Opinions expressed in articles and letters published in the Dutch Reporter do not necessarily represent those of the American Dutch Rabbit Club, the Editor or the Publisher.

The date your membership expires is shown on the address label of your Dutch Reporter. Dues $2.00 per year. NOTE: Our Club is affiliated with the American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc., and by sending $4.75 instead of $2.00, you will become a member of both Associations.

All material for the Dutch Reporter must be in the hands of the Editor by the 15th of the month preceding issue.

Dr. Gale E. Russum of Dayton, Ohio a prominent Dutch and Exhibitor passed away September 10th. after an extended illness. The Doctor prior to his failing health was a familiar figure at the shows thruout the Mid-West, showing a large string of Dutch and annually appearing among the top ten Sweepstakes winners. His death will be keenly felt by all in the Fancy. The American Dutch Rabbit Club extends their sympathy to his wife and loved ones.

On Sunday August 14th. the Indiana State Dutch Club held their annual 1-day Sweepstakes Show and Picnic at the home of Mr and Mrs. Harry Staneart, Middletown, Indiana. This increasingly popular event is looked forward to from year to year by DUTCH breeders and their families from Indiana and neighboring states. It is a joyous day for the youngsters as well, for they can romp to their Hearts Delight on the Stanearts spacious three acres. Starting with a Picnic Dinner at 11:00 A.M., followed by the Judging, in spite of threatening rain for the out-doors affair on Sunday morning, the entries were very good and the quality as usual at a high level to add to the enjoyment of all. Keep up the good work Grace, we are looking forward to being with you again next year.

Should there be any question in the minds of you DUTCH breeders as to the popularity of the DUTCH rabbit in the show rooms to-day may I point out the following example; at the Michigan State Fair this year there was a total entry (all breeds) of approximately 618 head of rabbits, of that total, the DUTCH were represented with 225 head, these comparative figures are not at all uncommon thruout the country, at many of the shows I have Judged or attended in the past year, on-third of the total entries was composed of DUTCH, these figures are indeed a fine tribute to our fine breed considering the fact, the A.R.B.A. in their latest "Standard of Perfection" just released recognizes thirty four Standard Breeds of rabbits, our slogan is not misleading; YOU CAN'T BEAT THE DUTCH.

Time for the A.R.B.A. Convention at Columbus is fast approaching, October 22-26, we are anticipating a record breaking entry of DUTCH this year and I hope you have done your part by sending in your entry, deadline for entries was extended to Oct. 5th. We will again have your Official A.D.R.C. booth at the Conve-

Please notify us immediately of any change in address so that you will not miss copies of the Dutch Reporter tion and I am looking forward to seeing the many familiar faces again and the pleasure of meeting a host of our new members. See you in Columbus!

FLASH!-----

The 1956 National Dutch Show will be sponsored by the Indiana State Dutch Club. The festivities will be held at the Fairgrounds--Logansport, Indiana with Grace Craig Stancart, R#2, Middletown, Indiana as Secretary, and John Ehler, 1301 Balsam St., Logansport will be the General Manager.

This is the second time Mrs. Stancart has secretaried a National Dutch Show. A you remember the 1952 show at Indianapolis was in her capable hands. To those of you who may not have had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Stancart and Mr. Ehler, and the other fine Indiana Dutch breeders, you have a treat in store. Here you will be graciously welcomed and in no time at all you will feel right at home.

The show will be held in April. Exact dates, and more details will be announced in next month's Dutch Reporter.

OHIO STATE DUTCH ONE-DAY SHOW

JUNE 19th. 1955

Show Sec'y: Rose Cox

Ass't. Show Sec'y; Neal McKeeman

Donors for the rabbit auction: Neal McKeeman, Wm. Book, The Emerys, Bickley's Bun-nyland, and Hulda's Rabbitry.

THANK YOU

Mr. Alvin McKeeman took over for his son Neal who was home ill with pneumonia, Mr. E. H. Pierce of Scott, Ohio, who hauled the coops all the way back to Wanedale, Indiana, with Paul Miller to help him.

Bill Book stayed until the bitter end, I think he deserves a big hand.

Now for Paul Miller, that Guy deserves no end of credit, he got the show room for us for $5.00 and he worked like a trooper and there are the people that I think, if they were thanked thru the Dutch Reporter, it would mean so much more than the personal thank you that I have already given them.

YOU CAN'T BEAT THE DUTCH

Try it—
BE CONVINCED!

Fill a crock with Kasco . . . hold it close to your face . . . blow HARD . . . see how little dust there is. The firm, hard Kasco pellets cut dust to a new low.

And the tasty Kasco "hay-an'-grain" flavor is preferred by rabbits. They eat it readily—relish every pellet.

Yes, and Kasco Complete Rabbit Ration (plus water and a salt spool) gives your rabbits everything they need for fast growth, fine fur, good reproduction.
