"YOU CAN'T BEAT THE DUTCH"

NEWS FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

Spring has arrived - thank goodness! I'm sure that all of us, even our members in the southern states have had enough of winter and the bizarre weather it has brought. We're all getting excited about the NATIONAL DUTCH SHOW in Bloomington, May 6th, 7th and 8th. The show catalogs will be out by the time you receive your DUTCH REPORTER. The Illinois Dutch Rabbit Club has put together an outstanding list of specials that are well distributed, giving everyone a chance to bring home prizes and cash. Show catalogs are mailed to members who have exhibited at either of the last two NDS, advertisers in the catalog and any member who requests a catalog. If you haven't received a copy and would like one, please drop me a note and we'll get one out to you immediately.

I'm very pleased to share with you the new, 1988 ADRC Committees. Approximately 50 members were asked to assist in running the club. Over two-thirds responded! Some were unable to help at this time due to overloads on their time and we appreciate their honesty. A lot of our members wrote, saying they felt honored to be included; some even felt they weren't worthy because they had only been in the club a few years. Please remember, we want input from ALL of our members and for those of us who have been in the club for more than a few years, we especially need to be reminded of your needs as a younger member. At times, we forget what our concerns were when we first joined. If you weren't contacted about serving on a committee and would like to help with the ADRC, we'd love to have you. Just let us know where you'd like to work and we'll try to include you for 1989. Secretary Hart will be including Committee Chairman's names in the DUTCH REPORTER so you will be able to contact them directly if you have questions.

'89 ARBA CONVENTION COMMITTEE

Chairman - Nick Dyer, OK
 (To be announced later)

Some goals that I would like to see be accomplished for our committees are as follows:

SWEEPSTAKES - 1) design a method to solve the confusion in names that have been submitted by show secretary's so our members do not loose sweepstakes points, 2) Search for better values and different awards for Sweepstakes, 3) Committee advice on possible change of sweepstakes year, 4) new contests.

CONSTITUTION & BY-LAWS - 1) Completely revise with the intent of simplifying our ADRC Constitution and By-laws - a 2 yr. project.

DUTCH REPORTER COMMITTEE - 1) design a questionnaire that will be sent to selected groups of the membership asking the members what they enjoy the most/worse about the DR, giving us a direction for the DR.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE - 1) to evaluate show reports when there are exceptionally high numbers of non-members showing Dutch, 2) develop a questionnaire as to reasons for joining, would they re-join, what is liked/not liked about the club.

SHOW RULES COMMITTEE - 1) Re-evaluate present rules, checking for out-dated and unnecessary rules, 2) Study all newly proposed rules, 3) Prepare a paper on hospitality and welcoming of 1st time exhibitors to be given to NDS sponsors.

GUIDEBOOK COMMITTEE - 1) Obtain old and new articles for the Guidebook, 2) compile facts of ADRC history, 3) set-up costs for ads.

YOUTH COMMITTEE - 1) Evaluate youth participation and interest, 2) work with the Board of Directors to adjust spending equal to percentage of youth/adult membership.

PUBLICITY/PROMOTION COMMITTEE - 1) Work on developing new, attractive sale items, 2) assist in making the Dutch Reporter more self-sufficient by obtaining ads.

ELECTION COMMITTEE - 1) To develop guidelines for counting ballots that may not be valid due to identifiable markings, 2) ballots that contain votes for members out of their district.

STANDARD COMMITTEE - 1) to work with membership on difficulties on showing or understanding the ARBA's Dutch Standard of Perfection, 2) to incorporate changes needed to clarify and improve the Dutch Standard, 3) to include at least three articles in the Dutch Reporter on possible Dutch changes for the memberships comments.

If you have any comments that you would like to share with the above committees, please feel free to write to the chairman or any of the committee members.

WAYNE MAC KINNON has been approved by the ADRC Board of Directors to fill the remainder of the term of VICE PRESIDENT. Filling Wayne's term will be FRED MULLINAX of North Carolina. The opening for Director from District 2 still remains open.

We would like to welcome our first 'local speciality' club, THE SUN VALLEY DUTCH FANCIERS from Southern California. They held their first Dutch Show on Valentines Day, February 14th in Escondido. Some dandy photos and show information can be found elsewhere in the DR.

Marti Dill, President

BY WAYNE MACKINNON

HELLO EVERYONE, I WOULD LIKE TO OPEN MY FIRST MESSAGE AS NEWLY APPOINTED VICE PRESIDENT TO WELCOME ALL THE NEW OFFICERS. I LOOK FORWARD TO WORKING WITH ALL OF YOU FOR THE REST OF THIS YEAR. THE OUTGOING OFFICERS DID A OUTSTANDING JOB IN SERVICE TO OUR CLUB. I WILL MISS THEIR MESSAGES AND THE IMPUT THEY HAD IN KEEPING THE CLUB RUNNING SMOOTHLY. NOT TO BE OVERLOOKED WAS THE MANY CONTRIBUTIONS SCOTT WILLIAMSON HAS MADE AS PRESIDENT. I WILL ALSO THANK SCOTT FROM ALL OF US.

OUR NEW PRESIDENT MARTI DILL IS MAKING A EFOROT TO HAVE AS MANY MEMBERS INVOLVED WITH OUR COMMITTEES AS POSSIBLE. IF YOU WISH TO WORK ON A COMMITTEE IN 1989 CONTACT THE DIRECTOR OR OFFICER NEAR YOU OR IN YOUR DISTRICT. TELL THEM THE COMMITTEES YOU WOULD LIKE TO SERVE ON,ASK THEM TO FORWARD THIS INFORMATION TO MARTI DILL.

IF YOU WISH TO RUN FOR AN OFFICE THIS YEAR BE ADVISED WE HAVE A NEW PROCEDURE FOR DOING THIS. YOU MUST FIRST WRITE THE CLUB SECRETARY (IN THIS CASE NORMA HART) AND REQUEST A PETITION TO DO SO. YOU MUST DO THIS BEFORE JUNE FIRST OF THIS YEAR. WE WILL BE ELECTING A VICE PRESIDENT AND AT LEAST THREE DIRECTORS THIS YEAR TO TAKE OFFICE JANUARY 1,1989. I WOULD SUGGEST YOU DO THIS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE,AS TIME IS GETTING SHORT AND BEFORE YOU KNOW IT WILL BE TO LATE. SEE THE JANURARY/FEBURARY DUTCH REPORTER REFER TO THE CONSTITUTION PRINTED TREREIN, SPECIFICALLY, ARTICLE VI, SECTION 1, FOR THE FULL ELECTION PROCEDURE.

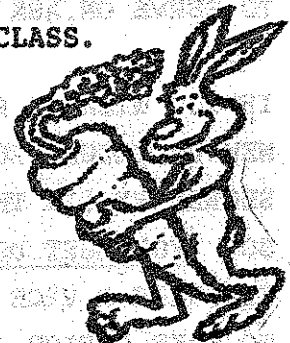

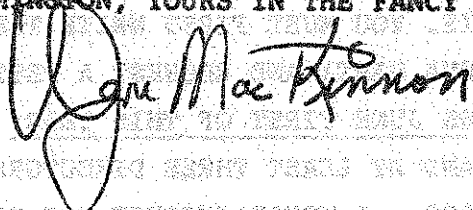

YOU WILL FIND IN THIS, OR A UPCOMING DUTCH REPORTER, SEVERAL PROPOSALS FOR CHANGES IN THE DUTCH STANDARD. PLEASE READ THEM CAREFULLY AND PLEASE MAKE SURE YOU VOTE WHEN YOU RECEIVE YOUR BALLOT. THESE PROPOSALS WILL ONLY GO INTO THE STANDARD WHEN VOTED ON AND APPROVED BY THE ENTIRE MEMBERSHIP. THE PROPOSALS WILL THEN BE SENT TO THE ARBA STANDARDS COMMITTEE FOR FINAL WORK AND APPROVAL. YOUR VOTES COUNT SO IF YOU DON'T AGREE WITH ANY OF THEM AND YOU DON'T VOTE YOU WILL HAVE TO LIVE WITH THE RESULTS.

