President Report Sue Hill

About this time of year, I start envying those Dutch breeders living in a warmer climate who do not have to trudge through cold, and wind and snowdrifts to feed the rabbits. We were in the path of the huge storm that brought much of the Midwest to a screeching halt the first day of February. Thankfully (for some, at least), this happened during the week so plans to attend any shows on the weekend may have a chance of still happening. We also missed out on getting clobbered during the ARBA convention by just a week, and with NDS being at the end of April, we should have the bad stuff well beyond us for those of you coming to Manitowoc. Anyone wanting to sponsor a particular variety or any award in general can send the donations to Melody Stremkowski.

The show is coming along in fine fashion, although we will sadly not be able to offer exhibitors the flair of being under chandeliers! Warren Wiltman is the show Superintendent and has just about every detail one could think of already addressed. We will have the showroom available to anyone planning to come in on Thursday, and will have food on Friday night (featuring the infamous Wisconsin Brats and Hotdogs). A wine and cheese party is also in the plans. If anyone would like to bring home some cheese, please email or call me a good week beforehand and I'd be happy to pick it up for you.

Everyone is affected by the changes in the economy in one way or another. Feed prices are continuing to climb and gas prices are heading to an all time high. It is only a matter of time before we notice how this impacts our rabbit industry. It may mean less Dutch at the shows and higher entry fees. People may cut back on varieties they raise and target just a few instead of having them all. Exhibitors may carpool to split expenses if they don't do that right now. Even if our herd numbers have to be limited, it doesn't mean the quality will be affected. Look to this time to cull out those that have been iffy in production and keep the does that consistently produce babies you are happy to see. Our club has weathered times such as this in the past and yet, we have a strong membership today. May it continue to be that way for decades!

At the ARBA Convention Dutch Membership meeting, members expressed a desire to see the BOV & BOSV winners both on the web site and in the DR. Dick can include the winners in the DR but he would be looking at the overall cost of that edition to see when it would be best to be included. The two convention editions are stuffed with information as it is and adding more pages translates to higher cost and postage for the DR. What he had suggested as a possibility is having the variety winners in the two in between DR's. We will be working those details out in the coming few months. Regardless, we will need EVERYONE who is lucky enough to have that BOV or BOSV to help Julie Hume and Steve Wilch out when it comes to locating animals and getting them photographed right after the show. We go from showing to picking the top awards, and then head on to the Banquet. There is precious little time during NDS that is free time so helping to get your winner where the Photo crew wants them would be a HUGE help.

There continues to be some situations where show secretaries do not get the application and sanction fee to Norma Hart in time. This means none of the points will count toward our sweepstakes. If you have any concerns about a show being sanctioned, or have had trouble in the past with this happening, Norma can check immediately to see if the show has their sanction in. Her phone number and email address are listed in our Dutch Reporter on the first page. We recently had several very upset exhibitors that spent their hard earned money to travel, stay in hotels and pay the entry fee, only to find out the sanction had never been issued in the first place (because we never got the information to issue it). Those shows will only hurt themselves in the future because exhibitors will think twice before attending again.

Can you think of someone that has done an outstanding job in our club, has been instrumental in helping others get ahead, and is worthy of being recognized for a Hall of Fame candidate? Even though that date for submitting has gone by, please consider filling out the form and submitting that name to the Secretary of the Dutch club for consideration in 2012. The forms can be found on the web site. If you do not have Internet access, your Director or Rick Billups can be contacted to get a form sent to you. Our Hall of Fame committee would like to be able to give that recognition to those very worthy of it!

Much of the E-Boarding items the Directors have been discussing since ARBA are as follows:

1. Judges Compensation: Currently, we give a monetary compensation above and beyond what they get when judging at the ARBA Conventions. This has been $100. It was not clear as to how we would approach this in the event of having to add another judge for high Dutch numbers or replace a judge that cancels (and subsequently having to find another person to fill their shoes). The Board voted to have the ADRC pay $100 towards any judge doing our Dutch judging.

