A NEW GUIDE BOOK AND STANDARD TO BE PRINTED THIS YEAR

A committee has been set up to print a new guide book, and we are at this time soliciting for ads to support this project. As you all can well imagine it is very costly to print a catalog. We of the committee anticipate the cost to run in excess of $1000.00. As you can see from these figures we will all have to do our part and support this project financially.

The last Guide Book the Dutch Club had printed was eight years ago. In all probability the new guide book will last just as long. From an advertising standpoint, where else could you place an ad that would be seen so many times by so many Dutch breeders? The guide book and standard is a constant companion of old and new breeders alike.

The catalog will be approximately 5½" by 7" on a high grade enamel paper. All cuts to be made for the guide book will be billed extra to the advertiser. Prices for ads are as follows:

Full Page	$20.00
1/2 Page	12.50
1/4 Page	7.00
1/8 Page	4.00

Make all checks and money orders payable to the American Dutch Rabbit Club. Send all copy and mats for ads to: Bill Summers; 502 Sevilla Drive, Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Won't each and every one of you please sit down right now and make out copy for your ad on the blank included in this issue of the Dutch Reporter? Support your Dutch Club and the rabbit we all love so well.

Opinions expressed in articles and letters published in the Dutch Reporter do not necessarily represent those of the American Dutch Rabbit Club, the Editor or the Publisher.

The date your membership expires is shown on the address label of your Dutch Reporter. Dues $3.00 per year. NOTE: Our Club is affiliated with the American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc., and by sending $6.75 instead of $3.00, you will become a member of both Associations.

All material for the Dutch Reporter must be in the hands of the Editor by the 15th of the month preceding issue.

Please notify us immediately of any change in address so that you will not miss copies of the Dutch Reporter year is naturally the National Dutch Show. You will have received your catalogs very soon now, and many of you have already selected the rabbits that you plan to enter and have formulated your plans for attending. The committee assures me that everything humanly possible is being done for the comfort of our rabbits and ourselves and that an outstanding entertainment program is being planned for any spare moments we may have. Mrs. Hall, secretary of the Eastern Dutch Rabbit Fanciers Club tells me that she has attended two other banquets at the Howard Johnson restaurant where our banquet is to be held and both events were outstanding.

One little cloud in the sky -- I have been officially informed that neither of the judges selected by the membership to judge the National Dutch Show will be able to perform these duties. Mr. Burke writes me that his wife, who is very well known to many of us, has recently undergone serious surgery, making it impossible for them to make the trip. Mr. Sturgis (that hard working promotor for the good of all) also informs me that he has had word that Mr. VanHorne finds it impossible to make the trip. I have complete faith in the sponsoring organization and know that they will see that these vacancies are filled adequately. I am looking forward to meeting many old friends in Wilmington, besides making a lot of new ones. See you there?

There is one little matter I would like to bring to your attention and that is the laxity of some in keeping track of the expiration date of their dues. You may have noted in last month's copy of the new Constitution and By-Laws that one of the penalties of procrastination could be the loss of all accumulated sweepstake points if you fail to renew within sixty days. Periodically, your secretary writes notes to all members of more than a year's standing when their dues have run out, but sometimes the extra work load makes for a delay in this voluntary service, which could be just long enough to be too long -- it is not hard to keep track as your expiration date is always printed on the address label of your Dutch Reporter and if you check up on it once in a while you might save yourself the disappointment of being dropped from the listings.

Did anyone miss the listing of the sweepstake standings in the April issue? I thought I'd be swamped with complaints, but I guess no one even noticed it wasn't included. You will find the listing elsewhere in this issue.
