President Report Sue Hill

“Wow!! Look at all those rabbits!!”. That was a frequent comment from people as Warren Wiltman and I maneuvered our rabbits through the airport on our way to the ARBA Convention in San Diego. It was quite evident that some minds were opened to the rabbit being something other than a white furry little creature with pink eyes. And if any members of the community surrounding the Del Mar Fairgrounds took a walk through the buildings housing all the breeds for this show, they would have had an education on what we all find addicting; displaying our hard work in trying to produce that great one. Perhaps what is best of all, though, is the chance to come together once again as a Dutch group to enjoy the friendships we all find so dear to us.

This convention was no exception. Although a smaller sample of our club population attended, it ended up being a great time! One of the most impressive things to me was seeing how many helping hands came forth to help the show happen. People saw a need for something to be done and they did it. That truly is the beauty of our club!!

The one person that deserves quite a bit of thanks from us all is Jill Ihrke. She worked diligently in the last months making sure the details of the show were taken care of. Thank you, Jill, for all you did for us!!! I'm also going to extend that thanks to the California club that was so instrumental in putting the booth together and working on the planning committee. There were so many new faces and it was great to get to know them! Ironically, the person that put the most time into decorating our booth this year couldn't even attend the convention due to her agricultural teaching commitments. Sonia Falsaschi, your special touches with the painted surfboard and car that adorned our booth were beautiful! We wish you could have been with us to enjoy the convention and meet Dutch enthusiasts that made the trek westward!

Congratulations to our winners in the Open and Youth! Our Youth entry was one of the most impressive collections of Dutch I have yet to see by our younger exhibitors. There was quality in those classes that could have easily given some of the Open classes a run for the ribbons. Our Best of Breed in Youth went to Miss Eleanor Cumming with a Black Sr. Doe. Best Opposite honors went to Miss Taylor Mills with a Blue Jr. Buck. The youth show went very well and Dr. Scott Williamson enjoyed teaching as he went along. I especially enjoyed reading the placements later on that day and seeing some of the tattoos the youth came up with. Just about as impressive as the rabbits!

Ironically, the doe that won Best of Breed in Open is also closely related to the doe that won in Youth. Scott Williamson had a gorgeous Black Sr. Doe that took top honors. The Mixdorfs took the long trip out on the bus from IA and still managed to have super condition on their Tort Sr Buck that took Best Opposite Dutch. There were some outstanding rabbits on the table on Monday and Tuesday making it a treat to watch the judging. Our Open Judge, Alan Ormond, told me later on that he had so much fun with the Dutch people and was so impressed with how we all worked together that he'd be honored to be considered again to judge a show. Congratulations to everyone that was fortunate to see their animal top a class, and great job to you all for working hard on pushing your breeding programs to produce animals like the ones exhibited in San Diego. It certainly proved that high quality animals were present in a smaller quantity!

Be sure to read through the minutes of the Board meeting and the Membership meeting. You'll find we are going to be bringing the proposed changes to the Bylaws to you in the coming months for you to read through. We will also be pushing our Guidebook project off the ground and will keep you informed of the progress along the way.

You will notice we have some different faces in various positions within the club. Rick Billups has moved into the Secretary/Treasurer position after Barb Kline had informed the Board that she was done at the end of her term (Dec. 2010). The switch was done at the end of September not long after Barb said she would step down sooner if we found someone. I felt it would be in the best interest of the club to do this now instead of later, and went to the Board with my thoughts. I want to emphasize that Barb did a SUPER job in getting the club records to where they are now and the switch had nothing at all do to with her abilities as a Secretary. I am aware that a few people are questioning this move now instead of at the end of next year. As President, I have to look at our club and how it is working as a whole. If I feel there are issues that directly impact how we work as a unit, then it is my job to act on that with the input of the Board. If anyone has any questions about this or any further concerns, they are more than welcome to contact me directly and we can talk.

With Rick Billups leaving the Vice President's position, the Board moved Rick Lehmann into the VP slot. I have known Rick since I was a freshman in college (that's a long time ago, Rick...), and I can attest to his dedication and love for our club and our Dutch rabbit. I am excited to be working with him and feel he will continue to bring his good ideas forth as he has all along.

Dr. Scott Williamson is now Director for District 3, taking Rick Lehmann's spot. Scott is very well known as a top judge and will be a great addition to our Board. I'm told by the Wade family from California that Scott is easier to deal with in the Dutch world than in the classroom; apparently, it's hard to get an "A" in any of his classes...

Julie Hume and Anthony Campbell are coming in to fill Warren Wiltman and Jill Pfaff's spots as of January. I've enjoyed working with you both, Warren and Jill, and look forward to seeing you help out in various other areas as we need the help!

We are actively looking for a new Publicity Committee and have two interested parties already. If you feel this is something you would enjoy doing, please contact Rick Lehmann or me by December 1st so the Board can come to a decision. The position would start as of January 1st and includes sales and ordering of the club Publicity items. Each committee that has been in charge of this area has brought their own special thoughts on what would sell well, and Todd Uran and his late partner Dan, have been no exception. We were fortunate to have had them these past few years. Thank you, Todd!

We have our next NDS in OH in April and that crew is hard at work planning the show. The Ohio State Dutch Club has been a very strong club for a long time and have always put on an outstanding show. With many breeders staying home for this ARBA Convention, they have Ohio on their radar screen so we might find this to be the biggest show yet. I heard many, many people saying they were working hard to have a good entry. We better all follow suit if we plan to be competitive!

On a sad note, we lost one of the kindest, dearest souls in the rabbit world just at the end of the ARBA Convention. Mr. Jack Wireman from OH, passed away after being in ill health for some time. Jack could be equated to an elder in a community that was able to keep history alive through stories he shared with those he'd meet. Jack had some powerhouse Dutch "back in the day", and if you were looking for a good Tort to add to your program, you'd want to look Jack up at a convention or local show to see what he had. He had such an eloquent way about him! For years, he was part of the "Jack and Ruth" duo until her death several years back. I called him shortly after the loss of his wife to offer my condolences, and we both sat and cried on the phone about how life takes from you the ones that are most important when you aren't ready for it to happen. Jack, you and Ruth are now reunited, and rest assured, those of us that had the chance to spend time around you are better people for it.

I want to continue to encourage you to be contacting Directors with suggestions or concerns, and to be checking our web site regularly. We'll be putting new information on it shortly and will need your input by way of responding to surveys. If you would like to be involved in projects or have special talents that may help the club, we'd love to hear from you. For instance, Briony Barnes will be helping to put together our surveys in the future as that is what she does. Steve Wilch has brought his photography skills into play at our conventions and our Dutch Reporter is all the better for it. We'd love to see some new faces step out and help with future projects!

Finally, if you have not heard yet, the Chinchilla Dutch had their first presentation at the Convention. Our own committee thoroughly examined the rabbits Jill Ihrke brought from her Chin breeding program and after several suggestions for improvements, gave her the nod to have the ARBA Standards Committee look at them. Jill had many members supporting her over in the corner as we watched the Committee check each one over. After what seemed like hours, the committee informed Jill that they passed their first show! Congratulations to Jill for her hard work in putting together her presentation! At our Banquet, Darrell Gates had asked where the Dutch club comes in on the acceptance/rejection process with a new variety. Once the ARBA Standard Committee accepted the first presentation, then the Dutch committee that looked them over will submit a report to the Board. The description of the proposed new variety will then be published in the DR for the entire membership to read. A vote will be taken as to whether the voting membership wishes to accept or reject the proposed variety.

The vote needs to be completed within 180 days of the convention, and then the outcome must be submitted to the ARBA Standards Committee within 60 days of the vote deadline. If the club rejects the proposed new variety, the presentation process is terminated and any other COD's for that variety become void. The ARBA Standards Committee will not accept an application for a second presentation of the variety for 5 years from the date of refusal. A new COD for the rejected variety may be requested at that time. Should the club vote to accept the Chins into our present varieties, the variety must make two more successful showings within 4 years (with no two failings in succession).

We are going into the Holiday season so I want to extend a personal wish for you all to add to your good memories with family and friends. I look forward to seeing our club work to be the best in can be and to meeting many new faces in the coming year!

Sue

Vice-President Report

Rick Lehmann

This is my first report as your new Vice-President and I just want to say it is a great honor and I will do everything I can to keep our Dutch Club fun, and yet, keep it moving forward into the future.

As I write this, I have just returned from my 25 hour drive from the ARBA convention in San Diego, CA. and I am looking at a pile of laundry that must be addressed or I will be recycling my "unmentionables". So this will be a short note at best.

First, congratulations to Dr. Scott Williamson for winning BOB with a tremendous Black Senior Doe. Last year I told Scott I thought he would win with a Junior Black Doe and it was made Best Black, but she did not win BOB. So this year when I saw Scott's Senior Doe sitting in her cage, I said nothing. I didn't want to "jinx" it this year. But again, she was one of those animals who can make anyone stop cold in the aisle and say "WOW". In fact, those were the comments our judge, Alan Ormond, said when he placed her 1st in her Senior Doe class. He said "WOW, the only comments I have on this animal are WOW".

BOS was a Tort Senior Buck of Eric and Sharon Mixdorf. This Buck was typey and had a tremendous head. Not often is a massive head like this seen in a Tort. Congratulations to all of the winners.

To say the least, the California Show Committee did an outstanding job. The facilities were great, the show flowed seamlessly and of course there was picture perfect California weather. It was also great to see old friends like Stacey Sauter from Maryland. Congratulations again to her for obtaining her ARBA judges license. She did an outstanding job judging our Dutch Sellers Class. I think we also made some new friends from the west coast, folks who are either new to the hobby or don't often travel east of the Rocky Mountains.

Also, congratulations are in order for Jill Irke on her Chinchilla Dutch passing on their first showing with the ARBA. I personally was part of the Dutch Club committee that examined them before the ARBA group looked them over. They were 100% Dutch and well typed. Other than a few "fine tuning" things, they were well represented and impressive.

Show results and pictures of the convention will be found here in the Dutch Reporter.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to call me. My number is: 913-206-0295.

Se you all soon, I hope.

Rick

Secretary
Treasurer
Report
Rick Billups

This issue of the Dutch Reporter will be full of officer changes and ARBA show results. I've accepted the position of Secretary Treasurer, Rick Lehmann is the new VP and Scott Williamson has been appointed to the Board. These changes all came about over the last few months and everything should be transitioned by the time you read this issue.

I'd like to start my article by thanking Barb Kline for her hard work since taking the role of Secretary Treasurer in the summer of 2006. She stepped up and accepted the challenge when the club was in desperate need of her organizational skills and attention to detail. Barb has transitioned everything over to me at this point and I'm looking forward to the challenge. My wife Julie has agreed to help with the position which should enable us keep on top of all the responsibilities associated with the office.

Most of you know me but for those who don't I'll give you a brief biography. I joined the ARBA and ADRC in the late 70's and have been an active member ever since. I've served on the ADRC Board several times over the past 30 years and was most recently serving as Vice President. My wife Julie and I also served as Publicity Chairs from 1995 thru 2001. You will more likely see me at the Nationals or Convention instead of a local show but rest assured I'm here to serve you.

