PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

After a tough summer and an unusually mild winter we are having a beautiful spring. Some people still are not getting does bred. This has brought on small junior classes at some shows.

By now you probably have received your ballot. PLEASE VOTE! Vote for someone who will represent you, people who will attend meetings, write articles and have some original ideas. If you don't know who to vote for, ask some of your friends for recommendations.

As we have been predicting for over two years, we are in the midst of a rabbit boom. The Sears farm catalog has a full page of rabbit equipment and we predict that next year they will feature breeding stock. Most breeders have a waiting list for rabbits.

When I ran for President it was my intention to serve only one term, therefore please vote for someone else as I will not be a candidate. It has been a pleasure serving as your president.

Don Brady

BALLOTS WERE MAILED APRIL 3, 1981. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE YOURS BY MAY 1, 1981, PLEASE WRITE TO THE SECRETARY AND WE WILL MAIL YOU ANOTHER. REMEMBER TO INCLUDE YOUR RETURN ADDRESS ON THE MAILING ENVELOPE. BALLOTS WITHOUT RETURN ADDRESSES WILL BE DESTROYED. BALLOTS MUST BE RECEIVED BY THE ELECTION COMMITTEE BY MAY 15, 1981.

A SHORT SECRETARYS MESSAGE

Spring is upon us, although it is dark, cool and dreary today. The lettuce we planted last week is up and we are really watching for the peas to start peeping through. The nest boxes are filling rapidly. Although I have heard of some folks having trouble getting does bred, we had a very mild spell early on in the winter and as luck would have it another mild spell thirty days later. We had earlier litters than we have had in many years. Many of our does look like they will deliver unusually large litters. Probably could attribute that to the mild and short winter.

Just as soon as I finish typing this stencil the Dutch Reporter will be ready for collating and stapling and labeling and bundling. I have gone through the ADRC membership list three times since the last DR, so they have been busy days. The next DR will contain photos and reports of the 1981 National Dutch Show. PUBLICATION DEADLINES WILL BE STRICTLY ADHERED TO. I have spent too much time in the past few issues waiting for material. No more Mr Niceguy! Really, if you have a contribution, send it anytime and I will use it at the next possible time. The July-August DR will deal with teeth. Plan an article for us please!! we need you!

HAPPY SPRING

KORNER

RED, WHITE & BLUE
by Bill Geitzenauer

Recently I was asked whether it was good to get red, white & blue registration. This is covered in the ARBA handbook as to what it is. Basically it means that three generations of the Dutch in question have been registered.

The next question might be "Does this mean that any succeeding generation will be capable of registering?" Well, even though it is more affluent in the commercial breeds, there are some that hold a lot of merit with this. Personally, it means little to me. In the first place it is a possibility that only six rabbits out of the possible last three generations could even register. That means little, but at least it could be better than nothing. Many litters produce nothing. It is one way to keep track of ones breeding record.

Secondly, a rabbit to be registered is brought to an ARBA registrar, who "appraises" the rabbits worth according to their own interpretation of the standard. This will vary as sure as everyone sees something a little differently.

I have had a few registered in my life and personally disagree on many points the registrar stated. Also, the breeder can state that this Dutch is out of a particular registered rabbit which it may not be!

Remember not that to register, it must meet the minimum standard with NO disqualifications or seen genetic defects.

Some years ago I purchased a buck from a still prominent national breeder and bred him to eight does. He was supposed to be red, white, and blue. To make a long story short one year later I had a total of six adults and 14 youngsters out of him. Out of 14 youngsters 11 had buck teeth at 10 weeks old. I had sold six out of him at the time. Yes, I killed all 20 out of him, including him and had to replace six that had been delivered previously. No, I had never had buck teeth in the color before, even when I outcrossed, with other breeders stock. Total output, including feed, sales about $400.--down the drain.

Perhaps this is an isolated case, but it sure did hurt, not only in the wallet, but in time which is more valuable. When I sell a rabbit I certify what the rabbit is relating the lineage and findings in the line. If I misrepresent the Dutch rabbit it is my name and I take the blame, replacing the stock to satisfy the purchaser. No, there is morally no sign "buyer beware" backing our stock. Each one of us are responsible to protect our good names through honesty.

Some of us have even replaced stock for other breeders who have sold "crooked legs" filed "buck teeth" etc. to newer breeders, refusing to take back the defective animal. By the way some were registered. This is not to say that registration (all) is poor, but rather that humans sometimes err, particularly when some few breeders use devious devices to have one passed.

Yes, red, white, & blue is good if properly used, but NO if the breeder is an uncaring bit of humanity who will use the ARBA to mask their profitable motives.

And yes, red, white & blue is only as deep as the heart of the breeder and their good names. The final answer must be up to you. Even with the registration it is up to you, the breeder to treat all, as you would like to be treated!

Editor: HERE is an idea for an article by one of you fanciers. BUCK TEETH. I think maybe our members and readers would be interested in the causes, etc.

Tell you what, the next DR will feature the NDS, but how about making the July-August issue on BUCK TEETH. Put some thought into it now and send something.

FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE YOUTH COMMITTEE

For those who weren't at the National Convention, Mr Brady appointed me Chairman of the Youth Division. I guess because I spouted off when I should have kept my mouth shut. Anyway, I'll try my best at this task which I think is so important. We need to get more youth involved. The parent club should definitely support a youth program. So here goes and this is what has transpired. I have one volunteer on the committee so far and his name is Dick Gehr from Illinois. More volunteers will be accepted after we get the ball rolling, probably at the 1981 National Dutch Show.

