptoms than some other strains. All domesticated rabbits in the U.S. are highly susceptible to the virus, but humans are not. Mosquitoes, fleas, mites and biting flies may all help transmit the virus, and it may also be carried in the air for unknown distances. In rabbit colonies, mechanical transmission of the virus is often observed, often by human caretakers or even the judge at a rabbit show. If a rabbit is exposed to an infected rabbit, it should be quarantined for 14 days and assumed to be infected during that period.

It's unknown exactly how severe this year's epidemic may become and how far it will spread, the OSU experts say, although history suggests it may not move much beyond Western Oregon.

In the interests of monitoring the spread of the disease, anyone who owns a rabbit that dies from an unknown cause should consider contacting their local veterinarian or arranging for an autopsy by the Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory at OSU, by calling (541) 737-3261. There will be a fee for the autopsy. It's probable that the disease has already caused many more deaths than have so far been confirmed because it cannot be specifically diagnosed in live animals and few people arrange for autopsies.

Dr. Brad Leamaster, the state veterinarian, is collaborating with the OSU veterinary experts on the monitoring and management of this disease.

"We'll try to monitor the spread of this disease as carefully as we can and keep fair officials and the public advised of any developments," Lemaster said. "At this point we're allowing officials in local areas to make decisions about closing down such things as rabbit shows at county fairs."

MIKE STINEHELPER

My father is in a nursing care facility now and gets his mail at our home now. He is doing well and sure enjoys seeing the Dutch Reporter and seeing pictures of Dutch raisers he has known over the years. He still loves his Dutch. His granddaughter still has one of his Dutch rabbits and he gets to see it.

GLENN A MORGAN

He was born Feb 24, 1927 in Akron, the son of Thomas and Hazel Morgan. Mr. Morgan was a mechanical foreman at Republic Steel for 35 years and also worked for Red Head Gas Co. He retired in December 1982.

He attended Newton Falls High School and served with the U.S. Navy in World War II and the Korean War. Mr. Morgan was a member of First Church of God in Newton Falls. He enjoyed raising show rabbits and judged the rabbits at the Canfield Fair for many years. He was inducted into the American Dutch Rabbit Club Hall of Fame. He enjoyed traveling and showing his Dutch rabbits.

CONTRADICTIONS

If you are fairly new to the wonderful world of rabbits as I am, perhaps you have noticed all the contradictions found in rabbit books. What one book advocates, another soundly trounces. Here are some examples;

Some books suggest giving pieces of stale bread to your rabbits a couple of times a week. Others say no bread products – too much starch and carbohydrates. Or some say give your rabbit some tree branches to chew on, preferably fruit wood. Another says no, use only seasoned (for six months) apple wood branches.

Wondering about the litter for the litter box? Well, depending on which book you read, that choice is up for grabs too. Kitty litter is out, as are any cedar types of bedding due to harmful vapors. It is also feared that the phenol in pine chips can potentially harm a rabbit's liver. What about shredded newspaper? Nope. The newsprint is toxic.

Some of the first books I read said total nutrition for a rabbit is as simple as salt, water and rabbit pellets. Any time I have offered salt, it has grown dusty on the spool in the pen.

Recently I have noticed that some books suggest free choice grass hay and fewer pellets. Oh, and speaking of hay ... turns out alfalfa is just for the younger buns. It is too high in protein and calcium after they are a year old.

A lot of this may just be controversial but other information is downright harmful. You may not believe this, but an older book in the local library gives an illustration of the proper technique for lifting a rabbit. It shows someone hoisting a rabbit by the ears!! Yikes!

So whether your preference is water bottles or crock dishes, I guess we can just do the best for our animals.

Now ... here's a book I haven't ready yet

Pedigree-The Ingredients

by Tom Dietrich

Several excellent articles have appeared recently in the Dutch reporter addressing the poor type that a good portion of the Dutch exhibited today display.

Probably overall 90% of the exhibitors showing Dutch at some level of competition base their cullings on markings alone. So you see decent marked, flat, hippy, long, etc. rabbits exhibited. Soon these rabbits become winners as you still have to have a winner of the forty bad rabbits entered and more rabbits are produced like this. A good Dutch show rabbit needs both good type and markings. Tips to look for in a good brood doe or buck. I will describe two rabbits who were sister who were very successful producing winners. Short cobby and round, fabulous bodies, a lot of height and width noticed, nice ball heads, jet black color with short dense fly back fur. Both of these animals would be show winners

if they were all just one color but they are Dutch rabbits, so the markings come into play. One of the rabbits everyone would use in their breeding program and the other one only the more experienced would use. The first doe was Tommy Ds Rose, best of breed at the 99 ARBA convention, 02 calendar girl, who was involved in producing Bob Wordens best opposite sex at the 02 ARBA convention who also was the best in show at the 02 Indiana state convention. Rose's younger sister who has numerous marking faults produced the 02 ARBA convention best opposite sex in the youth. My advice is to use the proper body type Dutch, do not waver on this, also use the best marked of these but if the line possesses all the proper markings it is surprising sometimes who that perfect marked Dutch comes from. Excellent visual cues for proper type can be found in the Dutch club colored Dutch poster also the 02 and 03 Dutch club calendars listing tommy Ds Rose and Lehmanns Percy. Also Percy can be seen numerous times in the current ARBA domestic rabbit's magazine.

