PRESIDENT

By the time many of you receive this issue of the Dutch Reporter another National Dutch Show will be history. The Eastern Dutch Rabbit Fanciers Club will have succeeded in sponsoring another successful national show. In reviewing the 1985 NDS catalog, I find the specials outstanding. Al Butler will have served as senior judge and Paul Jurgelonis will have evaluated the Dutch entry as the junior judge. A bargain rate on United Airlines made it possible for me to attend this year's NDS.

Some of you may have heard of the passing of two great Dutchmen. George Bayliss of Hayward, California and Tom Shufflebotham of Valparaiso, Indiana passed away earlier this year. Both gentlemen were born in England and immigrated to the United States. The American Dutch Rabbit Club was very fortunate to have had these two Dutchmen take such an active role in the development of the Dutch rabbit in the United States. I know we will miss the knowledge and wisdom of Mr. Bayliss and Mr. Shufflebotham. Although I did not have the opportunity to visit Mr. Bayliss, Tom Shufflebotham was responsible for me raising and showing Dutch. While growing up in La Porte, Indiana, I was fortunate to live only 26 miles from Tom. Many times Mr. and Mrs. Shufflebotham offered their gracious hospitality to me and other Dutch breeders. My deepest sympathy is extended to the families of George Bayliss and Tom Shufflebotham.

Members of the Illinois Dutch Rabbit Club had a close scare as Fred "Pop" Corn suffered a heart attack at a Coal City, City Council Meeting. For those of you who don't know Freddie, he is the father of our secretary-treasurer, Norma Hart. Freddie is the kind of guy you really enjoy and respect. He would do anything for anybody. Our prayers are with you Freddie as we wish you a speedy and complete recovery. I know Evelyn, Norma's mother, will make sure he does what he is supposed to, in order to insure his recovery.

The American Rabbit Breeders' Association has approved the new Dutch standard submitted on behalf of the membership of the American Dutch Rabbit Club. There was some disagreement or clarification problems with the brown-gray color description and blue eye color. These problems have been resolved and the Dutch standard endorsed by the voting membership will be that which appears in the A.R.B.A.'s Standard of Perfection.

I will be returning all the pictures of the Dutch rabbits provided by some of the members. The printer could not get good enough resolution on the photographs to clearly illustrate the desired color for each variety. I want to thank everyone who took the time and effort to send their photographs to me. If you do not received you pictures by May 1, 1985, please let me know.

Now is the time to be thinking about the 1986 National Dutch Show. Who will be the sponsors? Look in the next issue of the Dutch Reporter to find the answer. So far, we have only received one bid. The decision for the location of the '86 NDS will be made in York, Pennsylvania, the site of the 1985 National Dutch Show.

Vicki Hertel is the sweepstakes chairperson. She is doing an outstanding job fulfilling her new responsibilities. The reason why the sweepstakes reports have been backlogged is that some 400 show reports were sent to her from the past chairman. I thank Vicki and her family for their patience and understanding.

In closing, I am very enthused about the number of people interested in the Dutch fancy in California. California has a great number of experienced and energetic Dutch breeders. I am looking forward to being a part of their activities. Kate and Dianne send their best!

Dutch are dynamite,

Scott

Fellow Dutch Breeders:

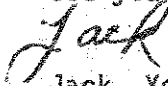

Well, Winter is on it's way out. Sure glad to see it go. I think the rabbits are happy also. Not too many litters this winter, but now is the time to get the does bred and maybe get a couple for Houston.

I'm happy to report I have a bid in hand from Iowa for our 1986 National Dutch Show. Time to get those Dutch ready for York and take in a few spring shows before heading East.

Maybe with our Reporter coming out of California now, we may be able to get a little more sunshine. Good work, Dianne, and keep them coming and if you can, send us some of your sunshine. Wish to also thank Norma for the past Reporters. They were all good. Bet Norma has, or can find a place to set a trophy or two now.

Well Dutch breeders, this isn't much of an article, but sort of covers a few things and takes up a little space in the Reporter.

See you at the shows,

Jack, Your V.P.