I HOPE EVERYONE HAS COME THROUGH THE WINTER SEASON WITH THEIR DUTCH ALL READY TO GO THIS SPRING. WE WILL HAVE SOME TIME YET TO GET IN A FEW TUNE UP SHOWS BEFORE THE BIG ONE IN BLOOMINGTON, ILL. MAY 6-8, 1988. BY THE TIME YOU RECEIVE THIS NEWSLETTER YOU SHOULD HAVE OR MUST SOON MAKE YOUR PLANS TO GO. IF YOU EVER PLAN TO ATTEND A NATIONAL DUTCH SHOW AND ARE WAITING FOR A BIG ONE THIS COULD BE THE ONE. EVEN IF YOU THINK YOU MIGHT NOT HAVE A CHANCE, GIVE IT A TRY ANYWAY YOU REALY NEVER KNOW, YOU MIGHT HAVE JUST THE ONE THE JUDGE IS LOOKING FOR.

TWO FINAL POINTS, IF YOU ARE ATTENDING THIS OR ANY SHOW AND ONE OF OUR OFFICERS ARE IN ATTENDANCE, INTRODUCE YOURSELF. I KNOW ALL THE OFFICERS AND THEY HAVE ONE THING IN COMMON THEY ALL LOVE TO TALK DUTCH. WE WILL ALL BE HAPPY TO HELP YOU WITH YOUR DUTCH, THAT IS WHY WE TOOK THESE JOBS. DON'T FORGET THE SELLERS CLASS THAT IS A REASON IN ITSELF FOR GOING TO BLOOMINGTON. THERE HAS BEEN SOME REAL GOOD STOCK AVAILABLE THE LAST FEW YEARS IN THIS CLASS.

SEE YOU IN BLOOMINGTON, YOURS IN THE FANCY

1988 National Dutch Show

Final preparations are being made regarding the 1988 NDS, to be held in Bloomington, Illinois. We are anticipating a large entry of quality Dutch, and are hoping that you are able to join us for this event.

Our banquet will be held at the "Bob Knapp's Restaurant", which is about 2 1/2 miles from the showroom and headquarters motel. This will be a smorgasbord type meal of all you can eat. At the present time, the meal will consist of chicken, roast beef, BBQ ribs, and a fourth meat; whipped potatoes and gravy; dressing; 2 vegetables; a 20 item salad bar; rolls and butter; cakes, puddings, and hot crisps; and beverage. This menu is subject to change at the descretion of the Restaurant.

ALL BANQUET TICKET RESERVATIONS MUST ACCOMPANY YOUR ENTRY.
Seating may be limited, so get your reservations in early!

The prices for the banquet will be listed in the NDS catalog.

Anyone wishing a catalog that was not an exhibitor at the 1987 NDS may obtain one by contacting; →

FROM THE DESK OF YOUR SECRETARY

This issue of the DUTCH REPORTER contains a current updated list of our membership. I waited until the last possible date to publish this list so that our members were given as much time as possible to renew and have their updated renewal date listed. We were also able to include many new members. If your membership is not updated on this new listing, and you sent in your renewal, it was received after printing and your file has been updated. A complete listing of those members that are also ARBA licensed judges can be found at the end of the membership list. REMEMBER, IF YOUR MEMBERSHIP HAS LAPSED FOR OVER 60 DAYS, YOU LOSE ALL OF THE SWEEPSTAKES POINTS THAT YOU HAVE ACCUMULATED PRIOR TO THE LAPSE. You may pay to have your membership backdated in order to show no lapse, but, your points are lost!

In this issue, ADULT PAID MEMBERS will find their ballot for voting on the 1990 ARBA CONVENTION JUDGE and the 1990 NATIONAL DUTCH SHOW JUDGES. Youth members will find a ballot for voting on the 1990 YOUTH NATIONAL DUTCH SHOW JUDGE ONLY. Please follow the directions on YOUR ballot carefully to ensure that it is valid and will be counted by the Election Committee. PLEASE VOTE !!

Show Secretaries,.....the ARBA does not allow the issuance of any sanction by a specialty club unless a VALID ARBA SHOW SANCTION NUMBER "ACCOMPANIES" the request. This office receives many sanction requests with a note stating that they will send their ARBA number when it arrives - this office will not process any sanction request unless it is first provided the ARBA sanction number. In order to save time and return postage, please be certain that you remember to include this number when you apply. Since January 1st. and through March 12th., this office has already processed 227 sanctions, 156 open and 71 youth. That's a Bunch!!

You will notice that the Dutch Reporters are getting quite large! This creates a large expense in both materials and postage. It's only natural that the more pages you have, the more paper, ink and stencils you use. Paper cost is extremely high as is the ink and stencils that are used for each issue. We do not have large suppliers in our area and are therefore subject to higher prices. My nearest AD DICK supplier and dealer is about 40 miles away. They are a small supplier and do not always have supplies readily available. I've noted that the cost of stencils and ink is higher than the previous editor paid. However, when you do not have the availability to compare shop, you have to take what you can at the price quoted. There are approximately 750 Dutch Reporters being mailed out. That means that if a DR is 50 pages from cover to cover, we're using a minimum of 37,500 sheets of paper or 7 1/2 cases. (I can certainly remember when 4 cases of paper seemed more than sufficient for one issue). It also means that the cost of mailing an issue of this size is considerably more than an issue of 35 pages. As it stands, it cost approximately $8.00 to mail 6 issues of the Dutch Reporter via "FIRST CLASS" mail. The expense of putting out a news bulletin has become "ASTRONOMICAL", so we hope that you are receiving both information and enjoyment from EACH issue of the DUTCH REPORTER!

The 1990 NATIONAL DUTCH SHOW is just around the corner. The catalogs have been printed and sent out. If you were an exhibitor at last years' show, or requested a catalog, you should be in receipt of your copy by this time. Come show with us ..visit with us ..and by all means,...HAVE A GREAT TIME!! Why not bring the BEST OF BREED with you! Remember the dates, May 6th-8th at Bloomington, Illinois. See you there!

Please remember to use the specials page in this issue to donate towards the 1988 ARBA CONVENTION. Let's all dig in and help make the convention specials something for us Dutch breeders to brag about. Specials are to be sent to Tom Buell, his address is listed on the "specials sheet".

Till next time,....THINK SPRING and spread a little "GOOD WILL".....

The most precious thing anyone can have is the good will of others. It is something as fragile as an orchid, and as beautiful. It is more precious than a gold nugget, and as hard to find. It is as powerful as a great turbine, and as hard to keep.

It is an intangible something, this good will of others, yet more to be desired than much goods.

It is the measure of a man's success and determines his usefulness in this life.

D I S T R I C T   # 1   R E P O R T

by Jack Wireman, Ohio

Just thinking: How many of you read your Dutch Reporters and then just throw it away? If you are really a died in the wool Dutch Breeder, someday you will wake up and say 'what a fool I've been'!

Did you know how much there really is in them? Things that you forget about. Things that went on long ago - 10/20 or so years; you'd be surprised what is in them! One thing for sure, they make better reading than what's in our newspapers. They tell you good things, not who shot who! I mark the cover as to month and year. I even have the one we got with two pages in an envelope.

Do you know we only have 12 members with continuous membership from the 40's and only 8 from the 50's and 6 from the 60's. These are CONTINUOUS memberships. We have some that have been interrupted for some reason or another.

Our first guidebook was printed in 1944 - 56 pages and 146 members. Ohio 35; Indiana 34; New York 16; Illinois 8; and Michigan 8 - that left 45 throughout the rest of the country. Ten (10) states had 1 member each and Canada 2. Pennsylvania had 2 members and one of them is still living. It's Jimmy Blyth. He was also one of our first officers and later became Secretary of the American Rabbit Breeders Association. Jim sort of strayed from Dutch in later life to Spots and Silvers but we owe him alot for his help with the Dutch - so do the Spot people over the years. I'm very proud to say that I've known Jimmy for a very long time and always considered him a very good friend. I never wrote him but what I received an answer. So, today, my hat is off to Jimmy Blyth (Box 324 RD 2 Harmony, Pa. 16037). Send him a card or letter. One of my most 'treasured' pictures (and I have many) is of what I always referred to as a rose between two thorns, - myself standing between Jimmy Blyth and Tom Shufflebotham taken at the ARBA Convention at Saginaw, Michigan in 1978.

If there is some part of the history of the Dutch Club you would like to see in print, just let me know. I'll do my best to try and find it.

Don't forget to attend our National Dutch Show in Bloomington, Illinois. It should be a HUMDINGER! I hope you all have your nest boxes full. I've got six litters so far. Take them to the cellar to be born and out to the rabbit building when it gets warmed up and they are about a week old.

Shows will be coming fast and furious about now. I don't have too many ready yet - rebuilding.

We had 101 Dutch our first show in Ohio at Lima. The weather wasn't too good and some of our Dutch people didn't make it.