2. Archiving old records: As you can imagine, a lot of paperwork accumulates over the years that the club has been in existence. Rick Billups will be getting back to the Board on the cost of a hard drive with the goal of keeping our club data that is pertinent on it for easy access and transfer to another officer when a term is up.

3. Yahoo groups: Julie Hume had suggested our Directors work through Yahoo groups when interacting as a Board. At the current time, the majority of the Directors were in favor of continuing emailing our conversations as we have been with an emphasis on making sure the emails get to everyone.

4. Reappointment of Rick Billups as Secretary: The Board voted to re-appoint Rick Billups for another three years.

5. Appropriate information on our web site: Julie Hume received a request from an exhibitor from another country to have their web site information published on our ADRC site. It was not in English and the Board felt it was in the best interest of the club to not have this listed when we could not understand what the information said. Therefore, Julie sent an email back to the person telling them we would not be able to honor their request per the Board's decision.

6. Steve Wilch: As those of you know, we don't get to see much of Steve Wilch at the conventions because he is hiding behind the camera much of the time, taking most of the pictures we see in our DR. He spends many hours going through the pictures and cataloging them before sending them to Dick Gehr on a disc. There was a suggestion to have the club pay for a one year membership for Steve and Sandy Wilch for the work Steve continually does for us. The Board approved of a membership for the Wilch's for doing the club photography work.

7. Reimbursement for Melody Stremkowski: This year, Melody and Linda Gumz worked on the booth display. The cost for supplies, which we are continuing to build on since starting to do a booth in 2008, was approximately $179. The Board will be talking further about an overall budget and will be contacting other clubs to see how they do it (per our minutes, ARBA 2010). In the meantime, the Board voted to reimburse Melody for her expenses on booth expenses and a check was sent to her by our secretary.

8. Bylaws: We are continuing to fine tune them to be brought to the membership at the NDS in Manitowoc. They must be submitted to the Secretary in the final form prior to 30 days of NDS so we are, as a Board, plowing through them. We had the meeting in MN to discuss them and are continuing and will finish with them by the appropriate time.

9. Guidebook: It is going to be OUTSTANDING!!! I'm so proud of the group that is putting the time into this project! Lots of good work with input from many breeders! Our target is to hand out the Guidebooks at NDS and then those exhibitors unable to attend would have theirs mailed to them. Any suggestions can be sent to one of the team members--Kelli Slack, Julie Hume, Norma Hart or Carolyn Hidalgo.

Finally, we will be appointing a member to take the spot of Denny Kline who has stepped down from the Board. That new Director will be appointed as soon as all votes come back from the Board and will then cover the remainder of Denny's term through the end of 2011. Denny has brought many good ideas to the discussions and we very much thank him for time he put into serving as a District 1 Director.

If you would like to become more involved in the club, please contact any of the Directors so we can find a spot that would be of interest to you. Utilize your Directors for any questions you may have about the club, who may have a variety you are looking for, or about what we discuss or do as a Board or club. Be proactive and encourage those new members to join the club and consider giving them an application for the Dutch club when selling a rabbit.

Best of luck with getting those babies looking good for NDS and the Spring Show!

Vice-President Report

Rick Lehmann

Happy New Year everyone! I hope this year brings blessings to you all. As I sit down to write this, mother nature is remembering most of us across the country. Yes indeed it is winter. Last night it was -11. And after yesterday's snow fall of 10 plus inches in the Kansas City metro area, but some areas back east have received multiple feet of snow already. Come on spring!! I hope everyone can make it to the National Dutch Show April 29th-May 1st in Manitowoc, Wisconsin. I am looking forward to heading back to the state of my birth to renew old acquaintances.

On a serious note, when you kneel down to say your prayers, please include one for a great longtime Dutch Breeder, Mr. Gary Clark, from Missouri. Gary is facing some serious medical issues this winter. Gary has traveled with me many times to the National Dutch Shows in various parts of the country and is always a strong competitor and quiet presence at those shows. We wish him the best.

