SECRETARY'S CHIT CHAT

by J. Weinhardt

This section will be very brief this month. First I wish to point out an error in last month's issue on Page 1. You may have missed the correction on Page 9. The winner in the Seller's Class at Pueblo was David Paul with a black junior buck which sold to Clyde Jones for $30.00. Goeglein and Shaw did take top honors price-wise, since their blue junior buck sold to Don Reid for $50.00.

I wish to give you details on the plans for our new Guide Book. I am to serve as Chairman of this committee and have appointed Larry Spangler; 6050 W. Bancroft, Toledo, Ohio 43615 to take charge of advertising. In this he will be assisted by Tom Brock; 2155 Mescher Rd., Monclova, Ohio 43542. I am also soliciting the aid of various members in areas where we have a high concentration of members to pick up what ads they can in their part of the country. Advertising rates are as follows: Full page $22.00; 1/2 Page $12.00; 1/4 page $7.00; 1/8 page $4.00. Since there will be no membership listing in this issue the committee has established a plan for personal listings. Such a listing giving name, rabbitry name and address will be available at $2.00 each or with a minimum of 1/2 page of display advertising, such a listing would be only $2.00. Also, under the agreement with the printer, anyone having an ad in the present Guide Book and wishing it duplicated in the new one (with the addition of their ZIP number) can do so at 1/2 the above rates. Should you wish picture or pictures included in your ad this would add an additional $3.50 for each picture (other than those now appearing in an ad to be copied exactly).

So, come on, let's get with it -- by this time next month I will have no more Guide Books to send new members. Mail your ad and check to either of the above gentlemen or to this office by return mail.