Dutch breeders, if you have any questions about your club, don't be afraid to ask them. I'll do all I can to help you. The lines of communication in the club are now open. If you find them closed, let's hear about it!

This isn't much of a report but I'll try to do better next time. Don't forget - polish up your Dutch for Bloomington and get those does bred for Madison, Wisconsin.

Also, I'd like to add something; in writing articles about the history of the Dutch Club, you may think I'm writing too much about the Ohio area. Let's face it, I know this area better, the people, etc.. If you have any particular items that you'd like me to write about, I'd be happy to, -- just let me know.

Did you know that by the memberships, Ohio has really been the hot bed! I will have it counted year by year one of these days.

Well, our '88 shows are underway. I'm looking forward to the big one in Bloomington, May 6-8. Then it's on to our Ohio Dutch show June 5th, at Wellington in Loraine Co.. You Ohio people had better get ready for both. Anyone wishing a catalog for the Ohio show, let me know.

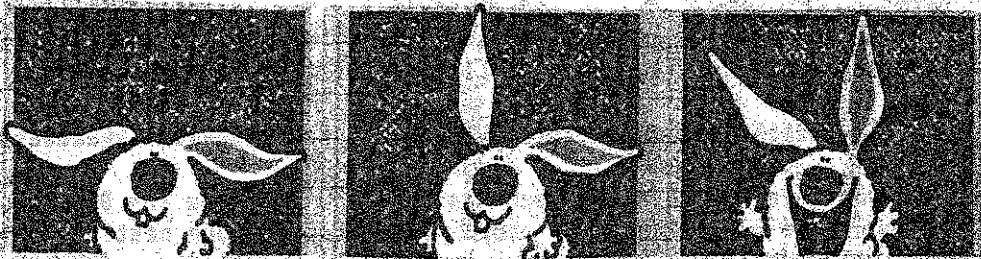

Folks, how would you like to watch a 'HOT SHOT' judge (his idea) shuffle through about 82 Dutch and have the habit of pushing the front legs up to check the undercut ??? This is a NO NO !!

I questioned him after the Dutch were done. Answer - "I was in a hurry and only did it when it was a close undercut". If he only did it when it was a close and he was in a hurry, well guess what the rest of the shuffle was! I don't call this judging, I call it the rabbit shuffle. It's not only the Dutch but other breeds as well. Wake Up! we need more judges 'pretty bad'! If you young people are interested, follow up and do it for the love of the rabbits, not 'GREEN'!

Did you know that we used to have traveling trophies? They had to be won by the same person 3 times to be retired. This was stopped in 1972. Did you know that on April 30, 1964 we had 439 members ??

More next time.

Jack Wireman of Jack's Bunnies

From Your District #1 Director New Jersey

Well I hope everyone recovered from the winter. The weather is starting to get nicer in New Jersey. Hopefully it won't snow again till next year. The show season is just starting in this area. I went to my first show of the year on March 6, 1988, in York P.A.; 78 Dutch were shown. I think the best part was seeing alot of friends I haven't seen or talked to since last fall.

I hope everyone is making plans to go to the National Dutch Show in Bloomington, IL, on May 6-8, I know I am. I just wish a few of those bunnies that froze on the wire or on the nest box had made it. It always seems like the does kindle on the coldest day of the week and the best ones die while the mismarks always make it. But I guess that's what keeps a Dutch breeder going; looking for that elusive, perfect one.

FRED MULLINAX N.C. DISTRICT #1

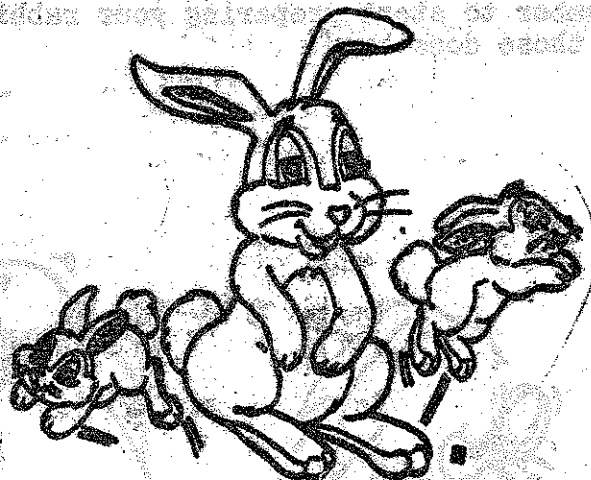

Howdy! Most of you don't know me so here is a little about myself. My wife Kathy, my three girls, and I have been raising Dutch for the past five years. We have only been showing them for the past three years and show at about twenty shows per year.

Here in the South, shows are really starting to get in the swing. There is a show going on just about every week. Showing Dutch has become popular here with about forty five to fifty being shown at each show. There has been a lot of good competition.

Kathy and I are excited about coming to Bloomington for the National Dutch show. This will be our first national competition but I am sure it will not be our last. I hope to see and talk to a lot of you in Bloomington.

HI! It's Easter!

Fred Mullinax

by Richard Gehr

From your District 2 Director

Shows are in full swing in most parts of District 2. I have had the opportunity to judge several shows already this year, and it seems that the number of rabbits entered is comparable to last year. Numbers of Dutch are not quite what I would like to see, but I am anticipating larger entries as the Spring shows continue.

Norma and I have been showing a few this year, so I have not had the opportunity to judge the Dutch at many shows. I will get my chance as I stray away from Illinois to judge, but as long as we have some, we are going to show them whenever possible.

This is the first Spring that we have had some litters to chose from, and we are looking forward to entering a few at the NDS in Bloomington. I hope that everyone reading this is planning on coming to Illinois in May, and have several prospects to bring with you.

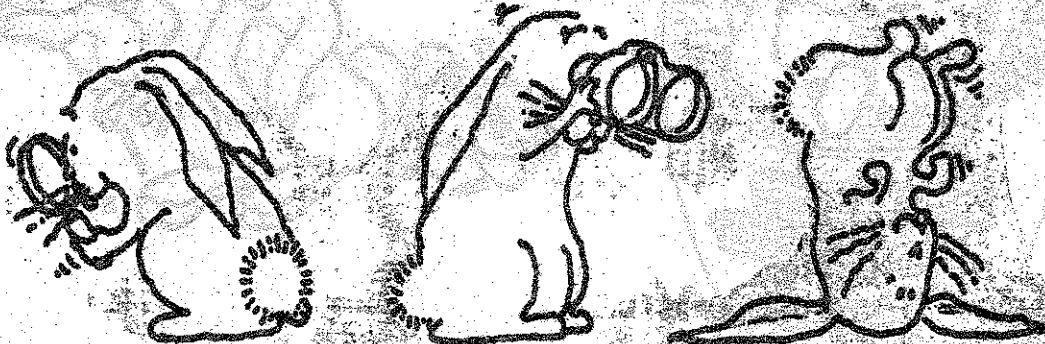

At the shows we have attended, it seems the judges remarks about our rabbits are fairly consistent, but the placements vary considerably. Guess some judges place more emphasis on one thing than others do. Inconsistency in placements seem to be the biggest complaint amongst Dutch exhibitors. The second biggest complaint is the handling of our breed while being judged. About the only way I know of correcting this situation is by talking to the judges, in a nice manner, and informing them of the proper way to handle our Dutch.

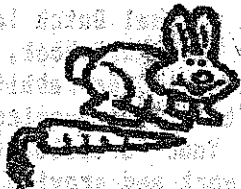

The ADRC Standard Committee has been busy addressing several issues, and elsewhere in this Dutch Reporter you can read about some of the items we have been considering. It would be beneficial to the breed and the membership if you would review these things, and make comment on any of them you have concern about.

I am looking forward to the 1988 NDS in Bloomington. Seeing many of the faces I only get to see once or twice a year is always enjoyable, and the animals themselves make it all worth while.

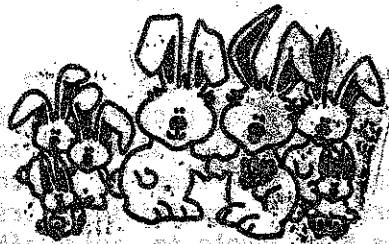

Remember to start preparing your rabbitry for the summer months, and get those does bred!

Dick

Howdy -

You keep hearing from all the rabbit breeders that they do it as a hobby. But yet, some get so wrapped up with it. I'm sure most all do it as a hobby, and sometimes I wonder if maybe, financial gain - power - or whatever, puts the true meaning of hobby in the background for personal gain. I do not know what's in their mind, so I can't judge. With all this in mind, I went to the library to see what I could find out.