The ARBA Convention will be history by the time you read this and unfortunately I couldn't make the trip to warm San Diego, CA. Congratulations to the winners and thanks to everyone who helped with the show on Monday and Tuesday. A big thanks to Jill and Troy Ihrke for all their hard work on organizing this year's Convention. The show results should be published in this issue. You will also find information on the upcoming 2010 NDS in this issue as well as on the ADRC website. Please make sure to get your donations and ad information submitted early.

I hope you enjoy the Holiday season with your family and keep those nest boxes full.

Rick

Chins Begin !!!

Congratulations to Jill Ihrke on her first successful presentation of the Chinchilla variety of Dutch.

With the acceptance by the ARBA Standards Committee of Jill's first presentation, the ADRC voting membership will now be required to cast ballots determining if the ADRC is willing to accept the Chinchilla variety for recognition.

If the vote is to ACCEPT the variety, Jill must make 2 more successful presentations within a 4 year period, with no 2 failings in succession. At that time, the variety would become recognized into the Dutch standard, and be eligible to compete with the existing 6 varieties for all breed awards,

If the vote is to REJECT the variety, the presentation process is terminated, all outstanding COD's for the variety become void, and another request for a Certificate of Development for the Chinchilla variety of Dutch would not be accepted for a period of 5 years.

Below is the variety description as it will appear on the ballot.

REVISED 11/4/09, ARBA San Diego Convention, per discussion and agreement with exhibitor

Director's Report District One

Al Gerhart

I haven't attended many shows this fall, mainly because we are still getting settled into our new house. The rabbits all did well with the move into their new barn. We have had good luck with new litters as well as nice sized litters this fall.

I looking forward to the 2010 NDS in Ohio next year on April 23-25, the OSDRC has had several meetings and have been busy making plans for what's going to be a great NDS. We have a good lineup of judges and expect to have a lot of entries.

One of the changes that you will see in 2010 is in the Youth Royalty contest. We plan to hold as much of the Royalty contest on Friday (April 23) as possible. In fact I think if I can line up a couple more Judges to help out with showmanship we should be able to complete the entire contest on Friday. This would allow the youth exhibitors to help out with the show on Saturday, and have time to relax and enjoy the show.

Included in this issue of the Dutch Reporter is the Youth Activities and Royalty Contest Form. Follow the instructions on this form, be sure to include a recent photo of yourself, entry forms must be completed and postmarked by Saturday, March 27, 2010. We plan to start the Royalty Contest at 3:00 p.m. on Friday, April 23, starting with the Written Test, followed by Rabbit Judging, Showmanship, and Oral Interviews. The Royalty Contest will not go past 7:00 p.m. on Friday evening. If we do not finish by 7:00 p.m. the remained of the contest will be completed on Saturday (April 24) starting at 8:30 a.m. All Youth planning to participate in the Youth Activities must make plans to be at the NDS by 3:00 p.m. on April 23, 2010.

If you have any questions or concerns about the youth activities don't hesitate to call or send me an e-mail. Hope to see everyone next spring in Wilmington, Ohio.

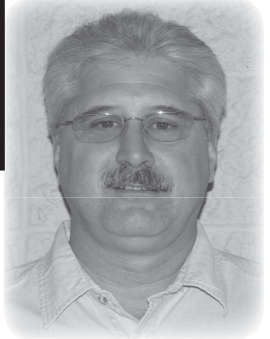

Good Luck with your Dutch

First, I would like to congratulate Scott Williamson for winning BOB and Eric and Sharon Mixdorf for winning BOS at this year's ARBA Convention. Great job! I would also like to say congrats to all the class winners, open and youth. It is always difficult to win a class with so many good animals. Wish Barb and I could have there for the show as we truly missed spending time with everyone and looking at the rabbits but thanks to Stacey Sauter we were informed of the winners as soon as she posted it on Facebook.

Now it is time to get ready for the 2010 NDS and start making plans. I hope everyone can make it to Ohio as the OSDRC is planning for a great show. As you all know though, it takes the efforts of all the ADRC members to make a show run smoothly. I am asking that anyone who can volunteer to write for the judge, work behind the judging table or load rabbits to bring to the table please contact me so that I can put you down on my list of volunteers. Some things will be a little different from previous NDS' so please pay attention to all the info the OSDRC puts out so you are not left out of anything.

In closing, I encourage any member who has any questions or concerns to voice their opinions during the ADRC membership meeting. The ADRC board would like to hear your concerns and try to address your issues. Well, I am not one to ramble on so I hope your nest boxes are full and you have lots of great rabbits for the 2010 NDS in Ohio. Hope to see you all there!

As I write this, the Convention in San Diego is in full swing. Sorry I couldn't make the Convention this year, as I'm sure there are plenty of nice Dutch being shown and everyone in attendance is having a great time. So, I will give a hardy congratulations to all the Open and Youth winners in advance.

Since the Convention will be over by the printing of this Dutch Reporter, everyone will begin focusing on their plans for the Dutch Nationals in the Spring. Does should have been bred on preparing to have litters for that perfect Junior we are all searching for. I think every doe I have is bred or due now. Hoping to have some nice Junior Grays to take to the NDS.

Fall shows are in full gear in the Northeast. Aaron Martin and Ricky Wood are giving some stiff competition this fall in the open shows. Marissa Wells, Bethany Brown, Lauren Dean and Zachary Graybeal are also showing some nice Dutch in the Youth shows across Maryland and Delaware.

Congratulations are also in order for Stacey Bollinger-Sauter, a long time Dutch breeder, as she received her Judge's license this past summer!

The Chesapeake Dutch Club has started holding organizational meetings for the 2012 NDS to be held in Lebanon, PA They have hired the following judges for that show. They are Glenn Carr, Erik Bengston, Chris Hayhow, Dick Gehr, Bruce Ormsby, Josh Humphries, and Kevin Bogan. The Senior Judge will be selected by the Dutch Club's vote. Even though this show is two years away, the Chesapeake Club is quite busy preparing to make this an outstanding event.

As I say in each article, please talk to your Directors and Officers when you see them at the local shows. The club belong to the members and your input on issues being discussed gives the Board a chance to know your wishes. Please don't be afraid to ask an officer what issues are on the table at any given week. The board is at work all year--communicating by email with Sue.

Again, congratulations to the winners at the Convention

The Holiday Season is upon us !!

Seems like just a few days or weeks ago we were welcoming in the New Year, and now it is just about time to ring it out !! I certainly hope 2009 was a prosperous year for you and your rabbits, and that you have many fond memories to look back on.

It sounds like San Diego was a great convention, and I hope if you attended you enjoyed your time there and had a safe trip home. Congratulations to the winners. If you were a runner-up this year, remember the Chicago Cubs motto...there is always next year!

Norma and I have had a few litters and are saving some cute little Dutch for show and breeding in the future. We are trying to come up with a few good ones for Ohio next spring, and hope to be competitive at the 2010 NDS. As of this moment, the only variety we have in the barn is Blue, but there are a few empty pens which could possibly house another variety. We are down to 25 - 30 holes total, and it doesn't take long to fill that many up, as we also have a few Mini Rex.

Congratulations to Jill Ihrke on the acceptance of her Chinchilla Dutch presentation. It will now be up to the ADRC membership as to whether the club would desire to accept the Chins as a recognized breed variety. A vote will be forthcoming very soon for this decision. Be sure to voice your opinion when the time comes and VOTE !

I have always felt the ARBA puts the cart before the horse regarding the acceptance of new varieties into a breed. It seems the vote as to whether the club would accept the newly proposed variety would be done PRIOR to any presentations to the ARBA Standard Committee, as there is a tremendous amount of time, effort, and expense realized when presenting a new variety. I would think the National Specialty Club would entertain presentations at their National Show, have the club Standard Committee review the animals to determine whether they are worthy of acceptance, and if so, have the club vote on whether they would agree to recognize the new variety prior to the ARBA presentations. This would certainly make things easier, and MUCH less expensive for the presenter of the proposed variety, should the club decide to not accept the variety.

Good Luck to Jill when the voting for the chins takes place.

I hope each and every one of you enjoy a very Happy Thanksgiving, and have a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

As of lately the shows in Wisconsin have been the biggest ones in my show career. We had 150 Dutch in Open at our state convention thanks to some youth breeders becoming open breeders and the return of Warren Wiltman to the state shows. Its great having such a large turn out and to think we were missing Valorie Worzella, who had an accident while horseback riding resulting in a broken back. It's good to hear she is improving and I know she is "chomping at the bit" to get back on the show table. The number of open Dutch in Illinois shows has been just the opposite. Many of the shows we attended had no Illinois breeders exhibiting. It was just Kandy Reif of Kandyland Dutch and us. It is disappointing to go to a show and have fifty Dutch but only two exhibitors.

The Michigan State Dutch Breeders put on a double show this fall which was well attended with over three hundred Dutch. It was nice to get together since most of us wouldn't be attending the ARBA convention. I find myself wanting to go to more Michigan shows after enjoying the coffee cakes and ice cream machine, with toppings located right in the show room.

I would like to give a big Thanks to Barb Kline for her time as the ADRC secretary and treasurer. I feel she did an excellent job and will be hard to find anyone who does a better job. She took over the position when it was in chaos and now has it working like a fine tuned machine. I no longer hear people complaining about not receiving any response or taking forever to get a response from the secretary. I would like to have seen her stick around but I know that not everyone can get along and sometimes it's easier to leave a situation to eliminate the stress. Thanks again Barb for your service to the Dutch Club.

A topic of discussion among the board has been the show reports in the DR and what is not being reported. If you look at your recent DR you see we are getting BOB, BOS, date, state, club and number of Dutch shown. Now, if you would go back and look at a DR from a year or two ago we were also getting the city, judge, BOV, number in each variety, number of exhibitors and sometimes a list of all exhibitors and points received in each show. These show reports from the past looked great and were filled with a lot of information. This was back when the sweepstakes person was in need of a raise in pay and now we are told it costs too much to print all the BOV winners. The same people who want to make the DR smaller want to take that money we save and spend it on putting come pages in color. Sure color is more eye catching but to me, I see it as style over substance. I would rather have more information. Some may argue as to whether we need to print the extra information. Personally, I remember the first time my name was in the show reports, even if it was because I was the only exhibitor at the show. Now days people ask us if we will come to their show, so before we respond we look to see how far it is to travel and I look in the DR show reports from the last couple years to see how many Dutch were shown, who was there and how many in each variety. Theresa and I also pay attention to the youth show reports at the shows we attend so we can encourage those exhibitors that show up as non-members to join the club.

Hope your nest boxes are full of future winners that look good for NDS because I anticipate it's going to be a big show.