Till warmer times,

Rick

Secretary Treasurer Report

Rick Billups

I hope spring has arrived or close to it by the time we sit down to read this issue of the Dutch Reporter. I'm looking outside at six inches of snow and single digit temps hoping for warmer weather soon. This winter has been a cold and snowy one here in the Ohio Valley. I now understand why my parents make the annual trek to Florida during the winter.

This issue of the Dutch reporter contains several reports that I hope you'll take time to review. I've included the 4th quarter financial reports as well as the 2010 yearend reports. I'm pleased to announce that all the bills are paid and we show a profit of $4,423.17 for the year. You will also find a report in this issue that shows the number of member we have by membership type as well as the number of new members for 2010. You will see we have 750 members with 165 of those members joining in 2010. Our club has seen a decline in membership over the past couple years and I'm afraid the trend might continue in the future. Between the tight economy and changes in family lifestyles I'm predicting we will continue to lose members.

I hope each of you have made plans to attend this year's NDS in Wisconsin. The Upper Midwest Dutch Club always takes the extra step to ensure everyone has a fun and memorable weekend. Make those motel reservations and get ready for NDS 2011!

Keep your next boxes full,

Rick

Please remember to check your membership expiration date located on your membership card or DR label.

If your membership is not renewed within 60 days after your expiration date, all Sweepstakes points earned up to that point will be lost.

The pie graph report shown below was passed out to the Board members at the Minneapolis Board Meeting. It was felt the membership may find it beneficial.

By the time you receive this report you probably have already attended your first show of the New Year. Ohio's first show of the year has traditionally been the Lima RBA show, but the last few years this show has been cancelled or had low attendance due to bad weather, so the Lima RBA decided to give up on that 1st weekend in February, for the warmer days of May. So the first show in Ohio this year will be at Bowling Green on Feb. 27th, and the Lima show will be held May 14 and 15 at the Allen County Fairgrounds. This new show is being advertized as the New Lima Super Show with Specialty shows on May 14th followed by a double show on Sunday May 15th. The Ohio State Dutch Rabbit Club is planning on having their Spring Specialty Show in conjunction with Springfield R&CBA on April 3rd 2011 at the Clark County Fairgrounds. You can expect to find good numbers of Dutch at these shows.

On another note I wanted to share with you a change that I made two years ago with my breeding program, in the past I always timed my breeding to have juniors just less than 6 months of age by the NDS. The problem I had was low conception rates, small litters, and does that refused to breed during the months of October and November especially November (six months prior to NDS). In the last couple of years I started my breeding program in late August and September at least one month earlier than before. This proved to work well as the does conception rate improved and average litter sized increased from 3 - 5 per litter, to 5 - 8 per litter. Then I turned around and rebred those does again in December and January. This way I am able to take advantage of two breeding periods per doe as I prepare for the NDS. By breeding late summer/early fall you can have young seniors (7 months old) and good sized juniors (4 months old) for the NDS all from the same group of does.

I wish everyone luck this year and keep me informed of any big wins on the show table.

See you at the shows

The Eastern Shore of Maryland, being along the Atlantic Coast normally has mild winters.

Wow! what a change this year! Since returning from the ARBA Convention in November, temperatures have been running well below average and snowfall well above normal.

With all this cold weather, raising litters - even in a heated building, has been quite challenging. Does seem to be aware more so that they have been bred out of season. I have talked to other Dutch breeders from different areas and they also indicate more trouble than usual with even older experienced does. It would be great to hear from members on how this harsh winter has affected winter breedings.

Have just finished reading Dick Gehr's District Five ARBA report in the latest issue of Domestic Rabbit. Dick states that at the ARBA Convention Board meetings, it was learned that the ARBA Executive Director has been working from home in Pennsylvania--returning to Bloomington as necessary. Dick would like to have member feedback on this. Since most Dutch Club members are also ARBA members, I feel that feedback to Dick or any ARBA Director on this issue is very important. So please take the time to respond to this concern.