What is a hobby? Dictionary describes as, "something a person does in their spare time; a favorite pastime, or avocation", a hobby is something you do because you want to do it. You shouldn't let a hobby take over your life. People take up hobbies because these activities offer enjoyment, friendship, knowledge and relaxation. Hobbies help people to relax after periods of hard work and provide a balance between work and play. Hobbies can help a person's mental and physical health.

I guess it boils down to looking at one's own situation. To me - this is my hobby - judge ye not others.

ODDS and ENDS -

We need a sponsor for the '89 National Dutch Show.

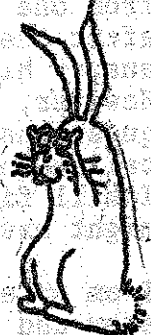

Those wishing to run for Director, get your petition. My term is up the last of '88. I am not going to run again.

CURIOSITY -

It's hard to think up an article to write. I've had a couple people tell me they've liked my articles, maybe some don't agree. I don't agree with everybody either. I've talked with some and they say that they "haven't read it". Sometimes you wonder if it's worth the effort. Maybe we're just shooting our mouths off and nobody cares. Maybe if a person reads an article and felt strongly about it - agreed, disagreed, found it interesting or whatever; -- drop a postcard or letter to the person writing the article. Let them know how you feel at least. If you get a chuckle out of something, -- that's good! If nobody cares, why write them!

Enjoy yourself - have a good time - see you in Bloomington.

Lowell Stinson, Iowa, - District #2 Director

Editor's Note* I have always enjoyed Lowell's articles. I guess because he's just a down to earth kind of guy - my kind of person! I particularly enjoyed this article of Lowell's! Although we are all aware of what a hobby is, I have never taken the time to actually look up the word in the dictionary; "something someone does in their spare time".....I'll give you your chuckle now

Lowell ---- what spare time?? I've forgotten what a real Dutch looks like. I've only got the pictures that pop up before me in our guidebook, pamphlet, etc. I can't tell you when I actually spent any time in the rabbitry! This particular hobby keeps me hopping from early morning till late evening, and when I do break, it's priorities first.....not bunnies. Your article states that hobbies help people to relax after periods of hard work and provide a balance between work and play.....WAIT,.....RELAX? RELAX? I have to look up that word! Hobbies help a person's mental and physical health? I have to fight for just one day of a weekend anymore for just me - rabbit shows seem to have ceased, and I don't think my grandson knows who I am.

I'm VERY GRATEFUL for your article Lowell as it has made me realize that sitting in front of a computer and typewriter all day to keep each day's mail caught up and just praying for a little lull is not what a hobby is supposed to be! I certainly hope that your article was as much benefit to others as I feel that it was for me. I'm very grateful!!

I wish that Lowell would reconsider and petition this office for the District #2 position. I personally feel that Lowell has been an asset to the American Dutch Rabbit Club and a "special" friend to many!

FROM YOUR DISTRICT #3 DIRECTOR - TEXAS by Bill Reid

The '88 National Dutch Show will soon be here and Sharon and I are getting anxious to see our friends and the many fine Dutch rabbits that will be there. Each year we breed heavily 6 months prior to the N.D.S. hoping to get that good one that will win, but our conception rate is very low at that time of year. If the N.D.S. was held in July we would have a better chance.

There is not much news from Texas. We have been to only one show, The Fort Worth Exhibition and Livestock Show, and the number of Dutch exhibited was down from last year. We did have the privilege of seeing and getting beat by one of the nicest Black Junior Bucks that I have ever seen. Congratulations to Pam Finch!

Since being a director for District 3, I have only heard from one member inquiring about the youth sweepstakes points after the merger of districts. I think that I was able to answer his questions and clarify the results of the merger. However, I'm sure that there are members who have other questions or suggestions and I want you to feel free to call upon me at any time. If I can't answer your questions, I will find the answer or pass on any suggestions that you might have.

I am sure that Bloomington is going to have an outstanding show and hope to see all of you there.

AMERICAN DUTCH RABBIT CLUB

FROM THE ADRC STANDARD COMMITTEE by Richard Gehr, Chairman

The ADRC Standard Committee has been busy communicating with each other regarding certain areas of our Standard and breed. Following is a brief summary of the topics we have discussed, and the proposed actions of this Committee.

- 1 - COWHOCKS - This Committee agrees unanimously that "Savary Cowhocks" should be reinstated in the ARBA Standard of Perfection under General Disqualifications, and should not be addressed directly within our breed.
- 2 - FRECKLES - 4 of the 5 members of this Committee feel that "distinct colored spot, or spots, in the lip or nostril area, commonly known as freckles, when distracting from the appearance of the animal in the judge's opinion" should be added to our Standard under Disqualifications applying to all varieties.
- 3 - Head - 4 of the 5 members of this Committee feel that the description of the Dutch head should be changed to read "the skull is to be oval, culminating smoothly into a rounded muzzle, on a short neck set close to the shoulders". This is due to the confusion caused by our present description calling for "rounded". This can be mistaken for a head shaped like that of a Holland Lop or Netherland Dwarf. This Committee does not feel that "rounded" describes the type of head that the Dutch carries.
- 4 - Ears - This Committee agrees unanimously that the present description of ears should be used, with the exception of omitting the word "short". This can cause confusion as short ears are not always in proportion with the head and body, which our description calls for.
- 5 - Spots in eye - This Committee agrees unanimously that "and/or cornea" should be added directly following spots in the iris under disqualifications applying to all varieties in our Standard.

These items have been forwarded to the ARBA Standard Committee for their inspection. However, the above items will be voted on by the entire ADRC membership before we ask the ARBA to accept these changes. The desires of the ADRC membership will govern the final actions taken by this Committee. Should you have any concerns regarding any of these items, please address one of the ADRC Standard Committee members and let us know your opinions.

ADRC Standard Committee - Bill Reid, Texas - Dr. T.E. Reed, Indiana -
Wayne MacKinnon, Massachusetts - Tom Buell,
Minnesota - Richard Gehr, Illinois.

THE DUTCH REPORTER

Spring is about here, and at last fertility has returned to my herd. The does have been palpated and the fetuses are like the proverbial small marbles in their abdomens. Although the stock are isolated from the weather, there must be something in the air that stirs their bodies into reproducing. (Rabbits do love to mate; I have seen three week old bunnies mounting one another!) There soon will be the wonder and excitement of new litters, together with the bewildering array of imperfect markings from perfectly marked parents.

I have been removing the nesting box at about 15 days after birth. While it takes a day or two for the babies to get accustomed to the wire floor, they soon are navigating to the hay and rolled steamed oats that I feed the herd. These foods, which they relish, provide both the basic nourishment for growth and maintenance, and the fiber necessary for good digestion. The drinking water is fresh and clean. As a consequence there is no diarrhea, ever, nor bad smells. Nevertheless, now and then an animal will go off feed, and I suspect fur blockage. Whatever the reason, the best way to stimulate the appetite is mineral oil, a drop daily for three days. I do feed Kent pellets as a supplement, but I probably could do without them. (What are the "grain by-products" usually listed as an ingredient? Rolled oats are the real thing.)

There are several indicators as to a rabbit's health and well being, and with a smaller herd the breeder can better observe individual behavior. The most apparent sign is poor appetite. Another is the condition of the feces, which is one advantage to a wire floor—the feces are easy to examine. If they are hard and small, the rabbit is probably constipated. The only real problem has been with does, just before and after kindling. But as hay and rolled oats are so palatable, appetites soon return.

The show season has begun, and the two big ones will of course be the Bloomington NDS and the Madison ARBA. We would like to offer some very handsome specials at the latter show and solicit contributions to help buy them. Kindly send your contributions to yours truly at the address on the announcement elsewhere in this issue. Many thanks!!!!

CALL FOR 1988 ARBA SPECIALS CONTRIBUTIONS

THE 1988 ARBA CONVENTION AND SHOW WILL BE HELD IN MADISON, WISCONSIN ON NOVEMBER 13-17. IT SHOULD BE ONE OF OUR FINEST SHOWS EVER, AND A LARGE DUTCH ENTRY IS ANTICIPATED FROM OUR COUNTRY'S BEST BREEDERS. THE PRESTIGE OF DOING WELL AT THIS SHOW SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED WITH TROPHIES AND OTHER SPECIALS THAT CAN BE DISPLAYED WITH PRIDE BY THE WINNERS.