Have a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

This convention was the busiest but very fun show. Congratulations to all the winners and exhibitors. Everyone made the show even better. One of the few classes I saw was the black senior doe. WOW, Alan really had to work at that class. Scott's doe and our doe have been switching since they have been showing. I also had the honor of putting Kevin's rabbits away and as soon as I touched his senior doe I know that class was loaded. (Sorry Kevin I really had to look at her and I thought your second best was that Gray senior doe).

The whole booth thing was a lesson learned too. We as a club bought one space then the publicity bought another one which makes two booths for Dutch. Well, that was not the case. We had one booth then a rabbit food area, then an entrance then the other booth that was not even labeled. I hope we get our money back! We had a very nice booth that might have been too much for just one spot. A youth monther named Sonia Falaschi did a very good job! She had never been to a convention or an NDS. She could not attend because she is a high school Ag teacher. Nothing seemed to stop her. She put soooooo much energy into that booth. A booth that was a second or third place booth. Some how we did not get anything. The best booth was the Californian's that some how only received third place. I think something was fishy!

Next subject I meant to bring up at the board meeting, but I did not write down. Then at the general meeting I was preoccupied with something else. I do think this is something we as a club should decide though. If you have not heard that Brad did not judge. What I was told is the he never cancelled offically. So he kept us hanging for so long then tells others at a local show before the ADRC. To me it is an honor to judge at a national show. Do we want someone like that to judge our Dutch at another convention? I say "no" just for the fact of how it was handled. We could always find another very good judge without any problems. We just need to act.

If you have not heard or read the chins passed their first showing. I know that the last six weeks were very nerve racking for Jill. This is what I saw, good color was never an issue, markings were sometimes frustrating and type was a work in progress. What Jill had the biggest problem with was putting all three together. There is alot of room to improve plus every rabbit can be better. Now its in your hands to get the silver steels back or is club going to just have gold steels? The answer lies with you now.

I really wanted to turn in an article for ask the breeder/judge this quarter. Everything I wrote never came out right so I will just say/ask this: go out and learn about eyes and light. Also please keep learning until you know what vitamins eyes process. If you dug far enough you will find out what happens to calves that were raised in a dark barn. The two are related, the more light eyes get the healthier they are, and that means better vision AND more intense color. Now I want to go into UV light, environmental issues, and possible effects BUT I will stop right there.

This is my longest message I have ever wrote. I hope you are reading this and that means you actually read through all my ramblings.. Hope to see everyone in five months from now in Ohio.

Hello again Dutch
Fanciers,

It has been a busy summer into fall for Matt & I with our rabbits. Oregon State Fair was over the Labor Day weekend and had a good turn out of Dutch. Nancy Richmond from Idaho judged with Len Harold winning BOB with a pretty Blue doe and we were BOS with a little Tort buck. In September there were two show locations in Oregon to attend with double shows at each in Redmond & Grants Pass. The big news is the same Blue buck owned by new Youth member Mackenzie Cranston took RIS at Redmond and BIS at Grants Pass. This beautiful animal was produced by another Youth, Miss Katie Kimmel; she had BOS with a Black doe. Other winners at these shows were Shylo Walker, Ronda Huff, Gene Knieling, and Jeff & Terisa Silbernagel.

(& Mom)

BOS - Katie (right)

We traveled to eastern WA in October so I could combine a rabbit show in Kennewick with work at the Washington Animal Diseases Diagnostic Lab at the WSU campus in Pullman. It was a practice trip of 6 days on the road for our drive to ARBA Convention in Southern CA. There was a great turn out of 70+ Dutch !

We have just arrived home to good ole Oregon rain. Wow, what a trip, ARBA Convention was the nicest I have ever attended and the weather was perfect with nice sunshine but not too hot. Sure wouldn't trade the heavy traffic and high prices for home. We covered a total of 2180 miles with 42 rabbits and our dog "Satin" over 10 days.

We really enjoyed the Rabbitcon a new addition to ARBA Convention. Matt & I attended several speakers with topics on Rabbit Digestion & Nutrition by Dr. Cheeke from Oregon State University. Dr Scott Williamson gave informative talks on Rabbit Environmental Management and Kevin Whaley talked about Rabbitry design. My personal favorite was hearing from Derek Medlock, BRC judge from the UK on judging around the world, with pictures of different breeds. He also talked about different ID procedures like leg bands used in the UK.

We also attended the showing of "Rabbit Fever" the movie documenting ARBA Conventions and Royalty Contests, following several participants. It was great ! Really well done and a good representation of what goes on and entertaining to all.

Big congrats to all the winners and especially Dr. Scott Williamson for a solid National win with beautiful animals. Personally I preferred the Black Jr Doe instead of the Black Sr Doe that won BOB, will have to watch for her at the NDS in Ohio next year. Congrats to Jill Ihrke on passing her first presentation of Chinchilla Dutch, this is a big step for our Dutch club and very exciting. Big thanks to Jill & Troy Ihrke and crew for all the hard work on the show and the booth decorations were really cute. Our Madame President was there helping keep the show going smoothly between Open & Youth barns and taking lots of pictures, thanks Sue for your hands on leadership.

Also I want to congratulate our Western States Dutch Fanciers for a great showing !

Lisa & Hilary Wittrock, Spokane, WA won the Black Sr Buck class along with BOSV, they also won the Blue Jr Buck class and Best Display in Grays. Oregon Dutch breeder, Gene Knieling had the first places in Choc Jr Doe & Steel Jr Doe classes along with Best Display Steel. Ronda Huff had first place in the Tort Jr doe class and BOSV. We won the Gray Sr Buck class and also Best Gray Fur and Best Fur Overall. Our Youth Representative from Oregon, Katie Kimmel had first place in Steel Sr Doe & Jr Doe classes, BOSV and Best Steel Fur. I enjoyed meeting some of the Youth members and their families and look forward to watching their development as Dutch breeders.

Best wishes to all for a happy holiday season and will look forward to seeing everyone at the 2010 NDS in Ohio.

Sincerely yours in Dutch,

Jill

"Endless Summer"
2009 ARBA Convention

You could actually see the ocean from the Del Mar Fairgrounds, the site of the 2009 ARBA Convention. What a beautiful fairgrounds and wonderful convention! Allen Mesick did a great job organizing and managing the first ever Rabbit Conference, aka RabbitCon held Saturday and Sunday prior to the show on Monday. With Kevin and Jennifer Whaley lending their talents in design and marketing, the conference drew a large audience. Over 300 participants paid to find the path to "the Perfect Rabbit." People from as far way as Australia and the United Kingdom attended the RabbitCon which speaks not only to the national but international appeal and interest sharing knowledge to improve our hobby / business. Allen included an excellent cross-section of experts who delivered a variety of topics that were met with enthusiast appeal. So a big thank you to both Allen Mesick and the Whaleys for your hard work and inspiration that presented all of us with the first of many, RabbitCons.

The showroom was fabulous from a space standpoint but had some real ventilation problems. The Dutch were cooped about half-way down the showroom. Jill and Troy Ihrke served as breed chair people and recruited plenty of quality help to ensure the Dutch exhibitors had a great convention. Allan Ormond did a masterful job judging the entire Dutch entry over two day. With only 392 Dutch entered in the open, it was decided with Mr. Ormond's approval to use only one judge as was done in 2001 when Mr. Mike D'Amico did the honors in San Diego. Congratulations to all the winners, listed on the web and elsewhere in the Reporter.

The booth was very well decorated with a surfboard and great raffle prizes and Dutch promotional items. Thanks to all the great Dutch folks who worked in the booth and promoted the Dutch raffles and logo items. The youth scholarship raffle prize was a very nice hand-held camcorder. I didn't hear who won it but I know it wasn't me - "dog gone it." The group of judges who evaluated the various specialty club booths obviously missed the Dutch booth. However, we should congratulate the Mini Lop Rabbit Specialty Club on placing first in the booth competition.

Youth Dutch breeders at the 2009 ARBA Convention exhibited some outstanding animals. To quote President Sue Hill, "the depth and quality of the youth Dutch, may have surpassed the open" and is one of the best displays of Dutch at an ARBA Convention regardless of the location. In addition to the quality of the Dutch, two of our members won Rabbit Royalty. Ms. Jessica Cowhurst of Redwood Valley, CA was named ARBA Queen out a field of 45 contestants and Ms. Eleanor Cumming of Sanger, CA won the ARBA Princess honor. Great job ladies!

The 2009 ARBA Convention was a very memorable one. I was delighted to see so many of our Dutch friends from the Midwest make the journey, some by air, some by land and some by "greyhound." Where there is a will, there is a way! Several of my good friends from the great Northwest made the trip to the opposite end of California. Thank you all for bringing such fine animals and helping to make the 2009 ARBA Convention a great success. Many Dutch found news homes and hopefully will help the buyers accomplish the breeding goals for making the "perfect Dutch rabbit."

My next Director's report will focus on pedigrees, registrations, grand champions and best in show certificates. Please let me know if you have any thoughts....my email is scottwi@csufresno.edu.

Minutes from the ADRC Board of Directors Meeting 2009 ARBA Convention

The ADRC Board meeting was called to order by President Sue Hill on November 2nd, 2009 in San Diego, CA. Directors present: Sue Hill (Pres), Rick Lehmann (VP), Warren Wiltman (District 2), Troy Irke, Jill Pfaff and Scott Williamson (all from District 3). Excused: Rick Billups (Sec), Billy Bounds, Al Gerhart, and Dennis Kline (all from District 1), Dan Schwandt and Dick Gehr (District 2).

Warren Wiltman was appointed by President Sue Hill to take minutes for the Board meeting.

A motion to approve the minutes from the NDS Board meeting as printed in the April-May-June issue of the DR was made by Jill Pfaff. Motion seconded by Troy Ihrke. Motion passed.

A motion to approve the Treasurer's report as written by past Secretary Barb Kline was made by Scott Williamson. Motion seconded by Try Ihrke. Motion passed.

Committee Reports:

Booth Decorations: The booth was done by the California host Dutch club and they did a great job. We had only the one booth this time and it is very evident we need to have two from now on due to being so cramped for space.

Website: Julie is continuing to update the web site as needed and to get old DR articles on for members to read. Anyone with suggestions for improvements or changes can contact Julie directly.

Sweeps/Sanctions: In a report submitted by Dick, he stated over 1300 Sanctions were applied for thus far and he's received 933 show reports as of October 20th. He stressed the importance of show secretaries including the correct information on the reports to allow the exhibitors to get their correct sweepstakes points. He also talked about the program used to calculate out the points and the steps to generate a report. The Board wanted to continue discussion on Sweepstakes with the entire Board in our next round of communication.

Scholarship: A mini Camcorder will be the raffle item towards the Scholarship fund.

Dutch Reporter: Dick submitted a report to the Board with suggestions for additions for the publication. He also encouraged articles to be submitted by the deadline noted to help with the layout of the DR. The Board present did feel the smaller 8 x 10 version of the Dutch Reporter looked nice and would like to discuss continuing this size with the rest of the Board unable to be here before making a decision on what size we will have the Dutch Reporter printed in. They also liked the idea of having the covers of the two Convention issues in color while the other two issues staying in Black and White. This will also be discussed with the entire Board before a decision is made.