Now that the ARBA Convention is behind us, Dutch breeders are now focusing on the National Dutch Show to be held at Manitowic, Wisconsin April 29th to May 1st. Please make your hotel reservations early as you plan for this event.

As we are planning for this year's NDS, the Chesapeake Dutch Club under National Show Chairman, John Graybeal, are meeting regularly in preparation for the 2012 NDS in Lebanon, PA. At this time, John reports all is going well.

Hoping to see many Dutch at the Spring Shows.

Snow has come, and snow has gone.....then it came again. I am ready for it to leave for good!

This has been a taxing winter for litters here at 190 N First. The does did not fair well in the extreme cold we suffered for quite a few days this winter. Those that were bred lost their litters, and those that were not bred, would not breed! I guess all was not lost, as we did raise 3 litters, but nothing very promising in them at all. One of the litters that did make it had only 3 kits. Two of them are as Lilac as Lilac can be! They are still out here, but I am not sure for how long.

The NDS in Manitowoc promises to be as good as the last one, and I look forward to being there. The Upper Midwest Dutch Club has a lot of "seasoned" veterans, so I anticipate a well run, well attended, and enjoyable event. Can't wait to see who the lucky winners will be!

The Dutch should be very well represented at Indianapolis this year also. The central part of the US has a lot of Dutch, and when you bring in all of the quality from the coasts and the top and bottom of the US, it promises to be quite the showing of our breed.

Sue Hill has been working diligently with the Board members in refining the proposed C & BL so it is as good as we can make it when presented to you, the membership. I thank her for the time and efforts she has put into this project.

Julie Hume continues to do an outstanding job on the ADRC website. This is one area of the club that has grown with leaps and bounds. Remember to Thank Julie the next time you see her for all the additions and improvements over the last couple of years.

I hope to see each of you at some upcoming shows. I will be judging at a few of the larger shows across the country this year, so perhaps we'll get the opportunity to chat. Always make sure you say Hi if you see me someplace. I love to chat with the Dutch breeders.

Hope you all had luck with your winter breeding program. It seems here in the Midwest it was a bit more difficult than usual, with a higher number of does that did not take or had small litters. Keep April 29th through May 1st on your calendar for the National Dutch Show in Manitowoc, Wisconsin. The Upper Midwest Dutch Club puts on a great show!

In this issue of the Dutch Reporter is information about pictures we are taking for the new Guidebook. We will be replacing line drawings with actual pictures of markings. If you have rabbits that exhibit different markings types and are attending the National Dutch Show, please contact me to let me know if you would be willing to have your rabbit(s) photographed. Time is very limited at the show and it would be great if we have a list of animals that we can use for pictures. Most likely we will be taking photographs Friday evening during the fur and fun classes.

A new feature of the website is the listing of specialty shows. Advertising your show on the ADRC website could bring you more exhibitors from out of state. If you have a flyer you may e-mail me a copy. If you don't have a flyer, just e-mail me the information and I will make sure it appears on the website. Oh another note, in reviewing the website stats for 2010 the Breeder's Listing is the most popular page seven out of twelve months and was the second most popular page three other months. It only costs $5.00 a year for ADRC members to list their rabbitry under the Breeder's section. This can be a terrific tool to help sell your rabbits.

Finally, I want to say "thank you" to Dennis Kline. He will be missed on the board of directors and I appreciated your comments and suggestions.

Hope to see you all at NDS!

Respectfully submitted,

Julie Hume

It's an honor to once again serve as your District 2 Director. I would like to say it was a long, hard campaign and was glad to see you chose me because of my conservative views and always promising to spend the clubs money as if it were my own, but we all know I was unopposed. 2010 is now in the history books and I was very happy with the year and look forward to 2011. Like normal for this time of the year there's much to report for shows. We've had a couple shows in our area with little attendance. We haven't shown since convention and are starting to count the days till our first show for 2011 in a couple weeks. Still don't know what we're going to have to show but hopefully something will start to bloom in the barn.

