Creep Feed Purina Bunny Chow

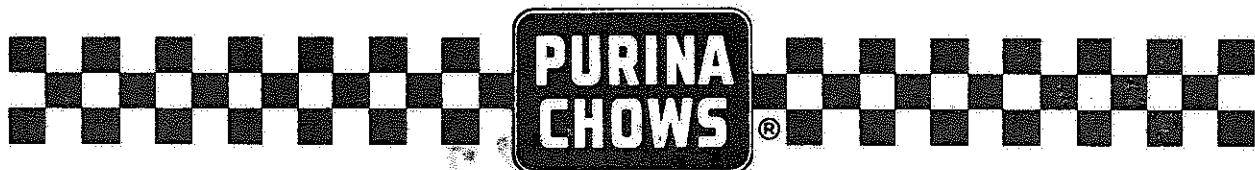

For More Litters Per Doe • Heavier Weanlings
• Good Doe Condition

Tests at Purina's Research Rabbitry showed that Purina's New Commercial Rabbit Feeding Program is a revolutionary way to help growers produce MORE LITTERS PER DOE every year by using new Purina® Bunny Chow®. Bunny Chow provides two distinct advantages. First, bunnies are weaned earlier, at four weeks, and second, the doe can be rebred sooner, about 14 days after kindling. This dramatic shortening of the doe's rebreeding schedule to just 14 days helps increase a doe's production to seven, eight, or even nine litters per year. Bunny Chow provides extra energy and nutrition which makes early weaning possible. This in turn reduces the demand on the doe for milk production.

The reduced nursing period enables the doe to use more of her nutrient intake for maintenance and reconditioning. After weaning at four weeks, the doe's total nutrient supply can be used to maintain good body condition. Then she will be ready for her next litter of healthy young.

WELCOME TO THE NEW MINNESOTA STATE DUTCH CLUB, Bob Pukal, Cronoco, Mn., President and Mrs. Myrt Mohr, Rosemount, Mn. Secretary. These folks are in the process of chartering with the A.R.B.A. and I imagine that we will be hearing from them.

Had a phone call from Clarence Croll of Springfield, Ill. telling of the formation of the Illinois State Dutch Club. We will be hearing more from these folks I am sure.

Both organizations have the blessings of the American Dutch Rabbit Club.

Paul Smith, of Houston, Tx. tells of the first all Dutch Show sponsored by the Texas State Dutch Club on Nov. 12th, 1972. A sellers class is planned and the entry fee was only 75¢ per head. I look forward to hearing how these wonderful Texans made out. Don & Nelle Brady of Houston, Tx. tell of the increase in Tortoise showing in their local shows.

Tell, folks, how about some news from YOUR part of the country. Remember, this is a national association. State pride and rivalry is fine but it is more fun if we know what the rest of the world is doing. We might even be able to help each other with an exchange of ideas.

DUTCHLAND NEWS:

Hello to all of the Dutch raisers over the U.S.A. I have been appointed by our good President, Don Reid, as chairwoman for Dutch at the 1973 National Convention here in Michigan. I would like to see the DUTCH POT" go over the "top" for this show. It looks good from here and since we are so centrally located we should have a BIG Dutch entry. Of course as Chairwoman, I am asking for SPECIALS.

Anny and all will be appreciated, so if you feel that you can "give", send whatever you can to me or if you see Mike Stinehelfer, you can give it to him.

THANKS TO ALL OF YOU.

Fellow Dutchman:

I have been asked and have accepted the job as Youth Show Sec. for the National Dutch show here in Sidney, Ohio, next April. We of the Ohio State Dutch Club hope to make this the biggest show ever, however we will need some help from you to do it. The plans for the Youth Show at present call for 21 trophies, 6 ceramic bunnies, (1 in each color) and cash premiums, and I am open for any and all suggestions for you to add to this. I am asking you, if possible, to send me your check as soon as possible, in any amount and tell me what color to put it on, or to let me use it where ever we need it. I need your specials fast as the show bulletin will be put to press by Jan. 1, 1973 by Millie Hand and we do want your donation listed.