Publicity: We are in need of a new Publicity committee. Todd Uran will continue with this position until we find a new committee. Any interested members are to contact Sue Hill or Rick Lehmann.

Standards: The Chins are up for presentation with our own Standards Committee. They will be meeting Tuesday morning to go over the animals. Jill Ihrke will be there to answer questions. If the committee feels the Chin presentation is good, they will then the Chins will be presented to the ARBA Standards Committee for evaluation.

Hall of Fame: All applications are due on December 1st, 2009 for consideration for induction into the Hall of Fame.

Youth Liaison: Currently, there is one member acting as liaison. Sue Hill said she would like to rework the committee and add two other members, as well as work on clear guidelines on what the committee is to do.

Club Review: The Review was done this time by a retired Accountant for the State of Wisconsin that Sue Hill knows. He found the records to be correct and said he had some suggestions for the new Secretary.

Unfinished Business: We will be turning our focus to the Guidebook to start outlining the project for a target date and to start the actual production of articles to be used. The committee may be shuffled a bit to accommodate this.

The proposed new Bylaws will be discussed with the Board in the coming months prior to being sent to the Membership to read.

New Business: Rick Billups is now working in the Secretary's position. Julie Billups will also be helping with the membership data entering. They had some difficulty starting up the new account due to new banking regulations for non profit organizations but now the accounts are in place.

Rick Lehmann had two conversations with

Judges who said they did not care for the way we display the votes that each individual judge cast for rabbits up for top honors at the conventions. They both felt it took some of the excitement out of announcing who the winners were by looking at the board instead of having the judge(s) tell the exhibitors. The Board felt that in the future, it would be better to display the judges votes after the winners were announced.

A motion was made to adjourn the meeting by Troy Ihrke. Jill Pfaff seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned at 1:55.m.

Respectfully submitted by Warren Wiltman/Sue Hill typing up the notes.

Minutes from the ADRC General Meeting 2009 ARBA Convention

The Annual Membership meeting for the American Dutch Rabbit Club was called to order by President Sue Hill on November 4th, 2009 in Poway, CA. Directors present: Rick Lehmann (VP), Troy Ihrke (District 3), and Jill Pfaff (District 3). Directors absent: Billy Bounds, Dennis Kline, Al Gerhart, Dick Gehr, Rick Billups, Dan Schwandt, and Scott Williamson.

Jill Pfaff was appointed to take minutes during the meeting.

Fran Schettler moved to approve the minutes from the April NDS Membership membership meeting as printed in the Dutch Reporter. Karen Gates seconded the motion. Motion passed.

The Treasurer's report was approved as presented from the most recent financial report dated September 30, 2009, and submitted by the past Secretary, Barb Kline. As of that time, there was $10,165.15 in the Guidebook/Contingency Fund, $7007.03 in the Operating Fund and $3,162.80 for a total of $20,334.98. A motion to approve the Treasurer's report as given was made by Wes Nelson. Rick Lehmann seconded the motion. Motion passed.

Committee Reports:

Booth Decorations: The California host group worked hard on the booth this year and did a great job. They hand decorated the surf board and car used to highlight the booth.

Website: Julie Hume will be continuing to add articles from older DR's to the web site. She welcomes any input members may have for her to improve what we already have.

Seller's Class: The Dutch Auction was very successful for the amount of people able to attend the Convention this year. The final total will be listed in the next DR.

Scholarship: The raffle item to support the Youth Scholarship program was a Camcorder. The winning ticket was to be drawn during the Banquet.

Publicity: We are in need of a new Committee for our Publicity. If anyone is interested, please contact either Rick Lehmann or Sue Hill as soon as possible. There are two parties interested at this time and the Board will be discussing the position in the near future.

Standards: The Chinchilla variety is being presented at this ARBA by Jill Ihrke. Our club Standards committee approved the variety with several suggestions made to Jill for the coming presentations. Dr. Scott Williamson was invaluable in being on our committee with his knowledge of how the ARBA Standards committee operates and their expectations with new variety presentations. There were questions on just when the membership becomes involved in the process of accepting or rejecting the new variety and that will be covered in the next DR.

Dutch Reporter: The last DR came out in the smaller format that Dick Gehr wanted to Board to consider. There were no concerns about the smaller version with members saying they did not notice much of a difference in the layout. During this convention's Board meeting, Director felt it would work to have the two Convention issues highlighting the winners to be done in color covers, with the other two issues being black and white. The Board will continue with discussion on this and any changes will start as of January 1st, 2010.

Sweepstakes/Sanction: Dick Gehr reported to the Board in an email that as of October 20, he had received 1300 requests for Sanctions and had entered 933 show reports. He also highlighted how the Sweepstakes program works and how a report is generated. The Board present at the ARBA Convention felt they would like to have any discussion about changes to the Sweepstakes addressed by the entire Board as a whole. Any further discussion will be in the coming month.

Historian: Rick and Julie Billups continue to work in this area. They have our DR's on a CD format for safe keeping.

Hall of Fame: Anyone wanting to nominate a member for the Hall of Fame needs to get the form in to the Secretary by December 1st. Rick Lehmann gave an overview on the procedure. The recipient of the award would be inducted into the Hall of Fame at NDS 2010.

Youth Liaison: The committee now is only one person and Sue Hill would like to add two new committee members to that spot. Further discussion will be with the Board and anyone added will be listed in the DR.

NDS/ARBA Liaison Committee: There is no report at this time.

Review of Records: The review of the Treasurer's reports and paperwork was done by Don Alme from WI. He found the records to be accurate with what was submitted. Fran Schettler was asked to help with looking over guidelines for the review to make sure we are being as accurate as possible.

Unfinished Business: The proposed new Bylaws were submitted by the committee to the Board recently. There will be discussion on them with the Board over the coming months and will then go to the membership for voting. Concerns about a proposed change in the Spring meeting were addressed with any member wanting further discussion to contact Sue Hill.

The New Guidebook is still in the plans but has not started up as of yet. The committee may be redesigned so we can go forward with plans to have the new guidebook out within two years.

New Business: There have been several administrative changes within the club. Rick Billups was appointed to the Secretary's position after Barb Kline has asked to be replaced this last summer. Sue Hill emphasized that Barb had done a very good job within her position and that the move was made by the Board after she had more recently stated to Sue Hill that she was willing to be replaced prior to the end of her term. In the best interest of the club and how it would function, this was done as of October 1st 2009. The new email address for the Secretary is amdutchclub@aol.com

With Rick Billups moving into a new position, the Board approved the following changes: Rick Lehmann as Vice President to continue through the end of Rick Billup's term in 2012, and Scott Williamson as District 3 Director to continue through the end of Rick Lehmann's term in 2010.

We will also be welcoming new Directors as of December 1st, 2010. Julie Hume from District

2 will be taking Warren Wiltman's position, and Anthony Campbell from District 3 will be taking Jill Pfaff's position.

The Board had discussed a suggestion by two judges in regards to our present way of displaying each of the judges top three picks for the top Dutch at our conventions. The judges felt it took some of the thrill out of waiting for the announcement by seeing placements on the board we use. The Board felt an easy solution to this would be to have the judges continue as we have been doing but have the results posted on the board after the announcement of the winners. The exhibitors will still be able to see the breakdown of how the judges voted but will not know the points given to each animal until the completion of judging.

Rick Lehmann and Troy Ihrke worked together for a successful auction. Everyone involved in the show in both Youth and Open were commended on the great job they did to help the show move as smoothly as it did.

A motion was made to adjourn the meeting by Jill Ihrke. Lisa Wittrock seconded the motion.

Respectfully submitted by Jill Pfaff with notes typed up by Sue Hill

Please remember to check your membership expiration date located on your membership card or DR label.

If your membership is not renewed within 60 days after your expiration date, all Sweepstakes points earned up to that point will be lost.

From Our Convention Judges.....

Youth Judge Tells All 2009 ARBA Convention Youth Show by Dr. Scott A. Williamson

Thank you for allowing me to handle such fine animals in the youth Dutch show. As stated by our President, Sue Hill - "the depth and quality of the youth Dutch, may have surpassed the open." Approximately 177 Dutch were judged in the youth division. The number and quality of the Blacks, Blues and Tortoise Dutch were outstanding. The competition in these classes was rigorous. Chocolates had some exceptional rabbits exhibited, particularly the Chocolate Junior Doe, a lot of potential here. An excellent Steel junior buck won the variety and challenged the Best opposite Dutch. The Steels and Grays both need more numbers as do the Chocolates.

Congratulations to Ms. Eleanor Cumming from Sanger, California who won Best Dutch with an excellent Senior Black Doe that challenged the Holland Lop in the group judged by Mr. Armando Cabrera. The Holland Lop went on to win Best in Show Youth but had to keep looking over its shoulder because the Dutch was hot on its trail. Several people thought that the Dutch could have been taken the honor. She did represent our breed very well in the Best in Show extravaganza. The Black Senior Doe that was Best Dutch also won the fur class.

Taylor Mills from Santa Rosa, California won Best opposite Dutch with a flashy Blue Junior Buck. A Black Junior Buck and Steel Junior Buck were right behind the Blue Buck that took BOSB honors. Congratulations to the Taylor and Blaine Mills for coming out on top in this "dog fight." The Blue Senior Buck class also had an excellent set of Dutch from top to bottom. The Blue Junior Doe also was a competitor for Best of Breed and narrowly missed the award. All the Chocolate Junior Doe needed was time. If my inclination is correct, she will be the one to beat in the future. If I could buy one, it would be her but she did not have the balance and style of the Black Senior Doe. A very deep class of Black Junior Does presented the most challenging class of the day for me to place.

The Tortoise were also outstanding. One of my favorite animals was the Tortoise Senior Buck that won the class but was beat out for BOSV by an excellent junior buck who excelled in color and markings. The Tortoise Junior Doe also pushed the Black Senior Doe for the Best Dutch honors. She was an excellent marked doe with excellent type but needed more finish to appreciate her color. The Senior Tortoise Doe had the best color in her class, maintaining a rich, clean color.

Finally, we all need to congratulate two of our own; Ms. Jessica Cowhurst - 2009 ARBA Queen and Ms. Eleanor Cumming - 2009 ARBA Princess. Way to go ladies! Winning the royalty contest at an ARBA Convention a memory that will last a life time. The first time I competed in the Royalty contest was in 1970 at the ARBA Convention in Syracuse, New York. The ARBA King that year was Bobbie Whitman. Some of you might have known Mr. Bob Whitman from Beaumont, Texas. He was an ARBA Director until the time of his death, this last summer. Thirty-eight years ago, I had the honor of winning ARBA King at the 1971 ARBA Convention in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Wow, was that trip full of memories and isn't that what our hobby is all about - making friends and creating memories both that will last a life time...

Open Dutch Judge

I was asked to write a few words about judging dutch at this convention. We had at least two days of judging with only one judge. It was a formidable task of course. There were quality animals in every class, in every variety. One thing that I noticed was that some of the juniors were much better than senior animals. This is a step in the right direction of course. The first class of black senior bucks was a little un-nerving. I was settling in and getting zoned in as it were to the task at hand. Once there, we were off and running at a good pace.