Here are the steps we feel are needed to get the program started:

YOUTH PROGRAM PROPOSALS_YOUTH PROGRAM PROPOSALS YOUTY PROGRAM PROPOSALS YOUTH PROGRAM

1. Youth memberships to be kept separate from adults. (Listed separately by the secretary in the memberships column of the treasurers report) This to be done so $1.00 of each Youth membership can be set aside in a contingency fund for the Youth instead of going into the Adult contingency fund. This money to be used for Youth Sweepstakes trophies at the end of the sweepstakes year.
2. Have Youth Sweepstakes. Charge $2.00 for a Youth sanction. Sweepstake points figured off these sanctions same as Adults with same point system. (I have a volunteer to keep these points).
3. Get ribbons and/or rosettes marked Youth for BOB & BOS to be sent with each Youth sanction and given out at show. (To save money-cancel all ribbons and rosettes to adults except those who still want them.) What do the adults do with their ribbons? Most of them end up in a drawer.
4. If Youth is sanctioned, list in the Dutch Reporter as well as the results the same as the Adults.
5. Youth to elect 1 or 2 representatives to act as liason between Youth and the Board of Directors.
6. Youth to abide by the ADRC Constitution and By-Laws.

These are some of the ideas Dick and I came up with and if any of you have points to add or wish to discuss please present them as soon as possible.

Dutchingly yours,
Wilbur Williamson

"MICKEY & MAE, BEST BREEDERS AND BEST PEOPLE"

Mickey and Mae gave me my first Dutch on 3/9/78. Later I was told that Mickey told Mae that maybe I was fool enough to stick it out with Dutch since we walked around in the hard rain picking out breeding stock on that first day.

Not only did they set me up with good breeding stock, but were liberal with all the information needed to survive and compete as I had only had two Easter bunnies for the kids which we had let run wild inside the swimming pool fence.

At present I have 81 holes, filled mostly with Torts, the rest with Black Dutch. All but five rabbits carry the "Watters pedigree".

If I have any future successes, credit should go to Mickey and Mae Watters and also to my wife, Wilba Dean for putting up with my follishness.

MILKING AND MOTHERING

by Dave Machell

I think the time has come for all rabbit raisers to stop, think and act on the problem of the milking and mothering ability of our rabbits. I have raised rabbits since 1925-26 and back in those good old days when a rabbit was due to kindle she was given a large nest box with bedding in the bottom and stuffed full of good sweet smelling hay and she was left alone. After a time, either the babies came from the nest or you would peek in to see what you had in there.

Now the trend seems to be the moment the babies are kindles the BOSS opens the nest, sticks his or her nose in, picks out all the mismarked, kills them, or throws them away, whatever. When a doe only has two or three young to make milk for she cuts down her milk production and after two or three breedings, this is all the milk she produces. I know a lot of folks will say that the doe will continue to produce the full amount of milk, but I do not agree with this. It is just like a cow or any other animal the more the young stimulate her the more milk she will produce, that is if she has the mothering qualities and is properly fed and cared for.

All I am trying to say to you people is, breed and keep your stock for milking and mothering qualities and don't keep any stock that are poor mothers. (Scatter litters, no milk, abandon their young, don't nest properly.) Keep only young from good milkers and mothers, and don't sell these poor milkers to anyone else to start with as there is nothing that turns a beginner off so quick as to loose all the litt litters when he first starts in rabbit raising. Good luck with your Dutch. God knows they are the best milkers and mothers in the world. A lot of people keep Dutch females and foster off other young on to them because they are such great milkers and mothers. Let's not spoil this by breeding and selling poor ones.

THUMPER SWIMS

In the spring of 1969 my nephew Michael Herman asked me for an Easter bunny for his boys which was easy to fill, thus I gave him a mismarked Dutch bunny which they named Thumper. Thumper grew to like the boys Kevin and Mike, just as he learned to like their Doberman Pincher dog (Duke).

As happens on warm days, the boys were wading in their swim pool when Thumper unannounced swam from a picnic Bench into the wading pool. Naturally, the boys were well pleased to share the pool with their friend Thumper who subsequently learned to become a very excellent swimmer. In fact Thumper developed a real liking for swimming and he doesn't need his friends in the pool to take a swim and a short swim.

Yes, Thumper has a very sharing friendship with the boys, but the big Doberman Male has been selected as his big brother because Thumper chooses to rest between the big paws of Duke when they retire for the night after a day of fun filled games.

I really feel that Thumper made the first plunge to be close to his friends and learned to swim to try to survive.

Dutchingly for the Fun of it
Patrick Herman, Colorado

editor: Pat sent some photos along with the above story. They are of some very nicely done wooden plaques with Holly Hobbie paintings and Dutch rabbits in characteristic poses. Also included were photos of the Swimming Thumper. We will try to put them in the next DR with the NDS photos. THANKS PAT! Also included with Pats offering was the following: (Is there a message for me in this?)

NOBODY IS PERFECT

EACH ONE OF US IS A MIXTURE OF GOOD QUALITIES AND SOME PERHAPS NOT-SO-GOOD QUALITIES. IN CONSIDERING OUR FELLOW MAN WE SHOULD REMEMBER HIS GOOD QUALITIES AND REALIZE THAT HIS FAULTS ONLY PROVE THAT HE IS, AFTER ALL, A HUMAN BEING. WE SHOULD REFRAIN FROM MAKING HARSH JUDGEMENT OF A PERSON JUST BECAUSE HE HAPPENS TO BE A DIRTY, ROTTEN, NO-GOOD SON-OF-A-BITCH!