The trophies will be purchased by another Dutchman, Willard Morris of Chippewa Trophy, so that they will match and the price is very low.

If you can't give money, how about bringing another Dutch Rabbit for the Youth, to help them add to their color program and give them a boost in future show also.

Thank you, Al Butler

Friends: First of all a very sincere thank you for your overwhelming support in the recent elections. It makes me feel very humble and instills a desire in me to do my best for the Dutch Club.

There are times when I am pressed with much to do, but I keep trying

I am a rabbit raiser and I do enjoy working with the stock. I like to attend the shows and occasionally accept judging assignments. Things are slacking off and the rabbits are sheltered in for the winter, so what with one thing and another things are shaping up around the Leibel diggins.

There will be another issue right on the heels of this one, so will not say much about the convention at this time.

ELECTION RESULTS: 218 Ballots cast, Dick Cook, Jim Kelly and Norris C. Barber Jr. Secretary-Treasurer, Doris Leibel, 194. Sandy Fisk, 2 write ins, Jessie Weinhardt, one write in.

Directors: Don Lovejoy, 127. Lynn Cooper, 120, W.R. Griffith, 115. Roger Guetschow 102. Pat Herman, 84, Sandy Fisk, 69.

From Lorna E. Anderson, B.C. Rabbit Raiser, 11730 194A St. Pitt Meadows, B.C. Canada.

Just a note to say that January will be our Dutch Special. Please announce this I would be most happy to receive some articles from some of the Dutch Breeders for this special. The Dutch are very popular in this area so it will be a good opportunity to promote and for breeders to learn more about Dutch and hear about the Dutch Club.

In this department we are interested in obtaining albina variants of Dutch rabbits either sex, to be used for breeding purposes. We will pay a premium price plus shipping cost for such animals.

Mr. and Mrs. Camille Blanchette and Sarge amid rabbitry.

Q. What do you call rabbit leftovers?

A. Rabbit Redux!

By NANCY BREWKA
Times Feature Editor

Hats off to Bugs Bunny, and have a carrot on us! In celebration of National Rabbit Week, bunny lovers all over America will be taking a rabbit home to dinner, either as a companion or the main course.

National Rabbit Week promoters Camille and Lucille Blanchette of 59 Yankee Division Highway, Peabody, have bred rabbits for 20 years. Their son Roland now runs Roland's Hilltop Rabbitry off Route 128 in Peabody.

According to the Blanchettes, National Rabbit Week runs from July 17 through the 23rd.

"Not too many people seem to know about it around here," Mrs. Blanchette said, "but out West they have big shindigs, with dancing and everything."

Although there are over 300 kinds of rabbits, the Blanchettes specialize in raising New Zealand, Siamese, Dutch and satin rabbits.

"We have 217 besides the ones that are expecting," Mrs. Blanchette said. "We have 101 New Zealand whites, five New Zealand blacks, one black satin, 23 New Zealand reds, two grays and two Siamese satins and 39 Dutch."

The Blanchettes have a plastic sewing box filled with ribbons from prizes they've won for their show rabbits. Last year they received 20 first prize ribbons, "16 with ribbons and money according to Camille Blanchette.

"We follow all the shows and entered 13 last year," Mrs. Blanchette said, running her hands through the Best of Breed ribbons.

The Blanchettes are members of the New England New Zealand Rabbit Breeders Association, Essex County Rabbit Breeders, the American Rabbit Breeders Association, the American Federation of New Zealand Rabbits Breeders, the New England Dutch Rabbit Club and the American Dutch Rabbit Club.

The title 'Dutch' signifies a multi-colored rabbit, half white and half black. 'Blue Dutch' means that the rabbit is half gray and half white. 'Chocolate Dutch' is a brown and white rabbit. Satin rabbits are rabbits with extremely smooth fur.