Good luck in producing that perfect Dutch, Tom

Lawrence Alan Bengtson, the third son of Paul and Jane (McAvoy) Bengtson was born on October 4, 1939 in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

He graduated from New Brighton High School, attended the University of Minnesota for a short period of time and then enlisted in the Army, serving in Ethiopia and Vietnam during his six years in the service. After leaving the Army he returned to Minneapolis and married Doreen (Rau) at Saint Augustine Catholic Church in Saint Cloud, Minnesota on June 15, 1968. After the wedding the Bengtson's moved to Southeastern Minnesota where Larry earned his Bachelor of Science Degree at Winona State University.

Larry raised chickens and rabbits as a youngster and continued his love of animals through his adult years.

Larry earned his rabbit judges license in 1969 and became a nationally renown rabbit judge. He judged numerous National Rabbit Conventions from 1969 until 1998 when he retired.

Shortly after earning his rabbit judges license he again became involved in serving his country. He was an active member of the 407 Civil Affairs Company and after becoming an officer in the United States Army Reserve he spent a year commanding the 329th AG Postal Unit. The 329th was named Unit of the Year in 1985, the year that Larry served as its commander. Larry enjoyed his comrades in the service and was anxious to travel with them to places such as Korea, Fort Bragg, Fort McCoy, South Dakota, the Persian Gulf and many other interesting places.

Larry was a long time member of the American Rabbit Breeders Association, the American Dutch Rabbit Club, the Boy Scouts of America, Larry was awarded the Gamehaven Council District award of Merit in 1982.

Larry is survived by his wife, Doreen, three sons, Erik (Mandy) Bengtson of Winona, Neil (Leah) Bengtson of St Cloud, Minnesota, Paul Bengtson of Las Vegas, Nevada, two daughters, Kirsten (James) Dutton of Bath, England & Melinda (Jason) Austin of Cross Plains, Wisconsin, by five grandchildren, Drew & Grey Austin, Piper and Clark Dutton, & Fletcher Bengtson, two siblings, Jeanne (Joseph) Ellefson of Arvada California, & Judith Lund, of Cedar, Minnesota. He is preceeded in death by his parents, two brothers, Paul, Jr and John and one grandchild, Megan Dutton.

Larry was a devoted and loving Father, Husband, Grandpa, and Soldier.

2004 National Dutch Show

April 16-18, 2004

Greenville, Ohio

The Ohio State Dutch Rabbit Club is honored to be hosting the 2004 National Dutch Show, the year in which we celebrate the 75th anniversary of the American Dutch Rabbit Club!

We will be holding the show at the same locations that the 1996 and 1997 National Dutch shows were held. The building is very large with plenty of natural light. We are planning to have enough coops for 1400 Dutch. If we have more coops than we have entries, then those will be used as sale coops.

We are making a few changes in the schedule so that we may be able to have an easier schedule on Saturday.

The showroom will be open to accept rabbits at 9:00 on Friday morning (Thursday night for those who come and help with setup.)

The Friday night activities will include the judging of the Fur class. This will open things up a bit at the end the day on Saturday. We will list the exact starting time so that everyone knows whether they should enter or not, based on their time of arrival.

Friday night activities will include the Ladies Choice Class, AOV and this year a Judging Class, open to all.

We will be using a "No Ear Number" entry system. Just send in your entry listing two Black Jr Bucks. Select your best two before you leave home, and give us the ear numbers when you arrive. This means no need to substitute!

SELLER'S CLASS - The Seller's Class entries will be accepted only until 10:00 AM on Saturday. Please review the Seller's Class rules and note the limit of two Dutch entered per exhibitor. Plan to enter your seller's class entry upon arrival at the show!

BANQUET - The Banquet will be held in the large area adjacent to the showroom.

HOTEL - The hotel info will not be available until the ARBA Convention. As soon as we have it we will let you know. (The hotel we are dealing with will not block off rooms until six months ahead of the show.) The host hotel does have an indoor pool with a rate in the sixty dollar range. We have another new hotel just across the street if we fill the first one.

DONATIONS - We are again variety sponsors! You can sponsor a variety for $50. This entitles you to a 1/4 page ad in the catalog, as well as your name listed a sponsor on the BOV and BOSV trophies. We will also take money donations to be given to the awards of your choice (i.e. Best Youth Steel Display).

When you send your donation, simply list what you want the money used for, or ask it to go where needed. It will then be used to pay for whatever award is needed.

DONATIONS should be made out to the OSDRC and sent to Barb Kline, 4664 S Co Rd 591, New Riegel, Ohio 44853.

CATALOG ADS - Ad prices for the catalog are: Full page $40, Inside of covers -$45, 1/2 page $25, 1/4 page $15, and 1/6 page (business card size) $10. Checks should be made out to OSDRC, and ad requests should be sent to KEITH WEBER 4787 Cotton Run Rd, Hamilton, Ohio 45011 AD Deadline is JAN 15, 2003.

THE GREAT DUTCH RAFFLE - Once again this year we will be contacting the Top Dutch Breeders from around the country, and we will hold a Dutch Raffle. This has been highly successful in the past and I expect this one to be the best ever!

SHIPPING - The showroom is located only 40 minutes from the Dayton International Airport (which has some of the lowest rates in the country). No city traffic to deal with, just hop on I-70, then north on St Rt 49!

Open Superintendent - Kevin Hooper (937)987-2244 email - kkoop1@juno.com
Youth Superintendent - Phil Lape (419)238-3906 email - lapesdutch@im3.com

Hope everyone can make the show!!