I want to thank the show people for their generosity in solving paperwork errors in a fast manner, and the carriers for being so on top of things. We didn't stop for anything in two days. One good thing was that I never, not even once looked at an ear number. We used coop numbers, if it wasn't there, the secretary looked in the ear and verified it. Overall the quality is excellent and the animals are so sweet. I had so much fun, and this is truly the only real rabbit!

Regards,

Allan Ormond - Judge #735

Best of Breed

2009 ARBA Convention

by Dr. Scott A. Williamson

What a thrill to once again win one of the top honors our hobby has to offer. Although it has been exactly 20 years since my last Best Dutch at an ARBA Convention, the thrill of such an honor is as new as the first time. Back in 1988, I won Best of Breed with a Blue Senior Doe named "Best Ever." Mr. Glen Carr was the Dutch judge at the '88 ARBA Convention in Madison, Wisconsin. The next year, I believe Mr. Richard Gehr was the convention judge in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The 1989 ARBA Convention Best of Breed was a Black Senior Doe named "Best Yet." Back-to-back wins by SAW Rabbitry, aka Scott A. Williamson.

Fast forward to the 2009 ARBA Convention in San Diego, California; the Best Dutch was a Black Senior Doe named "Doc's Seabreeze," tattoo: SBZ. The entire Dutch entry was judged by the very capable Mr. Allan Ormond from Utah. Mr. Ormond did a very professional job evaluating the entry of Open Dutch. From the reports I heard, Allan did an excellent job of handling, posing and placing each entry. And of course, I would certainly agree with his selection. He chose the Dutch that I had the greatest hope to win at the convention. Doc's Seabreeze had already won 2 Best in Show awards and 1 Reserve in Show honor as a junior doe. I am thankful and humbled by the honor. Seabreeze is a half chocolate doe sired by an excellent Black buck named "Doc's Mickey" - MCK that I sold to John Milroy and his daughter, Melody Stremkowski at the 2009 National Dutch Show in Hutchinson, Kansas. SBZ's litter was the final one that buck sired for me. I hope that he sires some great prospects for John and Melody.

In closing, I would like to congratulate Eric and Sharon Mixdorf from Iowa for winning Best Opposite Dutch. That rabbit made the trip from Iowa in the belly of a charter bus, a 38 hour bus ride. He is an excellent Tortoise Senior Buck and is proof that rabbits can travel long distances and do very well. Also, thank you to all the exhibitors who showed their fine animals and helped make this convention a memorable experience.

Best Opposite Sex

2009 ARBA Convention

by Sharon & Eric Mixdorf

We were lucky enough to win BOS Dutch at the ARBA convention in San Diego. Our tortoise Dutch buck, named "Hawkeye's Head On Collision" was actually 1st place Jr buck at the National Dutch show in Michigan. He was 1st place Sr Buck and BOSV in Kentucky last fall. He hadn't finished molting this spring and he placed 8th in the Sr Buck class, in Hutchinson, KS.

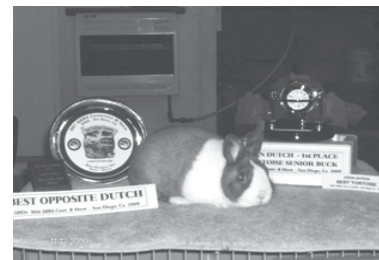

When he was born, he was an only child. There were 2 other torts fostered with him so he wouldn't get splay legged. He peeked out of the nest box and Sharon said "Our next Best in Show." She didn't even know if he was showable then. He never achieved that yet, but did get some points towards it, at a show in Minnesota. They did the judges selection board, like we've used at the past few National shows. He currently has 29 legs and counting. Legs are hard to get with Tortoise Dutch in Iowa, as not too many people are showing them. He was BOB at the Iowa State Convention last year and this year too, with over a hundred shown each year.

We rode to the Convention on a charter bus for 36+ hours. He was one of the few rabbits that kept their condition on the trip. We saw his son and grandkids also did well in the Youth show.

We are looking forward to the National Dutch show in Ohio next spring and will hopefully have some of his kids there to show. Gotta get busy breeding.

Thanks to the California crew for a great convention and congratulations to Jill Ihrke on her Chinchilla Dutch presentation.

Best of Breed

2009 ARBA Convention - by Eleanor Cumming

Greetings Dutch Breeders,
I hope everybody made it home safe from the convention; it is hard to drive or travel home when it is all done. This was my second ARBA convention and I enjoyed it as much as the first one. I worked hard all year breeding, taking care of my rabbits, selecting show rabbits and culling and it all paid off.

Memories of winning Best of Breed in San Diego with Darla will last me a life time. You see, Darla is a daughter of the first Dutch Doe I ever purchased, DCA. Two years ago I purchased DCA and a black buck (DOC) together as my first pair of Dutch rabbits. Darla is also one of the last litters that was born from a very nice buck named WAR and he died in June, so Darla is very special to me.

At the 2009 ARBA Convention I also competed in the youth contests and had a great time. One of the greatest things about our rabbit hobby is the Royalty Contest. It is a great opportunity to test your rabbit knowledge. This year I was honored to win 2009 ARBA Princess. This competition is a lot of work, but the knowledge has helped me gain appreciation for many other breeds; but Dutch are still my favorite!

I would like to say congratulations again to Taylor Mills for her best opposite sex of breed. I would also like to congratulate Taylor Wade for her BOV win with her Steel Buck. That buck is really nice! Congratulations to Dr. Scott Williamson on his Best of Breed and Sharon and Eric Mixdorf for their Best Opposite Sex of Breed in the Open. Congratulations to all the youth and open exhibitors who worked hard on their animals to get them ready for convention.

Thank you to everyone who helped at the Dutch booth it looked awesome. Thank you to Spencer Downey for making the awesome BOV plaques. The ones I won are very special because I know she made them with love for rabbits. I would also like to thank my best friend, Erica Haas for coming all the way out to California. Erica, convention would not have been the same without you and I hope you and Breezy have great luck with Twix!

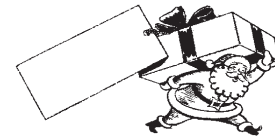

Although the drive home seemed horribly tiring, I was so enthusiastic about Dutch Rabbits when I got home I bred about 10 does! I can't wait till Columbus, Ohio and the National Dutch Show. Hope to see you there and until then, may your nest boxes be full!

Happy Holidays

Best Opposite Sex

2009 ARBA Convention - by Taylor Mills

My Name is Taylor Mills and I am a youth breeder in California and this was my first A.R.B.A. convention. I have been showing and breeding Dutch for less than 1 year. Everything at the convention was so fun and exciting. I have never seen over 13,000 rabbits ever! I was thankful that my brother and I did so well in our main color "Tort", but to win B.O.S. with "Mark Twain" made me really happy. I got him as a young Jr. from Dr. Scott Williamson, I needed a blue buck to start my blue lines with and Dr. Scott is always there to help me. I never thought I would win B.O.S. against all those rabbits. Without all of the help that I have gotten from other "Open" breeders, I am not sure that I would have gotten here so quick. Most of all thank my mom and dad for all the time they spend with me and the rabbits. Thank you to The Dutch Club for all my beautiful awards.

Youth Scholarship Report

At the ARBA convention this fall, we had a camcorder to sell tickets for. I did not get a count on how much was raised. Thanks to Troy, Jill and Aaron Ihrke and the Nelson family for selling the tickets. Our big winners were Jill Pfaff and Matt Gholden. Must have went in on the tickets together. I was hoping I would win and could record the trip home. Congratulations Jill & Matt.

Anyone planning to apply for a scholarship for next year should keep the March 15 deadline in mind. Please read all the qualifications carefully and remember to keep your membership current. The guidelines are on the website and will be printed elsewhere in this issue.

2010 National Dutch Show

Hosted by the
Ohio State Dutch Rabbit Club

April 23-25, 2010

Wilmington, Ohio

The members of the Ohio State Dutch Rabbit Club would like to invite you to the 2010 National Dutch Show. It will be held the last weekend of April at the Robert's Center, just off of I-71 near Wilmington, Ohio. The Roberts Center is a first rate Convention center, with an attached Holiday Inn. The Hotel and Center can be viewed online by searching for the Holiday Inn Roberts Center. The showroom is not only very large, but very nice as well with great lighting, a drive in ramp, loading dock, attached Max & Erma's restaurant and the luxurious hotel. This location also has a Wendy's, McDonalds, Subway and Dairy Queen just outside of the building. Saturday evening's Awards Banquet will be held in a room adjacent to the showroom! This would allow you to arrive at the Center, and not have to leave until Sunday!

We will be ready for anyone who wants to come in on Thursday! The showroom will be open until 11:00 PM. If you are running late, a simple call to let us know you are still on your way will suffice. We will be having several activities again on Friday, including much of the Youth Royalty, Fur Classes, AOV, and the Ladies choice class.

This year, when making your entry, please mark on the sheet if you will be using your own coop cups? If not, we will have the coop cups in the pen for you.

We are looking into some other innovations that would enable us to provide each exhibitor with the show results at the banquet as well! We will again have sale coops available for those animals not entered in the show.

There are several area attractions for those who don't want to spend all three days at the show. The Jeffersonville Outlet mall is only 12 miles north on I-71, while the Kings Island Amusement park is only 25 miles south and will be open on the weekend. There is also the Wright Patterson Air Museum for the history and aviation buffs only 30 minutes northwest.

For those of you flying in, I would suggest the Dayton Int'l Airport. This is only 40 minutes from the showroom, and is very user friendly. The Cincinnati and Columbus airports are also only an hour away. The Dayton Airport currently accommodates Frontier Air. They only charge $125 for shipping of two attached four hole carriers!

Hotel Reservations can be made by calling the Holiday Inn Roberts Center at 937-283-3200. Tell them you are with the National Dutch show for the $92.00 rate.

We know that many of you who skipped this years' ARBA Convention will be anxious to get out and see some great Dutch and your Dutch friends, and we are looking forward to putting on the one of the best Nat'l Dutch shows ever!

Blast From The Past

Copies of the Old Dutch Reporters are being placed on the ADRC website for future generations to read and enjoy. This column will feature selected articles from our history.

This article was published in the June 1956 magazine. I hope you enjoy it as much as I did.

Dutch Breeders!

From the Oldtimer

Did you ever look at the calendar and then---June 15, say, this is the day the old doe is due to kindle; guess I'll look her over. Well old girl, what have you given me this time? That mating to so-and-so's imported buck surely should produce something good. Here chew on this carrot while I look over the litter.

What's this, looks more like an English than a Dutch, maybe I can show it as an English. Well, I guess not, no chain marking, so into the garbage pail you go. Hum, this looks like a self English. Wonder if I bred her to an English buck instead of a Dutch. Solid color you just keep the spotted one company in the can. Now this one looks something like a Dutch. Good belt, good undercut, stops look pretty good, but youngster you will never get past Cy Lowitt with that mouth drag. Maybe you will be a doe and a good breeder so you can stick around for awhile.