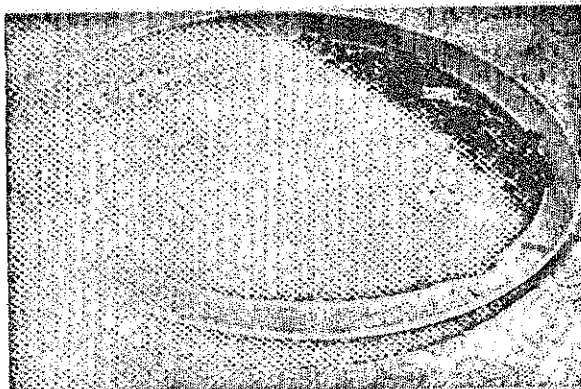

Sarge 'salutes' bunnies.

BUNNY A LA CARRE

The Blanchettes treat their rabbits both as pets and as potential diners.

"Rabbit is delicious," Mrs. Blanchette said, holding out a plate of rabbit chops that looked like a cross between chicken breasts and veal. "You can Shake N' Bake it or just put it in the oven to roast, or bake it in wine. Rabbit meat is 85 per cent protein, the bones are small and tender and there's less cholesterol."

Rabbits have a four or five year life span, and Mrs. Blanchette's husband chuckled, "Just don't eat 'em when they're on crutches."

Because they have so many rabbits, the Blanchettes feed them "rabbit pellets and a little hay" rather than lettuce and carrots.

"It's more sanitary not to feed them greens," Blanchette commented.

"And rabbits should never, never eat cabbage," Mrs. Blanchette interjected vehemently. "It bloats them all up and they die."

If a rabbit is bought to be a pet, it can be trained to live indoors just like a cat or dog.

"You can train them to go in a kitty litter box. Rabbits always pick one corner to mess in, and when he goes in the first place he finds in the house, that's where you put the box," Blanchette said. "You can put them on a leash or dress them up. One lady brings her rabbit to shows in a baby carriage."

The female rabbit has a 36-day gestation period, bearing on the average eight bunnies per litter. Prior to giving birth, the female rabbit will pull out bits of her fur to make an angora nest for her young.

The Blanchette rabbitry sits on a hill, upwind about 100 yards from the house. The cages are all homemade and are guarded by the Blanchettes' German shepherd, Sarge, who frightens away prowling animals from the surrounding woods but who has been known to nuzzle baby rabbits with altruistic affection.

GRUNTS & DEWLAPS

Although rabbits are virtually noiseless, a large Dutch buck emitted a throaty grunt when approached and skittered to the back of his cage, brown eyes blinking nervously.

"Dutch rabbits aren't supposed to have pink eyes," Blanchette said.

A prize-winning black satin rabbit crouched in his cage with an enormous double chin bagging below his twitching whiskers.

"That fold of skin is call a dewlap," Blanchette said.

Producing a crate from the back of a plump, white doe's cage, Mrs. Blanchette pulled aside the downy shreds of fur to expose a placid tangle of bunnies a few days old, curled upon each other like hamsters.

"Never pick a rabbit up by the ears," Blanchette said. "Their ears are long enough -- why stretch them?"

The Blanchettes are avid members of the Essex County Rabbit Breeders Association, which meets monthly at Essex Aggie. Although the club currently has about 40 members, it always welcomes new members to the fold, or warren, as the case may be.

The Blanchette rabbitry is not yet a full-time business. Its actual proprietor, Roland Blanchette, works at Honeywell and works at his rabbitry before and after work. When the good male Blanchette is at work at Lynn General Electric, Mrs. Blanchette takes over sales.

"A lot of our rabbits are champions, you know, pedigrees," she said. "We keep track of every birth and have papers on them."

As well as keeping records on file, the Blanchettes also tattoo the inner ear of the rabbit with a numerical code designating the rabbit's pedigree.

"Raising rabbits is a great hobby for someone who is elderly or handicapped," Mrs. Blanchette pointed out. "They aren't much trouble to keep and it's interesting when you get