YOUR CONVENTION BREED COMMITTEE IS SOLICITING CONTRIBUTIONS FROM OUR MEMBERSHIP TO ALLOW US TO OFFER THE KINDS OF QUALITY AWARDS AND SPECIALS SUCH A SHOW DESERVES. CONTRIBUTORS WILL BE RECOGNIZED BY NAME IN A PRINTED PROGRAM THAT WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE AT THE SHOW. THERE WILL BE FOUR CATAGORIES:

|-------------|-----------------|
| Sponsor     | $25 and over   |
| Donor       | $10 up to $24 |
| Contributor | $5 up to $9   |
| Friend      | $1 up to $4   |

Please send your contributions to the specials chairperson at the address below. We would be grateful if checks could be mailed by April 1st to:

It doesn't feel like it is now time to start working on the 1890 guide book , but it is. In order for the book to be published and ready for distribution it must be completed in 1999. The guide book serves as a reference source for many of our experienced breeders and a bible to our novice breeders. Therefore , the guide book relays upon you the members to provide creativity and input into the project.

As chairman of the committee i am offering a 3 year membership to the individual who comes up with an appropriate cover for the guide book. The sketch or design should be clear and signed on paper no larger than 8 1/5 by 11 . This contest is open to any current or future member of the ADRC.

The price and size of ads will be mentioned further down the road along with acceptance of the ads. I would like to hold off until the fall of 88' since many people may make several changes in their rabbitry between now and then. This also puts the receiving of the ads closer to publishing time.

Since the guide book is for the membership , I will take this time to ask for suggestions or input. During the next 3 months several of the established breeders will be receiving a request for an article on a certain area of the Dutch rabbit or the general rabbit hobby. There isn't a specific length for any article , just remember to make it short enough to keep it interesting but long enough to cover the subject.

Until Next Time

BUYING RABBITS SIGHT UNSEEN

NOTES 5/10/79

written by J. Schilling

Steve & Rebekah Schilling

We were asked by our President to put together an article about buying stock without seeing it.

We first would like to say that this is only our opinion. We have purchased stock this way four times from three different breeders. When we first started showing Dutch, our original stock was bought from a breeder from Watertown, New York. This was back in the late 1970's. After years of line breeding, we had developed problems in getting the desired markings. We decided to buy some new stock from a reputable Dutch breeder who had won consistently and placed in the National Sweepstakes. We looked through Dutch Reporters, guidebooks, and the ARBA yearbook and decided to contact three different people to decide on who's stock to buy. We received only one reply. The breeder asked what variety, age and quality we wanted. After her reply, we wrote back, then we sent her money, and shipping arrangements were made. When the rabbits arrived, we were very pleased with what we had paid for. The cost was well worth it. In fact, this stock is what made our herd of Dutch what it is today. Three years later, we added a second group of rabbits to our herd from the same breeder; again we were pleased.

We purchased a third group of rabbits from a breeder from the Midwest. Out of the four rabbits we received from him, the two rabbits from his own line were culled. The two from an Eastern breeder were added to the herd and we were pleased with their quality. We purchased a fourth group of rabbits, again from a reputable breeder, and we were again pleased.

So, out of the four times we purchased stock sight unseen, we purchased a total of 17 rabbits, and only culled two because we weren't satisfied with the quality. Two other quality rabbits died shortly after they arrived. We had trouble with arrival time 2 out of the 4 times we shipped. One of these times, the rabbits were shipped to the wrong airport. Usually delays are weather related. All of our rabbits arrived safely and alive, with no evidence of improper handling. Sometimes, the shipping can be expensive, but if you're satisfied with your purchase, it's worth the extra money.

We would suggest that if anyone is thinking of purchasing stock sight unseen, first choose only a reputable breeder and tell him exactly what you want, keeping in mind that there is no such thing as a perfect Dutch, and you only get what you pay for. We ask for very good type with the best possible markings. We highly suggest that you don't purchase any mismarked brood. Many reputable breeders believe in using and selling mismarked does for brood. If you start with a mismarked animal, you will always have their faults in the background, which will prevent you from getting many show quality animals in future litters. Remember, if you want the best possible quality, it will usually cost you. As a breeder, it's not always easy to sell something you could use in your showstring.

Shipping usually costs between $35.00 - $250.00, depending on the shipping distance and the weight. The carrier may cost between $15.00 - $25.00. Anyone can see that it isn't cheap.

One of the best ways to find out who you can go to to purchase stock is by word of mouth. Ask around. Word of mouth can help or harm a breeder's reputation. As we said, this is only our opinion and experience, and we truly hope you find it helpful in purchasing stock "sight unseen".

TORTOISE DUTCH

By: Mark L. Pecaric

ESTABLISHED 1982

The following article is strictly my own opinion, so take it for what it's worth. First of all I think a good tortoise is probably my favorite color of all the Dutch. Trying to get a good color tortoise with type is the problem. The problem I see with most Tortoise Dutch today are the shadings are too dark. If you notice most tortoise have black shadings not smoke blue as called for in the standards. When you look at the head, the ears are supposed to be the color of the top body which is supposed to be bright clear orange. Take notice the color of the ears of the tortoise on the tables. I know in my area the majority of them have dark or black ears and black shadings on the head.

Now we move on to the body color, a bright, clear orange blending into a smoke blue shadings over the lower rump carrying well into the haunches. Again in my area I see a lot of black shadings carrying well into the back not the haunches. No bright clear orange but very smutty orange. Pay attention to your color in the standards when breeding. I know most tortoise get darker with age. But there are those few who stay bright clear orange with each molt and watch your tail color. The underside should match the shadings, not be white or white tipped.

Now comes my formula for Tortoise Dutch. I think breeding good color dutch is sort of like raising steel; you have to blend different shades of tortoise to get a good color one and once in awhile add a blue. I start with type first regardless of color. I might breed a tort buck with a black doe or a blue doe. If the black or blue doe is out of straight black or black and blue, you will get all black babies in the first litter. Then take a doe out of that litter and breed it back to the tort buck you will get black and torts in this litter possibly a chocolate. But of the torts in that litter one might be brighter at about 10 days old. This is the one to save regardless of sex or marking. For me these are the ones that seem to stay bright orange with each molt.

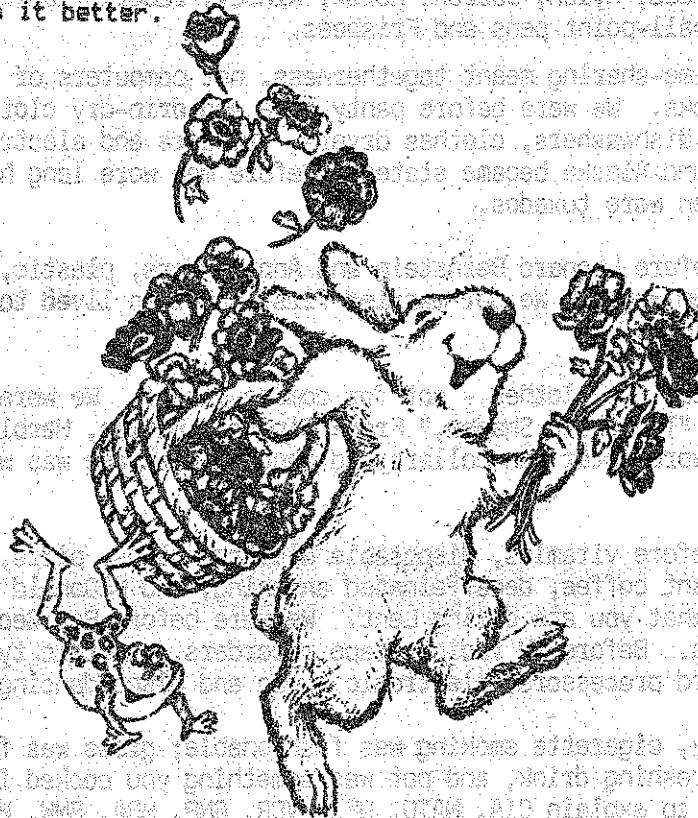

If your used a blue doe which I prefer, the litter will be blacks. If you breed back to a tort buck you will get blacks, blues, and torts in the litte. Again choose the brightest orange one at 10 days. Once you get the bright orange with the blue shadings keep breeding tort to tort. When they are about 10 days old, some will be orange with dark shadings, you want to keep the ones with the lighter shadings. It might not show well as a junior, but it will as a late junior or senior.