This has been a winter like no other I have ever lived thru. No, we are still getting pounded by snow and the bitter cold days still show up. It's the first winter I don't have to break ice. I LOVE this new barn! This saves at least a half hour everyday and makes doing chores more enjoyable. It is still a work in progress and I would already change some things but I don't ever want to go back to the old days.

By the time you read this you should be receiving your NDS catalog. I invite everyone to come to America's Dairyland and share in a weekend of good times, great Dutch and excellent friends. You should already be looking over what you're going to have to show. If you are anything like us you have some with great markings but need a little better type and then you have those with sweet bodies but have some marking faults and you have to decide what you're going to enter. I say bring them all and see what the judges like.

If you have never been to a National Dutch Show make 2011 the year you attend your first. Even if you don't think you have anything worth taking, you'll never know until you put your best on the table with everyone else and see what the judge thinks. It's a great experience and you'll probably find yourself planning for the next year. To experience this many quality Dutch in one location and all the breeders who come from all over the country to bring what they hope catches the judges eye. We have all seen the pictures in the Dutch Reporter but there's no comparison to seeing the faces of breeders you only know by names on a pedigree. It has been said before and I agree, the Dutch bring us all together but it's the friendships that keep us coming back.

I always enjoy seeing the group of old timers and hall of fame winners sittin around sharing memories. They find an area out of the way with a great view of what's happening and set up camp. It may start with just a couple but soon a crowd forms and the stories just keep going. You will also notice that each year they come with their trademarks whether it's a hat, show coat, or maybe an old green chair. I am jealous of this cause not all of us have these breeders at our local shows to relive these great memories. We only get to see them at nationals and sadly we get too busy and don't take the time to pull up a seat and listen.

Easter is just around the corner and many children will talk their parents into getting them a bunny. Lets make sure it's a Dutch because this could be the start for a future ADRC Hall of Fame winner.

Enjoy Easter dinner with your family and the following week come to Packer country and enjoy a brat with your Dutch Family!

Well as I write this most of the country is under snow, especially the Midwest. I hope you all were able to keep yourselves and the rabbits warm!

Here in Phoenix we have already had a couple of days near the 80 degrees mark! And as strange as it may seem to some right now, the thought of how people keep their rabbits cool during the summer keeps entering my mind. I have tried a couple of different methods over the years.

In the beginning I didn't know about keeping rabbits cool other than the occasional frozen water bottle in the cage during the hot afternoons. Once I got a few more rabbits I quickly learned that freezing 30-40 bottles a day and hauling them out the rabbits was difficult. This also was a problem if no one was home during the afternoon to do this chore. We then ventured into the misting system. At the time all my rabbits were outside being shaded by an old sycamore tree. The misting system ran in-front and above the rabbits to cool the air. This worked for a couple of years but we were constantly fighting mud puddles and clogged nozzles.

The last solution was to build a barn. Since the AZ weather is so dry we were able to use a swap cooler to cool the entire barn. This is the system that I still use now that I am in AZ and it works well!

So my question to all the members is: Are you and your rabbits ready for the summer heat? Don't let it take you by surprise this spring. I hate hearing of people who have lost rabbits to the heat.

On to other news; I hope everyone is gearing up for the National Dutch Show this spring! The juniors should start looking like rabbits now instead of babies, and I hope they are out of their "gangly" teenage stage that makes us all wonder, "Are you as nice as I thought you were as a baby"?

Shows in AZ seem down in numbers, but the AZ state convention is coming up and I hope to see lots of dutch there for me to report winners in the next reporter. The last show I was at was just before Christmas and there were only three dutch total, all mine.

Hopefully once I get my herd numbers back up I will be able to start producing more for the local 4-H and youth members to start showing and hopefully spark new interest in my area with our great breed that we all enjoy so much!

As always if you have any news or just want to chat, feel free to drop me a line!

Anthony

Sweepstakes Contests – Why?