FROM THE DESK OF THE SECRETARY

In this issue you will find a complete list of the American Dutch Rabbit Club membership as of March 8th. If your membership has not been updated, and you sent your renewal in, it was not yet received by printing time. Your membership MUST be current in order to receive the ADRC nomination ballot. These ballots will be mailed out to each adult member around the first of April. Since they are mailed via third class non-profit rate, it could take up to two weeks to receive your ballot. If you do not receive one, please contact this office so that another can be issued. Husband/wife memberships will receive two (2) ballots. Please do not become alarmed if you only receive one ballot with a label that has both you and your spouses name on it and it only contains one ballot. Labels are printed for DR mailing and not as individual memberships. Memberships would have to be re-entered in order to have them for each member and would be good "only" for ballot mailing. In order to mail under our non-profit mailing, all articles must be the same in contents (weight). You will receive one ballot in the labeled envelope while the other will be hand written. There are times that both ballots will not arrive at the same time, although they are ALL mailed together. (I don't know how this happens except that this is not priority or first class mail and is delivered, it seems, at the convenience of the postal service!) Voting is a privilege --- Please take the time to VOTE for the nominee/s of your choice!! Judge nominations for the National Dutch Show and ARBA Convention are chosen from the membership list, as are those chosen for an office in the ADRC. Please look over the membership and choose your nominee/s from those included in this list!

I'm going to keep this message short as I've already sent enough material in for printing that will keep Dianne busy for many hours. Since I'm aware of the time involved in getting the material stenciled and printed, I don't wish to make it any more difficult and time consuming than necessary.

I hope that each of you are enjoying the same super weather that we are today and that your nest boxes are "filled with beautiful Dutch!"

Have a "SUPER" day and a beautiful Easter!

DUTCH REPORTER EDITOR NOTES. . . . .

As I put together this issue of the Dutch Reporter, I am also trying to pack up my house (again) and move to a home Scott and I have purchased. So please take note of our new address for articles and advertising.

Dianne Williamson
6588 E. Ashlan
Clovis, CA 93612

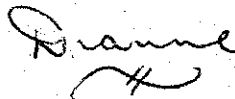

The weather here is absolutely summer-like so this move will be much more pleasant than the move from Illinois in January!

We extend our sincere sympathies to the families of Tom Schufflebotham and George Bayliss. If any of you would like to write to Dorthea

Schufflebotham her address is: c/o The Willows
1000 Elizabeth St.
Valparasio, CA 46383

The covers for the Dutch Reporter will hopefully be ready for the next issue. The cost of printing the covers was much higher here than I was expecting, so we are sending the material to Illinois to be printed. I thought it was only fair to include those who have purchased cover ads in this issue. This is the final copy for the cover. If any information is incorrect, please let me know immediately.

Hope you are having a beautiful Spring. This is the best season of all!

HELP WANTED: Please let Scott or Norma know if you are interested in serving as Breed Chairperson or Breed Secretary for the ARBA Convention in Houston, Texas this fall. The ADRC needs your help and thanks you for your interest and support.

HE WAS A DEDICATED DUTCHMAN by Roger Eich

Tom Shufflebotham was a man with great concern about the future of the Dutch Rabbit and the American Dutch Rabbit Club. I met Tom for the first time in the early 50's. Through the years we had many disagreements along with a good relationship. It was not until Tom had a long talk with me about breeding color and especially eye color that I was able to master this with any real ease.

One incident that happened while we were going to the National Dutch Show in Colorado Springs has always brought back old memories. We entered the state of Colorado and were heading west when we met a State Trooper. We noticed that he was turning around, so Tom and I pulled the station wagon over to the side of the road and immediately started to mull around with the rabbits. As the officer walked up, Tom said, "You know Roger, it looks like this one is overheated." Tom just kept carrying on and on about how we might lose the rabbit before we got to the show in Colorado Springs. Tom asked the trooper how far it was to the next town and the trooper replied about 40 miles. Tom said, Gosh, this rabbit will surely be dead before we get there. We need some cold water and a towel to lay the rabbit on to cool it off." The officer went to his car and offered us a jug of cold water he had with him for drinking. We had a hand towel and soaked it up with water and let the rabbit sit on it.