Sometimes the good color torts don't come out till the next generation. Take a tort doe and breed it back to the tort buck then watch those babies; they will all be torts, but some will be brighter orange with lighter shadings at 10 days. They are the ones you want to keep.

Now what to do with the other rabbits in the litters; the blacks and the blues. I sometimes use them in my straight black line or my true breeding black line. It seems to intensify the black if you only use them only every 4 or 5 generations. If you breed the blacks and the blues from the litters together you will get blacks, blues, and torts. Some of these torts will have the bright orange color with lightershadings. When breeding torts to torts I always try to use at least one animal that has the true tort color that doesn't darken with age. Again the ones with the lighter shading at about 10 days seem to be the ones that stay bright orange with smoke blue shadings. The ones that have dark shadings as juniors seem to be the ones that darken with each molt.

Remember type first, once you get the type and color breed tort to tort; if the shadings get too dark add blue. Not too often, no more than every 4 or 5 generations, once you get the bright orange tort you won't need to add blue or black.

With any color, I breed type first once I get type then I breed the same color to same color. If I have confused you, see me at the N.D.B. in Bloomington IL., and I'll try to explain it better.

Dear Norma,

March 7, 1988

I would appreciate it if you would please put the following note of thanks in the next Dutch Reporter.

I wish to thank the officers and directors at the 1987 A.R.B.A. Convention for my life membership in the American Dutch Rabbit Club. It is greatly appreciated.

P.S. Attached is an article that I think the members and senior citizens would enjoy reading.

Sincerely,
Meryl F. Millham

Who is a senior citizen? WHAT is one? A senior citizen is one who was here before the Pill and the population explosion. We were here before TV, penicillin, polio shots, antibiotics, open-heart surgery and hair transplants. Before frozen food, nylon, Dacron, Xerox, Kinsey, radar, fluorescent lights, credit cards, ball-point pens and Frisbees.

For us, time-sharing meant togetherness, not computers or condos. Co-eds never wore slacks. We were before panty hose and drip-dry clothes, before ice-makers and dishwashers, clothes dryers, freezers and electric blankets. Before Hawaii and Alaska became states. Before men wore long hair and earrings and before women wore tuxedos.

We were before Leonard Bernstein and Ann Landers, plastic, the 40-hour week and minimum wages. We got married first and then lived together. How quaint!

Closets were for clothes - not for coming out of. We were before Grandma Moses, "The White Shadow," Frank Sinatra, Batman, Herblock and Miss Peach. Girls wore Peter Pan collars and thought cleavage was what butchers did.

We were before vitamins, disposable diapers, Jeeps, pizza, face-lifts, Cheerios, instant coffee, decaffeinated anything, and McDonald's. We thought fast food was what you ate during Lent. We were before Boy George and Chiquita Banana. Before FM radios, tape recorders, electric typewriters, boom boxes, word processors, electronic music and disco dancing.

In our day, cigarette smoking was fashionable; grass was for mowing. Coke was a refreshing drink, and pot was something you cooked in. If we had been asked to explain CIA, NATO, UFO, VCR, GNP, MBA, BMW, HMO, SDI, NFL, JFK and MS - we'd have said "alphabet soup."

We are today's senior citizens, a hardy bunch when you think of how our world has changed and the adjustments we have had to make. I'm pretty proud of us.

With only a few days left before the NATIONAL DUTCH SHOW, some of you may be teetering on whether or not you should go ahead and attend. No one will argue that there is a price to pay in order to attend this event. We're not just talking about money! It will also cost you TIME, VACATION for some, and quite a bit of EFFORT.....not to mention those DOLLARS.

It's easy to see the sacrifice that it will take, but if you've never attended a NDS, it would be difficult to imagine what you can get for your investment.

I attended my first NATIONAL DUTCH SHOW last year in Texas. It was an experience that I will never forget. Kim and I arrived on Friday evening. We were welcomed at the front table by people that treated us like we were part of their family. I wondered if we were just experiencing Texas hospitality. I later learned that while their "LONESTAR" welcome was part of it,.... it was in a real sense a family. THE DUTCH FAMILY! The members we got to know were not only warm and open, but they were also encouraging. We had only been raising Dutch for a couple of years, and didn't know a great deal.

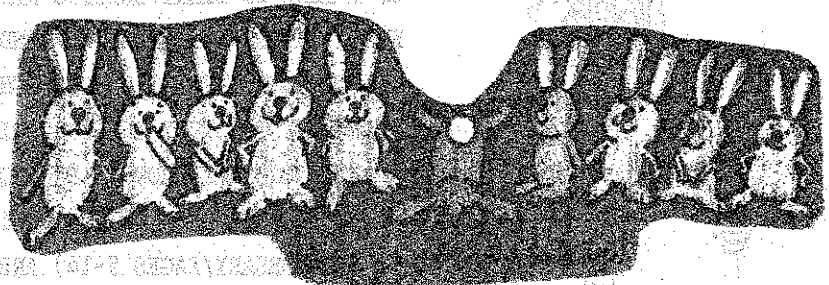

Breeders like Reggie and Kevin Shull looked at our entries. They could have easily laughed at our two little bucks and asked "who's culls did you pick them out of". But they didn't. Instead, they took the time to teach us how to pose the animals and what to look for. In a constructive and encouraging way they helped us see that we needed to work on pinched rears, pointed noses and l-o-n-g stops.

Al Miller took extra time during the Sellers Class to show us the good and bad in the animals. He pointed out animals that would help improve our herd and why they would. Dick Gehr took time to give possible solutions to breeding problems we were having. Those solutions worked!

We purchased four animals from one of the top breeders. Those breeders along with a couple we picked up earlier threw four animals that out of our last four shows has given us 3 BOV, 2 BOSV, 2 BOS, 1 BOB, and 1 BEST IN SHOW. We learned more during the two days at the NDS than we had learned in over two years. And most of all we got some much needed ENCOURAGEMENT! And the cost? Well....it was very little when you consider what we got out of it. We saved years in our breeding program. For us, it was a good investment.

SPEAKING OF YOUTH

PENDING APPROVAL BY THE BOARD, IT WILL BE MY HONOR TO SERVE AS YOUR NEW ADRC YOUTH DIRECTOR. MARTI DILL HAS DONE A TREMENDOUS JOB WITH OUR YOUTH AND DESERVES OUR DEEPEST AND SINCERE APPRECIATION. SHE COULD ALSO USE OUR SUPPORT AND ENCOURAGEMENT AS SHE ASSUMES THE PRESIDENCY.

AS I START WORK IN THIS AREA, IT WOULD BE HELPFUL TO ME IF I COULD HEAR FROM SOME OF THE MEMBERS. IT WOULD BE NICE TO KNOW HOW BOTH YOUTH AND ADULTS FEEL ABOUT OUR YOUTH AREA. FEEDBACK IN AN IMPORTANT TOOL IN THE FORMATION OF ANY PROGRAM. TAKE A FEW MINUTES AND WRITE ME A SHORT NOTE.

I HAVE CONTACTED SEVERAL MEMBERS (BOTH YOUTH AND ADULT), ABOUT SERVING ON THE 1988 YOUTH COMMITTEE. WHILE MANY OF YOU RESPONDED IN A TIMELY MANNER, I STILL NEED TO HEAR FROM OTHERS. SERVING ON THE YOUTH COMMITTEE IS NOT ONLY AN HONOR, BUT ALSO A TREMENDOUS RESPONSIBILITY. WE HAVE A GREAT DEAL OF WORK TO DO. BUT REMEMBER.....HARD WORK PAYS OFF IN THE END. LET ME HEAR FROM YOU AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

THE NATIONAL DUTCH SHOW IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER. MAKE PLANS TO ATTEND. LET'S HAVE THE BEST YOUTH SHOW IN THE HISTORY OF THE CLUB.

SEE YOU IN BLOOMINGTON,

ROYALTY CONTEST

IT'S TIME TO START GETTING READY FOR THIS YEARS CONTEST. IT WILL BE CONDUCTED ON MAY SEVENTH AND THE NATIONAL DUTCH SHOW. YOU WILL WANT TO STUDY THE FOLLOWING MATERIAL:

1. DUTCH GUIDEBOOK- ADRC PUBLICATION
2. THE STANDARD OF PERFECTION (RABBIT GLOSSARY/PAGES 5-14) ARBA PUBLICATION

Devoted to the Interest of Rabbit Raising for Fancy and Commercial

Parent Body of All Chartered Local and Specialty Clubs

One National Judging and Registration System

March 9, 1988

Dear Specialty Club Presidents & Secretaries:

As each day passes, it is one day closer to the deadline for all the materials that will be necessary for the 1991 Standard of Perfection to be completed. At this time, I realize it sounds like the distant future; but, if you will check with the chronological time table that has been forwarded to you earlier, one will see that these deadlines for the various aspects that need to be submitted are rapidly approaching.