Sweepstakes contests have been around for more years than I have been honored to be part of our great organization. In the past, the ARBA sponsored an all breeds Sweepstakes Contest. Some things done in the past are certainly missed. I am pleased that our American Dutch Rabbit Club (ADRC) has been progressive in offering a variety of contests for both open and youth members.

The very detailed task of keeping the points could not be in better hands than Norma Hart assisted by Dick Gehr. I have been friends with both for over 35 years and have learned one thing, they seldom make mistakes. So, first I would like to thank both Norma and Dick for the dedication and commitment they have shown our fancy. It is indeed a labor of love for our hobby and the people who enjoy it.

The Sweepstakes Contest with the longest history is undoubtedly the overall sweepstakes contest. It dates back to the time before cell phones, emails, websites, computers and even before calculators. Yes, thanks to technology, anyone may review the past competitions via the "Dutch Reporter" that may be found on the webpage. I enjoy reviewing some of our club's history and I have found the best way to accomplish that is to review past "Dutch Reporters."

Now, you may find more recent years tagged on our webpage. But, to get way back, you have to go to the past issues of the "Dutch Reporters" that Rick has uploaded to our webpage. I think it's great to have the tools to plan the strategy for these contests. Yes, I called it strategy. Setting a particular goal landmarks or identifies the task. I find it personally very rewarding when I achieve a goal that I have set for myself. Trying to win a sweepstakes contest is one of the fun goals we may enjoy as part of our hobby. Thanks to Norma, Dick and others on the Sweepstakes Committee, we have a variety of contests to compete.

The overall sweepstakes contest has been fine-tuned for several years, updating the point accumulation to include "bonus points for national shows," points for BOB and/or BOSB wins, as well as BIS honors. All these certainly have merit. I am confident that with additional input, the overall contest will continue to evolve. The contest encourages more Dutch to be shown. I can remember when Scott and Dianne Williamson placed in the top ten about 30 years ago with less than 2,500 points. That total would not even get you in the top 25 today. So, maybe we are able to conclude that more Dutch are being shown, at more shows, by more people. I think people enjoy seeing their name in print in recognition for a specific achievement. I know I like it, makes me feel that I have accomplished something I set out to do...

We should be proud, look how we have promoted our hobby and put Dutch in the spotlight. I don't think it's coincidental that Dutch have consistently been ranked in the top 6 at the last 10 ARBA Conventions in numbers, both open and youth. Dutch have also been seriously considered for group awards and even a Best in Show win by Kevin Hooper in 2006 at the Dallas/Fort Worth Convention. Everyone of us would like to know what that feels like. Just ask Kevin Hooper or Jim Smith, they know.

If you would like to promote a particular variety, ADRC has a sweepstakes contest for you. I know a Tortoise Dutch enthusiast, aka "Kit Kat," who loves it when a Tortoise Dutch wins BOB or BOSB. I saw his excitement first-hand at the 2010 NDS when he and his lovely wife won BOSB with a Tortoise Senior Buck in the Open. Now, you should be able to figure out who "Kit Kat" really is... and next time you see him offer him a Kit Kat bar! Might get him thinking about Chocolates, probably not...

The Award of Excellence Contest is the contest that I really have enjoyed competing for top honors. I see many familiar names chased by some new names in the Dutch Fancy and I like that mix. It demonstrates that anyone with the desire to succeed and proper effort can reach their goal. I can't think of anytime this award has been won by accident or luck. There has always been a plan combined with plenty of perspiration and perseverance.

The Rabbit of the Year Contest is a little more biased, in my opinion. If you do not win BOB at one or both of the National Shows, you have

HALL OF FAME COMMITTEE

If you have a question you wish to pose for either the "Ask the Judge" or "Ask the Breeder" columns, just e-mail or mail your question to me. These columns are an avenue where you can ask questions and advise from the professionals in our organization. For the judge's column, you may ask questions such as judging criteria, presentation on the show table, what it takes to become a judge, and proper etiquette as a few examples. For the breeder's column, questions can range from feeding, conditioning, breeding techniques, rabbit care, how to improve your herd, anything that people who have been breeding Dutch rabbits for many years might have suggestions on. If you would like to participate on the panels, just drop me an e-mail and I will add your name to our groups. The questions will be e-mailed and each participant has the option to answer or not. This is the chance to get a lot of viewpoints from across the country!

