INDIANA STATE DUTCH CLUB GOES TO TOWN
ON A TABLE SHOW. PROCEEDS TO GO TOWARD 1952 NATIONAL DUTCH SHOW TO BE HELD IN INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA, IN MARCH 1952.

A one day table show was held at the home of Mrs. Grace M. Craig, Middletown, Indiana, on September 16, 1951. Mr. Lester C. Wells was Judge, Mr. Ancel Beaver was Show Superintendent and Mrs. Craig was Show Secretary.

'Twas a wonderful show with 174 Dutch shown by 24 exhibitors. Rabbits traveled to the show from Detroit, Michigan; Dayton, Eaton and New Paris, all in Ohio; Richmond, Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, Fortville, Muncie, Noblesville, Anderson, Modoc and Middletown, all in Indiana. Rabbits were entered in every Class. Many comments were made as to whether or not this was the National Dutch Show by visitors who came to see these fine Dutch rabbits.

There were 53 Black Dutch, 26 Blue Dutch, 36 Tortoise Dutch, 19 Chocolates, 8 Steels, 11 Grays and 21 A.O.C.'s. There was a class of 19 Black Junior Does and a class of 17 Black Junior Bucks. There were 12 Black

Senior Bucks at the Show. A total of 86 Bucks and 88 Does attended the Show -- 42 Senior Bucks, 44 Junior Bucks, 35 Senior Does and 53 Junior Does.

Tuttle Rabbit Ranch had Best Display in Steels and Chocolates; these rabbits traveled from Michigan. Beaver of Indianapolis had Best Display in Blacks, Blues and Tortoise; also Best Display All Colors, Best Senior Black, Best Senior All Colors, Best Steel, Best Junior All Colors and Best Opposite Sex All Colors. Johnson of Indianapolis had Best Display of Grays. Nitzsche of Fort Wayne had Best Display of A.O.C.'s.

Best Black and Best Opposite Black went to Beaver. Best Blue was Mr. Beaver's; Yocum had Best Opposite Blue. Nitzsche had Best Chocolate and Johnson had Best Opposite. Gaddis had Best Tortoise and Nitzsche had Best Opposite. Beaver had Best Steel and Parker had Best Opposite. Johnson had Best Gray and Parker had Best Opposite. Nitzsche had Best A.O.C. and Beaver had Best Opposite.

A picnic dinner was held and everyone had a wonderful time.

Isn't this a splendid report, Dutch Rabbit Breeders, for a one day table show and, at that, a show which was held out in the country? Too, just think, all proceeds go toward the 1952 National Dutch Show!

More power to such a live-wire bunch!!!

ANOTHER MEMBER SPEAKS:

September 16, 1951

Just finished reading the late Dutch Reporter and, as the last few have quite a lot about changing the standard to a lighter weight, I do not think this a very smart move although I see quite a few nicely marked (Dutch marked) rabbits in the shows. But, to me, a lot is missing in these 3 1/2 lb. supposed-to-be Dutch. They are not Dutch type - cobby and compact, as the Standard calls for - but are more on the Himalayan type (Snaky). Really, I think, this is very bad for the Dutch rabbit as one reads the Standard which says that the ideal weight is 4 1/2 lb. Dutch type body, cobby and compact. Then see the Judge place the 3 1/2 lb. slim and long body to win - because of what I cannot see. Maybe a little better marked.

At least, I want to vote that we stick to our present Standard, as what we want is a Dutch just like our present Standard calls for ... especially the weight.

ATTENTION - BREEDERS OF AMERICA'S FINEST RABBIT!

Here are two letters, which your Secretary has received, and she would appreciate those of you who have Dutch rabbits for sale writing to the inquirers.

I would like to start raising the American Dutch Rabbits. I would like to start with 1 doe and 1 buck or 2 does and 1 buck. I am writing you to find out if you could tell me of a reliable dealer, a dealer who has entered his stock in many shows and has earned himself high honors and a dealer who carries only the best pedigreed and registered American Dutch Rabbits. You see, if I start with a small breed like the Dutch I would only raise them for showing and it would be a hobby for me. If you personally can't answer this question would you please forward it to someone in your association. Thank you very much. I may add that, if I get started, I will join the American Dutch Association that you are Sec. of.

Sincerely yours,
/s/ Brian Krueger

I have been trying to get some Steel Dutch, and, as a last resort, I am writing to you as I see you had quite a few Steel in the Colorado State Show. Perhaps you can have some of the Steel exhibitors (Chesney - Confer - Ham - etc.) write me and give me their prices. I would like to buy a Jr. trio of Steel or a bred doe and a good Jr. Buck. Prefer rabbits that have registered parents but not entirely necessary if I can get that kind.

Please see what you can do as there must be someone that will sell me a start in Steel Dutch.

Thanks for your trouble.

The Dutch Specialty Club of Oklahoma is giving the following Specials for the best Dutch of each color: 2 Cups, 2 Rosettes, 3 Special Ribbons, at this writing winner will get $2.00 on specials, and at the same time will share in the class money which is, if there is a class of 9, $2.00 for first, $1.00 for second and 75¢ for third. The Club believes that the special money will be even greater before its catalog goes to press.

The Show is to be held at Norman, Oklahoma, November 24-25, 1951.

The Club states that they are not trying to beat the National, but are going to run it a good second.

Dear Dutch Breeders:

In the October edition of the Dutch Reporter, I read a letter from Mrs. E. Salom, Roxbury, Connecticut, asking about some rabbits from the breeders of the club to be given to a boy and a girl who is interested in rabbits for an agricultural program.

I, myself, have been in 4-H club work for 4 years and have rabbits as a project. I have given 4 pair of rabbits to 4-H'ers. In that time, I have found that it has made a bigger club and bigger and better shows.

That is why I wrote the letter to Mr. Dugan asking about a 4-H department to help in rabbit associations like this - this letter is in the October edition of the Reporter. (Read It.)

So I am going to give a pair of Dutch, a Tortoise buck and a Chocolate doe, to one of them.

I hope you did the same.

Yours truly,
