JUNE 1955

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

George Bayliss

The 1955 National Dutch Rabbit Show has now gone down in the history of the AMERICAN DUTCH RABBIT CLUB. It was an outstanding show, not from the point of entries, but from the QUALITY in the entries shown. The OHIO STATE DUTCH CLUB sponsors of the show did an outstanding job; each key-person did his or her job well, the Judges did a wonderful job in their placements. I feel that all that attended this outstanding yearly event left well satisfied and happy; SATISFIED of the sportsmanship that was shown in the showroom, and of the renewal of old friendships and new friends made; HAPPY with the accomplishments made in all the Board and General meetings of your Club. A majority of the Officers were present which enabled a lot of decisions to be made, and much was accomplished in the Board meetings. A detailed report will be given by the Secretary, and from the different Committee Chairmen.

At this point I wish to stress the importance of your cooperation towards the publishing of the new STANDARD and GUIDE BOOK with your own advertising. Don't delay in getting your advertisement to Mr. Settle, the success of this project will depend upon the support of each member. Won't you sit down tonight and write that ad: and send it in?

Another very important subject that will be submitted to the complete membership for acceptance or rejection, will be the revisions to our Constitution and By-Laws; this will be done by a mail vote. PLEASE USE YOUR VOTE ON THESE CHANGES.

One other important subject was presented to the Board for final action, that being the change of the Dutch Rabbit on the 'cuts' that are used for printing the stationary for the Club and other printed material. Several drawings were submitted, and after much thought and consideration the selection was made. This selection will be sent to the Standard Committee of your Club for clearance. In using this procedure the Board felt that we would then have a proper representation of the Dutch Rabbit according to the description as given in the Dutch Rabbit Standard. Along with this was also discussed the cover of the DUTCH REPORTER; and to keep all printing relative, a change will be made in the cover of the DUTCH REPORTER. It is the hope of the Board that the membership will approve of these changes.

Once again thanks to the Ohio State Boys, and to the preview of what to expect at A.R.B.A. Convention

Please notify us immediately of any change in address so that you will not miss copies of the Dutch Reporter at Columbus, Ohio.

DUTCH RUMBLINGS

G. C. Leisenring,
Publicity Director.

Our 1955 National Dutch Show at Norwalk, Ohio, came to a successful conclusion on Sunday April 24, and although the number of entries was below expectations, the quality was very good. The attendance over the three day period was also very good as the weatherman blessed us with a beautiful week-end. The general assembly meetings were well attended and presided over in a fine manner by our President George Bayliss. Several highly important matters were brought to the floor and in each case proper action was taken, of these you will learn in a detailed report in the Dutch Reporter. On Saturday night at seven sharp those in attendance at the Banquet in the spacious dining quarters at the show site were treated to a most tasty three course dinner and a jolly good time was had by all. Following the banquet the final ADRC meeting was held and many interesting and educational discussions were held. At this meeting the membership approved by vote to take a full page ad in the 1955 National ARBA Convention catalog; also bought a Dutch Booth at the coming convention. Among the various speakers was our good friend and ADRC member Cy Lowit who flew in from the west with President George Bayliss. Mr. Lowit commented on the tremendous growth of our Club in the past year; the merits of our Dutch from a commercial standpoint; the recent strides of improvement in our Dutch quality-wise on the Show table, and the great necessity of very close cooperation with our parent organization-the ARBA. Another most interesting talk was given by our neighbor and fellow breeder from Canada, George Melrose who motored across the border with the usual group of loyal Canadian breeders. Mr. Melrose outlined for the members of the ADRC the general activities of the Canadian Dutch breeders, their problems etc. highlighting many of their big shows of the year which are operated very differently from our shows in the States, they being sanctioned by the Canadian Government which compels their rules and regulations to be much different from ours. After adjournment of the final meeting and a Skit-chat here and there in the show rooms, many groups motored to the Hotel Avalon convention headquarters and there a grand time was had by all until the wee hours Sunday morn and then soon after the customary hand shakes, good-byes and good wishes till we meet again.

May I remind you all one again of the all important new Guide Book and Standard the American Dutch Club will publish soon. We know you want, and we are striving to give you, an outstanding new edition; but to do this we must have your help through advertising. The cost must be supported by advertising. We have delayed the progress of this new issue due to the lack of ads from you members, however we must set a deadline of June 30th. for ads. I know you will want your ad to appear in this new edition of our Guide Book. So if you have neglected to send in your copy for some reason or another please do so at once--to: Mr. L. E. Settle, 2110 - 27th. St., Lubbock, Texas. I will repeat the cost of advertising for your convenience Full Page--$17.50, 1/2 Page--$10.00, 1/4 Page--$6.00, 1/8 Page--$4.00.