ASK THE BREEDER

Is there any way to speed up the molting process once a rabbit starts? Also, sometimes a rabbit starts molting and takes months to complete, any suggestions on getting the rabbit to finish?

From Briony Barnes:

The best way to avoid this problem altogether is to selectively breed for rabbits who condition easily and molt quickly. Even so, sometimes environmental issues will cause prolonged molts. For some reason, this seems to be more common in bucks than in does. I didn't have this problem until just this year, when two bucks born last December started to break coat in June. They were more or less finished by late July, when a record-breaking heat wave sent them (and the rest of my bucks) into a second molt in late August.

If the problem is widespread and environmental factors (temperature, feed changes, stress, etc) aren't the issue, your herd could have a parasite problem. Infestations of coccidia and/or pinworms can cause poor flesh and fur condition. Many breeders keep their herds on routine preventative treatments for these parasites. If you suspect these issues, a vet can test for them. If decide to use any kind of medication, my advice is to consult with a vet who is knowledgeable about rabbits. If you don't have one in your area, talk with a breeder who does, or consult with a vet who is an ARBA member. Or, look up Dr. Hreiz's columns in back issues of Domestic Rabbits. Whatever you do, please make sure that the treatment you're using is documented to be effective against the parasite you're trying to eliminate and that you have the correct dosage. Many of the treatments passed from one breeder to another are at best ineffective, at worst dangerous.

I have heard of breeders adding corn or Calf Manna to "shock" a rabbit into starting a molt, or switching them to a feed with a higher protein content for a short period of time and then switching back. I've never tried any of these so can't attest to their effectiveness. If the problem isn't environmental or parasitic, I'd suggest bringing in some new blood from a line that conditions easily.

Questions for the Apr/May/June issue.

We would like to see more suggestions, opinions, and views for our breeder's questions. Therefore, the questions for the upcoming issue are listed below. We welcome any of the members of the American Dutch Rabbit Club to submit an answer to the breeder's question. Entries must be postmarked by January 20th or e-mailed by January 25th.

Dutcheng Tips by Tom Shufflebotham

Breeding Black and Blue Dutch

(as published in Small Stock Magazine several years ago.)

Almost anyone you may talk to on this matter will have a different idea of breeding black and blues to improve the color. As little Johnny "staff-sergeant" Baker says, "It's just one man's opinion."

I lay no claim to being an expert on genetics, in fact I could never follow the explanations I have seen on genetics. My explanation of breeding procedure is that of a very much interested breeder who has always tried to hold and improve color of both black and blue, and have acquired some very definite ideas on the subject.

There are those who will tell you that you can hold color of both by straight black to black or blue to blue breeding. However, I have never found this to be the case: I feel pretty sure of myself when I state that you must use both black and blue cross to hold and improve the color of each. It has been my experience that straight blue to blue breeding if carried to great lengths, tends to lighter blues, or mealy colored blues that fade rather easily. In the blacks, black to black matings carried too far tend to introduce rustiness.

I have and do, carry my breeding pure for several generations, but always bring in the black to blue or the blue to black. I grant that complications can arise here: the chief one is wall or speckled eyes. However, I have found a satisfactory method of combating this hazard. I know that if you take a black that has been black bred for generations, mate it to a blue of several generations of pure blue breeding, you can expect speckled eyes in your litters. I am certain that the secret is in the fusing of the two colors.

I feel that the color in the Dutcheng strain compares favorably with the best I have seen and eye trouble is practically non-existent in my strain. In the first place the blue is considered nothing but a dilute black, which I am sure is the case. Also that blue is recessive to black, the other is the impure black (which in reality is a blue). This latter is the one that carries the best black color, it has more depth and sheen to it than the straight black. There are, in fact, very few straight breeding blacks. My best colored blacks are not the straight bred blacks but rather the impure ones. The only advantage that the straight bred black has over the other one is that it carries a little deeper eye color.