The officer then said to us, "It looks like you fellows have got your hands full with forty four rabbits in this station wagon. You better get this vehicle rolling so you can pump some more air in on them. And by the way, just a word of caution-try to keep it under 65 mph. We really don't want to give you a ticket." We thank him and went on. After we drove about four miles down the road I said to Tom that I didn't think that rabbit was that warm and Tom said, "No, Rog, it wasn't, but the officer didn't know that!"

Amazingly that rabbit went Best Opposite Sex along with six other first place winners from our entries. It turned out to be an exciting and fun trip. Although Tom was not very active the last five years or so, his presence and rabbit chat at the shows will always be remembered.

FROM TOM DIETRICH. . . . .

Today is a nice warm spring-like day. Michigan's winter was almost unbearable this year, making it extremely hard on raising any little rabbits. I only saved about three litters this winter. Trudging through waist high snow takes the glitter from raising rabbits, but a little sunshine is all that is needed to get the hopes and excitement started again.

I received my National Dutch Show catalog this week. The Eastern Dutch Rabbit Fanciers have alot of specials offered and it should be a very memorable show. Remember to save a quality animal for the Seller's Class. Let's make this years Seller's Class a place to pick up that eye catching show winning animal.

ABOUT OUR CONSTITUTION

As Chairman of the Constitution and By-Laws Committee, I have been in contact with the other members of this committee. We have come to the conclusion that there are several things that should be updated or clarified in our existing Const. and By-Laws, and we are in the process of coming up with something to present to the membership for your consideration.

Several of the points we are looking into are the Election Committee, retention of election ballots, the standard committee, Directors by District and the Secretary's travel expenses.

A couple of these items were brought up at the ARBA Convention, so some of you are familiar with what will be presented.

This Committee will have a full report in the next Dutch Reporter, explaining the proposals and presenting them to you the way they will appear on the ballot.

Dick Gehr, Chairman of the ADRC Constitution & By-Laws Committee

FOSTERING A LITTER

by Marilyn Siebe

I have read many places about placing kits with foster mothers for one reason or another, but I have never read anywhere about how to be a foster mother to an orphaned litter. This is what I hope to accomplish by writing this article. Here is a how-to guide for those who have no other doe to use as a foster mother if the doe of the litter dies.

The first thing I did was hook up a heating pad, cover it with a towel and place it inside a small carrying cage. When the pad was warm, I turned it down to 10 and put the 6 kits inside and covered them with a washcloth to keep them cozy.

Since most people don't keep a supply of milk for orphaned kits around the house, you will need to go to the Pet Store and buy a can of the powdered milk for orphaned kittens. I suggest the powdered milk because you can mix up just the amount you need and not worry about spoilage. They also have the little nursing bottles that you can use, but I had several glass eyedroppers at home that I decided to use. So the measurements that I use here are eyedroppers full instead of  $\frac{1}{4}$  oz. or  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. per feedings.

I mixed up the formula, warmed it a little in the microwave, and got out the eyedroppers and asked for volunteers from my children. Actually I figured that since I had 6 children and 6 little kits, it would work out great having all that help. But my two youngest ones, ages 7 and 9 didn't understand about "force feeding". When they put the eyedroppers up to their mouths, the kits pulled away and fought them. They said, "Mom, they're not hungry!" So my oldest daughter, age 15, volunteered to help me with this awesome undertaking. She took one little kit and I took another one and we "force fed" all 6 of them a drop at a time. At first they only took one dropper full, but each successive feeding they took more and more.

We used a damp washcloth to wash their faces and little bottoms. The formula was a little sticky and they were very sloppy, so this was a MUST. Also, they weren't having little pellets for stool, but sticky substance that would stick all the fur together and would have caused an irritation if it wasn't washed off. And so this procedure would go on and on and on every couple of hours. I did refuse to get up during the night though and they made it fine.

