PRESIDENT'S REPORT
WENTON CARLTON

DISTRICT I - JACK WIREMAN

Happy New Year to all you good Dutch breeders. It hasn't been much of a winter down Arizona way. It is very dry and hot. Most days in the 80's. My rabbits look like the devil.

Hope all of you have a few good Jr's for Hartford. I am looking forward to the show. Hope we all go and it gives us a large showing of Dutch.

If anyone is interested in having a National Dutch Show, bring your proposal to Hartford. We can vote on 1991 and 1992 if we can get enough interest.

There just isn't much going on in the Dutch world. Too cold up north, and hot down here! We have several shows in the next two months. The shows we had in December and early January had a decrease in the number of Dutch shown and Dutch exhibitors. Hope they pick up as we get into the new year.

Have a great year and show a lot of Dutch.

NOTICE ABOUT TAMPA

Jack Wireman

Fellow Dutch Breeders: I hope you all had a very Merry X-Mas and an extra Happy New Year, and lots of nice Dutch bunnies for the 1990 shows.

I hope the American Dutch Rabbit Club made some progress, we will see in the future.

Any of you members who would like to seek office, now is the time to get your petition from Norma, get it signed, and make a run for it. Maybe you have some new ideas for the benefit of the club. Don't sit back and complain, get your feet wet or let your officers know about it.

Don't forget the National Dutch Show in April to be held in Connecticut. It should be a good one.

We will try to bring you back to the state of Ohio in 1991.

Let's all give any help we can to beginners, especially the Youth. Don't forget they will have to replace us old duffers in time.

Wish to report Glenn Morgan, "that misplaced Buckeye", from Spencer, WV. had Best Dutch in the Lancaster show, Best Fancy, and on to Best in Show. Congratulations!

When we have a Best in Show in District 1 let's hear about it. Also, District 2 and 3. Anytime someone gets a Best in Show!

Well, I better get this off to Dick. He will have to interpret it and try to make sense of it.

So, until our paths cross down the road someplace, I will see you all at another time.

From the Desk of Your Secretary

I think Spring has arrived, and none too soon either! Our first show of the year was February 4th. and it was well represented with approximately 1600 rabbits, open and youth combined. Best Dutch honors went to Richard Riva from Earlville, Il. and Best Opposite Sex went home with Kathy Kral from Lockport, Il.. I didn't get there before the Dutch judging, but both of these Dutch breeders have some excellent quality stock. Glen Carr did the judging honors. The Dutch are really picking up in our area and they are once again becoming one of the largest breeds exhibited at the shows.

I'd like to share a little story with you that proves that the mind can work faster than the hand.....at the Tulsa Convention, I told one of our members that I would check into his membership when I got home and let him know how many consecutive years he has been with the ADRC. I did just that. However, when I addressed the envelope, I knew it was supposed to go to Michigan but my hand didn't write it. I wrote his name, street address and the city 'Manchester'....no state, no zip. Well, it was only a week or so ago that I got the letter back. It appears to have been on tour. The envelope was stamped 'not England' try 'West Indies'...., and the letter had been sent to England. I don't know how it went for a quarter but it did! Anyway, I certainly did have my laugh for the day. I jotted a note and sent it along with the original envelope. I hope that the humor extended to the recipient. What made it even more amusing, I received a note from the party saying that I had asked him to drop me a note and remind me just in case I forgot to look up the information. This arrived the day after I mailed the original back out. I've been really careful about watching what I write here lately. You never know where the next letter might go. (Sure wish I could go to England for two months for a quarter!)

I've had to return some sanctions due to the fact that they did not contain the ARBA sanction numbers. Please remember that we cannot issue a sanction to any show sponsor unless we first have this number(s). Even your notes stating that 'the numbers will be sent when we receive them' will not get your sanction out any quicker. No number, no sanction.....!!!

Remember to check over your Dutch Reporter label for correctness and also for your expiration date. If you are moving, please notify this office so that I may change your address in our computer file and you won't miss any issues of your DR..

The 1990 NATIONAL DUTCH SHOW is fast approaching. This promises to be 'ONE GREAT SHOW'! I hope that many of you are able to attend. If you have any ads or specials, be certain to get them in ASAP!!

Well, I started right out putting my foot into my mouth...., I just looked out to see this 'white stuff' all over my 'early spring'.....Oh Well,..open mouth, insert foot, and shovel!!

Remember,.. "it is necessary to try to surpass one's self always; this occupation ought to last as long as life."