WOW! What the dickens have we here! Old Lady you did come across at last. This one sure looks great, but of course, rather small, so guess we will wait awhile and look him over again when the fur comes out. Two more yet. Pretty fair, so you can have four and see that you make a good job of the nursing business.

About the end of June and the club meeting:

Say, fellows, you should see that young Black Dutch I have in the nest at home, out of my good old doe mated to so-and-so's buck. Sure is a knockout. Looks like the best Dutch at our leading Dutch shows this year alright, etc.

July Meeting:

Boys that young buck gets better every time I look him over, etc.

About August 15:

About time to wean the litter from the old doe. Here, you three can go right into this hutch, but young champ, here you can have a nice, roomy hutch all to yourself. Guess I'll look him over again, now that he has some size to him.

Sit right here little man. Don't stretch out like that. Hunch up a little and show your type. There, that's something to look at. Don't be scared, you are not going to be hurt. Now let's see what you look like. Some type, and look at the head on him. Wouldn't Jimmie Blyth fall for that broad stubby head and cobby type? You should satisfy any judge for type. Some saddle. Let's see the undercut. Boy just a straight line behind the front legs where it belongs. Any leg drags? None on the right, none on the left. Clean as a whistle, you could tie a string around this one's belt and undercut.

While you are up, let's look at your stops. Gee, I wish Bayliss could see these. Look at them. Just painted right around the middle. Wait a minute, they have an undercut also, and Bayliss cuts like the devil on that point. Yes, the right one is perfect, you might call that a slight wave on the left one underneath, but they suit me. There is the finest pair of stops I ever saw.

Now sit up again, and let's see your headpiece. You know the judges like a pretty face on the Dutch as well as on the show secretary. Some cheeks, well-balanced, nicely rounded and right to the whisker bed. Yes, you might call that a slight nick on the bottom of the left cheek but it is not much of a cut. Tom Shufflebotham will never find any mouth or chin drags on you. Blaze great ---maybe Blyth will think it a little blunt, but it goes right through to a fine pencil line to the neck. Hum, why the deuce couldn't you have a clean neck to go with the rest of your face, no one likes a dirty neck either in rabbits nor humans. Well you won't be cut much for that little drag, if you really want to call it that.

Pretty boy, how about your ears? Now there is a pair of ears that will never be mistaken for those of a mule. Never will be over 3 1/2 inches or I will miss my guess, and not a white hair in them. Speaking of white hairs, how about you little fellow, let's look.

None on your back, none on your stomach, none around the base of your tail; let Jimmie or Jerry pull your tail out all they want. No spot or white hairs there.

Now sit there nice and let me walk around you and admire a really good Dutch, the best in the country. Boy, look at that type. Look at the lustrous black sheen. Look that head over, and look at that-----WAIT A MINUTE. What the --- - --- ---? Open your eye youngster! Quick! Well I'll be -----! If the blankety blank hasn't got a spot in his eye.

If you have a question you wish to pose for either the “Ask the Judge” or “Ask the Breeder” columns, just e-mail or mail your question to me. These columns are an avenue where you can ask questions and advise from the professionals in our organization. For the judge’s column, you may ask questions such as judging criteria, presentation on the show table, what it takes to become a judge, and proper etiquette as a few examples. For the breeder’s column, questions can range from feeding, conditioning, breeding techniques, rabbit care, how to improve your herd, anything that people who have been breeding Dutch rabbits for many years might have suggestions on. If you would like to participate on the panels, just drop me an e-mail and I will add your name to our groups. The questions will be e-mailed and each participant has the option to answer or not. This is the chance to get a lot of viewpoints from across the country!

ASK THE JUDGE

I have seen a wide variety of eye color in blues and chocolates, what do you consider too light?

From Kevin Hooper:

I consider anything too light if it is very noticeable. In chocs, any eye that appears khaki is too light. Not only should these be DQ’ed, but they should be culled out by the breeders. If we, as judges, do not DQ, or severely fault them for this, then those who have these light eyes will have success and will raise more, thus perpetuating the problem. Our standard calls for a DARK Brown eye. Ever wonder why they wrote the early Dutch Standard requiring a dark brown eye, instead of just brown? Maybe they knew something back then that we don’t. I suggest culling early and often!

As for the blue, our standard calls for a blue-gray eye. Thus anything that is bright blue is very noticeable and should be DQ’ed. These eyes are often referred to a “China Blue” eyes.

ASK THE BREEDER

We have a black senior buck, registered and granded. At 2 years, his eyes began to lighten and are now too light to show (they are a DQ). We have bred him several times and have had no issues with his offspring. Our question is this: do we continue to breed him or should we cull him?

From Fran Schettler:

While I’ve never experienced such a lightening of eye color this dramatic, the point I would make is that there have been no problems with his offspring YET. It took 2 years for him to show the issue, the offspring may yet show the same issue. I would definitely be concerned. When in doubt on something like this, I’d cull him and continually monitor all offspring closely for eye color. I’d even considering culling the offspring lest it get bred into succeeding generations during the 2 year interval.

From Kevin Hooper:

Many of my answers to the “Ask the Breeder” questions all start out with it depends! This question is no different. The scenario presented makes me want to know why his eyes did this, and how old are the offspring out of this buck? Have the offspring been kept long enough - two years - to know if this trait is passing to the next generation?

The other consideration here is how well is he producing? If he is producing many good ones, yet none of them are showing the eye issues, then you might keep him.

Now, if you are thinking long term, what you must ask yourself is, if this does pass on, and I won’t know until they offspring are two years old, then I will have already used these offspring for breeding. Then this trait is in your herd in multiple animals and thus it is much harder to eliminate.

This relates to how a friend of mine is approaching the development of his Dutch. He has kept the best bodied does, all blacks, regardless of markings. He is now culling out any doe who does not raise her first litter. Now, this might be hard for some of us to do, but let’s think about what he will have in the long term? He will have all with great type - it is already very good - and nearly every doe will start producing bunnies in her first litter! This is long term thinking. Sacrifice success now, so that you can succeed in the long term!

So, the best option is too cull that buck, and plan for the long term.

We would like to see more suggestions, opinions, and views for our breeder's and judge's questions. Therefore, the questions for the upcoming issue are listed below. We welcome any of the members of the American Dutch Rabbit Club to submit an answer to the breeder's question and any judge to submit an answer to the judge's question. Breeder's question: Sometimes when I wean babies they get diarrhea. Do you have suggestions on the least stressful way and best age to wean babies?

Judge's question: In recent months I have seen Dutch placed that are chocolate torts, steels with ring color, and grays without ring color. Do you have any suggestions on how to improve the knowledge of judges who consistently place animals that should be disqualified according to the Standard of Perfection?

Midwest Fall Classic Show October 10th 2009

Last year at the 2008 ARBA Convention, many of us Midwest Dutch members were lamenting that we would miss getting together for the 2009 ARBA Convention. An idea took root in my mind, why not have a Midwest regional Dutch show, where we could gather together to enjoy great friendships and competition? With the encouragement of the Michigan Dutch Club Board of Directors and Ohio members Dennis & Barb Kline and Phil and Sara Lape, this idea took life. We knew that the competition would have better attendance in Ohio and we found the best site to be the fairgrounds in Van Wert. This offered low cost rental, all the show equipment, and even free cooping for those coming the day before. The news about the show met with enthusiasm and interest across the Midwest.

October-November-December 2009

Set up Friday night went like a charm due to the leadership and expertise of Phil and Sara Lape. Saturday morning started out with free coffee, danish, and baked goods provided by Janet Bowers and Brenda Reau as everyone completed their entries. The shows started promptly at 9:00 with three tables of open judging by Glen Carr, Terry Fender, and Mark Stewardson and one table for youth judged by Bill Patrick. BOB for youth was Alexa Demland with a black senior doe and BOS was Alexandra Reau with a blue senior buck. When youth judging finished, Bill Patrick did a variety for open, meaning that the exhibitors were keeping track of animals on four tables. Due to the terrific camaraderie of the Dutch members, everyone was helping place rabbits on the table and taking them off for their fellow exhibitors as this was a carrier show unlike what we have at Nationals. Surprising there were few delays due to missing rabbits. In Show A open had 302 entries and youth had 62.

With a break for lunch and filling up with free ice cream provided by Herb Six, Show B was on the way with 279 open and youth holding at 62. Mark Stewardson judged youth, leaving Bill Patrick, Terry Fender, and Glenn Carr handling open. In youth, BOB (black senior buck) and BOS (black senior doe) was won by Alexa Demland. Best of breed for both open shows was held after the two shows, with Terry Fender judging show A open and Glenn Carr judging show B open. Show A BOB (black junior doe) and BOS (black junior buck) was won by Kristy Hume. Show B BOB (black senior doe) and BOS (black junior buck) was won by Kevin Hooper. Exhibitors were able to pack up and head for home about 4:00, giving everyone a chance to travel at a decent time (except maybe our Wisconsin and West Virginia exhibitors).

Thank you exhibitors, judges, and the hard workers of the Michigan Dutch Club for a terrific show! And special thanks to Phil and Sara Lape for hosting the show at their local fairgrounds and participating in set up and tear down.

Respectfully submitted,

Julie Hume

Hello everyone,

By the time you read this the ARBA Convention will be over. I heard the California people put on a great show, and I am sorry I had to miss it. I hope everyone had a good time and congratulations to all the winners. The weather sounded awesome.

I heard from Erica Haas from Illinois that she went to Convention and had a great time. She did quite well having quite a few of her Dutch bunnies in the top 10. She actually flew her bunnies to California for the first time using Delta and they did good with no problems and the airlines were very courteous and helpful.

Now it is time to make sure you have your breeding done or on the way for Dutch Nationals which is being held in Ohio next year. This will also be a great show and should be well attended.

Dutch Rule!

You Can't Beat The Dutch

A Note of Concern from your Sanction & Sweepstakes Department

by Norma Hart

I'd like to take a few minutes to respond to an article that appears within this issue of the DR from one of our ADRC Directors. Fortunately, with us doing the sanctions and sweepstakes here, along with Dick handling the DR editor's position, I'm always able to get a sneak preview of what the current issue contains before the rest of the membership. "Yeah"!!

Dick and I had planned on writing a short article for publication in order to make the membership more aware of the sanctions and sweepstakes issued and recorded here, along with the Dutch Reporter and the reason for the normal amount of pages usually included in an issue, but after reading Dan's article submitted for this DR, we took the opportunity to respond right here.

Article II of the ADRC Constitution is the club's "OBJECT" and currently states the following: "The object of this club shall be to promote, encourage, and improve the breeding of Dutch rabbits by maintaining an organization to study standards, encourage exhibitions, and offer service to its members". I don't know how much (good) service we're offering our members, or how many exhibitions we're encouraging if we don't first take the time to consider whether or not what we say about our club is actual fact, or the manner in which we say it is going to encourage anything. I thought the whole idea was to encourage new and renewal members, competitive breeding and showing, productivity, and most of all ....promote camaraderie among all.