Once, one of them got a little case of the runs, so I slipped in a dropper full of acidophilus in between droppers of formula. The next day he was fine.

When they were 4 weeks old, we would mix half of the formula with milk right from the refrigerator. Of course we would heat it to room temperature, but that formula was expensive and we had weaned kits at 4 weeks before when selling them as pets. When they were 5 weeks old we stopped the formula and switched to regular cow's milk. And they were only fed twice a day. Another expense I failed to mention was the heating pad. We only left it plugged in for about a week. This was from when they were 2 weeks old until they were 3 weeks old. About half way through that period, it was only left on during the night. We kept them in the sunlight that came through our bedroom window during the day. Between the 3rd and 4th week they outgrew the carrying cage, so I had to bring in a larger one that they had shared with their mother. This larger cage had to go in the kitchen in an out of the way spot. They hopped around in and out of the next box and food dish, and chewed on a little twig I had brought in from the apple tree. Sometimes they would investigate the little Guinea Pig watering bottle hanging in the cage. We loved to watch they play and then cuddle up in a little circle to nap. At 5 weeks we only have 3 little kits left, but that is only because we have sold 3 of them to friends who took it upon themselves to dropper feed their little one until they are 6 weeks old.

Because of having to be held and cuddled so often, they are more tame than any bunny we have ever had. I don't prefer this way of raising bunnies, but I'm glad for the experience and the chance to share this information with others. I had rather just play with them as they get older and tame them for the pet market.

Editor's Note:

Marilyn - Thank you for sharing this article with us. Marilyn included three photos with this article and I can attest to the fact that these bunnies looked quite healthy! I hope to meet you at some shows in California. Dianne

NOW THAT I'VE GOT IT .....

WHAT DO I DO WITH IT?

We've raised Dutch for quite a few years now but just recently got hooked on the Gray and Steels. It wasn't too hard to understand that you could take a black and steel and mate them or that you could take a steel and gray. But now I've got what I call Opal Dutch. I think that they were referred to as Blue Fawns in the old Dutch Standard that Mr. Bill Geitzenauer submitted in the last issue of the Dutch Reporter. As the Law of Averages dictates, if you can't show it because it's not a recognized color, the markings are as near perfect as you can get. I now have two of these beautiful "opals", the oldest is a buck with the younger one just opening it's eyes. Both are nicely marked (of course).

Since there is very little written in our guidebook about breeding grays and steels and even less about these throw-offs, I'm at a stand still as what to do with them. I vaguely remember hearing a judge talking with another Dutch breeder and saying something about taking the two "opals" and breeding them together to get either steels or grays. Naturally, at that time I could have cared less and didn't turn my ear in their direction. If all this seems confusing to read, just think what it's like to walk into the barn, look at these cuties and wonder if there's anything I should be using them for short of bunnies for the Pet Store.

If any of our Gray or Steel breeders can give me insight into this problem, please do so. If the only word is "cull", I do that very well too!

Keep Hoppin,

Mark Dill

To: The Membership of the American Dutch Rabbit Club

I would like to express my desire to run for nomination to the Board of Directors. I feel that we need some younger people to add to our leadership and although I have days when keeping up with two kids, one that just became a teenager and the other 10 yrs., I wonder just how young I am.

I have met a number of you at local, state and National shows but for those of you who have not met me, I'll try to give you a brief description. I am 39 years old, married to Vern, 7 1/2 yrs., all which have been great. We have two children, Paul 13 and Andrea 10 who have been adopted by Vern. We started with 5 rabbits that we bought at the Allegan Fair. They were New Zealand Whites to be raised for meat. Someone mentioned that there was a livestock sale about 35 miles from home and that often times they had rabbits to sell. Off we went to get a few more rabbits for raising meat but came across a red colored rabbit and a small bunny with a gray and white body like a panda bear. Thank goodness we had met rabbit breeders who took time to explain what we had purchased. We were now the official owners of a Red Satin and a blue Dutch buck. From that day forward, we have never been without a Dutch in the barn.