The 2nd. Junior Department show of the National Dutch Show came off in grand style.

This department under the capable direction of Meric Bery, and judged by G. A. Burke of Hilliards, Ohio was outstanding. Several of the Junior members were in attendance, and believe me, they are in the groove. If you back-checked the show reports you will have noted some of the youngsters stood their ground and did very well in Open competition. Not one of the exhibitors hesitated to quiz the master. The majority of the Junior exhibitors compete regularly in local shows, and carry off their part of the prizes. Also, they are not backward in informing the Secretary about which article in the Dutch Reporter is concise and to the point, and which article is confusing, or contradictory. Folds, we have some master breeders in the making. Watch out!

The banquet was one of the very nicest I have ever had the privilege of attending. Under the watchful eye, and careful supervision of Hulda Ohlemacher, it was just wonderful. Tables were laid with whitest of white linens, and attractively decorated with sprigs of spring blossoms, with a beautiful centerpiece which the Ohio State Dutch Club presented to your Secretary, and of course this was a delightful surprise. Thanks, again, friends. The food was excellent, and there was just loads of it.

The entire Show Committee worked very hard, and steady, to give us an excellent National Dutch Show. This one goes into my book as being TOPS. Thanks, Ohio State Dutch Club, collectively, and individually, for the splendid show, and Convention.

"THIS IS IT"-"LAST OPPORTUNITY"

Do you want your ad in the new STANDARD AND GUIDE BOOK? The closing date for all advertising and other information is June 30. Your State and local specialty club should have a page of this cheap advertisement, where your club's name will be before the Dutch Breeders and American Dutch Club membership for the next five years. No State club should miss this opportunity to advertise their club and let the rest of the Dutch Fanciers know that you have a club.

To all Judges: you should have at least a $4.00 ad to let the Dutch breeders know that you are interested in their rabbit, and will make them a good judge if given an opportunity. You will at least show your interest. You will also secure a copy of the new Standard and Guide Book free.

A large number of new members will be joining the AMERICAN DUTCH RABBIT CLUB during the next few years and each one will receive a copy of this book. Many will be beginners or old timers looking for a place to purchase a good rabbit. Will your name be there to let them know where they may secure the desired stock?

This is the cheapest possible advertisement for the best possible results to be obtained. The club also needs your cooperation in securing adequate financing to put out a Standard and Guide Book of which we will be proud. If the ads do not come in we will have to print a mediocre book that the club membership cannot call their best, and one that will not be the envy of other specialty clubs. I know that we can put out just as good a STANDARD AND GUIDE BOOK as any other specialty clubs, if we will just give adequate support in our advertisement and other material.

Remember the closing date, "THIS IS IT" - "YOUR LAST OPPORTUNITY" for about five more years. Get your advertisement, money and copy to the Chairman by the closing date and you will not regret your expense when you sell your first DUTCH through this ad or when you receive your copy from the Secretary.

$17.50 for full page, $10.00 for one-half page, $6.00 for one-fourth page, and $4.00 for one-eighth page or the breeders ad or judges ad. "THIS IS IT". closing date, June 30, 1955. Thanks for your support.

OUR MEMBERSHIP LIST

Madeleine Grables

A membership list will, again this year, be furnished to each A.D.R.C. member preceding the Nomination for Club Officers. The list of names will contain yours-- if your dues are paid through July 1 - so watch it; check your card, and if your dues expire before July 1, please help to keep this list as lengthy as possible by renewing at once. This list will go into preparation within the next 10 days, and you can help lighten the work a little here by sending your dues early.

Nomination ballots will be mailed First Class, so about July 1 be on the lookout for yours. Our voting percentage is getting better all the time, so let's keep up the old spirit. Send your ballot back to the Election Committee Chairman just as soon as you receive it. Let's be the envy of all the other Specialty Clubs!

DUTCH RABBIT

Please, let's set the good example by using the correct name for our rabbit. It is DUTCH; not American Dutch. The word American in front of Dutch for the name of our Club, American Dutch Rabbit Club, merely sets our own Club apart from the "Cuban" Dutch Rabbit Club, if there is one, and the CORRECT name for our rabbit is simply DUTCH.

SEND your Guide Book ad to Mr. Settle, NOW. We do not want to be known as put-er-off-ers. We do not want to have to postpone the printing of our Guide Book, a couple of times. We want and need the new Guide Book; you know the reasons, the old one is out-dated, etc. Your ad, no matter how small, will help to get us over the old hump on finances for the printing expenses. Send YOUR ad. You won't be sorry, if you do.

TWICE TOLD TALES

What Is A Fancier?