In Dan's article, it appears that at least three positions within the ADRC are taking a few hits, and in my opinion, none of the three are deserving. I really feel that Dan should have put a little more thought into his statements before offering them in print.

As for the ADRC Secretary/Treasurer position, I totally agree that Barb came into this when the ADRC was in some turmoil and she did a fantastic job in putting the club back on the right track. However, I'd like to think that several, if not all of the board members, all worked together to make this happen. Yes, Barb was indeed the major factor, and I too extend a most sincere thank you to her for all her hard work. As to any mention with regard to how Dan knows that "not everyone can get along and sometimes it's easier to leave a situation to eliminate the stress", I really don't think I should even have to state that this should not have ever appeared in print. A statement such as this can only leave the membership in question wondering just what did happen. I'm aware that there are several copies of correspondence that led up to what was a mutual agreement regarding Barb stepping down and a new ADRC Secretary/Treasurer named, so please. let's not let our members think that there was anymore to what took place than actually was. As for it being hard to find anyone who does a better job....I don't think there was anyone looking for someone who could do a better job! I was under the assumption that the idea was to place someone in that position who was reliable, competent, and knew the ADRC and how it works, and I sincerely believe that was done!

As for the sweepstakes, one of my areas, have you not been listening to why all of the information you've stated hasn't appeared in the show reports listed in the DR? The DR requires pages in multiples of 8 or 16, and with all of the other material that must appear within the DR issue, the cost could easily extend publication expense and postage expense if the pages exceed the norm. There is an alternative, and that would be to cut out some of the articles or other information in order to accommodate the complete show report printing. Let me assure everyone that it's not extra work to put them in the DR that way since ALL of that same information must be entered into the program here for every show report that arrives regardless, it's the cost to the ADRC for the larger issues being printed, and the heavier weight of the magazine when postage is applied.

On another note, since it appears that you're wanting the membership to take note that the sweepstakes person received a raise, I want to also point out that didn't see anywhere within Dan's message where it noted that sanction request forms are printed here on our machines, using our ink toner, and with paper purchased directly by us, nor did I see where it noted that ADRC report forms that have to be mailed out are also printed off in the same manner using our machines, our ink toner, and our paper. We provide all of the envelopes (plain and window) for the sanctions, all the paper used, all the printer ink toner used, and we also pay for all of the postage required to send out sanctions that cannot be emailed. Any necessary phone calls made to the membership or to a show secretary are also done at our expense. Other than the agreed upon sweepstake and sanction pay, the only other reimbursement that is requested (and always paid for) is the $ 5.65 USPS Priority Mail with delivery confirmation that is used to send to the ADRC Secretary a list of all of the sanctions processed and the checks that coincide with them, plus all of the show reports processed for that time period. As an additional note, all of the checks are pre-stamped with a deposit only to the ADRC account so that should a mailing ever be lost within the USPS, the checks cannot be cashed.

by Dick Gehr

I would like to also take this opportunity to tell the membership that I have received emails too numerous to mention that I am very proud of. 99% of our membership are the easiest and most pleasant people to work with, and when you start receiving emails just to let you know that your appreciated, you really feel as though you're doing your job. I'd certainly like to list some of those individuals, but in doing so, I would be leaving out so very many who deserve equal thanks. With that said, you know who you are, and you too are very much appreciated.

As for the DR, unless you yourself have put together a magazine like this that's totally "ready for print", you can't have full concept of just what it takes. This is a time consuming job, and one that I can personally tell you is done with a whole lot of concern, care, and love for the club and the breed.

I'm sure that there are plenty of times we've all had our 'beefs' either with another or in regard to something we may not agree with, but in all fairness, if we're going to tell a story or pass on information that's already been passed from mouth, to mouth, to mouth, why not take the extra steps to make sure you have all the facts..... then, and 'only if you still feel the necessity', tell the story.

I assure you, we do our best here, and we always appreciate hearing your concerns or taking your questions. It's really nice to know that when there may be a concern or question that most of our members take the time to ask. We'll always do our utmost to give you an answer, and we're definitely prompt responders!

May you and yours enjoy a safe, warm, and beautiful holiday season.

There is a lot of good information in this issue of the DR. It has quite a bit of material from the ARBA Convention held in San Diego, which includes minutes from the ADRC Board Meeting, ADRC General Meeting, comments within some of the Board Members reports, listings of winners in both Open and Youth, lots of pics, and much more.

The 2010 NDS is also outlined quite well with a number of items pertaining to that event.

We have our normal topics, such as Officers and Directors reports, financial report, new members, expiring members, sweepstakes information, along with the show reports and upcoming shows.

There is also some information contained within one Director's article on which I would like to comment. Director Schwandt has made a couple of statements which I feel have been made on emotion rather than logic.

Having been a member of the ADRC for more than 35 years, I have been rather active within the club for most of those years. I have been a Director of the ADRC on more than one occasion, and for a total of quite a few years. I acted in the capacity of DR Editor along with Norma Hart back when she was the Secretary-Treasurer of the club. I also acted as Sweepstakes Chair at the same time. I have sat on a number of committees throughout my years in the club, presently occupy the position of DR Editor again, and work very closely with Norma in her current duties as the Sanction/Sweepstakes Chair.

Norma and I have both been staunch supporters of the ADRC for a combined total of nearly 70 years, and Norma was one of the first people inducted into the ADRC Hall of Fame in 1996.

Geez....why is he going on and on about this, you may ask? My reason is to simply make it known that we (Norma and I) have had the best interest of the ADRC at heart for a much longer time than many of those reading these pages have been members.

With that said, I would now like to address Dan's comments.

Nobody would disagree with Dan that Barb Kline did a very good job as Secretary-Treasurer when she took over that position. Indeed the club was going through a period which required a little rebuilding, and Barb contributed greatly to that cause. A number of other people also made contributions which helped the club. However, Dan's comments imply that Barb was under a lot of stress caused by members (or someone) not getting along, and that is what prompted her to leave office. I feel this is an unfair statement and grossly misrepresents the actions and intentions of club members and the ADRC Board

Dan's next statement that concerns me is as follows: "This was back when the sweepstakes person was in need of a raise in pay and now we are told it costs too much to print all the BOV winners." Dan is eluding to the BOV winners and additional information being printed for each and every show report in the DR. Reference his Director article for his exact words.

First, I take great offense with this comment, as it implies that at one time a ploy was made by the Sweepstakes Chairperson to precipitate an increase in the fee received for doing the job. I must say that this statement shows a lack of integrity and understanding.

Dan fails to mention that years ago this information was always printed in the DR. However, at that time the show reports were all done by hand, and sanctioned shows equalled about 1/2 as many as we have sanctioned today. The DR also contained much less information, materials, sweepstakes standings, etc. At that time, the DR was also printed using the club's mimeograph machine on copier paper, which was simply stapled together on one side.

Today's DR is printed professionally, with state of the art equipment which requires sections of pages in multiples of 8 or 16. With the increased fees for printing and postage, every effort has been made to hold down costs for the ADRC to what is a feasible amount being spent on the DR. It would be very poor business for the club to be spending more money on the DR than can be afforded per the membership fees. A recent switch in printers was made to try and assist the club in reducing the printing costs while maintaining a quality publication. By trying to hold the number of pages to a reasonable amount, some items were omitted from the show reports (BOV winners), UNLESS there was unfilled space that would permit the printing of "additional" items in the show reports. It is realized that some people like seeing their name in print for winning a BOV. I am sure those winning BOSV would like to see their names also, and probably anyone placing within the top 5 in a class would too. However, logic and sensibility must prevail.

I had plans to once again include the BOV winners in the show reports until the Board had time to make a final decision on whether to continually print them or whether they should be omitted. However, rather than write to someone directly and ask if it was possible to do this, Dan chose to address the topic with a negative tone, and implicate the matter worse by implying the Sweepstakes Chair did it at one time when they were "in need" of a raise. (If only Dan and the entire membership knew the complexity and time involved to enter the show reports into the sweepstakes program in order to have all of the necessary data to compile the sweepstakes contests as is presently done).

Those that are computer savvy are aware that computer programs won't just do or produce anything that one can dream up. They have to be intricately written to do specific tasks, and the more that is desired or added, the more involved it becomes. A number of modifications have been made to our present sweepstakes program at no cost to the ADRC, in order to supply the additional sweepstakes contests that are currently in force.

My final comments will be on Dan's statement: "The same people who want to make the DR smaller want to take that money we save and spend it on putting some pages in color."

First, if anyone will compare the print area of the "smaller" version of the DR to that which was in use prior to the last issue, you will see that less than 1 inch in both height and width of the print area, is all that it was reduced. Do you honestly feel that the last issue of the DR was to "SMALL"? Dan's statement implies that the magazine has much less space and pages than before.

There has never been an effort to lessen the quality or quantity of the publication. As Editor, my concerns were keeping the DR within a reasonable financial status, while affording the membership the best possible publication....the best bang for the buck, if you will.

As you will see, the BOV winners are indeed included in the show reports of this issue, as was the plan before receiving Dan's Director's article. I had indeed written to the Board when this topic was first brought up, and my reasoning for them being omitted was forwarded to all officers. Each one knew my reasons and opinion for not printing the BOV winners in recent issues. However, it appears easier for some to make negative statements in an effort to "stir the pot" or just make noise, rather than make a request that they be printed until the Board can make an official determination, and continue without controversy.

Perhaps this is what Dan was referring to when he said "I know that not everyone can get along". Maybe the thing to do is TRY to get along first, rather than write about not being able to do so.

By the way, would it really be so bad to spend some of the savings we may realize by the smaller format on some color for the magazine? Not only could we have the full color covers (like last issue), but we could also have some color pages inside of the magazine to enhance the photos from the ARBA Convention or NDS.

From the Sweepstakes Chair

By the time some of the members are receiving this issue of their Dutch Reporter, we'll be pretty close to singing Auld Lange Sine-. This means that 2009 is coming to a close, while 2010 is just a hop skip away. It also means that although the ADRC (new) sanction fee rates have been in existence for an entire year, I continue to receive many sanction requests with the 'OLD' $9 and $6 sanction fees included. There is quite a bit of time taken in attempting to contact the club to let them know that in order to process their sanction, additional fees must be sent. I would originally send an email (when one was available on the request), but after several emails being returned to me as either undeliverable or unknown user, I decided that the best route to take was to return the original request and check to the sender with a 'form letter' noting the current rates, and the need to return the request with the correct fees ASAP.

In some cases, I was informed that the return of the original request was never received by the sender, with this most usually being conveyed after the show was already held, and the show's report already sent in. When there is no sanction listed in the file as ever being issued for the club show report submitted, the problem begins.

This often appears to be a no win situation. I unfortunately have no control over the US Postal System, and it's apparent that not everything that gets sent out gets delivered. However, in order to help alleviate this problem, those responsible for obtaining the club's sanctions need to check the club website (www.dutchrabbit.com) or the ARBA website (www.arba.net) in order to obtain all of the information they need before submitting their request.