In my years of Dutch breeding, I have never seen a black in a litter from two blues, regardless of how the blues were produced. Mated blue to blue, the result has always been 100% blues. On the other hand it is quite common to get blues from black to black mating. These blues are generally the best colored blues and are the ones that should be mated to blacks to improve both the color of the black and blue. Infusing the black to blue in this manner, you lessen the prevalence of eye trouble, speckled, wall and so forth. It has not proved wise for me to mate a blue of several generations of straight blue breeding into my blacks – in fact, I feel that this is where the eye trouble originates.

When mating one of the black bred blues back into the blacks the ratio of blacks in the litter will be almost 100%. They will all have black coats, but some of them will actually be blues. Some of them would be true breeding blacks and others would be blue. For this reason blues sometimes show up in the black to black matings. I have never thought it too important whether the blacks are true breeding black or not, but if you wish to find out, I would suggest that the rabbit in question be mated back to a blue. If the resulting litter is all black then the black is a pure black: however if the litter contains blues, the black is an impure black. Mated to another impure black you will get a percentage of blues in the litter. These are usually the best colored blues. The blacks, too, will be a deep black. I find the only drawback to this type of breeding, is that some of the blacks will not have the deep hazel eye color that is necessary. However, this is more than compensated for by the fact that speckled or wall eyes seldom appear in the litter.

In my experience speckled or wall eyes generally come from straight or pure-bred black matings. Perhaps an expert in genetics would go about producing the same results in a different manner. I, however, am very well satisfied with the results I am attaining by the matings as described. Many breeders and judges have asked how I get and keep the color in my black and blue stock. I hold no secrets: this is it!

From the Sweepstakes Chair

The Sweepstakes Standings as printed in this issue are considered FINAL. March 10th was the absolute cut off in order to have the information to Rick Billups to get the awards made.

A list of those shows not yet received have been sent to Julie for posting on the website. A list was also sent to each Officer and Director of the ADRC in case they might know a show secretary that has an outstanding report. I know that Dick wrote to each show in District 2, and has received no response from any of them.

As unfortunate as it may be, some of the shows simply do not make it to us in order to be counted in the FINAL standings. You can help by contacting the show secretary from the shows listed as not received, and requesting that they send a show report ASAP.

Once again, as was done last year with the FINAL standings, we have listed the number of times a BIS was won by a specific Variety, Class, and Sex. We also listed the BOB info in the same manner (for both Open and Youth). There were a few show reports that did not include all of the info, and they were not counted.

We continue to receive communications from some that feel their sweepstakes information is incorrect, and it usually ends up being a show that the exhibitor felt had a Dutch sanction, when in fact, they didn't. If a request is not received in the mail, it is impossible for us to issue a sanction.

Many clubs are sending for their sanctions just a couple of weeks or less before the show. If something happens to their request in the mail, there is not really enough time to detect the problem and rectify the situation. We encourage clubs/individuals to send for sanctions as early as possible prior to a show. That way, if the sanction is not returned to the show secretary within a reasonable time, there will be time to see that another request is sent so sanctions can then be issued. Show Secretaries really NEED to pay attention to whether they receive the sanctions after they have been sent for. If they do not receive a sanction from me within a reasonable amount of time, then it should throw up a red flag and the secretary can then check to see if the original request was received.

Remember, sanctions will not be issued if they are received in an envelope postmarked on or after the date of the show. All requests must be postmarked PRIOR to the show date.

Please feel free to contact me at any time you may have a question regarding sanctions or the sweepstakes.

“Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn’t do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbor.

Catch the trade winds in your sails.

“The first day of spring is one thing, and the first spring day is another.

The difference between them is sometimes as great as a month.”
- Henry Van Dyke, Fisherman’s Luck, 1899