I would like to request that each of you take your Standard of Perfection and look at the colored photo that is presented for your breed in the 1985-1990 Standard. Are you satisfied with how your breed is portrayed in the pictures that is presented in this Standard? When preparing the 1986-1990 Standard, and the decision was made to include colored photos, many members and specialty clubs "scrambled" to find a photo that was representative of their breed. The majority of the specialty clubs cooperated to the best of their ability; but, when efforts were made to separate the colors of the photos that were provided so they could be printed in the Standard of Perfection, we were made aware of the fact that there was much information we had not been informed of in printing colored photos.

I am sure that each of you agree adding colored photos of the various breeds has been an improvement in the Standard of Perfection and it is necessary that we all work together to have improved colored photos for the 1991-1995 Standard of Perfection. The pose of the rabbit, the correctness of the body type, the correctness of the color of the animal; as well as the proper back ground is of extreme importance to present the breed to the best of our ability. In addition, we have learned that it is very important that we have photos taken on quality film.

Again, we come to each of the specialty clubs to provide us with photos of your breed of rabbit that possess the above qualities. To insure proper color duplication, it is necessary that the pictures provided are on slide film; or that we have the negatives of the color print that can be placed on transparencies.

I would like to request that each specialty club puts forth an effort to see that your breed is properly represented in the next Standard. Possibly, by allowing you this amount of time, each of the specialty clubs can have some type of contest that would provide you with photos described above; or, each specialty club could hire a photographer to take the pictures that will represent your breed as desired.

From the office of the President: Dr. T.E. Reed
Box 98, Markle, Indiana 46770 Phone 219/758-2015

I would like to request that these materials be forwarded to me by December 1, 1988 so the necessary preparations can be made in the separation of color and so forth. If your specialty club should have any ideas or input concerning the above, please advise. Thank you again for your anticipated cooperation.

With kindest regards, I am,

HANDLING THE DUTCH RABBIT DURING JUDGING

Ever wash and wax your car, just to drive it out of the garage into a blizzard? Exasperating isn't it? This is the same feeling many Dutch breeders have when certain judges handle their rabbits!

After working for years to perfect an animal in type, fur, color, markings, and condition only to have someone distort the animal's natural appearance and pose by mishandling is indeed frustrating.

The Dutch rabbit is to be judged in it's NATURAL state and position. This means that once you have checked the animal for disqualifications and eliminations, it should be posed and judged accordingly. In checking the animal for the disqualifications and eliminations, the NORMAL procedure is to be followed. This does not mean you should dig, prod, or poke around just looking for some indistinct flaw to disqualify or eliminate the animal for.

There are many reports of some judges going out of their way to find something wrong with the animal. Examples of this are judges that will dig in the nostrils of the animal and look up inside the nostrils for small spots of discolored flesh, continually blow in the naval area looking for off-colored fur, stretch each front leg out looking for color extending below the elbow, and some other uncalled for examination procedures. These are not proper ways to inspect the Dutch rabbit.

As judges we are obligated to check each animal to the best of our ability. But as judges we are also obligated to benefit the animal whenever possible, and not go out of our way trying to find something to disqualify or eliminate for just to please a passing whim of our own.

As for the spots that some of you are looking for in the animals nostril or lip area, if the spot is DISTINCT and PLAINLY VISABLE while the rabbit is in it's NATURAL POSITION, then by all means it should be a disqualification. If you have to dig, prod, or poke to find such a spot the disqualification is not justified, in my opinion.

Blowing into every animals naval area looking for off-colored fur is getting rather petty. You can naturally say that you are checking the undercolor on the belly, but I think we know what the motives really are.

Stretching out the front legs to look for color running below the elbow is fine, IF you suspect the animal of being "tied in the front leg". But if there is no evidence that would lead you to believe it is "tied", LEAVE THE LEGS ALONE.

Once the animal is checked for disqualifications and eliminations, the proper procedure is to pose the animal and judge it in THAT position. The undercut, stops, and even the cheek markings can be checked by turning the Dutch over, still keeping it in it's NATURAL position. This is done by "palming" the rabbit behind the head without grasping the fur (which will distort the undercut and cheek markings), placing the ears between your thumb and pointing finger (applying only the pressure necessary to control the animals head), placing your other hand on the rump of the rabbit, and gently rolling the animal over keeping it in the compact position it was in while sitting upright.

DO NOT let the hand you have on the animals rump extend downward (which would stretch out the animals body) as this will grossly distort the rabbit's undercut, and give you a false view of that marking.

I believe we, as judges, are aware of what a good Dutch is supposed to look like. However, many of us can make a Dutch look as bad as we want to by mishandling the animal. Give the rabbit and the exhibitors what they deserve. A fair inspection, proper handling, and justified placements.

FESCUE GRASSES AND REPRODUCTION

By P. Champagne, Kentucky

In the Sunday news, I read an article that caught my eye, as I browsed through the sports section. Though I am not a sports fan, I do look over this part of the news for tidbits of information. What I read this time did not make my day, as it had to do with the decline of the cottontail rabbits in our area of Northeastern Kentucky. Now any one that has doings with the domestic rabbit, ought to know that what hits the cottontails is apt to hit his tame cousins.

According to this article, fescue grass is partly to blame for the decline of wild rabbits in our area. Fescue is a hay grass, and it is grown a lot in this part of the country for cattle, and to sell locally. Now some studies at Western Kentucky University are indicating that a fungus, which is found in fescue during seed reproduction, might be affecting the reproduction cycle in cattle, as well as the wild rabbit population. Anything that hits reproduction in rabbits, is of prime interest to a domestic rabbit breeder, and I am no exception to the rule. Enter one call to the Local Agricultural Extension agent with the loaded questions on subject fescue fungus, and rabbits.

What the agent said might be soothing to some people, but a look at the details is less than likeable. He says it is in tall fescue grasses, not the short varieties, and they are developing a new fescue that does not have the fungus. Also, the fungus is at its worst in July and August, and could be in heavily infested hay. Then he says you should not feed it to domestic rabbits, as it causes problems with their stomachs, could cut the insides, etc.. He had no answer to my last question, what if you have nothing else to feed at the time?

Now I know that not everyone feeds hay to their rabbits, but we do feed it, and our rabbits love the stuff. It helps on the cost of feed, gives roughage, and keeps down diarrhea in our rabbits. Besides all this good done, it makes wonderful nesting material, at least my girls think so. They make some great nests out of it, and eat the best parts at times of rest. My rabbits will flake out and nibble on goodies, while they think of rabbit thoughts on good living.

My thoughts on fescue runs along this line that I am going to put down for the benefit of the doubt. Anyone who has seen rabbits eat hay, knows that they will eat high and low growth in the wild. The joker is that most people who grow hay, normally go to tall types of grasses, and that is where a lot of tall fescue comes into the hay. Even in mixed grass hay, there is going to be some fescue along for the ride. I am not about to stop feeding hay to my rabbits, but I am going to be careful of the kinds fed, especially those cut in July and August containing fescue. If possible, I will try to keep a good grass hay of clover, timothy, and orchard grasses, or an alfalfa blend for feeding.

From our own experience, let me warn you, tall fescue or not, fungus does affect reproduction. It takes a long time to bring a doe back to producing, the young are often born dead, all aborted before term, and sometimes there is no cycle at all for breeding. Should this be happening to your does, check the hay and feed for molds or fungus, especially if fescue is grown in your area for hay. While some people will not admit it, the fact still stands that tall fescue should be eyed as potentially dangerous during August and July cutting, when the fungus is at it's worst. It is not fully understood how this is affecting the reproduction cycles, but forewarned, is forarmed, caution is the watchword with fescue. I am no expert, but I know what it did to our rabbits, and we did feed the hay at the time our does lost production, since there was little else to cause this sort of problem, it had to be the hay we fed at the time. Our loss is your gain, we changed hay, with better results in due time. Most of our does are back in production and normal again.

A side note to this experiment should interest the Dutch breeders, - our Dutch made the fastest come-backs in their breeding habits. Just goes to show you, there is little that keeps a good Dutch down for long. You can call the Dutch fancy, or small, or show rabbits, - but I call them tough to beat.

