"WILL YOU STAND AND BE COUNTED?"

by Tom Shufflebotham

They say "You Can't Beat The Dutch" -- and that gives us quite a claim to live up to. Having been "in Dutch" as long as I have, I think that this is no idle statement. Records go to prove that we are not merely bragging when we make this statement -- not only in the United States of America, but also in the United Kingdom and Canada (which is the domicile of some of our own members). I feel that there is no other breed of rabbits that has such world wide acclaim as ours. Dutch club members can point to a good many "firsts" in fancy promotion.

This will be a big year for our club -- one which will go down in specialty club history as a big record for those who follow our steps. This is the year we publish our fourth special edition of Small Stock. It is also the silver anniversary of our first such issue, published in 1936. I think that we were the first specialty club to sponsor such an undertaking; this marks the fourth venture.

There is a saying "that the pen is mightier than the sword" -- and looking back on these past issues I believe this. There are many worth-while and instructive articles contained in these issues -- they recall fond memories of fine breeders and friends who have left this planet. Their articles leave a fine memorial for many who have worked so hard for our breed.

However, this is quite an undertaking for our members and it means many hours of dedicated work for many people, and it will take the undivided cooperation of all of our members to make it the success it can and should be. It will take articles -- it will take ads -- and you can cooperate with your own ad.

Let's presume that everyone in the club were to devote two hours time to the publication of this edition. At $2.50 per hour this would pay for a $5.00 breeder ad -- and your name would be among the Dutch breeders in this fine testimonial and memorial. For it is a memorial -- and the copies of this magazine will become treasured items for all Dutch Club members -- they may even become collector's items for the future. Many of our members, both present and future, will be looking over this issue 25 years from now when we reach our Golden anniversary edition! They will be recalling many fine fanciers that have belonged to our club -- real champions and breeders of real champions.

My point is this -- the ads will be read with much gusto 25 years from now. You may, at present, have nothing to sell, but it will be a real bargain to get your name

I am certain that many of us can scrape up the $5.00 it takes between now and the time the copy goes to press -- and I urge you all to do what you can to make this, our Silver Anniversary issue, the most outstanding of all such issues in the fancy!

YOU CAN'T BEAT THE DUTCH

DUTCH FUROR

by J. R. Hall, Pub. Dir.

Last fall, on my vacation trip to Florida, one of the rabbit breeders whom I visited was James D. Collins of Bradenton, Florida. Jim is a tall, genial fellow, an old Bostonian and retired Army officer, who raised cattle in West Virginia for 10 years before coming to Florida. Now he raises Dutch rabbits. His rabbitry, as I saw it, was a small backyard set-up (similar to mine) and his hutches were out near the back fence and were surrounded by banana and other quick-growing plants which served both as a screen and as a shade for the hutches. From the street you'd never know rabbits were anywhere near the modern home in a tropical setting! The rabbits were Chocolate Dutch, some of which were nice enough for any show in the country. As they were used primarily for the raising of meat, they were on the large size near top registration weight. Still, they were good-looking Dutch, both in type and color.

Mr. Collins said that their club was composed mostly of retired people who had taken up rabbit raising to supplement their income. He said that Dutch rabbits were ideal for Florida, not only because they could be raised better than larger breeds, but because nowadays many people, there, were living in trailers and didn't have available cold storage space for large amounts of food. Thus a small rabbit could be purchased for meat and used up at once.

At the time of my visit to Mr. Collins' it was just before their fall show, and as Show Secretary, he was very perturbed over the A.R.B.A. rules relative to the judging of meat pen classes. He had no objection to the A.R.B.A. general disqualifications (which apply to all breeds) but did object to color and marking disqualifications which apply only to Dutch. He said their meat pens were meat rabbits which were healthy in every way, but had marking disqualifications such as runs, split stops, tied front legs, etc., which in no way hindered their use as food, and should be used in meat pens and judged for "just that". He says that this is one rule that should be amended.

SECRETARY'S CHIT-CHAT

by J. Weinhardt

I do not know just what your reaction might be to a request from our president to serve in some important capacity for your Dutch Club, but I do know what mine would be. First there would be a feeling of inadequacy--wondering if I were capable of carrying out such an important work. Once I had been convinced that I could do it, my uncertainty would be replaced with a grim determination to do the very best job of which I was capable.

I feel sure that thoughts much like these went through Melvin Emery's mind when he was appointed to do the all-important job of editing the Special Dutch Issue of Small Stock Magazine. He has really put forth an enormous amount of effort to make this endeavour a success--BUT YOU, THE MEMBERSHIP HAVE LET HIM DOWN. At the last report he had only about 1/10th the advertising he had set as his goal! You all know that without the advertising we cannot use all of the other material which we would like to use, so how about it? Are you going to let Mel down, or are you going to get behind him and give him that support he so justly deserves? SEND YOUR AD TODAY. The information was all in the February Dutch Reporter.