Smile,..of all the things you wear, your expression is the most important!

DISTRICT II REPORT

BY DR. T. E. REED

Cool, long winter nights gives the opportunity for the Dutch rabbit breeder to lay plans for the forth coming spring and summer show season. The does that failed to be cooperative in the breeding efforts will soon be very receptive; and, it is necessary that you have plans laid to what particular sire each doe is to be mated with and always think two to three generations ahead of the results that you intend to gain from that particular breeding. In addition, now is an opportune time to make the necessary arrangements for travel to the National Dutch Show.

It is anticipated that there will be a good number of adults and youth attending the National Dutch Show. There appears to be not only good Dutch in the district at this time; but, there appears to be a quantity of good Dutch. The youth Dutch breeders from District II are very active and produce quality animals; as per the results of the 1989 ARBA Convention.

An all breed rabbit show was sponsored locally on New Year's Eve. I am totally amazed at the interest this has created and the intent of the New Year's Eve show was to give some individuals some wholesome family activity to participate in at this festive time of the year. However, there has been a tremendous amount of interest from individuals from other states; and, I am totally amazed by the interest of the "older" rabbit breeder. The success of the event will not be able to be reported upon until the next issue; but, it is certainly something that more clubs may give consideration to in the future.

If anyone should have any questions, comments or concerns about disease, management or the rabbit hobby in general, please do not hesitate to contact me via telephone or by mail.

Sincerely,

Dr. T. E. Reed

DISTRICT I - FRED MULLINAX

Hi Dutch Fans !

I hope everyone has made it through the cold weather and have not lost too many litters from it. I haven't been so fortunate. I did lose three or four litters, but I still managed to raise a few good ones.

It'll soon be time for the National Dutch Show to be held Connecticut. I've heard they are planning on having a big show. I hope a lot of you will be able to attend.

The shows here in the south are ready to start up again around January 20th. We'd like to go and start off the new year with a few wins.

I hope all of you have had a nice Holiday season. We look forward to seeing you at some of the upcoming shows.

A new year and a new decade. I hope that each and every one of us will experience many B.O.B.'s during the 90's.

This is a bad time to try and write any news, as here in the mid-west the shows have been "put on hold" through December and January. We get started around the 4th of February, then really take off during the month of March. There are quite a few shows in our area of the country, and Dutch breeders have the opportunity to exhibit against tough competition for several months before the Fair season comes upon us. I wish you all good fortune in your attempts, and hope that we all have some good ones, so the winning is distributed around.

Now is the time to be breeding for those young, classy, seniors for Tampa in November. I would like to see the Dutch have as good an entry as they had at Tulsa, both number wise and quality wise. I still get tickled when I think of the animals I judged there. Especially that little Black Jr. Doe that went B.O.B. She sure was a "cracker".

Jack Wireman has some rooms reserved for Tampa on a first come basis, so I hope everyone will plan ahead and make your arrangements early. It is never too soon to make the move.

I would encourage our members to ask that any judge's conference in your area reserve a time slot for discussion on the Dutch breed. The only way we can educate people, as well as judges, on our animals is to expose them to the proper handling procedures, point evaluation, and general all around aspects of our breed.

Until sometime down the road, good luck with your Dutch.

Evidently this is a very dead season for rabbits and rabbit business, or else something has been happening to my mail. I have been waiting to receive something from several people, and have not been fortunate enough to find anything in my mail box. So, this issue is extremely thin and empty. If you had sent an article, and it does not appear in this issue, I did not receive it. Hopefully, the next issue will have more to print.

Don't forget the NDS coming up in April. I am sure that they could still use some specials money. There is never too much!

I am indeed looking forward to my trip to Connecticut. I have not judged in that state yet, and I hear the Sound is beautiful around the Mystic area. I'm looking forward to seeing it.

We now have a new sweepstakes chairperson. Kevin Hooper (Ohio) will be taking over the duties. Any questions regarding the sweepstakes should be dealt his way. I do not have Kevin's phone number to publish in this issue, but perhaps he will send it to me for the next time.

Since I have waited a little long for articles this time, there is no time left to dress this issue up. I will do a better job on the March-April issue.

Not too many people are taking advantage of the $10.00 deal on the pictures. This really makes the DR look classier, and gives us a chance to boast a little.

I would accept pictures for the front of the DR at any time. Not all of them would get used, but at least it will give our cover a refreshing look. If you have a picture you think is good enough for the cover, feel free to submit it. I may have to cut it to fit, so don't plan on getting it back in one piece.