President George Bayliss

Raising rabbits would mean little, I am afraid, if it were not for the shows and our standards of perfection. But because we do have them, many are attracted to that enterprise or hobby.

In order to be a real success in raising rabbits for the shows, one must have a real fancier's spirit.

The fancier must feel the appeal of beauty and perfection - the wish to better something of beauty and quality. He needs to be a sportsman, to be able to take a licking without crying all over the place.

Many times we see exhibitors kicking or protesting with the Judges and show officials, or who, perhaps, are appealing it to other exhibitors on the outside.

A true fancier must have some knowledge of breeding characteristics and to be able to benefit from mistakes made. The ability to cull properly and to have knowledge of the breed or breeds he is perfecting. All go to make up a fancier.

He must be able to carry on when the going is tough. When death claims the young buck he thought was going to be such a sensation at all the coming shows, when the champion doe refuses to raise her young, and perhaps when dogs clean out the best stock in the outdoor pens. There are, of course, many other setbacks and discouragements that the fancier must put up with and carry on in spite of it all.

Another quality we find in a real fancier is the willingness to help the other breeder with his problems. Remember, breeders, no one has ever benefited from anything they kept to themselves.

Our young rabbit breeders who will be the backbone of our industry later on, especially deserve the help of the 'old guard'. Perfecting a breed of rabbits is the job of the fancier and we wouldn't have the beautiful type of the wonderful fur that the rabbits throughout the entire country possess if it were not for the efforts of the fanciers.

J U N I O R S or Juniors ? ? ?

By A. Careful Observer

At a recent Dutch Show one thing cropped up which I think should be rectified, especially as it has happened with Dutch judges at several shows in the past.

What I am referring to is that in the judges' remarks on Junior classes was the statement: "Too large for the class - should be in Senior Class."

This, I think, is wrong; for a junior Dutch is just that, until six months of age. And at that age they should have attained mature growth, or nearly so. Therefore, if the junior rabbit is larger than some of the 8 to 12 week-old babies, it should not receive such a remark, unless the judge is SURE it is over six months of age.

TORTOISE DUTCH Color Standard

The following Tortoise color Standard has been approved and accepted, duly, by the ADRC and the ARBA. Since there are no changes in the color of the Tortoise Dutch but since this new description is so far superior to the one printed in the 1950-55 Guide Book, this new description is being printed here for the information, and value to the Tortoise breeders and our judges.

TORTOISE: To be a bright clean orange color, blending into smokey-blue shading over the rump, carrying well into the haunches. The top color should carry down into the under-color, blending into a dark cream color next to the skin. Tail should match top body color, under tail to match shadings; light tails are permissible, but very undesirable. The shadings on the head should be darkest at the whisker bed, blending into lighter shadings on the jaw, and darkening again at the ear base, blending up the ears to match body color; ears to have lacings to match shadings. Free from white hairs, smut or smudge throughout the orange color

MORE ABOUT GOLD DUTCH

An enquiry came into this office regarding whether or not GOLD DUTCH are entitled to a Grand Champion leg. Remember, please, the GOLD DUTCH is still on the Working Standard. In a letter to this office on the question, Dr. Max Andrews refers us to Section 26 of the ARBA Show Rules (page 274). No rabbit on Working Standard is entitled to a Grand Champion leg, nor can the rabbit on working Standard be registered. Points on these animals cannot be counted for Sweepstake points, nor Show Display points. The Gold Dutch, entered at shows at the regular entry fee, IS entitled to win class money, and any Specials that may be placed on Gold Dutch.

YOU CAN'T BEAT THE DUTCHOUR NEWEST STATE DUTCH CLUB

I am happy to announce that the Dutch breeders of the state of IOWA have organized an IOWA STATE DUTCH RABBIT CLUB. Officers for 1955 are as follows: President, Don Guthrie; Vice-President, and Chmn. Publicity Committee, O. D. White; Sec'y-Treas. Rhea N. Dennis, 3737 E. Douglas, Des Moines 17, Iowa; Directors, 2 year terms, C. W. Dugan and Ted S. Kennedy; 1 year terms, E. C. Cook, Paul Dennis and Mrs. C. C. Barclay

We have 35 members at present and hope to double this by this time next year. We think that we have some of the best Dutch in the country here in the Middle West.

Would like to see this as a news item in the Dutch Reporter.

O. D. White, Chmn. Publicity Committee.

Ed's Note: Glad to have the news, Mr. White. Best wishes to the Iowa State Dutch Club.

PEG YOUR PEARLON

We note an unintentional omission in the results of the Election for Dutch Judges for the 1955 ARBA Convention.

R. L. Souers - 18 votes.

We are indeed regretful for the omission, and apologize to Judge Souers, and the ADRC member.