Another item of importance has been brought to my attention. It seems that some of our members are packing the shows in order to pile up sweepstake points. A certain amount of this sort of thing is bound to happen, but there is one place in which such action is completely unfair. Many of our State and County Fairs have limited hutch facilities and MUST limit their entries. It is a well known fact that one of our

NEWS OF THE STATE DUTCH CLUBS

OHIO STATE DUTCH CLUB: The Ohio State Dutch Rabbit Club held a meeting at the Columbus show in January at which time they held their election of officers for 1961. Those elected were: E. C. Bickley, President, Jack Wireman, Vice-President, Merle N. Emery, Secretary-Treasurer. Those elected to the Board of Directors were: Al Emery, G. A. Burke and Ray Hickok. (Ed.'s Note: Please take notice that the governing board of this club is 100% members of the ADRC.JW)
 This Club plans to hold a show on June 18th. at Norwalk, Ohio.

EASTERN DUTCH RABBIT FANCIERS CLUB: As you know, last year was our first year for the reorganized Eastern Dutch RFC. We held two shows (American Dutch Sanctioned) which were very successful with about 90 Dutch entries at each show. We have about 30 members now and hope to grow more this year.

The results of the election for 1961 are as follows: President-Henry Paruszewski (re-elected), Vice-President, Delmas Cockey, Secretary-Treasurer, Alan R. Kacsur (re-elected), Directors-Albert Campbell, Jimmy Sinclair, Warren McNamara, Jack Pugh, Jack Messner and Frank Ripple.

We are planning for two more Club shows this year again. From many reports and comments it looks like a poor spring show season for juniors due to the extreme cold weather in our area.

Alan R. Kacsur, Sec'y-Treas.

most effective areas for advertising is at these fairs. Some of our fairs have a system of limiting the number of rabbits that may be entered by one exhibitor, but many of them do not so it behooves us to enter only those that we feel have a real chance of placing in the money and giving the other fellow a chance. Let's not be piggish about it and make it impossible for others to exhibit at all.

YOU CAN'T BEAT THE DUTCH

OUR PUBLICITY ITEMS

by J. R. Hall

I wish each member of our club would carefully read over the list of items which your publicity department has on hand for sale. After that is done, think which ones of them YOU could use, then send an order for them.

Our club does not make a lot of money on these items, but we do have quite a bit of cash tied up in them which we could use advantageously in other ways, if only we could get it. I refer, especially to shoulder emblems, pedigree books, decals, stamps and Dutch neckties.

Another item of which we have an abundance is the 1954 Special Dutch issue of Small Stock Magazine. This is chock full of good articles on Dutch, which should be a boon for novices and others interested in rabbits. It is offered to Dutch rabbit clubs at a very special rate so as to make it available to all. Don't wait until spring, but act at once. DO IT NOW! ! !

Mr. Pat Halleck
2648 Willis Ave.,
Perry, Iowa

Dear Mr. Halleck:

Your letter relative to the undercut on a good tortoise. This should be as distinct as possible to match the shadings on the sides. The plainer the undercut shows the better the undercut. There are no exceptions on this, neither would there be the confusion that there now is IF the judges would judge according to our standard of perfection. I don't feel that you would be out of place if you were to bring this to the attention of the judge, privately after the judging. A good many judges go according to their own likes and dislikes instead of sticking rigidly to our standard of perfection.

Yours in the Fancy,
Tom Shufflebotham, Chmn. Ed. Comm.

Dear Friends:

Convention time is just around the corner and as I have been appointed Youth Breed Chairman for the ARBA Cconvention and show this year at Louisville, Kentucky, October 9-12.

Would appreciate any special from one dollar up, trophies, ceramics or other prizes. Anything you may want to offer will be gladly accepted and placed on your favorite breed.

Let us make this youth show a success - and at the same time help our young folks.

Yours gratefully,
Kay Malott, ARBA Fla. Representative

Dear Mrs. Weinhardt:

I have given a trio of good Tort Dutch to a 15 year old boy, Nick Garcia at Carl Farley's Boys Ranch, Amarillo, Texas. I am also giving him a years paid up membership in the ADRC. Please send him his membership card and Guide book so that he can get started right.

I would also appreciate it if any of the ADRC members who live in that vicinity would call on this boy at their convenience and give him the advantage of their advice on breeding Dutch.

If we never do anything more than helping a boy like this who has no one to care for him, get a better outlook on life and a little more pleasure out of it, the American Dutch Rabbit Club will have justified it's existance.

Yours truly,
J. C. Early, Norman, Okla.