PERKY'S AMBUSH

by P. Champagne, Kentucky

Now anyone, who knows Dutch rabbits, knows about the buck's accuracy in spraying his "victim". We learned about this proficiency from a certain black buck we call perky; Alias, The Squirt, Alias the Spray Artist, and etc.. Perky definitely has a thing about this ability, he must spend a great deal of time planning his next ambush. He seems to particularly like out-guessing my son, Jerry, who usually does the watering, and tries to find ways to out-smart the black squirter.

Perky must enjoy the game of wits, and he tends to make the most of each opportunity to ambush his un-suspecting victims. He enjoys encounters with nice people, who pet him with loving strokes. He even lets some of them get away with benefit of his well-known ability to spray. Mostly, he can't resist one well aimed effort to give someone a shower. My sons seems to be Perky's special target, and that black buck loves to practice on him.

After daily showers for a week or so, Jerry decided to try a new tactic. He would water that black squirter, by reaching around the corner, since Perky's cage is on the end. He would reach in, and water from the side, out of the accurate aim of that buck's big gun. Well....., that worked for a few days, and Perky did not get to do his dailing spraying act.

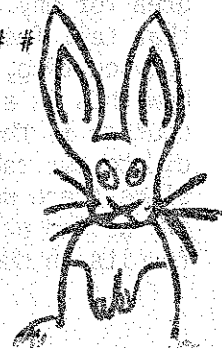

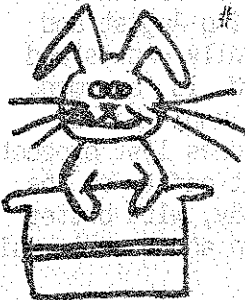

I have little doubt, that that black stinker had laid wait, and practiced on his aim and speed. Perky was ready to try a new approach to that sneaky trick of reaching around the corner. Little did my son know that his waterloo was approaching, one certain black Dutch buck was laying for him with definite intentions of a spray job. One ambush laid out, and one unsuspecting victim with the water was about to match wits again.

Perky must have laid out his plans with care, and I'd bet he was smirking with thought of revenge for those days of no spraying. Ah....., dawning of THE DAY, - Perky was waiting for his moment of truth. Could he do the deed as planned???. Slowly, the time approached for his plan to go into action, - he watched patiently as the feed was put in, then came that certain hand reaching around the corner...., Perky strikes again!

"Oh wow", Jerry laughed with surprise and glee, "he did it around the corner". Only Perky could have done such a feat of spray artistry, but how the dickens did he do it?

Perky must have enjoyed the satisfaction of a job well done, as he rested on his pile of hay. You know what? He aint tellin' how he worked his feat either. He just gives a knowing look, and I would swear that he was grinning.

EDITOR'S NOTE: In this issue you will find a show report for our newly chartered "SUN VALLEY DUTCH FANCIERS" in California. There were also some pictures submitted for publication. However, this issue has been somewhat of a problem and I am unable to stencil the photos at this time. The stencil cutter has "eaten" up many stencils and the Dutch Reporter process has been very tedious this issue. As a matter of fact, it's been all but "HAIR PULLING"! Many of the stencils had to be cut twice in order for them to be legible when run. The stencil cutter seemed to just "BURN UP" many of the stencils before they were even off the cutter. The only AB DICK dealer around our area will attempt to determine it's problem as soon as this issue is completed. The January/February issue had to have most all of the stencils cut twice in order to read them but at least the stencil cutter wasn't burning them in half before the "FIRST" run through. You will notice that some of the pages aren't as dark as I would like them to be, but I was more concerned with just getting the pages stenciled off so that they could be run on the mimeograph.

I hope to have everything running smooth for next issue if I haven't gone completely stir crazy by then! My apology for this issue not being as dark and plain as it should be. Hopefully the MAY/JUNE issue will be better. Norma

SUN VALLEY DUTCH FANCIERS SHOW REPORT

The newly chartered local specialty club, the Sun Valley Dutch Fanciers, held its first show February 14, 1988. The show was held in Escondido, California at the home of Katie and Allen Barr.

A total of 67 Dutch were entered by 12 exhibitors and the fur class included 15 entries.

Judge Wenton Carlton sorted the 67 entries and selected a Black senior buck owned by Mike Salerno as Best of Breed. Best Opposite of Breed was a Black junior doe owned by youth member Jannah Felt. Best Fur was claimed by Joanne Purpus' Blue senior buck. Best Junior was Jannah Felt's Black doe. Best Display went to Jannah Felt.

Exhibitors included Jerry Ayers, Allen Barr, Jeff Chirpich, Gene Dobson, Jacqueline Duncan, Jannah Felt, Paula Johnson, Ben Morris, Jill Pfaff, Joanne Purpus, and Mike Salerno.

Following the judging a raffle was held with Judge Carlton carrying home quite an array of "goodies". Everyone agreed that raffle chairpersons Paula Johnson and Joanne Purpus had outdone themselves: raffle items included breakfast in a bag, cages, feed, planters and plants, a set of California Raisins, stuffed bunnies, hummingbird feeder, Peter Rabbit poster, etc.

A potluck barbeque lunch followed providing a delicious ending to an enjoyable day. Everyone agreed that there isn't anything better than a good judge, good food, good friends, and Dutch rabbits!

The club wishes to extend special thanks to Allen and Katie Barr for their hospitality and to Judge Wenton Carlton for making our first show a very special occasion. "YOU CAN'T BEAT THE DUTCH"!

ABOUT YOUR DUTCH REPORTER

This office had temporarily taken over the editor's position with the January/February 1988 issue. Since we had done this before and we were very aware of the workload involved, it was taken with the understanding that should it become too demanding, another editor would be sought. President Dill has been notified that this will be my last issue. The Secretary/Treasurer position of this organization is extremely time consuming and to try to publish a bulletin of this size and keep current with the daily mail workload is almost impossible for the normal person -- and believe me, I am normal. You can see by the Secretary Message that many sanctions are issued by this office. I don't believe that 227 sanctions in a little over two months is anything to sneeze at. Since the major portion of each day after the D.R. deadline is spent on putting the D.R. together, there is very little time available to keep up with the normal duties. Therefore, I'm up long before the chickens trying to catch up on mail or I'm up well after the late show signs off.

Please contact President Dill and let her know if you might want to be considered for this position. That way you will be given every consideration when an appointment is made. Before requesting that you be placed on the list as a prospective candidate, please be advised that this is not just your normal 3 or 4 page newsletter that goes out to 30 - 40 people. This is approximately a 50 page bulletin that goes out to over 750 people. That means that you will be handling approximately 38,000 sheets of paper. If you have 50 pages in the D.R., that means that you stenciled 100 sheets on the scanner and have those same 100 stencils to run off on the mimeograph. This is a very tedious job! Many of the pages you will have to type yourself. Some of those that come in already typed are not done with a dark enough ribbon and therefore does not cut well enough to see with ease when printing. These you will have to retype so that the membership can enjoy reading the material. After you have completed running off all of the pages of the D.R. you will be ready to collate. You should go through every stack of paper very carefully to be certain that both sides of the sheet were printed. It's real easy to have the mimeo skip a few, jam and have the printing get messed up on a few of the pages making the D.R. very hard to read or get sent out with a missed page or two. The collator has 12 slots so you can do 12 pages at one time. It takes about 4 hours to collate a section of 12 pages. (This can be done in about 2½ hours if you don't want to go through the stack of paper before you fill each slot looking for blank pages). This issue has 4 sections to collate so there will be approximately 16 hours total involved in this process alone. Now it's time to take the four different collated sections and put one of each together and staple, making the Dutch Reporter. You will put over 750 of them together, label them sorted by zip and state and bundle each state separate. When asking to be considered, please be certain to have the time needed. I don't want to discourage you but I want you to be aware of what you're letting yourself in for. This is a job! $200.00 an issue isn't alot of money but it's alot more than what it used to pay ---- and that was before the ADRC had a stencil cutter, new mimeograph and typewriter. It was also collated by hand and labeled by hand for a fee of only $75.00. We are all aware that this job is worth more than $200.00, but it is not feasible to pay any more than that at this time. When we start paying more than the $200.00 editor's fee along with the cost of the materials needed to publish each issue, we should start looking into it being done commercially.

The counter on the mimeo was sticking last issue and this issue it's even worse. When the counter went off, after looking at the stack of paper, we found that we were short as many as 75-100 copies of that sheet. I guess it will go in along with the stencil cutter. Hopefully they'll both be fine for next issue. If you're interested, phone President Dill at (616) 665-4286.
