SECRETARY'S CHIT-CHAT

by J. Weinhardt

While eating my lunch today I read our local newspaper -- believe me that is all the time it takes to read it because mostly it lives up to its nickname which is the Manchester Emptyprise. Officially it is known as the Manchester Enterprise. Not too long ago this slim weekly changed hands and I must say the new editor is really trying to make something interesting of it. He has even included an editorial column which I have been following with interest. I felt his editorial for this week was not only very interesting, but quite applicable to the situation in the American Dutch Rabbit Club so decided to reprint it here for the membership to enjoy.

"KODA'S KORNER"

There is no onther job that offers the compensations that running a small town weekly does, unless, possibly, it's a 40 hour week job that pays!

One week you write a piece opposing sin, that pleases the preachers. The sinners fuss a little, but not for publication. Next week you need, because of peculiar conscience, to take a preacher to task for advocating bigotry. The clergy condemns you, citing chapter and verse.

So you encourage the Republicans? Your Democratic friends accuse you of taking sides. Or you publish the Polls, election predictions? Your Republican friends leave you without a ride home from the P.T.A. meeting. You involve yourself in a debate on Unions and why they don't help the small Businessman, you get invited to a businessman's luncheon. But rail the program of the American Association of Manufacturers, you eat alone at the hot-dog stand on the corner.

There is, of course, a solution for all of this; perhaps several solutions: You could be careful to say nothing, thought that, for sensitive men, is a delicate art. You could embrace a single position, aimed at pleasing a dominating class, and be assured, at least, of luncheon. Or you could get a job at 40 hours a week and pay your bills on time. My family is in favor of my last solution unanimously.

GEORGE KODA, PUBLISHER"

I must say the Weinhardt family in entirety adds a soulful "Amen" to Mr. Koda's closing sentence.

It seems when anyone takes on a public service job of any kind, no matter how dedicated he or she may be, there is just no pleasing all of the people served. If there is a decision to be made as to whether to let things ride along as they have in the past or to take some definite step which it is thought is for the good of all -- on the first hand the public servant will be condemned as a slacker and a "do-nothing" -- if on the other hand a definite step is taken then the kindest thing that is said is that poor judgement was used -- from there on the comments can run quite a gamut. The surprising thing to me is that anyone can be found anywhere to be willing to even try to please such a fickle employer.

See you at Louisville?

REPORTS FROM PROMOTION AND PUBLICITY COMMITTEE MEMBERS

A few of the members of this new committee have been very active in the securing of new members and I assume that they are equally active in distributing our various publicity items. Several memberships have been sent in to the secretary by Mr. Parks of Arizona, Mrs. Pierce of Colorado, and to add to Mrs. Pierce's previous reports of activities, here is one from Mr. C. W. Stinson of Georgia, who has also sent quite a few memberships. "Went to a very nice show yesterday. Was the Chattanooga Clubs annual fall show.

"There were 71 Dutch in show. Second in breed to W.N.Z.? The Watters are back in Dutch in a fast way. They and Max Trews gave me a rough time yesterday. My chocolate buck was Best Opposite Dutch, though.

"W. R. Griffith was the show superintendent and is a member of our Club. He's doing a lot for Dutch in Tennessee.

"Am happy to enclose another Judge for membership in our Club. This makes 3 ARBA judges I have sent in."

Sincerely,

/s/ C. W. Stinson