The Dutch have grown considerably in our barn to include all 6 varieties. We show over the United States, Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Tennessee, Iowa, Wisconsin and Florida. This past year, we felt very honored to be asked to be the Breed Chairpersons for the American Dutch Rabbit Club in Orlando, Florida, ARBA Convention. We really had a great time meeting so many of you, getting donations for the specials, ordering the trophies and planning the banquet. It also made us realize just how much time and effort is put into being a chairperson, if the job is done correctly.

We are a very active family, working with youth and with the rabbit project. We spent alot of time and money promoting rabbits, many times spending up to $400 for a meat pen from 4-H'ers. Vern and I were the Superintendents of the Kalamazoo County 4-H Rabbit Club with approximately 95 members. The rabbits were then donated back to the 4-H Club for the members to improve their stock with. We are also involved in a new rabbit club, called the Hop-2-It Rabbit Club. Some of our main objectives of this club are to first, promote rabbits through educating of the public, second to make going to a Michigan rabbit show an enjoyable event with real hospitality. Michigan shows usually have an entry of 1000 to 1300 and become a real madhouse with the showroom wall to wall people and rabbits. I am on the State Rabbit Developmental Committee which plans rabbit related activities for the 4-H'ers. We, as resource people, travel the State, putting on regional training sessions for rabbit raisers. We have just returned from Camp Kett where we taught 4-H leaders and teen leaders how to palpate, make fair promotional items, learn to judge and give oral reasons for carcass classes, fur classes and live meat judging, Quiz Bowl, demonstrations, cavy fitting and showing and genetics. We will be having a state 4-H show the end of March which will draw approximately 1700 rabbits with nearly 600 exhibitors. The Developmental Committee also plans an Expo 2 Day session which includes points toward a scholarship in the areas of breed identification and general knowledge, rabbit cookery, rabbit costume classes, fur and meat animal judging, cavy and rabbit fitting and showing and rabbit science projects. These different functions have appeared in articles that I have written for both the "Domestic Rabbits" and "Rabbits" magazines. This year at the National Dutch Show to be held in York, PA. we will be trying a couple of new ideas that I have suggested to Wilbur Williamson, Youth Committee Chairman. I spend alot of time during the summer months, judging at local fairs.

I am currently an active member on the Youth and By-laws Committee of the ADRC. I believe that the officers should be active and in constant contact with the members and their desires. I believe some of our appointed committees need to become more active, or if inactive, "disbanned". I feel that I have an advantage in knowing what many of the ADRC membership wishes because we attend many shows throughtout the year. We make it a point to talk to the Dutch breeders and listen to their suggestions, ideas, and complaints. I feel that all officers of the ADRC should help to educate both new and old members through their articles contained in the "Dutch Reporter". We, as elected officers, have a obligation to promote our breed through the education of our fellow fanciers. No one is ever too old or too knowledgeable!

I would appreciate your support in the upcoming election for the office of Director.

T H A N K   Y O U !

Marti Dill, Michigan

ASKING FOR SUPPORT

It is again time for elections in the American Dutch Rabbit Club, and I am asking for support.

I have been a member of the ADRC for 9 years, and have spent much time and effort in trying to make it the BEST Specialty Club going. I have served on the ADRC Standard Committee, a National Dutch Show Committee, as Sweepstakes Chairman, assisted Norma Hart in various ways in her duties as Secretary-Treasurer, and am presently the Chairman of the Constitution and By-Laws Committee.

I have been a licensed registrar in the ARBA for several years, and am in the process of attaining my Judges license. I am also the President of the Illinois Rabbit Breeders Association.

I would like very much to be an officer of the ADRC, as I believe I could function well in this capacity. I have fresh ideas, am not afraid to voice my opinions, or stand by my convictions. I believe if there is a job to do, to get it done and not sit by the wayside waiting for someone else to do it.

The membership's welfare, the betterment of the ADRC, and the breed itself are my main goals. I am committed as a Dutch Fancier to the progress of our organization and all it stands for.

I am seeking support as President or Director in the ADRC and hope that you will give me considerable thought when making out your ballot.