In some cases, if the correct fees and/or proper information isn't originally submitted and has to be returned, if the completed request and accurate fees aren't then returned with a postmark date prior to the show date, the show will unfortunately not be able to carry an ADRC sanction.

Please, .....won't you help pass this information on to any club that you're personally involved in so as to ensure that ADRC sanctions for the show can be issued?

The ARBA website lists ALL of the National Specialty Clubs along with all of the current information for each.....why not take a minute to print this section off before sending for any breed sanction request. And, since information does change, be sure to wait and print it off just before handling this area of the show. 'My sincere thanks to all'.

May the spirit of the season fill your heart with warmth, laughter, and lots of love.

Norma

Thanks, Dan & Theresa

by Sharon & Eric Mixdorf

This article is long overdue and we owe it to Dan & Theresa Schwandt. We had BOS at the National Dutch show in Hutchinson, KS with a Steel sr buck "Schwandt's Daniel Steel".

Eric spotted him at the National Dutch show in Bloomington, Illinois, while helping load rabbits to take to the judging table. There was a for sale sign on his cage, so he quickly paid for him before he took first place. He ended up BOSV.

In Kentucky he was the 1st place Sr Buck, but got beaten by the jr buck. He started to molt last fall then quit and held a partially finished coat all winter. He finished molting this spring in time to look really good for the National Dutch show.

After his class was judged, whoever carried him back to the cage said "You might want to check his toenail, I think it's broken." He did have a bleeding nail, but it was just cracked and not missing. It had stopped bleeding by the time they went up for BOVs.

So if you are wondering how to produce a winner, just ask the Schwandts. Thanks guys, he has a great personality too.

RAISING RABBITS IN THE WINTER

by Pat Vanecek

You need to extend daylight hours. Rabbits naturally breed in the spring when the days start getting longer. In the winter, you have to fool them into thinking it's still springtime. My lights come on at 6 am and shut off at 10 p.m. If you have them outside you can hang a light and put it on a timer so that it comes on at dusk and turns off at 10 p.m.

I use a wood nest box with a wire bottom. To get the nestbox ready, first I put a piece of cardboard in the bottom (to keep the shavings from falling out and keep the cold air from coming in). Then I put in 2 inches of pine shavings. Then I fill the rest of the box up with hay. I check the nestbox everyday to see if I need to add more shavings or hay.

Rabbits can tolerate pretty cold temperatures but those little ones can't. Once the bunnies are born. I check the nestbox and then I remove it from the does cage (I write the does name on the front of the nestbox) and put it in the nursery. I have a room that I have shelves on and we have insulated and heated. I put the nestboxes in there and cover them with a piece of 1/2 inch by 1 inch wire (to keep the babies from escaping). I put the nestboxes back with the does at 8 am. I leave them in and let the does nurse for about 15 minutes. The does have all hopped out by then and I remove the nestboxes and put them back in the nursery. Depending on the temperatures, I will continue to do this until the bunnies are 3-4 weeks old. Of course, I check the nestbox and if it gets too messy inside, I put in fresh shavings and hay.

To help keep my barns tolerable in the cold weather, I have removable doors that go back up when it gets really cold. Rabbits can tolerate down to 0 degrees. The biggest problem with temperatures below freezing is the water freezes. Rabbits will not eat if they don't have water. They might lick on frozen water but they aren't going to be able to get enough water that way. When we know it is going to get below freezing, we drain our Edstrom water system. The next day if the temperatures go above freezing we turn the water system back on. If it isn't getting above freezing we have to put out crocks. I don't have 215 crocks (I have 215 cages). So, we put the crocks (filled with warm-not hot water) in two rows of cages. We allow the rabbits to drink for 15 minutes and then move onto the next two rows. We put out water in the crocks 3 times a day--Morning, Noon and Night. I know this is a lot of work but we don't get that many freezing days in a year. Maybe 2 or 3. For people that have a lot of freezing days, I would suggest heat tape around the water lines or now they have a new system that heats the water in the bucket and keeps it circulating.

I also have about 25 cages outside. They have a roof over them. Some of these cages have backs, some don't. In freezing weather, I put a nestbox (filled with hay) in some of these cages. If I have rabbits in these that are over 4 months, usually they can tolerate the cold no problem. These cages are about 5 feet from a building so they don't get much wind blowing on them. They are also under trees so that's added protection.

When the temperatures drop, I also increase rabbit pellets slightly. Plus, I start feeding a conditioning mix (2/3 crimped oats, 1/3 crimped barley plus a few black sunflower seeds) in the fall. Rabbits need some extra calories to help maintain their body temperature.

Hope this information can help you. My philosophy--You're no-bunny till some-bunny loves you.

Breeding Older Does

by Sherita Tabner

Increased exposure to strong light.....give the doe at least 16 hours of light a day. The closer the light is to natural sunlight, the better. I don't use lights 24 hours a day....remember, rabbits are nocturnal creatures by nature.

Add apple cider vinegar to the water.....add 2 tablespoons to a gallon of water; offer this as the only water source. This is a constant in my barn.....it is in the water all the time. And it does work.....I have a 98% conception rate in my barn and a 95% live litter rate.....and I have over 150 working does, so it is a fairly impressive number if you ask me. You usually see the greatest effect from this about 4 weeks after beginning treatment. There is a side benefit to this.....I have noticed that the does treated with it seem to have larger litters, and all the animals (bucks & does, nursing or not) that receive it have the most wonderful coats I have ever seen.....even in the worst of the Texas summer. And, if you use this.....you can always add it to water at a show....in order to "cover up" the smell or taste of the strange water from the show barn.

Put her on a diet.....give her only half of what she normally gets for 10 days.....give her lots of grass hay (timothy, coastal, prairie.....no alfalfa) to fill the void. Then try her with the buck. The object here is to get her thin (not to the point of death, but very thin)...I know it sounds bad, but I have used this method many times. My theory is that the doe has internal fat built up, and it is interfering with ovulation. I have posted several older non breeding does, and have found an extraordinary amount of fat in the internal body cavities, and the fat seems to be clustered around the ovaries more so than anywhere else in the cavity. I have also posted older does that bred until the very end, and they lacked these fat deposits.

Run her with the buck.....if you have a fairly gentle doe and buck....run them together for as long as it takes to get her bred. This method only works if you can palpate. I usually check the doe every week, and I have yet to have a doe that didn't get pregnant using this method. Be aware that the doe will look pretty scruffy if you do this.....for some reason, bucks like to pull out their hair. Rabbit courtship is STRANGE! LOL

Wheat germ oil....give the doe several drops of wheat germ oil on her feed every day.

Breed her often.....if the doe is raising, but not conceiving.....breed her to the buck as many times as you can over the course of 6-8 hours (I have bred a doe as often as every 15 minutes, aggravating, but it usually works). Rabbits are induced ovulators, and the continual breeding gives you a better chance of success.....if you get enough sperm into the doe.....there is a good chance that a few will make it through. Usually, my bucks cannot hold up to this, so I use several on her during the day.....of course, if you can get her bred.....the litter won't be any good (you won't know who the father is)....but after you get the first litter, she will be much easier to breed the next time around. Another thing.....I use younger bucks when using this method.....IMO some older bucks seem to suffer from a lower sperm count, and if the doe is hard to get going, you don't want to take any chances.

Try her with a buck from a slightly larger breed.....i.e. dwarf doe x mini rex buck. I don't know why this works, but it does. Really good with the doe that won't raise. IMO, I think the heavier buck stimulates her to raise. I have seen dwarf does that won't raise for a small dwarf buck, but easily raise for a larger one. I have also seen the same phenomena in the other five breeds that I raise.

Give her parsley.....I have had limited success with this, but you can try it. Give the doe one spring of parsley daily for a week, then try to breed her.

Change locations.....if you have a friend who is a breeder, try sending her there. Sometimes all they need is a change in location.

Never overfeed.....a fat doe is very difficult to breed, and a fat buck doesn't have the stamina to get the job done.

Allow the temperature in the housing area to come up.....sometimes a "warm spell" really kicks them in the rear (so to speak). It stands to reason.....in the wild, rabbits are seasonal breeders (spring/summer), it seems that some of our domestics have retained a minute trace of this.....Belgian Hares are noted for being easiest to breed in the spring/summer months. I have found that a raise to 75 degrees for several days really does the trick. Works for my other breeds too.

Here are a few other things to consider if the doe won't raise for the buck:

Take her to a show..... this always seem to put my does in the "mood". I don't know why, but this REALLY works. Just ask any judge who has handled my open does.....hard to pose a dwarf that has her rear up in the air. LOL

House the doe between two bucks..... I think the close proximity of the boys gets the does going. Maybe it is the smell, visual contact, or both.

Try forced breeding.....hold the doe in position and let the buck breed her. Many times she will raise on her own for a repeat breeding after being force bred.

Cage Cleaning

by Emily Popp

Cage cleaning is an important duty, especially when raising rabbits for show. Urine stains take away from the appearance of the coat, and ammonia fumes can harm the rabbit's respiratory system.

Your rabbit's cage should be cleaned at least once a week, more if needed. If the cage has a tray, always make sure there are no droppings coming up through the wire. These can stain the rabbit's fur, attract flies and give the maggots easy access to the rabbit's body, and could also cause problems if ingested. It should be noted that it is normal for a rabbit to eat its soft night droppings (these look similar to a little cluster of grapes). This is the animal's way of acquiring the vitamins and minerals its digestive system didn't process the first time around.

A good liner for a cage's pan is newspaper. It is easy to find, but if you don't subscribe to any newspapers, your neighbors, friends, or relatives might have some they can spare. Cedar and pine chips aren't recommended because they have been known to cause respiratory problems over time.

When lining the tray with newspaper, add more than just one one sheet. Layer more paper in the corners and where you know your rabbit likes to go to the bathroom, for extra absorbency.

When it's time to dump the contents of the pan, you can do so in a garden or flowerbed. Rabbit manure is excellent fertilizer, especially for roses! The paper should be picked up or buried, and not left laying on the ground, which is unsightly. A good way I've found to pick up soiled paper without even touching it is to find a sturdy stick with a sharp end. All you have to do is skewer the wet part of the paper and toss it into a garbage bag, or wherever else you have designated to put it. It's as simple as that! Before cleaning with vinegar... ..and after Rabbit urine contains large amounts of the mineral calcium carbonate. It builds up in the corners of the pan and on the floor wire, causing unsightly white deposits. These can easily be removed by scrubbing them with plain vinegar. It is a mild acid and will break down the deposits easily.

If your rabbit has a nest box or other hideaway, it's important to clean this too. Dispose of all wet or otherwise unfit bedding materials, and replace them with fresh. During the winter months it is important to give your rabbit plenty of straw or other form of bedding to insulate and help keep the rabbit warm.

Why not keep your rabbit's cage clean? There's really nothing to it, and you'll be doing both yourself and your pet a big favor.