Dick

To Dick Gehr, Editor

Compliment's are in order for the Nov. Dec. issue of the Dutch Reporter. It is always a good thing to exchange ideas in a civilized manner. Good thought provoking articles and ideas.

I would enjoy owning that Dutch shown by Derek Sugalski. If it were posed properly it would show up as a "corker" It is so hard to evaluate an animal in a photograph, but if one has looked at enough over the years you "get a feel " for a good animal.

As many know I "stump" for the Dutch Reporter cover showing the Dutch to strive for. Through the years I have become goal oriented and to date I have yet to see Dutch that conforms to standard. In my mind Derek's comes pretty close. Some are too heavy in the shoulders, some show a Dwarf type head, Are we going from one extreme to another? There was a time that the 50 points on markings had to be placed upon a proper typed Dutch in order to show off properly. I like to think that our new Dutch raisers can see a picture of a Dutch to strive for not what we have.

I have been raising Dutch for about 45 years now (I'm 39 and holding) I still think of the time in our history when the powers that were saw fit to dispense with the AOC's. I began to realize that the one color that we should have kept was what was called a Blue Grey. I had several that would consistently take their share of BOB's. When we lost this color our Steels went down the tube and then again the powers that were renamed this color Steel Grey to account for the straw color. At this time the Grey's or Gray's had a white belly surface color, the undercut being defined by the undercolor. If I knew then what I know now I would still have the Blue Grey's in the Dutch herd. You would then see some decent Steels. This time of development was a classic example of changing the Standard to what we had and not to what our goal was. The same thing could happen with our Dutch type. A Dwarf is a Dwarf and a Dutch is a Dutch.

In thinking of color mixing and Al is right. Blue does not enhance Black but rather vice versa. One has to be careful tho that you don't bring along the blue eye in your blacks in case you are tempted to save a good marked black out of blues. You don't buy good Dutch you raise them in order to know your bloodlines, unless you are just interested in showing and that is another category.

One thing that I have discovered is that Tortoise will enhance Black. Here again you do not keep Tortoise out of Blacks, but rather breed Torts to Torts for good color, but a black with Tort blood will deepen the black color.

One thing I do require with my Dutch is good production, 6 to 8 per litter. Here again the proper Dutch type will help. I could care less if I sell a rabbit as I like to keep the good ones and the rest go to the table. I have one buck in the barn now that is the "spitting" image of Seeman's AL 27 a buck that I bought at one of our Dutch Convention shows years ago. They do come back to us once in awhile.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Dick,

I have recently had an interesting telephone conversation with a lady from California. Helena was calling me to inquire about the Dutch rabbits I had to sell. Unfortunately, I didn't have a rabbit for her. She wanted a Black show quality buck. I'm specializing in Torts. She asked if I could direct her to a breeder that would be honest in dealing with her. She said she was new to Dutch rabbits. I told her I'd have to think on that for a while, and that I'd get back to her.

We, (my husband, daughter, and I), don't show outside of Michigan very much, so we don't get a chance to meet breeders from other states. However, when I was buying my foundation stock, I did travel to Ohio where I met Jack Wireman. He was the most helpful and honest person I've yet dealt with in Dutch rabbits. Where others took advantage of my ignorance, Jack told me the truth! He showed me several rabbits that he had for sale. He went over each one's good points and faults. Then he told me why they were faults. I learned more from Jack in one brief meeting than I had from any other Dutch breeder thus far.

This man impressed me so much that I am working to build a reputation on absolute honesty. I thought I would start this hobby as I meant to go on. I sell guaranteed stock and I go over each rabbit with the customer just as Jack did with me. Sales have been increasing steadily, and I think this policy is the reason, along with good rabbits of course. This past year my Torts have won B.O.V. many times.

Now, about Helena, I sent her a recent copy of the DR magazine along with Jack's address and phone number. I told her that if he didn't have a rabbit for her, he might know of a breeder near her that she could trust.

Letter to the Editor

I'm hoping that we will soon have another Dutch breeder building a business on honesty. I wish there were more Dutch breeders willing to help a beginner, and fewer eager to take advantage of them. If I have rabbits that have faults I wouldn't want to buy, then that rabbit goes into the freezer!

Sincerely,

Zandra Belson
Nashville, Mi.

ED: Thought this was well worth printing. I guess even the "old duffers" can still teach us all what the business is about. Thanks to both Zandra and Jack!