Thank You,
Dick Gehr, Illinois.

SOME QUESTIONS AND THOUGHTS

In reading the last issue of the Dutch Reporter, I found several things that disturbed me. I would like to ask a few questions about these subjects. The questions and opinions expressed below are totally mine, and no one else is responsible for my thoughts.

First, I would like to know why Glen Carr was contacted so late for judging the National Dutch Show? He was the first choice of the membership, and it seems the sponsoring club should have made sure he was secured for the job.

Another thing regarding the National Dutch Show is the fact that the ADRC donates $500.00 to the sponsoring club, of which 50% is to be used for specials. In reviewing the specials for the NDS in the Dutch Reporter, I didn't see anything donated by the ADRC.

I noticed in the President's Fact Sheet and the Secretary's Message that we are having problems with the Brown-Gray description. I was wondering what was being done about it? Is the vote taken by the membership going to mean anything, or should we just let the ARBA Standard Committee make up our standard to please themselves?

I had written to several people regarding this decision on the Brown-Gray, and it is my understanding that what our membership voted on was never even submitted to the ARBA Standard Committee and Board of Directors. It was changed before it was presented to them. This also occurred with the Blue eye color. In referring to Al Meier's letter published in the last Dutch Reporter, he states "I agree that the only correct eye color for the Blue should be 'blue-gray' but in the interest of those ten percent (your figures) that have brown eyes I prefer to remain alive rather than reap the wrath of those who have Blues with matching brown eyes - God knows that breeding Dutch is tough enough without picayunish disqualifications". If this is the case, why be picayune about the percentage of Tortois with white under tails, or split stops? As for citing the British descriptions, I do not show my rabbits over-seas, and have no intention of flying over some Sunday to do so. Let's stick to our own rabbits and not some other countries.

Regarding the Director by District, possibly we need more representation of our membership. It has been quite a while since I have heard anything from some of the Directors we have. But will dividing the country into sections help? We might be hurting ourselves by being limited to only one Director from certain groups of states. Perhaps there are several people, all of which would make good Directors, living in states that would be classified as one district. Then we could be getting someone from a district that wouldn't be as active as someone from another district that already had a Director. I would also like to know how the transformation of electing these Directors by District would take place? As it stands now, we have three Directors whose terms expire in 1985, and three that expire in 1986. Of these Directors, the three that expire in 1985 are all in the districts designated to be elected in the numerically even years by the proposed change. Likewise, the three Directors expiring in 1986 are all in districts designated to be elected in the numerically odd years. This works out OK. But, the President, whose term expires in 1985, is designated to be elected in the same year as those Directors whose terms expire in 1986. Same with the Vice President, the term of office expires in conflict with the designated year to be elected.

Only being able to vote for the Director from your district is something else I question. If I am to have nine Directors representing me, shouldn't I be able to vote for all nine of them?

Voting in this manner could also make it harder on the Secretary, as she would have to make sure that only half of the membership got ballots to vote for Directors, the President or the Vice-President, and the other half only got ballots to vote for the President or Vice-President. This could also present a problem with the Election Committee keeping things straight. They would have to verify that a member was from a certain District, then make sure that the person they voted for was from their District. Then all of the Districts would have to be kept separate until a final count could be obtained. It could be done, but it seems that this is only making the job harder. It could also present the problem of more spoiled ballots if someone voted for a person that wasn't in their District.

I think that possibly adding three more Directors with the same voting procedure we now have would be just as good. It would just have to be initiated to add one Director in the next election, and two in the following election, then electing four or five Directors each year as is necessary.

I have also given some thought as to the election of judges for the National Dutch Shows. The membership (adult) gets to vote for who they would like to have judge their rabbits, but the Youth get stuck with whoever the sponsoring club wants to hire for them. I believe that the Youth should have a voice in who judges their rabbits at the NDS. Or, the sponsoring club hires three judges, and they judge the adult rabbits, then the Youth rabbits in the same order as the adults.

As stated earlier, these are only my questions and opinions, and I am open for any comments on them.

Dick Gehr, Illinois
